pie, loosen them? Nay: thus, and delivered Iesus when he had scourged him, that he might be crucified.

16 Then the souldiers led him away into the hall, which is the ‖ common hall, and called together the whole band.

17 And clad him with purple, and platted a crowne of thornes, and put it about his head.

18 And began to salute him, saying, Haile, King of the Iewes.

19 And they smote him on the head with a reede, and spat upon him, and bowed the knees, and did him reuerence.

20 And when they had mocked him, they tooke the purple off him, and put his owne clothes on him, and led him out to crucifie him.

21 * And they * compelled one that passed by, called Simon of Cyrene (which came out of the country, and was father of Alexander and Rufus) to beare his crosse.

22 * And they brought him to a place named Golgotha, which is by interpretation, the place of dead mens skulles.

23 And they gaue him to drink wine mingled (with myrhe: but he receiued it not.

24 And when they had crucified him, they parted his garments, casting lots for them, what euery man should haue.

25 And it was the ‖ third houre, when they crucified him.

26 And the title of his cause was written aboue, THE KING OF THE IEWES.

27 They crucified also with him two theeues, the one on the right hand, and the other on his left.

28 * And the Scripture was fulfilled, which saith, * And he was counted among the wicked.

29 And they that went by railed on him, wagging their heads, and saying, * Hey, thou that destroyest the Temple, and buildest it in three dayes, 30 Saue thy selfe, and come downe from the crosse.

31 Likewise also euen the high Priestes mocking, said among themselues with the Scribes, He saued other men, himselfe hee cannot saue.

32 Let Christ the King of Israel now come downe from the crosse, that we may see, and beleeue. * They also that were crucified with him, reuiled him.

33 ¶ Now when the first houre was come, darkenesse arose ouer all the land vntill the ninth houre.

34 And at the ‖ ninth houre Iesus cryed with a loude voyce, saying, * Eloi, Eloi, lamma-sabachthani? which is by interpretation, My God, my God, why hast thou forsaken me?

35 And some of them that stood by when they heard it, sayde, * Beholde, he calleth Elias.

36 And one ran, and filled * a sponge full of vinegre, and put it vpon a reede, & gaue him to drinke, saying, * Let him alone; let vs see if Elias will come and take him downe.

37 And Iesus cryed with a loude voyce, and gaue vp the ghost.

38 ¶ And the vaile of the Temple was rent in twaine, from the top to the bottome.

39 Now when the * Centurion, which stood ouer against him, saw that he rent out so cryed the ghost, he said, * Truely this man was the sonne of God.

40 ¶ There were also women, which beheld a farre off, among whom was * Marie Magdalene, & Marie the mother of * James the lesse, and of Ioses, and Salome, 41 (Which also when hee was in Galile, * followed him, and ministred vnto him, and many other women which came vp with him vnto Ierusalem.

42 ¶ And now when night was come, (because it was the day of the preparation, that is, the eue of the Sabbath)

43 Ioseph of Arimathea, an * honourable Counsellour, which also looked for the kingdome of God, came, and went in * boldly vnto Pilate, and asked the body of Iesus.

44 And Pilate marueiled if he were already dead, and called vnto him the Centurion, and asked whether hee had been any while dead.

45 And when hee knewe the truth of the Centurion, he gaue the body to Ioseph.

21 Now the people waited for Zacharias, and marvelled that he tarried so long in the Temple.

22 And when he came out, he could not speak unto them: then they perceived that he had seene a vision in the Temple: for he made signes unto them, and remayned dumme.

23 And it came to passe, when the dayes of his office were fulfilled, that he departed to his owne house.

24 And after those dayes his wife Elisabet conceived, & hid her selfe five monethes, saying, 25 Thus hath the Lord dealt with me, in the dayes wherein he looked on me, to take from me my rebuke among men.

26 ¶ And in the first moneth, the Angel Gabriel was sent from God unto a citie of Galile, named Nazaret, 27 To a virgin affianced to a man whose name was Ioseph, of the house of Dauid, and the virgins name was Mary.

28 And the Angel went in unto her, and sayde, Haile thou that are freely beloued: the Lord is with thee: blessed art thou among women.

29 And when he sawe him, he was troubled at his saying, and thought what manner of salutation that should be.

30 Then the Angel said vnto her, Feare not, Marie: for thou hast found favour with God.

31 For loe, thou shalt conceiue in thy wombe, and beare a sonne, and shalt call his name IESVS.

32 He shall be great, and shall be called the sonne of the most high: and the Lorde God shall giue him the throne of his father Dauid.

33 And he shall raigne over the house of Iacob for euer, and of his kingdome shall be none ende.

34 Then said Marie vnto the Angel, How shall this be, seeing I know not a man?

35 And the Angell answered, and sayde vnto her, The holy Ghost shall come vpon thee, and the power of the most high shall ouershadow thee: therefore also that holy thing which shall be borne of thee, shall be called the sonne of God.

36 And beholde, thy cousin Elisabet, she hath also conceiued a sonne in her olde age: & this is her sixt moneth, which was called barren.

37 For with God shall nothing be vnpossible.

38 Then Marie said, Beholde the seruant of the Lord: be it vnto me according to thy worde. So the Angel departed from her.

39 ¶ And Marie arose in those dayes and went into the hill country with speede to a citie of Iuda, 40 And entred into the house of Zacharias and saluted Elisabet.

41 And it came to passe, as Elisabet heard the salutation of Marie, the babe leaped in her belly, and Elisabet was filled with the holy Ghost.

42 And she cryed with a loud voyce, and sayde, Blessed art thou among women, & blessed is the fruite of thy wombe.

43 And whence commeth this to me, that the mother of my Lorde should come to me?

44 For loe, assone as the voyce of thy salutation sounded in mine eares, the babe leaped in mine belly for ioy.

45 And blessed is she that beleeued: for those things shall be performed, which were tolde her from the Lord.

46 Then Marie said, My soule magnifieth the Lord,

47 And my spirite reioyceth in God my Sauiour.

48 For he hath looked on the poore degree of his seruant: for beholde, from henceforth shall all ages call me blessed.

49 Because he that is mighty, hath done to me great things, and holy is his Name.

50 And his mercy is from generation to generation on them that feare him.

51 He hath shewed strength with his arme: he hath scattered the proude in the imagination of their hearts.

52 He hath put downe the mighty from their seates, and exalted them of low degree.

53 He hath filled the hungry with good things, and the rich he hath sent away emptie.

54 He hath holpen his seruant Israel, in remembring his mercie.

55 (As he hath spoken to our fathers, to wit, to Abraham, and to his seed for euer.

56 ¶ And Marie abode with her about three moneths: after, she returned to her owne house.

57 ¶ Now Elisabets time was fulfilled, that she should be deliuered, and she brought forth a sonne.

58 And her neighbours, & cousins heard how the Lorde had shewed his great mercy vpon her, and they reioyced with her.

59 And it came to passe on the eight day, that they came to circumcise the babe, and called him Zacharias, after the name of his father.

60 But his mother answered, and sayde, Not so, but he shall be called Iohn.

61 And they said vnto her, There is none of thy kinred, that is named by this name.

62 Then they made signes to his father, how he would haue him called.

63 And he asked for writing tables, and wrote, saying, His name is Iohn: and they marueiled all.

64 And his mouth was opened immediately, and his tongue loosed, and he spake and praysed God.

65 Then feare came on all them that dwelt nere vnto them: and all these things were noysed abroad throughout all the hill country of Iudea.

66 And all they that heard them, layed

2 (This first b taxing was made when Cyrenius was gouernour of Syria.)

3 Therefore went all to be taxed, euery man to his owne citie.

4 And c Ioseph also went vp from Galile out of a citie called Nazaret, into Iudea, vnto the citie of * Dauid, which is called Beth-lehem, (because hee was of the house and linage of Dauid,)

5 To be taxed with Mary that was giuen him to wife, which was with childe.

6 ¶ And so it was, that while they were there, the dayes were accomplished that she should be deliuered.

7 And she brought forth her d first begotten Sonne, and wrapped him in swadling clothes, and layde him in a e cratch, because there was no roome for them in the Inne.

8 ¶ And there were in the same countrey shepheards abiding in the field, and keeping watch by night because of their flocke.

9 And lo, the Angel of the Lorde came vpon them, and the glory of the Lord shone about them, and they were sore afrayd.

10 Then the Angel sayd vnto them, Bee not afrayd: for beholde, I bring you tidings of great ioy, that shall be to all the people:

11 That is, that vnto you is borne this day in the city of f Dauid, a Sauiour, which is Christ the Lord.

36 And there was a Prophetisse, one Anna the daughter of Phanuel, of the tribe of Aser, which was of a great age, & had ‡ liued with an husband seuen yeeres from her virginitie.

37 And shee was widdow about fourescore and foure yeeres, and went ‡ not out of the Temple, but serued God with fastings and prayers, night and day.

38 She then comming at the same instant vpon them, ‖ confessed likewise the Lord, & spake of him to all that looked for redemption in Ierusalem.

39 And when they had performed all things according to the Lawe of the Lorde, they returned into Galile to their owne citie Nazaret.

40 And the child grew, and waxed strong in spirit, and was filled with wisedome, and the grace of God was with him.

41 ¶ Now his parents went to Ierusalem euery yeere, * at the feast of the Passeouer.

42 And when hee was twelue yeere olde, and they were come vp to Ierusalem after the custome of the feast,

43 And had finished the dayes thereof, as they returned, the childe Iesus remayned in Ierusalem, and Ioseph knewe not nor his mother, 44 But they supposing that he had bene in the company, went a dayes iourney, and sought him among their kinsfolke, and acquaintance.

45 And when they found him not, they turned backe to Ierusalem, and sought him.

46 And it came to passe three dayes after that they found him in the Temple, sitting in the middes of the doctours, both hearing them, and asking them questions.

47 And all that heard him were astonied at his vnderstanding, and answeres.

48 So when they saw him, they were amased, and his mother sayde vnto him, Sonne, why hast thou thus dealt with vs? beholde, thy father and I haue sought thee with heauy hearts.

49 Then sayd he vnto them, How is it that ye sought me? knewe ye not that I must goe about my fathers businesse?

50 But they * vnderstood not the wordes that he spake to them.

51 Then he went downe with them, and came to Nazaret, and was subiect to them: and his mother kept all these sayings in her heart.

52 And Iesus increased in wisedome and stature, and in fauour with God and men.

10 ¶ Then the people asked him, saying, What shall we doe then?

11 And he answered, and said vnto them, * He ‡ that hath two coates, let him part with him that hath none: and he that hath meate, let him doe likewise.

12 Then came there ‡ Publicanes also to be baptized, & said vnto him, Master, what shall we doe?

AND Iesus full of the holy Ghost returned from Jordan, and was led by the spirit into the wildernesse,

2 * And was there fortie dayes tempted of the deuill, and in those dayes [a] he did eate nothing: but when they were ended, he afterward was hungry.

3 Then the deuill sayd vnto him, If thou be the Sonne of God, command this stone that it be made bread.

4 But Iesus answered him, saying, It is written, * That man shall not liue by bread onely, but by euery [b] word of God.

5 Then the deuill tooke him vp into an high mountaine, and shewed him all the kingdomes of the world, in the twinckling of an eye.

15 For he taught in their Synagogues and was honoured of all men.

16 * And he came to Nazaret, where he had bene brought vp, and (as his custome was) went into the Synagogue on the Sabbath day, and stoode vp to reade.

17 And there was deliuered vnto him the booke of the Prophet Elias: and when he opened the booke, he found the place, where it was written,

18 * The Spirit of the Lord is vpon me, because he hath g anointed me, that I should preach the Gospel to the poore: he hath sent me, that I should heale the broken hearted, that I should preach deliuerance to the captiues, and recouering of sight to the blind, that I should set at libertie them that are bruised, 19 And that I should preach the h acceptable yeere of the Lord.

20 And hee closed the booke, and gaue it againe to the minister, and sate downe: and the eyes of all that were in the Synagogue were fastened on him.

21 Then hee beganne to say vnto them, This day is this scripture fulfilled in your eares.

22 And all i bare him witnesse, and wondered at the gracious words, which proceeded out of his mouth, and sayd, Is not this Ioseph's sonne?

23 Then he sayd vnto them, Ye will surely say vnto mee this prouerbe, Physition, k heale thy selfe: Whatsoeuer we haue heard done in Capernaum, doe it here likewise in thine owne countrey.

24 And he sayd, Verely I say vnto you, * No l Prophet is accepted in his owne countrey.

25 But I tell you of a trueth, many widowes were in Israel in the dayes of * Elias, when heauen was shut three yeeres and sixe monethes, when great famine was throughout all the land.

26 But vnto none of them was Elias sent, saue into Sarepta, a citie of Sidon, vnto m a certaine widowe.

27 Also many lepers were in Israel, in the time of * Eliseus the Prophet: yet none of them was made cleane, sauing Naaman the Syrian.

28 Then all that were in the Synagogue, when they heard it, were filled n with wrath, 29 And rose vp, and thrust him out of the citie, and led him vnto the edge of the hill, whereon their citie was built, to cast him downe headlong.

30 But hee passed o through the mids of them, and went his way, 31 ¶ * And came downe into Capernaum a citie of Galile, and their taught them on the Sabbath dayes.

32 * And they were astonied at his doctrine: for his word was p with authoritie.

33 And in the Synagogue there was a man which had a q spirit of an vncleane deuill, which cryed with a loud voyce, 34 Saying, Oh, what haue wee to doe with thee, thou Iesus of Nazaret? art thou come to destroy vs? I know who thou art, euen the holy one of God.

35 And Iesus rebuked him, saying, hold thy peace, and come out of him. Then the deuill throwing him in the middes of them, came out of him, and hurt him not.

36 So feare came on them all, and they spake among themselues, saying, What thing is this? for with authoritie and power he commandeth the foule spirits, and they come out.

37 And the fame of him spread abroad throughout all the places of the countrey round about.

38 ¶ * And hee rose vp, and came out of the Synagogue, and entred into Simons house, and Simons wines mother was taken with a great feuer, and they required him for her.

39 Then he stood ouer her, and rebuked the feuer, and it left her: and immediatly she rose, and ministred vnto them.

40 Nowe when the sunne was downe, all they that had sicke folkes of diuers diseases, brought them vnto him, and he layd his handes on euery one of them, and healed them.

41 * And deuils also came out of many, crying, and saying, r Thou art the Christ, the Sonne of God: but hee rebuked them, and suffered them not to say that they knew him to be the Christ.

42 And when it was day, hee departed, and went forth into a desert place, and the people sought him, and came to him, and kept him, that he should not depart from them.

43 But hee sayd vnto them, Surely I must also preach the kingdome of God to other cities: for therefore am I sent.

44 And he preached in the Synagogues of Galile.

which were in the other ship, that they should come and help them. Who came, and filled both the ships, that they did sinke.

8 Now when Simon Peter saw it, he fell down at Iesus knees, saying, Lord, goe from me: for I am a sinfull man.

9 For he was vtterly astonied, and all that were with him, for the draught of fishes which they tooke.

10 And so was also Iames and Iohn the sonnes of Zebedeus, which were companions with Simon. Then Iesus sayd vnto Simon, Feare not: from henceforth thou shalt catch men.

11 And when they had brought the ships to land, they forsooke all and followed him.

12 ¶ And it came to passe, as he was in a certaine citie, behold, there was a man full of leprosie, and when he saw Iesus, he fell on his face, and besought him, saying, Lord, if thou wilt, thou canst make me cleane.

13 So he stretched forth his hand, and touched him, saying, I will, be thou cleane. And immediately the leprosie departed from him.

14 And he commanded him that he should tell it no man: but goe, (saith he) and shew thy selfe to the Priest, and offer for thy cleansing, as Moses hath commanded, for a witnesse vnto them.

15 But so much more went there a fame abroad of him, and great multitudes came together to heare, and to be healed of him of their infirmities.

16 But he kept himselfe apart in the wildernesse, and prayed.

17 ¶ And it came to passe, on a certaine day, as hee was teaching, that the Pharises and doctours of the Lawe sate by, which were come out of euery towne of Galile, and Iudea, and Ierusalem, and the power of the Lord was in him to heale them.

18 And behold, men brought a man lying in a bed, which was taken with a palsie, and they sought meanes to bring him in, and to lay him before him.

19 And when they could not find by what way they might bring him in, because of the presse, they went vp on the house, and let him downe through the tiling with his bed, and all, in the middes before Iesus.

20 And when he saw their faith, he sayd vnto him, Man, thy sinnes are forgiuen thee.

21 Then the Scribes and the Pharises began to thinke, saying, Who is this that speaketh blasphemies? Who can forgiue sinnes, but God onely?

22 But when Iesus perceiued their thoughts, he answered and said vnto them, What thinke you in your hearts?

23 Whether is easier to say, Thy sinnes are forgiuen thee: or to say, Rise and walke?

24 But that ye may know that the Sonne of man hath authoritie to forgiue sinnes in earth, (he sayd vnto the sicke of the palsie) I say vnto thee, Arise: take vp thy bed, and go to thine house.

25 And immediately he rose vp before them, and tooke vp his bed wherein he lay, and departed to his owne house, praising God.

26 And they were all amazed, and praised God: and were filled with feare, saying, Doubtlesse we haue seene strange things to day.

27 ¶ And after that he went forth and saw a Publicane named Leui, sitting at the receipt of custome, and sayd vnto him, Follow me.

28 And he left all, rose vp, and followed him.

29 Then Leui made him a great feast in his owne house, where there was a great company of Publicanes, and of other that sate at table with them.

30 But they that were Scribes & Pharises among them, murmured against his disciples, saying, Why eate ye and drinke ye with Publicanes and sinners?

31 Then Iesus answered, and sayd vnto them, They that are whole, need not the Physician, but they that are sicke.

32 I came not to call the righteous, but sinners to repentance.

33 ¶ Then they sayd vnto him, Why do the disciples of Iohn fast often, and pray, and the disciples of the Pharises also, but thine eat and drinke?

34 And he sayd vnto them, Can ye make the children of the wedding chamber to fast, as long as the bridegroome is with them?

35 But the dayes will come euen when the bridegroome shall be taken away from them: then shall they fast in those dayes.

36 Againe he spake also vnto them a parable, No man putteth a piece of a new garment into an old vesture: for then the new rendeth it, & the piece taken out of the new, agreeth not with the old.

37 And no man powreth new wine into old vessels: for then the new wine will breake the vessels, and it will runne out, and the vessels will perish.

38 But new wine must be powred into new vessels: so both are preserued.

39 Also no man that drinketh old wine, straightway desireth new, for he saith, The old is better.

8 But hee knew their thoughtes, and said to the man which had the withered hand, Arise, and stand vp in the midst: And he arose and stood vp.

20 ¶ * And he lifted vp his eyes vpon his disciples, and said, Blessed be ye * poore: for yours is the kingdome of God.

21 * Blessed are ye that hunger nowe: for ye shalbe satisfied. Blessed are ye that * weepe now: for ye shall laugh.

22 * Blessed are yee when men hate you, and when * they separate you, and reuile you, and put out your name as euil, for the Sonne of mans sake.

23 Reioyce ye in that day, and be glad: for behold, your reward is great in heauen: for after this manner their fathers did to the Prophets.

24 * But woe be to you that are rich, for ye haue receiued your consolation.

25 * Woe be vnto you that are full: for ye shal hunger. Woe be to you that now laugh: for ye shall waile and weepe.

26 Woe be to you when all men speake well of you: for so did their fathers to the false prophets.

27 ¶ * But I say vnto you which heare, Loue your enemies: doe well to them which hate you:

28 Blesse them that curse you, and pray for them which hurt you.

29 * And vnto him that * smiteth thee on the one cheeke, offer also the other: and him that taketh away thy clothe, forbid not to take thy coate also.

30 * Giue to euery man that asketh of thee: and of him that taketh away thy goods, aske them not againe.

31 * And as ye would that men should do to you, so do ye to them likewise.

32 * For if yee loue them which loue you, what thanke shall ye haue? for euen the * sinners loue those which loue them.

33 And if you do good to them which do good to you, what thanke shall yee haue? for euen the sinners do the same.

34 * And if yee lend to them of whom ye hope to receiue, what thanke shall yee haue? for euen the sinners lend to sinners, to receiue the like.

35 Wherefore loue ye your enemies, * doe good, and lend, looking for nothing againe, and your reward shall be great, and ye shall be the children of * the most High: for he is kind vnto the vnkind, and to the euill.

36 Be ye therefore mercifull, as your Father also is mercifull.

37 ¶ * Iudge not, and ye shall not be iudged: condemne not, and ye shall not be condemned: forgiue, and ye shalbe forgiuen.

38 Giue, and it shalbe giuen vnto you: * a good measure, pressed downe, shaken together, & running ouer shall men giue into your bosome: for with what measure ye mete, with the same shall men mete to you againe.

39 And hee spake a parable vnto them, * Can the blinde leade the blinde? shall they not both fall into the ditch?

40 * The disciple is not aboue his master: but whosoeuer will bee a perfit disciple, shalbe as his master.

42 Either how canst thou say to thy brother, Brother, let me pull out the mote that is in thine eye, when thou seest not the beame that is in thine owne eye? Hypocrite, cast out the beame out of thine owne eye first, and then shalt thou see perfectly, to pull out the mote that is in thy brothers eye.

CHAP. VII.

1 The healeth the seruant of a centurion. 11 He raiseth vp the widowes sonne of Naim to life. 19 He answereth the disciples whom Iohn Baptist sent vnto him. 24 He commendeth Iohn. 31 And reproueth the Iewes for their wayward iudgement. 36 He eateth with the Pharisie. 37 The woman washeth his feete with her teares, and he forgiueth her sinnes.

WHen* he had ended all his sayings in the audience of the people, he entred into Capernaum.

2 And a certaine a Centurions seruant was sicke and ready to die, which was deare vnto him.

3 And when he heard of Iesus, he sent vnto him the Elders of the Iewes, beseeching him that he would come and heale his seruant.

4 So they came to Iesus, and besought him instantly, saying that he was worthy that he should do this for him.

5 For he loueth our nation, and he hath built vs a b Synagogue.

6 Then Iesus went with them: but when he was now not farre from the house, the Centurion sent friendes to him, c saying vnto him, Lord, trouble not thy selfe: for I am not worthy that thou shouldest enter vnder my roofe.

7 Wherefore, I thought not my selfe worthy to come vnto thee: but say the word, and my seruant shall be whole.

8 For I am likewise a man set vnder authoritie, and haue vnder me souldiers, and I say vnto one, Goe, and he goeth: and to another, Come, and he commeth: and to my seruant, Doe this, and he doeth it.

9 When Iesus heard these things, he marueiled at him, and turned him, and said to the people that followed him, I say vnto you, I haue not found so great faith, no not in Israel.

10 And when they that were sent, turned backe to the house, they found the seruant that was sicke, whole.

11 And it came to passe the day after, that he went into a citie called Naim, and many of his disciples went with him, and a great multitude.

12 Now when he came neere to the gate of the citie, behold, there was a dead man carried out, who was the only begotten sonne of his mother, which was a widowe, and much people of the citie was with her.

13 And when the Lord saw her, he had compassion on her, and said vnto her, Weepe not.

14 And he went and touched the e coffin, (and they that bare him, stood still) and he sayd, Young man, I say vnto thee, Arise.

15 And hee that was dead, sate vp, and began to speake, and he deliuered him to his mother.

16 Then there came a feare on them all, and they glorified God, saying, A great Prophet is raised vp among vs, and God hath visited his people.

17 And this rumour of him went foorth throughout all Iudea, and throughout all the region round about.

18 ¶ And the disciples of Iohn shewed him of all these things.

19 So Iohn called vnto him two certaine men of his disciples, and sent them to Iesus, saying, Art thou he that should come, or shall we wait for another?

20 And when the men were come vnto him, they said, Iohn Baptist hath sent vs vnto thee, saying, Art thou he that should come, or shall we wait for another?

21 And at that time he cured many of their sicknesses and plagues, and of euill spirites, and vnto many blinde men he gaue sight.

22 And Iesus answered and sayde vnto them, Go your waies and shew Iohn f what things ye haue seene and heard: that g blinde see, the halt goe, the f lepers are cleansed, the deafe heare, the dead rise again, & the poore receiue the Gospel.

23 And blessed is he, that shall not be h offended in me.

24 And when the messengers of Iohn were departed, hee began to speake vnto the people, of Iohn, What went ye out into the wildernesse to see? A reed shaken with the winde?

25 But what went you out to see? A man clothed in soft raiment? Behold, they which are gorgeously apparelled, and liue delicately, are in kings courts.

26 But what went ye forth to see? A Prophet? yea, I say vnto you, and greater then a Prophet.

27 This is he of whome it is written, * Behold, I send my i messenger before thy face, which shall prepare thy way before thee.

28 For I say vnto you, there is no greater Prophet then Iohn, among them that are begotten of women: notwithstanding, he that is the least in the kingdom of God, is greater then he.

29 Then all the people that heard, & the Publicanes, iustified God, being baptized with the k baptisme of Iohn.

p This word comprehendeth the whole doctrine that Iohn taught.

30 For the Pharisees and the lawyers of the law despised the counsell of God against themselues, and were not baptized of him.

31 And the Lord said, Whereunto shall I liken the men of this generation? & what thing are they like vnto?

32 They are like vnto children sitting in the market place, and crying one to another, and saying: We haue piped vnto you, and ye haue not danced: we haue mourned to you, and ye haue not wept.

33 For Iohn Baptist came, neither eating bread, nor drinking wine: and ye say, He hath the deuill.

34 The Sonne of man is come, and eateth and drinketh: and ye say, Behold, a man which is a glutton, and a drinker of wine, a friend of Publicanes and sinners.

35 But wisdome is iustified of all her children.

36 ¶ And one of the Pharises desired him that he would eate with him: & he went into the Pharises house, and sate downe at table.

37 And beholde, a woman in the citie, which was a sinner, when she knew that Iesus sate at table in the Pharises house, she brought a box of oyntment, 38 And she stood at his feet behind him weeping, and began to wash his feete with teares, and did wipe them with the haires of her head, and kissed his feet, and anointed them with the oyntment.

39 Now when the Pharise which bade him, saw it, he spake within himselfe, saying, If this man were a prophet, he would surely haue knowen who, and what manner of woman this is which toucheth him: for she is a sinner.

40 And Iesus answered, and said vnto him, Simon, I haue somewhat to say vnto thee. And he said, Master, say on.

41 There was a certaine lender which had two debters: the one ought fiue hundred pence, and the other fifty.

42 When they had nothing to pay, hee forgaue them both. Which of them therefore, tell me, will loue him most?

43 Simon answered, and sayde, I suppose that hee, to whome hee forgaue most. And he saide vnto him, Thou hast truly iudged.

44 Then he turned to the woman, and said vnto Simon, Seest thou this woman? I entred into thine house, and thou gauest me no water to my feete: but she hath washed my feete with teares, and wiped them with the haires of her head.

45 Thou gauest me no kisse: but she since the time I came in, hath not ceased to kisse my feete.

46 Mine head with oyle thou didst not anoint: but she hath anointed my feete with ointment.

47 Wherefore I say vnto thee, Many sinnes are forgiuen her: for she loued much. To whom a little is forgiuen, he doeth loue a little.

48 And he said vnto her, Thy sinnes are forgiuen thee.

49 And they that sate at table with him, began to say within themselues, Who is this that euen forgiueth sinnes?

50 And he said to the woman, Thy faith hath saued thee, go in peace.

9 Then his disciples asked him, demanding what parable that was.

10 And he said, Vnto you it is giuen to know the secrets of the kingdom of God: but to other in parables, that when they see, they should not see, and when they heare, they should not vnderstand.

11 ¶ The parable is this; The seed is the word of God.

12 And they that are beside the way, are they that heare: afterwarde commeth the deuill, and taketh away the woorde out of their hearts, lest they should beleeue, and be saued.

13 But they that are on the stones, are they which when they haue heard, receiue the word with ioy: but they haue no roots, which for a while d beleeue, but in the time of tentation go away.

14 And that which fell among thornes, are they which haue heard, and ‡ after their departure are choked with cares, and with riches, & voluptuous liuing, and bring foorth no fruite.

22 ¶ And it came to passe on a certaine day, that he went into a shippe with his disciples, and he sayd vnto them, Let vs goe ouer vnto the other side of the lake. And they launched forth.

23 And as they sailed, he fell a sleepe, and there came downe a storme of winde on the lake, and they were filled with water, and were in ieopardie.

24 Then they went to him, and awoke him, saying, Master, Master, we perish. And he arose, and rebuke the winde, and the waues of water: and they ceased, and it was calme.

25 Then he said vnto them, Where is your faith? and they feared, and wondred among themselues, saying, Who is this that commandeth both the windes & water, and they obey him?

26 ¶ So they sailed vnto the region of the Gadarenes, which is ouer against Galile.

27 And as hee went out to land, there mette him a certaine man out of the citie, which had a deuill long time, and he wore no clothes, neither abode in house, but in the graues.

28 And when he saw Jesus, he cryed out, and fell downe before him, and with a loude voyce sayd, What haue I to doe with thee, Jesus the sonne of God, the most high? I beseech thee ᵏ torment me not.

29 For he commanded the foule spirit to come out of the man: (for ‖ oft times he had caught him: therefore he was bound with chaines, and kept in fetters: but he brake the bandes, and was caried of the deuill into wildernesses.)

30 Then Jesus asked him, saying, What is thy name? And he said, ˡ Legion, because many deuils are entred into him.

31 And they besought him, that he would not command them to go out into the ᵐ deep.

32 And there was there by, an herde of many swine, feeding on an hill, and the deuils besought him, that he would suffer them to enter into them. So he suffered them.

33 Then went the deuils out of the man, and entred into the swine: and the herd was caried with violence from a steepe downe place into the lake, and was choked.

34 When the herdemen saw what was done, they fled: and when they were departed, they told it in the citie and in the countrey.

35 Then they came out to see what was done, and came to Jesus, and found the man, out of whom the deuils were departed, sitting at the feete of Jesus, clothed, and in his right minde, and they were afraid.

36 They also which saw it, told them by what meanes he that was possessed with the deuill was healed.

37 Then the whole multitude of the countrey about the Gadarenes, besought him, that her would depart from them: for they were taken with a great feare: and he went into the ship, and returned.

38 Then the man, out of whom the deuils were departed, besought him that he might be with him: but Jesus sent him away, saying, 39 ᵖ Returne into thine owne house, and shew what great things God hath done to thee. So he went his way, and preached throughout all the ᵖ citie, what great things Jesus had done vnto him.

40 ¶ And it came to passe when Jesus was come againe, that the people receiued him: for they all waited for him.

41 ¶ And behold, there came a man named Jairus, and he was the ruler of the ᵠ Synagogue, who fell downe at Jesus feete, and besought him that he would come into his house.

45 Then Jesus said, Who is it that hath touched me? ˢ When euery man denyed, Peter said and they that were with him, Master, the multitude thrust thee, and presse on thee, and sayest thou, Who hath touched me?

46 And Jesus sayd, Some one hath touched me: for I perceiue that vertue is gone out of me.

47 When the woman saw that she was not hidde, she came trembling, and fell downe before him, and told him before all the people, for what cause she had touched him, and how she was healed immediatly.

9 Then Herod said, Iohn haue I beheaded: who then is this of whom I heare such things? *and he desired to see him.

10 ¶ *And when the Apostles returned, they told him what great things they had done. *Then he tooke them, and went aside into a desart place, *neere to the citie called Bethsaida.

11 But when the people knew it, they followed him: and he receiued them, and spake vnto them of the kingdome of God, and healed them that had need to be healed.

12 *And when the day began to weare away, the twelue came, and said vnto him, Send the people away, that they may goe to the townes and villages round about, and lodge and get victuals: for we are here in a desert place.

13 Then he said vnto them, *Giue yee them to eate. And they said, We haue no more but fiue loaues and two fishes, except we should goe and buy meate for all this people.

14 For they were about fiue thousand men. Then he said to his Disciples, Cause them to sit downe by companies, fifty and fifty.

15 And they did so, and caused all to sit downe.

16 Then he tooke the fiue loaues, and the two fishes, & looked vp to heauen, and *blessed them, and brake, & gaue to the disciples, to set before the people.

17 *So they did all eate, and were satisfied: and there was taken vp of that remained to them, twelue baskets full of broken meate.

18 ¶ *And it came to passe as he was alone praying, his disciples were with him, and he asked them, saying, Whom say the people that I am?

19 They answered, and said, Iohn Baptist: and others say, Elias: and some say, that one of the olde Prophets is risen againe.

20 And hee said vnto them, But whom say ye that I am? Peter answered, and said, The Christ of God.

21 And he straitly *commanded them, that they should tell that to no man, 22 Saying, *The Sonne of man must suffer many things, and be reiected of the Elders, and of the hie Priests and Scribes, and be slaine, and the third day rise againe.

23 ¶ *And he said to them all, If any man will come after me, let him denie himselfe, and take vp his crosse daily, and follow me.

24 *For whosoeuer will saue his life, shall lose it: and whosoeuer shall lose his life for my sake, the same shall saue it.

25 For what aduantageth it a man, if he win the whole world, and destroy himselfe, or lose himselfe?

26 *For whosoeuer shalbe ashamed of me, and of my words, of him shall the Sonne of man be ashamed when he shall come in his glory, and in the glory of the Father, and of the holy Angels.

27 *And I tell you of a trueth, there be some standing here, which shall not taste of death, till they haue seene the *kingdome of God.

28 *And it came to passe about an eight dayes after these words, that he tooke Peter and Iohn, and Iames, and went vp into a mountaine to pray.

29 And as he prayed, the fashion of his countenance was changed, and his garment was white and glittered.

30 And behold, two men talked with him, which were Moses and Elias, bids, we be afraid: but when they awoke, they saw his glory, and the two men standing with him.

31 Which appeared in glory, and tolde of his departure, which he should accomplish at Ierusalem.

33 And it came to passe as they departed from him, Peter sayd vnto Iesus, Master, it is good for vs to be here: let vs therefore make three tabernacles, one for thee, and one for Moyses, and one for Elias, and wist not what he sayd.

34 While he thus spake, there came a cloud, and ouershadowed them: & they feared when they entred into the cloud.

35 And there came a voyce out of the cloud, saying, This is my beloued Sonne, heare him.

36 And when the voyce was past, Iesus was found alone: and they kept it close, and told no man in those dayes any of those things which they had seene.

37 ¶ And it came to passe on the next day, as they came downe from the mountaine, much people met him.

38 And behold, a man of the company cried out, saying, Master, I beseech thee, behold my sonne; for he is all that I haue.

39 And loe, a spirite taketh him, & suddenly he crieth, and he teareth him, that he foameth, and with much paine departeth from him, when he hath bruised him.

40 And I haue besought thy disciples to cast him out, but they could not.

41 Then Iesus answered, and sayd, O generation faithlesse and crooked, how long now shall I be with you, and suffer you? bring thy sonne hither.

42 And whiles he was yet comming, the deuill rent him, and tare him: and Iesus rebuked the vncleane spirit, & healed the child, and deliuered him to his father.

43 ¶ And they were all amazed at the mightie power of God. And while they all wondered at all things, which Iesus did, he sayd vnto his disciples, 44 Let these sayings sincke into your eares: for it shall come to passe, that the Sonne of man shall be deliuered into the hands of men.

45 But they vnderstood not this word: for it was hid from them, so that they could not perceiue it: and they feared to aske him of that word.

46 ¶ Then there arose a disputation among them, which of them should be the greatest.

47 When Iesus saw the thoughts of their hearts, he tooke a little childe, and set him by him, 48 And sayd vnto them, Whosoeuer receiueth this little childe in my Name, receiueth me: and whosoeuer shall receiue me, receiueth him that sent me: for he that is least among you, he shalbe great.

49 ¶ And Iohn answered, and sayd, Master, we saw one casting out deuils in thy Name, and we forbad him, because he followeth thee not with vs.

50 Then Iesus sayd vnto him, Forbid him not: for he that is not against vs, is with vs.

51 ¶ And it came to passe, when the dayes were accomplished, that he should be receiued vp, he setled himselfe fully to go to Ierusalem, 52 And sent messengers before him: and they went and entred into a towne of the Samaritanes, to prepare him lodging.

53 But they would not receiue him, because his prouision was, as though he would goe to Ierusalem.

54 And when his disciples, Iames and Iohn, saw it, they sayd, Lord, wilt thou that we command that fire come downe from heauen, and consume them, euen as Elias did?

55 But Iesus turned about, and rebuked them, and sayd, Ye know not of what spirite ye are.

56 For the Sonne of man is not come to destroy mens liues, but to saue them. Then they went to another towne.

57 ¶ And it came to passe that as they went in the way, a certaine man sayd vnto him, I will follow thee, Lord, whithersoeuer thou goest.

58 And Iesus said vnto him, The foxes haue holes, and the birds of the heauen haue nests, but the Sonne of man hath not wherein to lay his head.

59 Then he said vnto another, Follow me. And the same said, Lord, suffer me first to go and bury my father.

60 And Iesus sayd vnto him, Let the dead bury their dead: but goe thou & preach the kingdome of God.

61 Then another said, I will follow thee, Lord: but let me first go bid them farewell, which are at mine house.

62 And Iesus sayd vnto him, No man that putteth his hand to the plough, and looketh backe, is apt to the kingdome of God.

20 Neverthelesse, in this reioyce not, that the spirits are subdued unto you: but rather reioyce, because your names are written in heaven.

21 ¶ That same houre reioyced Jesus in the Spirit, and said, I confesse unto thee, Father, Lorde of heaven and earth, that thou hast hidde these things from the wise and learned, and hast revealed them to babes: even so, Father, because it is pleasant before thee.

22 Then he turned to his disciples, and said, All things are given me of my Father: and no man knoweth who the Father is, saue the Sonne, and he to whom the Sonne will reveale him.

23 ¶ And he returned to his disciples, and said secretly, Blessed are the eyes which see that ye see.

24 For I tell you that many Prophets and kings have desired to see those things which ye see, and have not seene them: and to heare those things which ye heare, and have not heard them.

25 ¶ Then behold, a certaine expounder of the Law stood up, and tempted him, saying, Master, what shall I do to inherit eternall life?

26 And he said unto him, What is written in the Law? how readest thou?

27 And he answered, saying, Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thine heart, and with all thy soule, and with all thy strength, and with all thy thought, and thy neighbour as thy selfe.

28 Then he said unto him, Thou hast answered right: this doe, and thou shalt live.

29 But hee willing to iustifie himselfe, sayde unto Jesus, Who is then my neighbour?

30 And Jesus answered and said, A certaine man went downe from Jerusalem to Jericho, and fell among theeves, and they robbed him of his raiment, and wounded him, and departed, leaving him halfe dead.

31 And by chance there came downe a certaine Priest that same way, and when he saw him, he passed by on the other side.

32 And likewise also a Levite, when he was come neere to the place, went and looked on him, and passed by on the other side.

33 Then a certaine Samaritane, as he iourneyed, came neere to him, and when he saw him, he had compassion on him, 34 And went to him, and bound up his wounds, and powred in oyle and wine, and put him on his owne beast, and brought him to an Inne, and made provision for him.

35 And on the morrow when he departed, hee tooke out two pence, and gave them to the host, and said unto him, Take care of him, and whatsoever thou spendest more, when I come againe, I will recompense thee.

36 Which now of these three, thinkest thou, was neighbour unto him that fell among the theeves?

37 And he said, He that shewed mercy on him. Then said Jesus unto him, Go, & doe thou likewise.

38 ¶ Now it came to passe as they went, that he entred into a certaine towne, and a certaine woman named Martha, received him into her house.

39 And she had a sister called Marie, which also sate at Jesus feete, and heard his preaching.

40 But Martha was cumbred about much serving, and came to him, and said, Master, dost thou not care that my sister hath left me to serve alone? bid her therefore that she helpe me.

41 And Jesus answered, and said unto her, Martha, Martha, thou carest and art troubled about many things:

42 But one thing is needfull, Mary hath chosen the good part, which shall not be taken away from her.

1 He teacheth his disciples to pray. 14 He driueth out a deuill, 15 And rebuketh the blasphemous Pharises. 28 He preferreth the spirituall consinage. 29 They require signes and tokens. 37 He eateth with the Pharise, and reproueth the hypocrisie of the Pharises, Scribes and hypocrites.

AND so it was, that as hee was praying in a certaine place, when he ceased, one of his disciples sayde vnto him, Master, teach vs to pray, as Iohn also taught his disciples.

2 *And he said vnto them, When ye pray, say, Our Father, which art in heauen, hallowed be thy Name: Thy kingdome come: Let thy will be done euen in earth as it is in heauen:

3 Our dayly bread giue vs a for the day:

4 And ‖forgiue vs our sinnes: for euen we forgiue euery man that is indebted to vs: And leade vs not into temptation: but deliuer vs from euill.

5 ¶ Moreouer he said vnto them, b Which of you shal haue a friend, and shall go to him at midnight, and say vnto him, Friend, lend me three loaues?

6 For a friend of mine is come out of the way to me, and I haue nothing to set before him?

7 And he within should answere and say, Trouble me not: the doore is now shut, and my children are with mee in bed: I cannot rise and giue them to thee.

8 I say vnto you, Though he would not arise, and giue him, because he is his friend, yet doubtlesse because of his ‖importunitie, he would rise, and giue him as many as he needed.

9 *And I say vnto you, Aske, and it shall be giuen you: seeke, and ye shall find: knocke, and it shall be opened vnto you.

10 For euery one that asketh, receiueth: and he that seeketh, findeth: and to him that knocketh, it shall be opened.

11 *If a sonne shall aske bread of any of you that is a father, will he giue him a stone? or if he aske a fish, will he for a fish giue him a serpent?

12 Or if he aske an egge, will he giue him a scorpion?

13 If yee then which are euill, can giue good gifts vnto your children, how much more shall your heauenly Father giue c the holy Ghost to them that desire him?

14 ¶ Then he cast out a deuill which was dumbe: and when the deuill was gone out, the dumbe spake, and the people wondered.

15 But some of them sayde, Hee casteth out deuils through Beelzebub the chiefe of the deuils.

16 And others tempted him, seeking of him a signe from heauen.

17 But he knew their thoughts, and said vnto them, *Euery kingdome diuided against it selfe, shall be desolate, and an house deuided against an house, falleth.

18 So if Satan also be diuided against himselfe, how shall his kingdome stand, because yee say that I cast out deuils through Beelzebub?

19 If I through Beelzebub cast out deuils, by whome doe your d children cast them out? Therefore shall they bee your iudges.

20 But if I by the e finger of God cast out deuils, doubtlesse the kingdome of God is come vnto you.

26 Then k goeth hee, and taketh to him l seuen other spirits, worse then himselfe: and they enter in & dwell there: *so the last state of that man is worst then the first.

44 Woe be to you Scribes and Pharises hypocrites: for ye are as graues which appeare not, & the men that walke ouer them, perceiue not.

45 ¶ Then answered one of the expounders of the Law, and said vnto him, Master, Thus saying thou puttest vs to rebuke also.

45 And he said, Woe be to you also, ye interpreters of the Lawe: for yee * lade men with burdens grieuous to be borne, and yee your selues touch not the burdens with one of your fingers.

47 Woe be to you: for ye r build the sepulchres of the Prophets, and your fathers killed them.

48 s Truely ye beare witnesse, and allow the deedes of your fathers: for they killed them, and ye * build the sepulchres.

49 Therefore said the wisedome of God, I will send them Prophets and Apostles, and of them they shall slay and ‖ persecute,

50 That the blood of all the Prophets, shed from the foundation of the world, may be required of this generation, 51 From the blood of Abel vnto the blood of Zacharias, which was slaine betweene the Altar and the Temple: verily I say vnto you, it shall be required of x this generation.

52 Woe be to you, interpreters of the Law: for yee haue y taken away the key of knowledge: ye entred not in your selues, and them that came in, ye forbade.

53 And as he said these things vnto them, the Scribes and Pharises began to vrge him sore, and to prouoke him to speake of many things, 54 Laying waite for him, and seeking to catch some thing of his mouth, wherewith they might accuse him.

CHAP. XII.

1 Christ commandeth to auoid hypocrisie. 4 That we should not feare man but God. 5 To confesse his Name. 10 Blasphemy against the Spirit. 14 Not to passe our vocation. 15 Not to giue our selues to couetous care of this life. 32 but to righteousnesse, almes, watching, patience, wisedome, and concord.

IN * the meane time, there gathered together an innumerable multitude of people, so that they trode one another: and he began to say vnto his disciples first, Take heed to your selues of the leauen of the Pharises, which is hypocrisie.

2 * For there is nothing couered, that shal not be reuealed: neither hid, that shall not be knowen.

3 Wherefore whatsoeuer ye haue spoken in darkenesse, it shall be heard in the light: and that which ye haue spoken in the eare, in secret places, shall bee preached on the a houles.

4 * And I say vnto you, my friends, Be not afrayd of them that kill the body, and after that are not able to doe any more.

5 But I will forewarne you, whom yee shall feare: feare him which after hee hath killed, hath power to cast into hell: yea, I say vnto you, him feare.

6 Are not fiue sparowes bought for two farthings, and yet not one of them is forgotten before God?

7 Yea, and all the haires of your head are numbred: feare not therefore: ye are more of value then many sparowes.

8 * Also I say vnto you, Whosoeuer shall confesse me before men, him shall the sonne of man confesse also before the Angels of God.

9 But he that shal denie me before men, shall be denied before the Angels of God.

10 And whosoeuer shall speake a worde against the sonne of man, it shall bee forgiuen him: but vnto him, that b shall blaspheme the holy Ghost, it shall not bee forgiuen.

11 * And when they shall bring you vnto the Synagogues, & vnto the rulers & princes, take no c thought how, or what thing ye shall answere, or what ye shall speake.

12 For the holy Ghost shall teach you in the same ‖ houre, what ye ought to say.

13 And one of the company sayde vnto him, Master, bid my brother diuide the inheritance with me.

14 And hee sayd vnto him, Man, who made me a d iudge, or a diuider ouer you?

15 Wherefore hee sayd vnto them, Take heede and beware of couetousnesse: e for though a man haue abundance, yet his life standeth not in his riches.

16 And he put forth a parable vnto them, saying, The ‖ ground of a certaine rich man brought forth fruits plenteously.

17 Therefore he thought with himselfe, saying, What shall I doe, because I haue no roume where I may lay vp my fruits.

18 And he sayd, This will I doe, I will pull downe my barnes, and build greater, and therein will I gather all my fruits, and my goods.

19 And I will say to my soule, Soule, * thou hast much goods layed vp for many yeeres, liue at ease, eate, drinke, and take thy pastime.

20 But God sayd vnto him, O foole, this night will they fetch away thy soule from thee: then whose shall those things be which thou hast prouided?

21 So is he that gathereth riches to himselfe, and is not rich in [f] God.

22 And he spake vnto his disciples, Therefore I say vnto you, * Take no thought for your life, what ye shall eate: neither for your body, what ye shall put on.

23 The life is more then meate: and the body more then the raiment.

24 [g] Consider the rauens: for they neither sowe nor reape: which neither haue storehouse nor barne, and yet God feedeth them: how much more are ye better then fowles?

25 And which of you [h] taking thought, can adde to his stature one cubite?

26 If yee then be not able to do the least thing, why take ye thought for the remnant?

27 [h] Consider the lilies how they grow: they labour not, neither spinne they: yet I say vnto you, that Salomon himselfe in all his royaltie was not clothed like one of these.

28 If then GOD so clothe the grasse which is to day in the fielde, and to morrow is cast into the ouen, how much more will he clothe you, O ye of litle faith?

29 Therefore aske not what ye shall eate, or what yee shall drinke, neither [i] stand in doubt.

30 For all such things the people of the world seeke for: and your Father knoweth that ye haue neede of these things.

31 But rather seeke yee after the kingdome of God, [i] and all these things shall be ministred vnto you.

32 Feare not, litle flocke: for it is your fathers pleasure, to giue you the [k] kingdome.

33 ¶ * Sell that ye haue, and giue almes: make you bagges, which waxe not olde, a treasure that can neuer faile in heauen, where no theefe commeth, neither mothe corrupteth.

34 For where your treasure is, there will your hearts be also.

35 ¶ * Let your loynes be [l] girded about, and your lights burning,

36 And yee your selues like vnto men that waite for their master, when hee will returne from the wedding, that when hee commeth and knocketh, they may open vnto him immediatly.

37 Blessed are those seruants, whom the Lord when he commeth, shall finde waking: verely I say vnto you, hee will [m] girde himselfe about, and make them to sit downe at table, and will come forth, and serue them.

38 And if hee come in the second watch, or come in the third watch, and shall finde them so, blessed are those seruants.

39 * Nowe vnderstand this, that if the good man of the house had knowen at what houre the theefe would haue come, he would haue watched, and would not haue suffered his house to be digged through.

40 Be ye also prepared therefore: for the Sonne of man will come at an houre when ye thinke not.

41 Then Peter sayd vnto him, Master, tellest thou this parable vnto vs, or euen to all?

42 And the Lord sayd, Who is a faithful stewarde and wise, whom the master shall make ruler ouer his houshold, to giue them their portion of meate in season?

43 Blessed is that seruant, whom his master when he commeth, shall finde so doing.

44 Of a trueth I say vnto you, that he will make him ruler ouer all that he hath.

45 But if that seruant say in his heart, My Master doeth defer his comming, and shall begin to smite the seruants, and maydens, and to eat and drinke, [n] to be drunken, 46 The master of that seruant will come in a day when hee thinketh not, and at an houre when he is not ware of, and will cut him off, and giue him his portion with the vnbelieuers.

47 ¶ And that seruant that knew his masters will, and prepared not himselfe neither did according to his will, shalbe beaten with many stripes.

48 But he that knew it not, and yet did commit things [o] worthy of stripes, shall be beaten with few stripes: for vnto whomsoeuer [p] much is giuen, of him shall hee much required, and to whom men much commit, the more of him will they aske.

49 ¶ I am come to put fire on the earth, and what is my desire, if it bee [q] already kindled?

50 Notwithstanding I must be [r] baptized with a baptisme, and how am I grieued, till it be ended?

51 * Thinke ye that I am come to giue peace on earth? I tell you, nay, but rather debate.

52 For from henceforth those shall be fiue in one house diuided, three against two, and two against three.

53 The father shall bee diuided against the sonne, and the sonne against the father: the mother against the daughter, and the daughter against the mother: the mother in lawe against her daughter in lawe, and the daughter in lawe against her mother in lawe.

54 ¶ * Then said he to the people, When you see a cloud rise out of the west, straightway yee say, A showre commeth: and so it is.

55 And when yee see the South winde blow, ye say, that it will be hote: and it commeth to passe.

56 Hypocrites, yee can discerne the face of the earth, and of the skie: but why discerne ye not this time?

57 Yea, and why iudge you not of your selues what is right?

58 ¶ * While thou goest with thine aduersary to the ruler, as thou art in the way, giue diligence in the way, that thou mayest bee [s] deliuered from him, least hee bring thee to the iudge, and the iudge deliuer thee to the layler, and the layler cast thee into prison.

CHAP. XIII.

1 The malice of Pilate. 2 We ought not to condemne all to bee wicked men which suffer. 3 Christ exhorteth to repentance. 11 Hee healeth the crooked woman, 15 answereth to the master of the Synagogue. 18 By diuers similitudes he declareth what the kingdome of God is, 23 also that the number of them which shalbe saued, is small. 33 Finally he sheweth that no worldly policie or force can let the worke and counsell of God.

THere were certaine men present at the same season, that shewed him of the Galileans, whose blood Pilate had [a] mingled with their owne sacrifices.

2 And Iesus answered, and sayde vnto them, Suppose yee, that these Galileans were [b] greater sinners then all the other Galileans, because they haue suffered such things?

3 I tell you, nay: but except [c] ye amend your liues, ye shall all likewise perish.

4 Or thinke you that those eighteene, vpon whom the towre in [d] Siloam fell, and slew them, were ‖ sinners aboue all men that dwell in Ierusalem?

5 I tell you, nay: but except ye amend your liues, ye all shall likewise perish.

6 ¶ He spake also this parable, A certaine man had a figge tree planted in his vineyard: and he came and sought fruite thereon, and found none.

7 Then sayd he to the dresser of his vineyard, Behold, [e] this three yeeres haue I come and sought fruite of this fig tree, and finde none: [f] cut it downe: why keepeth it ‖ the ground barren?

8 And he answered, and sayd vnto him, Lorde, let it alone this yeere also, till I dig round about it, and doung it.

9 And if it beare fruite, well: if not, then after thou shalt cut it downe.

10 ¶ And he taught in one of the Synagogues on the Sabbath day.

11 And beholde, there was a woman which had a [h] spirite of infirmitie eighteene yeeres, and was [i] bowed together, and could not lift vp her selfe in any wise.

12 When Iesus saw her, he called her to him, and sayd to her, Woman, thou art ‖ loosed from thy disease.

13 And hee layde his handes on her, and immediately shee was made straight againe, and glorified God.

14 And the ruler of the Synagogue answered with indignation, because that Iesus had healed on the Sabbath day, and sayde vnto the people, There are sixe dayes in which men ought to worke: in them therefore come & be healed, and not on the Sabbath day.

15 Then answered him the Lorde, and sayde, Hypocrite, doeth not eche one of you on the Sabbath day loose his ore or his asse from the stall, and leade him away to the water?

16 And ought not this daughter of Abraham whom Satan had bound, lo, eighteene yeeres, be loosed from this bond on the Sabbath day?

17 And when he said these things, all his aduersaries were ashamed: but all the people reioyced at all the excellent things that were done by him.

18 ¶ Then said he, What is the [k] kingdome of God like? or whereto shall I compare it?

19 It is like a graine of mustard seede which a man tooke and sowed in his garden, and it grew, and waxed a great tree, and the foules of the heauen made nestes in the branches thereof.

20 ¶ And againe he saide, Whereunto shall I liken the kingdome of God?

21 It is like leauen, which a woman tooke and hid in three peckes of flour, till all was leauened.

22 ¶ And hee went through all cities and townes, teaching, and iourneying towards Ierusalem.

23 Then sayde one vnto him, Lorde, are there few that shall be saued? And he said vnto them, 24 [l] Striue to enter in at the straite gate: for many, I say vnto you, will seeke to enter in, and shall not be able.

25 When the good man of the house is risen vp, and hath shut to the doore, and ye begin to stand without, and to knocke at the doore, saying, Lord, Lord, open to vs, and he shall answere and say vnto you, I know you not whence ye are:

26 [m] Then shall ye begin to say, We haue eaten and dronken in thy presence, and thou hast taught in our streetes.

27 But hee shall say, I tell you, I know you not whence ye are: [n] depart from mee, all yee workers of iniquitie.

28 There shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth, when yee shall see Abraham & Isaac and Iacob, and all the Prophets in the kingdome of God, and your selues thrust out at doores.

29 Then shal come many from the [o] East, and from the West, and from the North, & from the South, and shall sit at table in the kingdome of God.

30 [p] And beholde, [q] there are last, which shall be first: and there are first, which shall be last.

31 The same day there came certaine Pharises, and said vnto him, Depart and go hence: for Herode will kill thee.

32 Then sayd he vnto them, Go ye & tell that fox, Beholde, I [r] cast out deuils, and will heale still & to day, and to morrow, and the third day I shalbe ‖ perfected.

33 Neuertheless I must walke to day, & to morrow, and the day following: for it can not be, that a Prophet [s] should perish out of Ierusalem.

34 [t] O Ierusalem, Ierusalem, which killest the Prophets, and stonest them that are sent to thee, howe often would I haue gathered thy children together, as the hen gathereth her brood vnder her wings, and ye would not!

1 Iesus eateth with the Pharisie, 4 Healeth the dropsie vpon the Sabbath, 8 Teacheth to bee lowly, and to bid the poore to our table. 15 Hee telleth of the great Supper. 28 He warneth them that will follow him, to lay their accounts before, what it will cost them. 34 The salt of the earth.

AND it came to passe, that when he was entred into the house of one of the chiefe Pharises on a Sabbath day, to eate bread, they watched him.

2 And behold, there was a certaine man before him, which had the dropsie.

3 Then Iesus answering, spake vnto the expounders of the Law, and Pharises, saying, Is it lawfull to heale on the Sabbath day?

4 And they held their peace. Then hee tooke him, and healed him, and let him goe,

5 And answered them, saying, Which of you shall haue an asse, or an oxe fallen into a pit, and will not straightway pull him out on the Sabbath day?

6 And they could not answere him againe to those things.

7 ¶ He spake also a parable to the ghests, when hee marked how they chose out the chiefe roomes, and sayd vnto them,

8 b When thou shalt bee bidden of any man to a wedding, sit not thy selfe downe in the chiefest place, lest a more honourable man then thou, be bidden of him,

9 And hee that bade both him and thee, come, and say to thee, Giue this man roome, and thou then begin with shame to take the lowest roome.

10 * But when thou art bidden, goe, and sit downe in the lowest roome, that when he that bade thee, commeth, hee may say vnto thee, Friend, sit vp higher: then shalt thou haue worship in the presence of them that sit at table with thee.

11 * For whosoeuer exalteth himselfe, shal be brought low, and he that humbleth himselfe, shall be exalted.

12 ¶ Then c said he also to him that had bidden him, * When thou makest a dinner or a supper, call not thy friends, nor thy brethren, neither thy kinsmen, nor thy rich neighbours, lest they also bid thee againe, and a recompense be made thee.

13 But when thou makest a feast, call the poore, the maimed, the lame, and the blind, 14 And thou shalt bee blessed, because they cannot recompense thee: for thou shalt bee recompensed at the resurrection of the iust.

15 ¶ Now when one of them that sate at table, heard these things, hee sayd vnto him, Blessed is hee that eateth bread in the kingdome of God.

16 Then sayde he to him, * d A certaine man made a great supper, and bade many,

17 And sent his seruant at supper time to say to them that were bidden, Come: for all things are now ready.

18 * But they all with one minde began to make excuse: The first sayde vnto him, I haue bought a farme, and I must needes go out and see it: I pray thee haue mee excused.

19 And another sayd, I haue bought fiue yoke of oxen, and I goe to proue them: I pray thee haue mee excused.

20 And an other sayd, I haue married a wife, and therefore I cannot come.

21 So that seruant returned, and shewed his master these things. Then was the good man of the house angry, and sayd to his seruant, * Goe out quickly into the places and streetes of the citie and bring in hither the poore, and the maimed, and the halt, and the blinde.

22 And the seruant sayd, Lord, it is done as thou hast commaunded, and yet there is roome.

23 Then the master sayde to the seruant, Goe out into the e hie wayes, and hedges, and f compell them to come in, that mine house may be filled.

24 For I say vnto you, that none of those men which were bidden, shall taste of my supper.

25 Now there went great multitudes with him, and hee turned and sayde vnto them, 26 * If any man come to mee, and g hate not his father, and mother, and wife, and children, and brethren and sisters, yea, and his owne life also, he cannot be my disciple.

27 * And whosoeuer beareth not his crosse, and commeth after me, cannot be my disciple.

28 For which of you minding to build a tower, sitteth not downe before, and h counteth the cost, whether hee haue sufficient to perfourne it,

29 Lest that after he hath layed the foundation, and is not able to perfourne it, all that behold it, begin to mocke him, 30 Saying, This man began to build, and was not able to make an end?

31 Or what king going to make warre against another king, sitteth not downe first and taketh counsell, whether he be able with tenne thousand, to meete him that commeth against him with twentie thousand?

32 Or else while he is yet a great way off, he sendeth an ambassage, and desireth conditions of peace.

THen resorted vnto him all the Publicanes and sinners, to heare him.

2 Wherefore the Pharisies and Scribes murmured, saying, He receiued sinners, and eateth with them.

3 Then spake hee this parable to them, saying,

4 * What man of you hauing an hundreth sheepe, if he lose one of them, doeth not leaue ninetie and nine in the wildernesse, and goe after that which is lost, vntill hee finde it?

5 And when hee hath found it, he layeth it on his shoulders with ioy.

6 And when he commeth home, hee calleth together his friends and neighbours, saying vnto them, Reioyce with mee: for I haue found my sheepe which was lost.

7 I say vnto you, that likewise ioy shall be in heauen for one sinner that conuerteth, more then for ninetie and nine * iust men, which needs none amendment of life.

8 Either what woman hauing tenne * peeces of siluer, if shee loose one peece, doeth not light a candle, and sweepe the house, and seeke diligently till she finde it?

9 And when she hath found it, shee calleth her friendes, and neighbours, saying, Reioyce with me: for I haue found the peece which I had lost.

10 Likewise I say vnto you, there is ioy in the presence of the Angels of God, for one sinner that conuerteth.

11 ¶ He sayd moreouer, A certaine man had two sonnes.

12 And the younger of them sayde to his father, Father, giue me the * portion of the goods that falleth to me. So he diuided vnto them his substance.

13 So not long after, when the younger sonne had gathered all together, hee tooke his iourney into a farre countrey, and there he wasted his goods with * riotous liuing.

14 Now when hee had spent all, there arose a great dearth throughout that land, and he began to be in necessitie.

15 Then he went and claue to a citizen of that countrey, and hee sent him to his farme, to feede swine.

16 And hee would faine haue filled his belly with the huskes, that the swine ate: * but no man gaue them him.

17 Then he came to himselfe, and sayd, Howe many hyred seruantes at my father's haue bread ynough, and I die for hunger?

18 I will rise and goe to my father, and say vnto him, Father, I haue sinned against * heauen, and before thee, 19 And I am no more worthy to be called thy sonne: make me as one of thy hyred seruants.

20 So hee arose, and came to his father and when he was yet * a great way off, his father sawe him, and had compassion, and ranne and fell on his necke, and kissed him.

21 And the sonne sayde vnto him, * Father, I haue sinned against heauen, and before thee, and am no more worthy to bee called thy sonne.

22 Then the father sayd to his seruants, Bring forth the best robe, and put it on him, and put a ring on his hand, and shoes on his feete, 23 And bring the fat calfe, and kill him, and let vs eate and be merry.

24 For this my sonne was dead, and is aliue againe: and hee was lost, but hee is found. And they began to be merry.

25 Now the * elder brother was in the fielde, and when hee came and drew neere to the house, he heard melodie, and dauncing, 26 And called one of his seruants, and asked what those things meant.

27 And he sayd vnto him, Thy brother is come, and thy father hath killed the fatted calfe, because he hath receiued him safe and sound.

28 Then he was angrie, and would not goe in: therefore came his father out and intreated him.

29 But he answered and sayde to his father, Loe, these many yeeres haue I done thee seruice, neither brake I at any time thy commandement, and yet thou neuer gauest me a kid, that I might make merry with my friends.

30 But when this thy sonne was come, which hath deuoured thy goods with harlots, thou hast for his sake killed the fatte calfe.

31 And he sayd vnto him, * Sonne, thou art euer with mee, and all that I haue, is thine.

32 It was meete that wee should make merry, and be glad: for this thy brother was dead, and is aliue againe; and he was lost, but he is found.

1 Christ exhorteth vs to wisedome and liberalitie by the example of the steward. 13 None can serue two masters. 14 He reproueth the couetousnes and hypocrisie of the Pharisies. 16 Of the end and force of the Law. 18 The holy state of marriage. 19 Of the rich man, and Lazarus.

AND hee sayde also vnto his disciples, * There was a certaine rich man, which had a steward, and hee was accused vnto him, that he wasted his goods.

2 And he called him, and sayd vnto him, How is it that I heare this of thee? Giue an accounts of thy stewardship: for thou mayest be no longer steward.

3 Then the steward sayde within himselfe, What shall I doe? for my master will take away from mee the stewardship. I can not dig, and to beg I am ashamed.

4 I know what I will doe, that when I am put out of the stewardship, they may receiue me into their houses.

5 Then called hee euery one of his masters debters, and sayd vnto the first, How much owest thou vnto my master?

14 And when he saw them, he sayd vnto them, * Goe, shewe your selues vnto the * Priests, and it came to passe, that as they went, they were cleansed.
15 Then one of them, when he saw that he was healed, turned backe, and with a loud voice praysed God, 29 But in the day that Lot went out of Sodome, it rained fire and brimstone from heauen, and destroyed them all.

30 After these examples shall it bee in the day when the Sonne of man shalbe reuealed.
31 At that day, he that is vpon the * house, and his stuffe in the house, let him not come downe to take it out: and hee that is in the field likewise, let him not turne backe to that he left behinde.

22 Now when Iesus heard that, he said vnto him, Yet lackest thou one thing, Sell all that euer thou hast, and distribute vnto the poore, and thou shalt haue treasure in heauen, and come follow me.

23 But when he heard those things, he was very heauy: for he was marueilous rich.

2 Of Zaccheus. 12 The seruants pieces of money. 28 Christ rideth to Ierusalem, and weepeth for it. 45 He chaseth out the marchants, 47 and his enemies seeke to destroy him.

NOw when Iesus entred and passed through Iericho,

2 Behold, there was a man named Zaccheus, which was the chiefe receiuer of the tribute, and he was rich.

3 And he sought to see Iesus, who he should be, and could not for the preasse, because he was of a low stature.

4 Wherefore he ran before, and climed vp into a wilde figge tree, that he might see him, for he should come that way.

5 And when Iesus came to the place, he looked vp and saw him, and said vnto him, Zaccheus, come downe at once: for to day I must abide at thine house.

6 Then he came downe hastily, and receiued him ioyfully.

7 And when all they saw it, they murmured, saying, that he was gone in to lodge with a ᵖ sinfull man.

8 And Zaccheus stood forth, and said vnto the Lord, Beholde, Lord, the halfe of my goods I giue to the poore: and if I haue taken from any man by ‖ forged cauillation, I restore him foure fold.

9 Then Iesus said vnto him, This day is saluation come vnto this ᵠ house, forasmuch as he is also become the ʳ sonne of Abraham.

11 And while they heard these things, he continued and spake a parable, because he was neere to Ierusalem, and because also they thought that the kingdome of GOD should shortly appeare.

12 He sayd therefore, * A certaine noble man went into c a farre country, to receiue for himselfe a kingdome, and so to come againe.

13 And he called his ten seruants, and deliuered them ten d pieces of money, and sayd vnto them, Occupie till I come.

14 Now his citizens hated him, and sent an ambassage after him, saying, We will not haue this man to reigne ouer vs.

15 And it came to passe when hee was come e againe, and had receiued his kingdome, that he commaunded the seruaunts to be called to him, to whome he gaue his money, that he might know what euery man had gained.

16 Then came the first, saying, Lord, thy piece hath increased ten pieces.

17 And he sayd vnto him, Well, good seruant: because thou hast been faithful in a very little thing, take thou authoritie ouer ten cities.

18 And the second came, saying, Lord, thy piece hath increased fiue pieces.

19 And to the same he said, Be thou also ruler ouer fiue cities.

20 So the other came and sayd, Lord, behold thy piece, which I haue layd vp in a napkin.

21 For I feared thee, because thou art a straite man, thou takest vp that thou layedst not downe, and reapest that thou diddst not sowe.

22 Then he said vnto him, Of thine owne * mouth will I iudge thee, O euill seruant. Thou knewest that I am a straite man, taking vp that I layd not downe, and reaping that I did not sowe.

23 Wherefore then gauest not thou my money into the banke, that at my comming I might haue required it with vantage?

24 And he sayd to them that stoode by, Take from him that piece, and giue it him that hath ten pieces.

25 (And they said vnto him, Lord, he hath ten pieces.)

26 * For I say vnto you, that vnto all them that haue, it shall be h giuen: and from him that hath not, euen that he hath, shall be taken from him.

27 Moreouer, those mine enemies, which would not that I should reigne ouer them, bring hither, and slay them before me.

28 ¶ And when he had thus spoken, hee went foorth * before, ascending vp to Ierusalem.

29 * And it came to passe, when hee was come neere to Bethphage, and Bethania, besides the mount which is called the mount of Olives, hee sent two of his disciples, 30 Saying, Goe yee to the towne which is before you, wherein assoone as yee are come, ye shall finde a colt tyed, whereon neuer man sate: loose him, and bring him hither.

31 And if any man aske you, why ye loose him, thus shall ye say vnto him, Because the Lord hath need of him.

32 So they that were sent, went their way, and found it as he had sayd vnto them.

33 And as they were looing the colt, the owners thereof sayd vnto them, Why loose ye the colt?

34 And they sayd, The Lord hath need of him.

35 ¶ * Sothey brought him to Iesus, and they cast their garments on the colt, and set Iesus thereon.

36 And as hee went, they spred their clothes in the way.

37 And when hee was nowe come neere to the going downe of the mount of Olives, the whole multitude of the disciples beganne to reioyce, and to praise God with a loude voyce, for all the great workes that they had seene, 38 Saying, Blessed be the King that commeth in the Name of the Lorde: i peace in heauen, and glory in the highest places.

39 Then some of the Pharises of the company sayd vnto him, Master, rebuke thy disciples.

what authority thou doest these things, or who is hee that hath giuen thee this authoritie?

3 And he answered, and said vnto them, I also will aske you one thing: tell me therefore:

4 The a baptisme of Iohn, was it from heauen, or of men?

5 And they reasoned within themselues, saying, If we shall say, From heauen, hee will say, Why then beleeued ye him not?

6 But if we shall say, Of men, all the people will stone vs: for they be perswaded that Iohn was a Prophet.

7 Therefore they answered, that they could not tell whence it was.

8 Then Iesus sayd vnto them, b Neither tell I you by what authoritie I doe these things.

9 ¶ Then began he to speake to the people this parable, c A certaine man planted a vineyard, and d let it foorth to husbandmen: and went into a strange country, for a great season.

10 And at a time he sent a e seruant to the husbandmen, that they should giue him of the fruit of the vineyard, but the husbandmen did beat him, and sent him away emptie.

11 Againe he sent yet another seruant: and they did beat him, and foule intreated him, and sent him away emptie.

12 Moreouer, he sent the third, and him they wounded, and cast out.

13 Then sayd the Lord of the vineyard, What shall I doe? I will send my beloued Sonne: it may be that they will doe reuerence, when they see him.

14 But when the husbandmen saw him, they reasoned with themselues, saying, This is the heire: come, let vs kill him, that the inheritance may be ours.

15 So they cast him out of the vineyard, and killed him. What shall the Lord of the vineyard therefore do vnto them?

16 Hee will come and destroy these husbandmen, and will giue out his vineyard to others. But when they heard it, they sayd. God forbid.

17 ¶ And he beheld them, f said, What meaneth this then that is written, * The stone that the builders refused, that is made the head of the corner?

18 g Whosoeuer shall fall vpon that stone, shal be broken: and on whomsoeuer it shall fall, it will grind him to powder.

19 Then the high Priests & the Scribes the same houre went about to lay handes on him: (but they feared the people) for they perceiued that hee had spoken this parable against them.

20 * And they h watched him, and sent foorth spies, which should faine themselues iust men, to take him in his talke, and to deliuer him vnto the power and authoritie of the gouernour.

21 And they asked him, saying, Master, we know that thou sayest, & teachest right, neither dooest thou accept any mans person, but teachest the way of God truely.

22 Is it i lawfull for vs to giue Cesar tribute, or no?

23 But he perceiued their craftinesse, and sayd vnto them, k Why tempt ye me?

24 Shew me a peny. Whose image and superscription hath it? They answered and sayd, Cesars.

25 Then he said vnto them * l Giue then vnto Cesar the things which are Cesars, and to God those which are Gods.

26 And they could not reproue his saying before the people: but they marueiled at his answere, and held their peace.

27 * Then came to him certaine of the Sadduces, (which deny that there is any resurrection) and they asked him, 28 Saying, Master, * Moses wrote vnto vs, If any mans brother die hauing a wife, and he die without children, that his brother should take his wife, and raise vp seede vnto his brother.

29 Now there were seuen brethren, and the first tooke a wife, and he died without children.

30 And the second tooke the wife, and he died childlesse.

31 Then the third tooke her: and so likewise the seuen died, and left no children.

32 And last of all, the woman died also.

33 Therefore at the resurrection, whose wife of them shall she bee? for seuen had her to wife.

34 Then Iesus answered, and sayd vnto them, The l children of this world marrie wiues and are married:

35 But they which shall be counted worthy to enioy that world, and the resurrection from the dead, neither marrie wiues, neither are married.

36 = For they can die no more, for all much as they are equall vnto the Angels, and are the sonnes of God, * since they are the children of the resurrection.

39 Then certaine of the Pharises answered, and sayd, Master, thou hast well sayd.

40 And after that, durst not they aske him any thing at all.

41 ¶ * Then sayd he vnto them, How say they that Christ is Dauids sonne?

3 And hee sayd, Of a trueth I say vnto you, that this poore widow hath cast in more then they all.

4 * For they all haue of their superfluity cast into the offerings of God: but shee of her penury hath cast in all the liuing that she had.

5 * Now as some spake of the Temple, how it was garnished with goodly stones, and with ‖ consecrate things, he sayd,

6 Are these the things that ye looke vpon? the daies will come, wherein a stone shal not be left vpon a stone, that shall not bee throwen downe.

7 Then they asked him, saying, Master, but when shall these things be? & what signe shall there be when these things shall come to passe?

8 * And hee sayd, b Take heede that yee be not deceiued: for many will come in my Name, saying, I am Christ, and the time draweth neere: followe yee not them therefore.

9 And when yee heare of warres and seditions, be not afraid: for these things must first come, but the end followeth not by and by.

10 Then said he vnto them, Nation shall rise against nation, and kingdome against kingdome.

22 For these bee the dayes of vengeance, to fulfill all things that are written.

23 But woe be to them that bee with child, and to them that giue sucke in those dayes: for there shall be great distresse in this land, and f wrath ouer this people.

24 And they shall fall on the edge of the sworde, and shall be led captiue into all nations, and Ierusalem shall bee troden vnder foote of the Gentiles, vntill the g time of the Gentiles be fulfilled.

26 And mens hearts shall faile them for feare, & for looking after those things which shall come on the worlde: for the powers of heauen shall be shaken.

27 And then shall they see the Sonne of man come in a cloud, with power and great glory.

28 And when these things begin to come to passe, then looke vp, & lift vp your heads: * for your h redemption draweth neere.

29 And he spake to them a parable, Behold the fig tree, and all trees, 30 When they now shoot forth, ye seeing them, know of your owne selues, that Sommer is then neere.

31 So likewise yee, when yee see these things come to passe, know ye that the kingdome of God is neere.

CHAP. XXIII.

1 Iesus is brought before Pilate and Herode. 18 Of Barrabbas. 26 Of Simon the Cyrenian. 27 The women make lamentation. 33 Christ crucified. 34 He prayeth for his enemies. 40 He conuerteth the theefe and many others at his death. 53 And is buried.

THen [*] the whole multitude of them arose, and led him vnto [a] Pilate, a Who was the chiefe gouernor, and had the examination of matters of life and death. Matth.27.11. marke 15.2. iohn 18.33.

2 And they began to accuse him, saying, Wee haue found this man peruerting the people, and forbidding to pay tribute to Cesar, saying, That he is Christ a king.

3 [*] And Pilate asked him, saying, Art thou the king of the Jewes? And he answered him, and said, Thou sayest it.

4 Then sayd Pilate to the hie Priestes, & to the people, I find no fault in this man.

5 But they were the more fierce, saying, He moueth the people, teaching throughout all Jurie, beginning at Galile, euen to this place.

6 Now when Pilate heard of Galile, he asked whether the man were a Galilean.

7 And when he knew that he was of Herodes iurisdiction, hee [b] sent him to Herode, which was also at Jerusalem in those daies.

b To rid his hands, and to gratifie Herod.

8 And when Herod saw Jesus, hee was exceedingly glad: for he was [c] desirous to see him of a long season, because hee had heard many things of him, and trusted to haue seene some [‖] signe done by him.

d For Christ came not to defend himselfe, neither yet would please the vaine curiositie of this tyrant.

9 Then questioned he with him of many things: but he answered him [d] nothing.

10 The hie Priests also & Scribes stood forth, and accused him vehemently.

11 And Herod with his [‖] men of warre despised him, and mocked him, and arayed him in [e] white, and sent him againe to Pilate.

e Commonly this was a robe of honour or excellencie: but it was giuen to Christ in mockage.

‖Or, in bright colour.

12 And the same day Pilate and Herode were made friends together: for before they were enemies one to another.

Matth.27.23. marke 15.14. Iohn 18.38. and 19.4.

13 ¶ Then Pilate called together the hie Priests, and the rulers, and the people,

14 [*] And said vnto them, Ye haue brought this man vnto me, as one that peruerteth the people: & behold, I haue examined him before you, & [f] haue found no fault in this man, of those things whereof ye accuse him:

‖Or, by him

f For the Romanes had giuen such franchise and liberties to the Iewes, which was but a tradition, and not according to the word of God.

15 No, nor yet Herode: for I sent you to him: and loe, nothing worthy of death is done [‖] to him.

16 I will therefore chastise him, and let him loose.

17 (For of [f] necessitie hee must haue let one loose vnto them at the feast.)

18 Then all the multitude cried at once, saying, Away with him, and deliuer to as Barabbas:

19 Which for a certaine insurrection made in the citie, and murther, was cast in prison.
20 Then Pilate spake againe to them, willing to let Iesus loose.
21 But they cried, saying, Crucifie, crucifie him.
22 And he said vnto them the third time, But what euill hath he done? I finde no cause of death in him: I will therefore chastise him, and let him loose.
23 But they were instant with loud voyces, and required that he might be crucified: and the voyces of them, & of the high Priests preuailed.
24 So Pilate gaue sentence that it should be as they required.
25 And he let loose vnto them him that for insurrection and murther was cast into prison, whom they desired, and deliuered Iesus to do with him what they would.
26 ¶ *And as they led him away, they caught one Simon of Cyrene, comming out of the field, and on him they layed the crosse, to beare it after Iesus.
27 And there followed him a great multitude of people, and of women, which women bewailed and lamented him.
28 But Iesus turned backe vnto them, and sayd, ‖Daughters of Ierusalem, weepe not for me, but weepe for your selues, and for your children.
29 For behold, the dayes will come, when men shall say, Blessed are the barren, and the wombs that neuer bare, and the paps which neuer gaue sucke.
30 Then shall they beginne to say to the mountaines, * Fall on vs: and to the hilles, Couer vs.
31 * For if they doe these things to a [h] greene tree, what shall be done to the drie?
32 *And there were two others, which were euill doers, led with him to be slaine.
33 And when they were come to the place which is called ‖Caluarie, there they crucified him, and the euill doers: one at the right hand, and the other at the left.
34 Then sayde Iesus, Father, forgiue them: for they know not what they do. And they parted his rayment, and cast lots.
35 And the people stood, and beheld: and the rulers mocked him with them, saying, He saued others: let him saue himselfe, if he be the Christ, the [i] Chosen of God.
36 The souldiers also mocked him, and came and offered him [k] vineger, 37 And sayd, If thou be the King of the Iewes, saue thy selfe.
38 And a superscription was also written ouer him, in [l] Greeke letters, and in Latine, and in Hebrew, THIS IS THE KING OF THE IEWES.
39 ¶ And one of the euil doers, which were hanged, railed on him, saying, If thou be the Christ, saue thy selfe and vs.
40 But the other answered, and rebuked him, saying, [m] Fearest thou not God, seeing thou art in the same condemnation?
41 Wee are indeed righteously here: for we receiue things worthy of that we haue done: but this man hath done nothing amisse.
42 And he sayd vnto Iesus, Lord, remember me, when thou comest into thy kingdome.
43 Then Iesus sayd vnto him, Verely I say vnto thee, to day shalt thou be with me in Paradise.
44 ¶ And it was about the [n] first houre: and there was a darkenesse ouer all the land, vntill the ninth houre.
45 And the Sunne was darkened, and the vaile of the Temple rent thorow the middes.
46 And Iesus cryed with a loud voyce, and sayd, * Father, into thine hands I commend my spirit. And when he thus had said, he gaue vp the ghost.
47 ¶ Now when the ‖[o] Centurion sawe what was done, he glorified God, saying, Of a surety this man was iust.
48 And all the people that came together to that sight, beholding the things which were done, smote their brests and returned.
49 And all his acquaintance stood afarre off, and the women that followed him from Galile, beholding these things.
50 ¶ *And beholde, there was a man named Ioseph, which was a Counseller, a good man and a iust.
51 He did not consent to the counsell and deed of them, which was of Arimathea, a citie of the Iewes: who also himselfe ‖ [p] waited for the kingdome of God.
52 Hee went vnto Pilate, and asked the body of Iesus, 53 And tooke it downe, and wrapped it in a linnen cloth, and laid it in a tombe hewen out of a rocke, wherein was neuer man yet layd.
54 And that day was the [q] Preparation, and the Sabbath [r] drew on.
55 And the women also that followed after, which came with him from Galile, beheld the sepulchre, and how his body was laid.
56 And they returned, and prepared odours and ointments, and rested the Sabbath day, according to the commandement.

g They vnderstood not yet what was the deliuerance that Iesus Christ purchased for vs, but looked for some worldly prosperity.

h Infidelity is reproued.

downe their faces to the earth, they sayd to them, Why seeke ye him that liueth, among the dead?

6 He is not here, but is risen: remember how he spake vnto you, when he was yet in Galile,

7 Saying, that the Sonne of man must be deliuered into the hands of sinfull men, and be crucified, & the third day rise againe.

8 And they remembred his words,

9 And returned from the sepulchre, and told all these things vnto the eleuen, and to all the remnant.

10 Nowe it was Mary Magdalen, and Ioanna, and Mary the mother of Iames, and other women with them, which tolde these things vnto the Apostles.

11 But their words seemed vnto them, as a fained thing, neither beleeued they them.

12 Then arose Peter, and ranne vnto the sepulchre, and looked in, and saw the linnen clothes layed by themselues, and departed wondering in himselfe, at that which was come to passe.

13 ¶ * And beholde, two of them went that same day to a towne which was from Ierusalem about c threescore furlongs, called Emmans.

14 And they d talked together of all these things that were done.

15 And it came to passe, as they communed together, and reasoned, that Iesus himselfe drew neere, and went with them.

16 But their eyes e were holden, that they could not know him.

17 And he said vnto them, What manner of communications are these that yee haue one to another as ye walke, and are sad?

18 And the one (named Cleopas) answered, and sayd vnto him, Art thou only a f stranger in Ierusalem, and hast not known the things which are come to passe therein in these dayes?

19 And he sayde vnto them, What things? And they sayd vnto him, Of Iesus of Nazaret, which was a Prophet mighty in deed and in word before God, and all the people, 20 And how the ble Priests and our rulers deliuered him to be condemned to death, and haue crucified him.

21 But we g trusted that it had bene hee that should haue deliuered Israel, and as touching all these things, to day is the third day that they were done.

22 Yea, and certaine women among vs made vs astonied, which came early vnto the sepulchre, 23 And when they found not his body, they came, saying, that they had also seene a vision of Angels, which sayd, that he was aliue.

24 Therefore certeine of them which were with vs, went to the sepulchre, and found it euen as the women had sayd, but him they saw not.

25 Then he sayd vnto them, h O fooles, and slowe of heart to beleeue all that the Prophets haue spoken, 26 Ought not Christ to haue suffered these things, and to enter into his glory?

27 And he began at i Moses, and at all the Prophets, and interpreted vnto them in all the Scriptures the things which were written of him.

28 And they drew neere vnto the towne which they went to, but he k made as though he would haue gone further.

29 But they constrained him, saying, Abide with vs: for it is towards night, and the day is farre spent. So he went in to tary with them.

30 And it came to passe, as he sate at table with them, he tooke the bread, l and gaue thanks, and brake it, and gaue it to them.

31 Then their eyes were opened, and they knew him: but hee was taken out of their sight.

32 And they sayde betwene themselues, Did not our hearts burne within vs, while he talked with vs by the way, and when he opened to vs the Scriptures?

33 And they rose vp the same houre, and returned to Ierusalem, and found the eleuen gathered together, and them that were with them, 34 Which sayd, The Lorde is risen indeed, and hath appeared to Simon.

35 Then they tolde what things were done in the way, and how hee was knowen of them in m breaking of bread.

36 ¶ * And as they spake these things, Iesus himselfe stoode in the middes of them, and sayd vnto them, Peace be to you.

37 But they were abashed and afrayd, supposing that they had seene a spirit.

38 Then he sayd vnto them, Why are ye troubled? and whereforе do doubts arise in your hearts?

39 Beholde mine handes and my feete: for it is I my selfe: handle mee, and see: for a spirit hath not flesh and bones, as ye see me haue.

40 And when hee had thus spoken, hee shewed them his handes and feet.

41 And while they yet beleeued not for ioy, and wondred, he sayd vnto them, Haue ye here any meat?

42 And they gaue him a piece of a broyled fish, and of an hony combe.

43 And he tooke it, and did eate before them.

44 And he sayd vnto them, These are the words, which I spake vnto you while I was yet with you, That all must be fulfilled which are written of mee in the Lawe of Moses, and in the Prophets, and in the Psalmes.

45 Then opened he their vnderstanding, that they might vnderstand the scriptures,

46 And said vnto them, Thus is it written, and thus it behoueth Christ to suffer, & to rise againe from the dead the third day, 47 And that repentance and remission of sinnes should be preached in his name among all nations, beginning at Ierusalem.

48 Now ye are witnesses of these things.

49 And beholde, I will send the n promise of my Father vpon you: but tarie yee in the citie of Ierusalem, o vntill ye be indued with power from an high.

CHAP. I.

v. 14. 17 The dignity, humanity, and office of Ieſus Chriſt. 15 The teſtimony of Iohn. 39 The calling of Andrew, Peter, &c.

IN the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with * God, and that Word was God.
2 The ſame was b in the beginning with God.
3 All things were made by it, and c without it was made nothing that was made.
4 In it was d life, and the life was the e light of men.
5 And the light ſhineth f in the darkneſs, and the darkneſs comprehended it not.
6 ¶ * There was a man ſent from God, whoſe name was Iohn.
7 The ſame came for a witneſſe, to beare witneſſe of the light, that all men through him might beleeue.
8 He was not that light, but was ſent to beare witneſſe of the light.
9 That was the true light, which lighteth euery man that g commeth into the world.
10 Hee was in the world, and the world was* made by him: and the world h knew him not.
11 He came vnto his i owne, and his own receiued him not.
12 But as many as receiued him, to them hee gaue i power to bee the ſonnes of God, euen to them that beleeue in his Name, 13 Which are borne not of bloode, nor of the will of the fleſh, nor of the will of man, but of God.
14 * And the Word was made k fleſh, and dwelt among vs, (& we ſaw the glory thereof, as the glory of the only begotten Sonne of the Father) * full of grace and trueth.
15 ¶ Iohn bare witneſſe of him, & cryed, ſaying, This was he of whom I ſpake, He that commeth after mee, is preferred before me: for he was l before me.
16 And of his fulneſſe haue all we receiued, and m grace for grace.
17 For the Lawe was giuen by Moſes, but grace and trueth came by Ieſus Chriſt.
18 * No man hath ſeene God at any time: the onely begotten Sonne, which is in the boſome of the Father, he hath * declared him.
19 ¶ Then this is the record of Iohn, when the Iewes ſent Prieſtes and Leuites from Ieruſalem, to aſke him, Who art thou?
20 And he confeſſed and denied not, and ſaid plainely, I * am not the Chriſt.
21 And they aſked him, What then? Art thou Elias? and he ſaid, I am not. Art thou that * Prophet? And he anſwered, No.
22 Then ſayd they vnto him, Who art thou, that wee may giue an anſwere to them that ſent vs? what ſayeſt thou of thy ſelfe?
23 He ſaid, I * am the voyce of him that crieth in the wildernes, Make ſtraight the way of p Lord, as ſaid the Prophet Eſaias.
24 Now they which were ſent, were of the Phariſes.
25 And they aſked him, & ſaid vnto him, Why baptizeſt thou then, if thou be not the Chriſt, neither Elias, nor that * Prophet?
26 Iohn anſwered them, ſaying, I baptize with water: but there is one among you, whom ye know not.
27 * He it is that cometh after me, which is preferred before me, whoſe ſhooe latchet I am not worthy to vnlooſe.
28 Theſe things were done in Bethabara beyond Iordan, where Iohn did baptize.
29 The next day Iohn ſeeth Ieſus coming vnto him, & ſaith, Behold the Lambe of God, which taketh away the r ſinne of the world.
30 This is he of whom I ſaid, After me commeth a man, which is preferred before me: for he was before me.
31 And I knew him not: but becauſe he ſhould be declared to Iſrael, therefore am I come, baptizing with water.
32 So Iohn bare record, ſaying, I ſaw * the Spirit come downe from heauen, like a doue, and it abode vpon him.
33 And I knew him not: but he that ſent me to baptize with water, he ſaid vnto me, Vpon whom thou ſhalt ſee the Spirit come down, and tary ſtill on him, that is he which baptizeth with the * holy Ghoſt.
34 And I ſaw, and bare record, that this is the Sonne of God.
35 ¶ The next day, Iohn ſtood againe, and two of his diſciples:
36 And he beheld Ieſus walking by, and ſaid, Behold the t Lambe of God.
37 And y two diſciples heard him ſpeake, and followed Ieſus.
38 Then Ieſus turned about, and ſawe them followe, and ſaid vnto them, What ſeeke yee? And they ſaid vnto him, Rabbi, (which is to ſay by interpretation, Maiſter) u where dwelleſt thou?
39 He ſaid vnto them, Come & ſee. They came and ſaw where hee dwelt, and abode with him that day: for it was about the * tenth houre.
40 Andrew, Simons Peters brother, was one of the two which had heard it of Iohn, and that followed him.

CHAP. II.

1 Christ turneth the water into wine. 14 He driveth the buyers and sellers out of the Temple. 19 He forewarneth his death and resurrection. 23 He converteth many, and distrusteth man.

AND the third day was there a marriage in Cana a towne of Galile, and the mother of Iesus was there.

2 And Iesus was called also, and his disciples vnto the marriage.

3 Now when the wine failed, the mother of Iesus sayd vnto him, They haue no wine.

4 Iesus sayd vnto her, ‖Woman, what haue I to doe with thee? mine houre is not yet come.

5 His mother sayd vnto the seruants, Whatsoeuer he sayeth vnto you, doe it.

6 And there were set there five waterpots of stone after the manner of the purifying of the Iewes, containing two or three * firkins a piece.

7 And Iesus sayd vnto them, Fil the waterpots with water. Then they filled them vp to the brimme.

8 Then he sayd vnto them, Draw out now, and beare vnto the ‖ gouernour of the feast. So they bare it.

9 Now when the gouernour of the feast had tasted the water that was made wine, (for he knewe not whence it was: but the seruants, which drewe the water, knewe) the gouernour of the feast called the bridegroome,

10 And sayd vnto him, All men at the beginning set forth good wine, and when men haue well dronke, then that which is worse: but thou hast kept backe the good wine vntil now.

11 This beginning of ‖ miracles did Iesus in Cana a towne of Galile, and shewed forth his glory: and his disciples beleeued on him.

12 After that hee went downe into Capernaum, he and his mother, and his ‖ brethren, and his disciples: but they continued not many dayes there.

13 For the Iewes ‖ Passeouer was at hand. Therefore Iesus went vp to Ierusalem.

14 * And hee found in the Temple those that sold oxen, and sheepe, and doues, & chaungers of money, sitting there.

15 Then he made a scourge of small cords, and draue them all out of the Temple with the sheepe & oxen, and powred out the chaungers money, and ouerthrew the tables, 16 And sayd vnto them that sold doues, Take these things hence: make not my Fathers house an house of marchandise.

17 And his disciples remembred, that it was written, * The ‖ zeale of thine house hath eaten me vp.

18 Then answered the Iewes, and sayd vnto him, What ‖ signe hewest thou vnto vs, that thou doest these things?

19 Iesus answered, and sayd vnto them, * Destroy this Temple, and in three dayes I will raise it vp againe.

20 Then sayd the Iewes, Fourty and sixe yeeres was this Temple a building, and wilt thou reare it vp in three dayes?

21 But hee spake of the Temple of his ‖ body.

22 Assoone therefore as he was risen from the dead, his disciples remembred that he thus sayd vnto them: and they beleeued the Scripture, and the word which Iesus had sayd.

23 Now when hee was at Ierusalem at the Passeouer in the feast, many beleeued in his Name, when they sawe his miracles which he did.

24 And Iesus * did not commit himselfe vnto them, because he knew them all,

3 Iesus answered, and sayde vnto him, Verily, verily I say vnto thee, except a man be borne againe, hee cannot [a] see the [b] kingdome of God.

4 Nicodemus sayd vnto him, How can a man be borne which is old? can hee enter into his mothers wombe againe, and be borne?

5 Iesus answered, Verily, verily I say vnto thee, except that a man be borne of [c] water and of the Spirite, he cannot enter into the kingdome of God.

6 That which is borne of the flesh, is flesh: and that that is borne of the Spirit, is Spirit.

7 Marueile not that I sayd to thee, Ye must be borne againe.

8 The [d] winde bloweth where it listeth, and thou hearest the sound thereof, but canst not tell whence it commeth, and whither it goeth: so is euery man that is borne of the Spirit.

9 Nicodemus answered, and sayd vnto him, How can these things be?

10 Iesus answered, and sayd vnto him, Art thou a teacher of Israel, and [e] knowest not these things?

11 Verily, verily I say vnto thee, wee speake that we [f] know, and testifie that we haue seene: but ye [g] receiue not our witnesse.

12 If when I tell you [h] earthly things, yee beleeue not, how should yee beleeue, if I shall tell you of heauenly things?

13 For no man ascendeth vp to heauen, but he that hath descended from heauen, the Sonne of man which is in [i] heauen.

14 * And as Moses lift vp the serpent in the wildernesse, so must the Sonne of man be [k] lift vp, 15 That whosoeuer beleeueth in him, should not perish, but haue eternall life.

16 * For God so loued the world, that hee hath giuen his onely begotten Sonne, that whosoeuer beleeueth in him, should not perish, but haue euerlasting life.

17 * For God sent not his Sonne into the world, that hee should [l] condemne the world, but that the [m] world through him might be saued.

18 Hee that beleeueth in him, shall not be condemned: but hee that beleeueth not, is condemned already, because he beleeueth not in the Name of the onely begotten Sonne of God.

19 * And this is the [n] condemnation, that light is come into the world, and men loued darkenesse rather then light, because their deedes were euill.

20 For euery man that euil doeth, hateth the light, neither commeth to light, least his deedes should be reproued.

21 But hee that doeth [o] truely, commeth to the light, that his deedes might be made manifest, that they are wrought according to God.

22 ¶ After these things came Iesus and his disciples into the [p] lande of Iudea, and there taried with them, and baptized.

23 And Iohn also baptized in Enon, beside Salim, because there was much water there: and they came, and were baptized.

24 For Iohn was not yet cast into prison.

25 Then there arose a question betweene Iohns disciples and the Iewes, about [q] purifying.

26 And they came vnto Iohn, and sayde vnto him, Rabbi, [r] hee that was with thee beyond Iordan, to whom * thou bearest witnesse, behold, he baptizeth, and all men come to him.

27 Iohn answered, and sayde, A man can receiue no thing, except it be giuen him from heauen.

28 Yee your selues are my witnesses, that * I sayde, I am not the Christ, but that I am sent before him.

29 Hee that hath the bride, is the bridegrome: but the friende of the bridegrome which standeth and heareth him, reioyceth greatly, because of the bridegromes voyce. This my ioy therefore is fulfilled.

30 Hee must [s] increase, but I must decrease.

31 He that is come from on high, is aboue all: he that is of the * earth, is of the earth, and speaketh of the earth: hee that is come from heauen, is aboue all,

32 And what he hath seene and heard, that he testifieth: but no man receiueth his testimonie.

33 Hee that hath receiued his testimony, hath sealed that [t] God is true.

34 For he whom God hath sent, speaketh the words of God: for God giueth him not the Spirit by * measure.

35 The Father loueth the Sonne, and hath [u] giuen all things into his hand.

36 * He that beleeueth in the Sonne, hath euerlasting life, and he that obeyeth not the Sonne, shall not see life, but the wrath of God abideth on him.

9 Then sayd the woman of Samaria vnto him, How is it, that thou being a Iew askest drinke of me, which am a woman of d Samaria? For the Iewes medle not with the Samaritanes.

10 Iesus answered, and sayd vnto her, If thou knewest the e gift of God, and who it is that sayth to thee, Giue mee drinke, thou wouldest haue asked of him, and hee would haue giuen thee f water of life.

11 The woman said vnto him, Sir, thou hast nothing to draw with, and the well is deepe: from whence then hast thou that water of life?

12 Art thou greater then our father Iacob, which gaue vs the well, and he himselfe dranke therof, and his children, and his cattell?

13 Iesus answered, and sayde vnto her, Whosoeuer drinketh of this water, shall thirst againe:

14 But whosoeuer drinketh of the g water that I shall giue him, shall neuer be more h athirst: but the water that I shall giue him shalbe in him a well of water, springing vp into euerlasting life.

15 The woman said vnto him, Sir, giue me of that water, that I may not thirst, neither come hither to draw.

16 Iesus said vnto her, Go, call thine husband, and come hither.

17 The woman answered, and sayde, I haue no husband. Iesus said vnto her, Thou hast well sayd, I haue no husband.

18 For thou hast had fiue husbands, and hee whom thou now hast, is not thine husband: that saydest thou truely.

19 The woman sayd vnto him, Sir, I i see that thou art a Prophet.

20 Our fathers worshipped in this mountaine, and yet say that in k Ierusalem is the place where men ought to worship.

21 Iesus sayd vnto her, Woman, beleeue mee, the houre commeth, when yee shall neither in this mountaine, nor at Ierusalem, worship the Father.

22 Yee worship that which ye l know not: we worship that which we know: for saluation is of the Iewes.

23 But the houre commeth, and now is, when the true worshippers shall worship the Father in spirit, and truth: for the Father requireth euen such to worship him.

24 m God is a n Spirite, and they that worship him, must worship him in spirit and truth.

25 The woman sayde vnto him, I know well that Messias shall come, which is called Christ: when hee is come, he will tell vs all things.

26 Iesus sayd vnto her, I am her that speake vnto thee.

27 ¶ And vpon that came his disciples, and marueiled that hee talked with a woman: yet no man said vnto him, What askest thou? or why talkest thou with her?

28 The woman then left her water pot, and went her way into the citie, and sayd to the men, 29 Come, see a man which hath tolde me all things that euer I did: is not hee the Christ?

30 Then they went out of the citie, and came vnto him.

31 ¶ In the meane while, the disciples prayed him, saying, Master, eate.

32 But he said vnto them, I haue meate to eate, and ye know not of.

33 Then said the disciples betweene themselues, Hath any man brought him meate?

34 Iesus sayde vnto them, o My meat is that I may doe the will of him that sent me, and finish his worke.

35 Say not yee, There are yet foure moneths, and then commeth harueste? Behold, I say vnto you, lift vp your eyes, and looke on the regions: for they are white already vnto harueste.

36 And he that reapeth receiueth wages, and gathereth fruite vnto life eternall, that both hee that soweth, and hee that reapeth, might p reioyce together.

38 I sent you to reape that, whereon ye bestowed no labour: q other men laboured, and ye are entred into their labours.

39 Now many of the Samaritanes of that citie r beleeued in him, for the saying of the woman which testified, He hath told me all things that euer I did.

40 Then when the Samaritanes were come vnto him, they besought him, that hee would tary with them: and hee abode there two dayes.

41 And many moe s beleeued because of his owne word.

42 And they said vnto the woman, Now we beleeue, not because of thy saying: for we haue heard him our selues, and knowe that this is in deede the Christ the Sauiour of the world.

43 ¶ So two dayes after, hee departed thence, and went into Galile.

44 For Iesus himselfe had t testified that a Prophet hath none honour in his u owne country.

48 Then said Iesus vnto him, Except ye see signes and wonders, ye will not beleeue.

49 The ruler sayde vnto him, Sir, goe downe before my sonne die.

8 He healeth the man that was sicke eight and thirtie yeres. 10 The Iewes accuse him. 19 Christ answereth for himselfe, and reproueth them, 32 Shewing by the testimonie of his Father, 33 Of Iohn, 36 Of his works, 39 And of the Scriptures, who hee is.

AFter a that, there was a feast of b Iewes, and Iesus went vp to Ierusalem.

2 And there is at Ierusalem c by the place of the sheep, a d poole called in Ebrew e Bethesda, hauing fiue porches:

3 In the which lay a great multitude of sicke folke, of blind, halt, and withered, waiting for the mouing of the water.

4 For an Angell went downe at a certaine season into the poole, and troubled the water: whosoeuer then first, after f stirring of the water, stepped in, was made whole of whatsoeuer disease he had.

5 And a certaine man was there, which had bene diseased eighe and thirtie yeeres:

6 When Iesus saw him lie, and knewe that he now long time had bene diseased, he saide vnto him, Wilt thou be made whole?

7 The sicke man answered him, Sir, I haue no man, when the water is troubled, to put mee into the poole: but while I am comming, another steppeth downe before mee.

8 Iesus sayd vnto him, Rise: g take vp thy bed, and walke.

9 And immediatly, the man was made whole, and tooke vp his bed, and walked: and the same day was the Sabbath.

10 The Iewes therefore said to him that was made whole, It is the Sabbath day: h it is not lawfull for thee to carry thy bed.

11 He answered them, He that made me whole, he sayd vnto mee, Take vp thy bed, and walke.

12 Then asked they him, What man is that which sayd vnto thee, Take vp thy bed, and walke?

13 And hee that was healed, knewe not who it was: for Iesus had conueyed himselfe away from the multitude that was in that place.

14 And after that, Iesus found him in the Temple, and sayde vnto him, Beholde, thou art made whole: i sinne no more, lest a worse thing come vnto thee.

15 ¶ The man departed, and tolde the Iewes that it was Iesus, which had made him whole.

16 And therefore the Iewes did persecute Iesus, and sought to slay him, because hee had done these things on the Sabbath day.

17 But Iesus answered them, My Father worketh hitherto, and I worke.

18 Therefore the Iewes sought the more to kill him: not onely because he had broken the Sabbath, but sayd also that God was k his Father, and made himselfe equall with God.

19 Then answered Iesus, and sayd vnto them, Verily, verily I say vnto you, The sonne can do nothing of himselfe, saue that hee seeth the Father doe: for whatsoeuer things hee doeth, the same things doeth the Sonne also.

20 For the Father loueth the Sonne, and l sheweth him all things, whatsoeuer hee himselfe doeth, and hee will shew him greater workes then these, that yee should marueile.

21 For likewise as the Father rayseth vp the dead, and quickeneth them, so the Sonne quickeneth whom he will.

22 For the Father iudgeth no man, but hath committed all m iudgment vnto the Sonne, 23 Because that all men should honour the Sonne, as they honour the Father: hee that honoureth not the Sonne, the same honoureth not the Father which hath sent him.

24 Verily, verily I say vnto you, He that heareth my word, and beleeueth in him that sent mee, hath euerlasting life, and shall not come into condemnation, but hath passed from death vnto life.

25 Verily, verily I say vnto you, The houre shal come, and now is, when the dead shall heare the n voyce of the Sonne of God: and they that o heare it, shall liue.

26 For as the Father hath life in p himselfe, so likewise hath he giuen to the Sonne to haue life in himselfe, 27 And hath giuen him power also to execute q iudgement, in that he r is the sonne of man.

28 Marueile not at this: for the houre shall come in the which all that are in the graues, shall heare his voyce.

29 And they shall come forth, s that haue done good, vnto the resurrection of life: but they that haue done euill, vnto the resurrection of condemnation.

30 I can doe nothing of mine owne selfe: as I heare, I iudge: and my iudgement is iust, because I seeke not mine owne will, but the will of the Father who hath sent mee.

31 If t I should beare witnesse of my selfe, my witnesse were not u true.

32 There is an other that beareth witnesse of mee, and I know that the witnesse, which he beareth of me, is true.

33 x Ye sent vnto Iohn, and he bare witnesse vnto the trueth.

34 But I receiue not the record of man: nevertheless, these things I say, that ye might be saued.

Iesus feedeth fiue thousand men with fiue loaues and two fishes. 15 He departed away, that they should not make him King. 26 He reproueth the fleshly hearers of his word. 51 The carnall are offended at him. 63 The flesh profiteth not.

AFter these things, Iesus went his way ouer the * sea of Galile, or of b Tiberias. 2 And a great multitude followed him, because they saw his miracles, which he did on them that were diseased.

3 Then Iesus went vp into a mountaine, and there he sate with his disciples.

4 Now the Passouer, a * feast of the Iewes, was neere.

5 * Then Iesus lift vp his eyes, and seeing that a great multitude came vnto him, hee sayd vnto Philip, c Whence shall we buy bread, that these might eate?

6 (And this he sayd to proue him: for he himselfe knew what he would doe.)

7 Philip answered him, * Two hundreth pennyworth of bread is not sufficient for them, that euery one of them may take a little.

8 Then sayde vnto him one of his disciples, Andrew, Simon Peters brother.

9 There is a little boy heere, which hath fiue barley loaues, and two fishes: but what are they among so many?

10 And Iesus sayd, Make the people sit down. (Now there was much grasse in that place.) Then the men sate downe in number about fiue thousand.

11 And Iesus tooke the bread, and * gaue thankes, and gaue to the disciples, and the disciples to them that were set downe: and likewise of the fishes as much as they would.

12 And when they were satisfied, he sayd vnto his disciples, Gather vp the broken meate which remayneth, that * nothing bee lost.

13 Then they gathered it together, and filled twelue baskets with the broken meate of the fiue barley loaues, which remayned vnto them that had eaten.

14 Then the men when they had seene the miracle that Iesus did, sayd, This is of a trueth, the Prophet that should come into the world.

15 When Iesus therefore perceiued that they would come, and take him to make him a * King, hee departed againe into a mountaine himselfe alone.

16 ¶ When euen was now come, his disciples went downe vnto the sea, 17 * And entred into a shippe, and went * ouer the sea towardes Capernaum: and now it was darke, and Iesus was not come to them.

18 And the sea arose with a great winde that blew.

20 But he sayd vnto them, It is I: be not afraid.

21 Then willingly they receiued him into the ship: and the ship was by and by at the land, whither they went.

22 ¶ The day following, the people which stoode on the other side of the sea, saw that there was none other shippe there, saue that one, whereinto his disciples were entred, and that Iesus went not with his disciples in the ship, but that his disciples were gone * alone,

23 And that there came other ships from Tiberias nere vnto the place where they ate the bread, after the Lord had giuen thanks.

24 Now when the people saw that Iesus was not there, neither his disciples, they also tooke shipping, and came to Capernaum, seeking for Iesus.

25 And when they had found him on the * other side of the sea, they sayde vnto him, Rabbi, when camest thou hither?

27 Labour not for the meate which perisheth, but for the meate that * endureth vnto euerlasting life, which the Sonne of man shall giue vnto you: for him hath * God the Father * sealed.

28 Then sayd they vnto him, ¶ What shall we doe, that we might worke the * workes of God?

29 Iesus answered, and sayd vnto them, * This is the worke of God, that ye beleeue in him, whom he sent.

35 And Iesus sayd vnto them, I am the bread of life: hee that commeth to me, shall not hunger, and *he that beleeueth in me, shall p neuer thirst.

36 But I said vnto you, that ye also haue seene me, and beleeue not.

37 All q that the Father giueth me, shall come to me: and him that commeth to me, I cast not away.

38 For I came downe from heauen, not to do mine own will, but his will which hath sent me.

39 And this is the Fathers will which hath sent me, that of all which he hath giuen me, I should lose nothing, but should raise it vp againe at the last day.

40 And this is the will of him that sent me, that euery man which seeth the Sonne, and beleeueth in him, should haue euerlasting life: and I will raise him vp at the last day.

t Then there is no food that can nourish our soules but Iesus Christ.

50 This is the bread, which commeth downe from heauen, that he which eateth of it should not die.

51 I am the *liuing bread, which came downe from heauen: if any man eate of this bread, he shall liue for euer: and the bread that I will giue, is my flesh, which I will giue for the life of the world.

u Which giue life to the world.

52 Then the Iewes stroue among themselues, saying, How can this man giue vs his flesh to eate?

53 Then Iesus sayd vnto them, Verely, verely I say vnto you, Except ye eate the flesh of the Sonne of man, and drinke his blood, ye haue x no life in you.

x Where Christ is not there death reigneth.

54 Whosoeuer * eateth my flesh, & drinketh my blood, hath eternall life, and I will raise him vp at the last day.

55 For my flesh is meate in deed, and my blood is drinke in deede.

59 These things spake he in the Synagogue, as he taught in Capernaum.

60 Many therefore of his disciples (when they heard this) sayd, This is an hard saying: who can * heare it?

61 But Iesus knowing in himselfe, that his disciples murmured at this, sayd vnto them, Doeth this offend you?

62 What then if ye should see the Sonne of man * ascend vp * where he was before?

63 It is the Spirit that quickneth: the flesh * profiteth nothing: the wordes that I speake vnto you are spirit and life.

64 But there are some of you that beleeue not: for Iesus knewe from the beginning, which they were that beleeued not, and who should betray him.

65 And hee sayd, Therefore sayd I vnto you, that no man can come vnto me, except it be giuen vnto him of my Father.

66 From that time, many of his disciples went backe, and walked no more with him.

67 Then sayd Iesus to the twelue, Will ye also goe away?

68 Then Simon Peter answered him, Master, to whom shall we goe? Thou hast the wordes of * eternall life:

69 And we beleeue, and know that thou art * the Christ, the sonne of the liuing God.

70 Iesus answered them, Haue not I * chosen you twelue, and one * of you is a deuill?

AFter these things, Iesus walked in Galile, and would not walke in Iurea: for the Iewes sought to kill him.

2 Now the Iewes * feast of the Tabernacles was at hand.

a At this feast they dwelled seuen dayes in the tents, which put them in remembrance, that they had no stay here permanent, but † they must seeke one to come.

3 His brethren therefore sayd vnto him, Depart hence, and goe into Iudea, that thy disciples may see thy workes that thou doest.

4 For there is no man that doeth any thing secretly, and he himselfe seeketh to be ‖ famous. If thou doest these things, shew thy selfe to the world.

5 For as yet his brethren beleeued not in him.

6 Then Iesus said vnto them, My time is not yet come: but your time is alway ready.

7 The world cannot hate you: but me it hateth, [b] because I testifie of it, that the workes thereof are euill.

8 Goe ye vp vnto this feast: I will [c] not goe vp yet vnto this feast: for my time is not yet fulfilled.

9 ¶ These things hee sayd vnto them and abode still in Galile.

10 But assoone as his brethren were gone vp, then went he also vp vnto the feast, not openly, but as it were priuily.

11 Then the Iewes sought him at the feast, and sayd, [d] Where is he?

12 And much murmuring was there of him among the people. Some sayd, He is a good man: other said, Nay, but he deceiueth the people.

13 Howbeit no man spake openly of him for feare of the [e] Iewes.

14 Now when halfe the feast was done, Iesus went vp into the Temple & taught.

15 And the Iewes marueiled, saying, Howe knoweth this man the ‖ Scriptures, seeing that he neuer learned?

16 Iesus answered them, and sayd, My doctrine is not [e] mine, but his that sent me.

17 If any man will doe his will, he shall know of the doctrine, whether it be of God, or whether I speake of my selfe.

18 He [f] that speaketh of himselfe, seeketh his owne glory: but he that seeketh his glorie that sent him, the same is true, and no [g] vnrighteousnesse is in him.

19 * Did not Moses giue you a Law, and yet none of you keepeth the Law? [h] Why go ye about to kill me?

20 The [i] people answered, and sayde, Thou hast a deuill: who goeth about to kill thee?

21 Iesus answered, and sayde to them, I haue done one worke, and yet all [i] marueile.

22 * Moses therefore gaue vnto you circumcision, (not because it is of Moses, but of the [k] fathers) and ye on the Sabbath day circumcise a man.

23 If a man on the Sabbath receiue circumcision, that the law of Moses should not be broken, be ye angry with me, because I haue made a man euery whit whole on the Sabbath day?

24 * Iudge not according to the appearance, but iudge righteous iudgement.

25 ¶ Then said some of them of Ierusalem, Is not this he, whom they goe about to kill?

26 And beholde, hee speaketh ‖ openly, and they say nothing to him: doe the rulers knowe in deede that this is the very Christ?

27 Howbeit we know this man whence he is: but when the Christ commeth, no man shall know whence he is.

28 ¶ Then cryed Iesus in the Temple as he taught, saying, Yee [l] both know me, and know whence I am: yet am I not come of my selfe, but he that sent me, is true, whom ye know not.

29 But I know him: for I am of him, and he hath sent me.

30 Then they sought to take him, but no man layd handes on him, because his houre was not yet come.

31 Now many of the people [l] beleeued in him, and sayd, [m] When the Christ commeth, will he do moe miracles then this man hath done?

32 The Pharises heard that the people murmured these things of him, & the Pharises and high Priests sent officers to take him.

33 Then sayd Iesus vnto them, Yet am I [n] a little while with you, and then goe I vnto him that sent me.

34 * Ye shall seeke me, and shall not find me, and where I am, can ye not come.

35 Then sayde the Iewes among themselues, Whither will he go, that we shall not find him? Will he go vnto them that are dispersed among the [o] Grecians, and teach the Grecians?

36 What saying is this that he sayd, Ye shall seeke me, and shall not find me? & where I am, can ye not come?

37 Now in the last and [p] great day of the feast, Iesus stood and cryed, saying, If any man thirst, let him come vnto mee, and drinke.

38 He that [q] beleeueth in mee, * as saieth the Scripture, out of his belly shall flow riuers of water [r] of life.

39 (* This spake he of the Spirit, which they that beleeued in him, should receiue: for the [q] holy Ghost was not yet giuen, because that Iesus was not yet glorified.)

40 So many of the people, when they heard this saying, sayd, Of a trueth this is the [r] Prophet.

41 Other said, This is the Christ: & some sayd, But shall Christ come out of Galile?

42 * Sayeth not the Scripture that the Christ shall come of the seede of Dauid, and out of the towne of Bethlehem, where Dauid was?

43 So was there dissension among the people for him.

44 And some of them would haue taken him, but no man layd hands on him.

45 Then came the officers to the high Priestes and Pharises, and they sayd vnto them, Why haue ye not brought him?

46 The officers answered, [s] Neuer man spake like this man.

47 Then answered them the Pharises, Are ye also deceiued?

48 Doth any of the [t] rulers, or of the Pharises beleeue in him?

49 But this people which knowe not the Law, are cursed.

50 Nicodemus sayd vnto them, (* hee that came to Iesus by night, and was one of them.)

51 Doth our Lawe iudge a man before it heare him, * and knowe what he hath done?

1 AND Iesus went vnto the mount of Oliues.

2 And early in the morning came againe into the Temple, & all the people came vnto him, and he sate downe, and taught them.

3 Then the Scribes and the Pharises brought vnto him a woman, taken in adulterie, and set her in the midst,

4 And said vnto him, Master, this woman was taken in adultery, in the very act.

5 Now Moses in the Law commanded vs, that such should be stoned: what sayest thou therefore?

6 And this they sayd to tempt him, that they might haue wherof to accuse him. But Iesus stouped down, and with his finger wrote on the ground.

7 And while they continued asking him, he lift himselfe vp, and said vnto them, Let him that is among you without sinne, cast the first stone at her.

8 And againe he stouped downe, and wrote on the ground.

9 And when they heard it, being accused by their owne conscience, they went out one by one, beginning at the eldest euen to the last: so Iesus was left alone, and the woman standing in the midst.

10 When Iesus had lift vp himselfe againe, & saw no man, but the woman, he said vnto her, Woman, where are those thine accusers? hath no man condemned thee?

11 She sayd, No man, Lord. And Iesus sayd, Neither do I condemne thee: go and sinne no more.

12 Then spake Iesus againe vnto them, saying, I am the light of the world: he that followeth me, shall not walke in darkenesse, but shall haue the light of life.

13 The Pharises therefore said vnto him, Thou bearest record of thy selfe: thy record is not true.

14 Iesus answered, and said vnto them, Though I beare record of my selfe, yet my record is true: for I know whence I came, & whither I go: but ye cannot tell whence I come, and whither I go.

15 Ye iudge after the flesh: I iudge no man.

16 And if I also iudge, my iudgement is true: for I am not alone, but I and the Father, that sent me.

17 And it is also written in your Lawe, that the testimony of two men is true.

18 I am one that beare witnesse of my selfe, and the Father that sent me, beareth witnesse of me.

19 Then saide they vnto him, Where is thy Father? Iesus answered, Ye neither know me, nor my Father. If ye had known me, ye should haue known my Father also.

20 These words spake Iesus in the treasurie, as he taught in the Temple, and no man layd hands on him: for his houre was not yet come.

21 Then sayde Iesus againe vnto them, I goe my way, and ye shall seeke me, and shall die in your sinnes. Whither I goe, can ye not come.

22 Then sayd the Iewes, Will he kill himselfe, because he saith, Whither I goe, can ye not come?

23 And he said vnto them, Ye are from beneath, I am from aboue: ye are of this world, I am not of this world.

24 I sayd therefore vnto you, That ye shall die in your sinnes: for except ye beleeue, that I am he, ye shall die in your sinnes.

25 Then sayd they vnto him, Who art thou? And Iesus sayde vnto them, Euen the same thing that I sayd vnto you from the beginning.

26 I haue many things to say, and to iudge of you: but he that sent me, is true, and the things that I haue heard of him, those speake I to the world.

27 They vnderstood not that he spake to them of the Father.

28 Then sayd Iesus vnto them, When ye haue lift vp the Sonne of man, then shall ye know that I am he, and that I do nothing of my selfe, but as my Father hath taught me, so I speake these things.

29 For he that sent me, is with me: the Father hath not left me alone, because I do alwayes those things that please him.

30 As he spake these things, many beleeued in him.

31 Then said Iesus to the Iewes which beleeued in him, If ye continue in my word, yee are verely my disciples.

32 And shall know the truth, and the truth shall make you free.

33 They answered him, We be Abrahams seed, and were neuer bond to any man: why sayest thou then, Ye shall be made free?

34 Iesus answered them, Verely, verely I say vnto you, that whosoeuer committeth sinne, is the seruant of sinne.

35 And the seruaunt abideth not in the house for euer: but the Sonne abideth for euer.

36 If the Sonne therefore shall make you free, ye shalbe free indeed.

37 I know that ye are Abrahams seed, but ye seeke to kill me, because my word hath no place in you.

38 I speake that which I haue seene with my Father: and ye doe that which ye haue seene with your father.

7 And sayd vnto him, Goe wash in the poole of Siloam (which is by interpretation, Sent) He went his way therefore and washed, and came againe seeing.

8 Now the neighbours and they that had seene him before, when he was blinde, said, Is not this he that sate and begged?

9 Some sayd, This is hee: and others sayd, He is like him: but he himselfe sayd, I am he.

10 Therefore they sayd vnto him, How were thine eyes opened?

11 He answered, and said, The man that is called Jesus, made clay, and anointed mine eyes, and sayd vnto me, Go to the poole of Siloam, and wash. So I went and washed, and receiued sight.

12 Then they sayd vnto him, Where is he? He sayd, I cannot tell.

13 c They brought to the Pharises him that was once blinde.

14 And it was the Sabbath day, when Jesus made the clay, and opened his eyes.

15 Then againe the Pharises also asked him, how he had receiued sight. And he said vnto them, He laid clay vpon mine eyes, and I washed, and do see.

16 Then said some of the Pharises, This man is not of God, because hee keepeth not the Sabbath day. Others sayde, How can a man that is a sinner, doe such miracles? and there was a diuision among them.

17 Then spake they vnto the blinde againe, What sayest thou of him, because he hath opened thine eyes? And he said, He is a Prophet.

18 Then the Iewes did not beleeue him (that hee had beene blinde, and receiued his sight) vntill they had called the parents of him that had receiued sight.

19 And they asked them, saying, Is this your sonne, whom ye say was borne blinde? How doth he now see then?

20 His parents answered them, and said, We know that this is our sonne, and that he was borne blind:

21 But by what meanes hee now seeth, wee know not: or who hath opened his eyes, we can not tell: hee is old enough: aske him: he shall answere for himselfe.

22 These words spake his parents, because consult they feared the Iewes: for the Iewes had ordained alreadie, that if any man did confesse that he was the Christ, he should be excommunicated out of the Synagogue.

23 Therefore said his parents, He is old ynough: aske him.

24 Then againe called they the man that had bene blinde, and said vnto him, *Giue glory vnto God: we know that this man is a sinner.

25 Then he answered, and said, Whether hee bee a sinner or no, *I cannot tell: one thing I know, that I was blinde, and now I see.

26 Then said they to him againe, What did he to thee? how opened he thine eyes?

27 He answered them, I haue told you already, and yee haue not heard it: wherefore would ye heare it againe? *will yee also be his disciples?

28 Then checked they him, and said, Be thou his disciple: *we be Moses disciples.

29 We know that God spake vnto Moses: but this man we know not from whence he is.

30 The man answered, and sayde vnto them, Doubtlesse this is a marueilous thing, that ye *know not whence he is, and yet he hath opened mine eyes.

31 Now we know that God heareth not sinners: but if any man be a worshipper of God, and doeth his will, him heareth he.

32 Since the worlde began was it not heard that any man opened the eyes of one that was borne blinde.

33 If this man were not of God, he could haue done nothing.

34 They answered, and said vnto him, Thou art altogether borne in sinnes, and doest thou teach vs? so they cast him out.

35 Iesus heard that they had cast him out: and when he had found him, he said vnto him, Doest thou beleeue in the Sonne of God?

36 He answered, and said, Who is he, Lord, that I might beleeue in him?

37 And Iesus said vnto him, Both thou hast seene him, and he it is that talketh with thee.

38 Then hee said, Lord, I beleeue, and *worshipped him.

39 And Iesus saide, I am come vnto *iudgement into this worlde, that they which see not, might see: and that they *which see, might be made blinde.

40 And some of the Pharises which were with him heard these things, and said vnto him, Are we blinde also?

41 Iesus sayd vnto them, If yee were blinde, *ye should not haue sinne: but now ye say, We see: therefore your sinne remaineth.

CHAP. X.

1 Christ is the true shepheard, and the doore. 19 Diuers opinions of Christ. 24 He is assaulted by the Iewes. 31 His workes declare that he is God. 34 The Prophets called gods.

VErelie, verelie I say vnto you, *He that entereth not in by the doore into the sheepefolde, but climeth vp another way, he is a theefe, and a robber.

2 But he that goeth in by the doore, is the shepeheard of the sheepe.

3 To him the porter openeth, and the sheepe heare his voyce, and he *calleth his owne sheepe by name, and leadeth them out.

4 And when he hath sent forth his own sheepe, he goeth before them, and the sheepe follow him: for they know his voice.

5 And they will not follow a stranger, but they flee from him: for they know not the voice of strangers.

6 This parable spake Iesus vnto them: but they vnderstood not what things they were which he spake vnto them.

7 Then said Iesus vnto them againe, Verely, verely I say vnto you, I am the doore of the sheepe.

8 All, *that euer came before me, are theeues and robbers: but the sheepe did not heare them.

9 I am the doore: by me if any man enter in, he shall be saued, and shall *goe in and go out, and finde pasture.

10 The theefe commeth not, but for to steale, and to kill, and to destroy: I am come that they might haue life, and haue it in abundance.

11 *I am the good shepheard: the good shepheard giueth his life for his sheepe.

12 But an hireling, and hee which is not the shepheard, neither the sheepe are his owne, seeth the woefe comming, and hee leaueth the sheepe, and fleeth, and the woefe catcheth them, and scatereth the sheepe.

13 So the hireling fleeth, because he is an hireling, and careth not for the sheepe.

14 I am the good shepheard, and *know mine, and am knowen of mine.

15 *As the father *knoweth me, so know I the Father: and I lay downe my life for my sheepe.

16 *Other sheepe I haue also, which are not of this folde: them also must I bring, and they shall heare my voyce: and *there shall be one sheepefolde, and one shepheard.

17 *Therefore doth my Father loue me, because *I lay downe my life, that I might take it againe.

18 No man taketh it from me, but I lay it downe of my selfe: I haue power to lay it downe, and haue power to take it againe: this *commandement haue I receiued of my Father.

19 ¶ Then there was a diuision againe among the Iewes for these sayings.

20 And many of them sayd, Hee hath a deuil, and is madde: why heare ye him?

21 Other said, These are not the words of him that hath a deuil: can the deuil open the eyes of the blinde?

CHAP. XI.

Christ raiseth Lazarus from death. 47 The hie Priests and Pharisees gather a counsell against him. 50 Caiaphas prophesieth. 54 Christ goeth him out of the way.

AND a certaine man was sick, named Lazarus of Bethania, the towne of Mary, and her sister Martha.

2 (And it was that Mary which anoynted the Lord with ointment, and wiped his feet with her haire, whose brother Lazarus was sicke)

3 Therefore his sisters sent vnto him, saying, Lord behold, he whom thou louest, is sicke.

4 When Iesus heard it, he said, This sickenes is not vnto death, but for the glory of God, that the Sonne of God might bee glorified thereby.

5 Now Iesus loued Martha, and her sister, and Lazarus.

6 And after hee had heard that he was sicke, yet abode he two dayes still in the same place where he was.

7 Then after that, said he to his disciples, Let vs goe into Iudea againe.

8 The disciples said vnto him, Master, the Iewes lately sought to stone thee, and doest thou go thither againe?

9 Iesus answered, Are there not twelue houres in the day? if a man walke in the day he stumbleth not, because he seeth the light of this world.

10 But if a man walke in the night, hee stumbleth because there is no light in him.

11 These things spake he, and after hee said vnto them, Our friend Lazarus sleepeth: but I go to wake him vp.

12 Then said his disciples, Lord, if he sleep, hee shall be safe.

13 Howbeit, Iesus spake of his death: but they thought that he had spoken of the naturall sleepe.

14 Then said Iesus vnto them plainely, Lazarus is dead.

15 And I am glad for your sakes, that I was not there, that ye may beleeue: but let vs go vnto him.

16 Then said Thomas (which is called Didymus) vnto his fellowe disciple, Let vs also go, that we may die with him.

17 ¶ Then came Iesus, and found that he had lyen in the graue foure dayes already.

18 (Now Bethania was neere vnto Ierusalem, about fifteene furlongs off)

19 And many of the Iewes were come to Martha and Marie to comfort them for their brother.

20 Then Martha, when she heard that Iesus was comming, went to meete him: but Mary sate still in the house.

21 Then said Martha vnto Iesus, Lord, if thou hadst bene here, my brother had not bene dead.

22 But now I know also, that whatsoeuer thou askest of God, God will giue it thee.

23 Iesus said vnto her, Thy brother shall rise againe.

24 Martha said vnto him, I know that he shall rise againe in the resurrection at the last day.

25 Iesus said vnto her, I am the resurrection and the life: he that beleeueth in me, though he were dead, yet shall he liue.

26 And whosoeuer liueth and beleeueth in me, shall neuer die. Beleeuest thou this?

27 She said vnto him, Yea, Lord, I beleeue that thou art the Christ the Sonne of God, which should come into the world.

28 ¶ And when she had so said, she went her way, and called Mary her sister secretly, saying, The Master is come, and calleth for thee.

29 And when shee heard it, shee arose quickly and came vnto him.

30 For Iesus was not yet come into the towne, but was in the place where Martha met him.

39 Ieſus ſayd, Take ye away the ſtone. Martha the ſiſter of him that was dead, ſayd vnto him, Lord, he ſtinketh already: for he hath bene dead foure dayes.

41 Then they tooke away the ſtone from the place where the dead was layd. And Ieſus lift vp his eyes, and ſayde, Father, I thanke thee, becauſe thou haſt heard me.

42 I knowe that thou heareſt mee alwayes, but becauſe of the people that ſtand by, I ſayd it, that they may beleeue, that thou haſt ſent me.

43 As he had ſpoken theſe things, hee cryed with a loude voyce, Lazarus, come forth.

44 Then he that was dead, came forth, bound hand and foote with bandes, and his face was bound with a napkin. Ieſus ſayd vnto them, Looſe him, and let him goe.

45 ¶ Then many of the Iewes which came to Mary, and had ſeene the things, which Ieſus did, beleeued in him.

46 But ſome of them went their way to the Phariſes, and tolde them what things Ieſus had done.

47 Then gathered the hie Prieſtes, and the Phariſes a councell, and ſayd, What ſhall we doe? For this man doeth many miracles.

48 If m wee let him thus alone, all men will beleeue in him, and the Romanes will come and take away both our place, and the nation.

49 Then one of them named Caiaphas, which was the high Prieſt n that ſame yeere, ſayd vnto them, Ye perceiue nothing at all,

50 Nor yet doe you conſider that it is expedient for vs, that one man die for the people, and that the whole nation perith not.

51 This ſpake he not of himſelfe: but being hie Prieſt that ſame yeere, he o prophecied that Ieſus ſhould die for the nation:

52 And not for the nation onely, but that he ſhould gather together in one the children of God, which were ſcattered.

53 Then from that day forth they conſulted together, to put him to death.

54 Ieſus therefore walked no more openly among the Iewes, but went thence vnto a countrey neere to the wildernes, into a citie called Ephraim, and there continued with his diſciples.

55 ¶ And the Iewes Paſſouer was at hand, and many went out of the countrey vp to Ieruſalem before the Paſſouer, to p purifie themſelues.

56 Then ſought they for Ieſus, & ſpake among themſelues, as they ſtoode in the Temple, What thinke ye, that he commeth not to the feaſt?

57 Now both the high Prieſtes and the Phariſes had giuen a commandement, that if any man knew where he were, he ſhould ſhew it, that they might take him.

q Because hee saw the danger great which was for them.

2 And when b supper was done, (e the deuill had now put in the heart of Judas Iscariot, Simons sonne, to betray him,)

3 Iesus knowing that the Father had giuen all things into his hands, and that he was come from God, and went to God,

4 Vvee riseth from supper, and layeth aside his vpper garments, and tooke a towell, and girded himselfe.

5 After that, he powred water into a basen, and began to wash the disciples feet, and to wipe them with the towell wherewith he was girded.

6 Then came he to Simon Peter, who said to him, Lord, doest thou wash my feet?

7 Iesus answered and said vnto him, What I doe, thou knowest not nowe: but thou shalt know it hereafter.

8 Peter said vnto him, Thou shalt neuer wash my feet. Iesus answered him, If I c wash thee not, thou shalt haue no part with me.

9 Simon Peter said vnto him, Lorde, not my feete onely, but also the handes, and the head.

10 Iesus said to him, Vvee that is washed, needeth not, saue to d wash his feete, but is cleane euery whit: and ye are c cleane, but not all.

11 For he knew who should betray him: therefore said he, Ye are not all cleane.

12 ¶ So after he had washed their feete, and had taken his garments, and was set downe againe, hee said vnto them, Know ye what I haue done to you?

13 Ye call mee Master, and Lord, and ye say well: for so am I.

14 If I then your Lord, and Master, haue washed your feete, ye also ought to wash one anothers feet.

15 For I haue giuen you an example, that ye should doe, euen as I haue done to you.

16 Verely, verely I say vnto you, * The seruant is not greater then his master, neither the ambassadour greater then hee that sent him.

17 If ye know these things, blessed are ye, if ye do them.

18 ¶ I speake not of you all: I knowe whom I haue chosen: but it is that the scripture might bee fulfilled, * Vvee that eateth bread with me, hath lift vp his heele against me.

19 From henceforth tell I you before it come, that when it is come to passe, ye might believe that I am *he.

20 * Verely, verely I say vnto you, If I send any, hee that receiueth him, receiueth me, and he that receiueth me, receiueth him that sent me.

21 ¶ When Iesus had said these things, he was h troubled in the spirit, and i testified, and sayde, Verely, verely I say vnto you, that one of you shall betray me.

22 * Then the disciples looked one on another, doubting of whom he spake.

23 Now there was one of his disciples, which leaned on Iesus * bosome, whom Iesus loued.

24 To him beckened therefore Simon Peter, that hee should aske who it was of whom he spake.

25 Vvee then, as he leaned on Iesus brest, said vnto him, Lord, who is it?

26 Iesus answered, He it is, to whom I shal giue a lop, when I haue dipped it: and he wet a sop, and gaue it to Iudas Iscariot, Simons sonne.

27 And after the sop, k Satan entred into him. Then said Iesus vnto him, That thou doest, doe quickly.

28 But none of them that were at table, knew for what cause he spake it vnto him.

29 For some of them thought because Iudas had the bagge, that Iesus had said vnto him, Buy those things that we haue need of against the feast: or that hee should giue some thing to the poore.

30 Assoone then as hee had receiued the lop, hee went immediately out, and it was night.

31 ¶ When he was gone out, Iesus said, l Now is the Sonne of man glorified, and God is glorified in him.

32 If God be glorified in him, God shall also glorifie him in himselfe, e shall straightway glorifie him.

33 Little children, yet a little while am I with you: yee shall seeke me, but as I said vnto the * Iewes, Whither I goe, can ye not come: also to you say I now.

34 * n A new commandement giue I vnto you, that ye loue one another: as I haue loued you, that ye also loue one another.

35 By this shal all men know that ye are my disciples, if ye haue loue one to another.

36 Simon Peter said vnto him, Lorde, whither goest thou? Iesus answered him, Whither I goe, thou canst not follow me now: but thou o shalt follow me afterwards.

37 Peter said vnto him, Lord, why can I not follow thee now? * I will lay downe my life for thy sake.

38 Iesus answered him, Wilt thou lay downe thy life for my sake? Verely, verely I say vnto thee, The cocke shall not crow, till thou haue denied me thrise.

and the Trueth, and the Life. No man commeth vnto the Father, but by me.

7 If ye had knowen me, ye should haue knowen my Father also: and from henceforth ye know him and haue seene him.

8 Philip sayd vnto him, Lord, shewe vs thy Father, and it sufficeth vs.

9 Iesus sayd vnto him, I haue bene so long time with you, & hast thou not knowen me, Philip? he that hath seene me, hath seene my Father: how then sayest thou, Shew vs thy Father?

10 Beleeuest thou not, that I am in the Father, & the Father is in me? the words that I speake vnto you, I speake not of my selfe: but the Father that dwelleth in me, he [b] doth the works.

11 Beleeue me, that I am in the Father, and the Father in me: at the least, beleeue me for the very works sake.

12 Verely, verely I say vnto you, he that beleeueth in me, the works that I do, he shal do also, and greater then these shal he do: for I go vnto my Father.

13 [*] And whatsoeuer ye aske in my Name, that will I doe, that the Father may be glorified in the Sonne.

14 If ye shal aske any thing in my Name, I will do it.

15 If ye loue me, keepe my commaundements.

18 I will not leaue you comfortelesse: but I will [m] come to you.

19 Yet a little while, and the world shall see me no more, but yee shall see me: because I liue, ye shall liue also.

20 At that day shall ye know that I am in my Father, and you in me, and I in you.

21 He that hath my commaundements, and keepeth them, is he that loueth me: and he that loueth me, [n] shall be loued of my Father: and I will loue him, and will shewe mine owne selfe to him.

22 Iudas sayd vnto him (not [o] Iscariot) Lord, what is the cause that thou wilt shew thy selfe vnto vs, and not vnto the world?

23 Iesus answered, and sayd vnto him, If any man loue me, hee will keepe my word, and my Father will loue him, and wee will come vnto him, and will dwell with him.

24 He that loueth mee not, keepeth not my wordes, and the word which yee heare, is not [q] mine, but the Fathers which sent me.

25 These things haue I spoken vnto you, being present with you.

26 But the Comforter, which is the holy Ghost, whome the Father will send in my Name, hee shall teach you all things, and bring all things to your remembrance, which I haue told you.

27 [*] Peace I leaue with you: my peace I giue vnto you: not as the world giueth, giue I vnto you. Let not your heart be troubled, neither feare.

28 Ye haue heard how I sayd vnto you, I goe away, and will come vnto you. If ye loued me, ye would verely reioyce, because I sayd, I goe vnto the Father: [r] for my Father is [s] greater then I.

29 And now I haue spoken vnto you before it come, that when it is come to passe, ye might beleeue.

30 Hereafter will I not speake many things vnto you: for the [t] prince of this world commeth, and hath [u] nought in me.

31 But it is that the world may know that I loue my Father: and as the Father hath commanded me, so I doe. Arise, let vs goe hence.

CHAP. XV.

6 The sweete consolation, and mutuall loue betweene Christ and his members vnder the parable of the vine. 18 Of their common affliction and persecutions. 26 The office of the holy Ghost and the Apostles.

I Am the true Vine, and my Father is an husbandman.

2 [*] Euery branch that beareth not fruit in me, he taketh away: and euery one that beareth fruit, he purgeth it, that it may bring forth more fruit.

3 [*] Now are ye cleane through the word which I haue spoken vnto you.

4 Abide in mee, and I in you: as the branch cannot beare fruit of it selfe, except it abide in the vine, no more can ye, [a] except ye abide in me.

5 I am the vine, ye are the branches: he that abideth in me, and I in him, the same bringeth forth much fruit: for without me can ye doe nothing.

6 If a man abide not in me, he is cast forth as a branch, and withereth: and men gather them, and cast them into the fire, and they burne.

7 If ye abide in me, and my [b] wordes abide in you, aske [c] what ye will, and it shall be done to you.

8 Herein is my Father glorified, that ye beare much fruit, and be made my disciples.

9 As the Father hath loued me, so haue I loued you: continue in [d] my loue.

10 If yee shall keepe my commaundements, ye shall abide in my loue, as I haue kept my Fathers commaundements, and abide in his loue.

11 These things haue I spoken vnto you, that my ioy might remaine in you, and that your ioy might be [e] full.

12 [*] This is my commaundement, that ye loue one another, as I haue loued you.

13 Greater loue then this hath no man, when any man bestoweth his life for his friends.

14 Ye are my friends, if ye do whatsoeuer I command you.

15 Henceforth call I you not seruants: for the seruant knoweth not what his Master doeth: but I haue called you friendes: for [f] all things that I haue heard of my Father, haue I made knowen to you.

1 He putteth them in remembrance of the crosse, and of their owne infirmity to come, 7 And therfore doth comfort them with the promise of the holy Ghost. 16 Of the comming again of Christ. 17 Of his ascension. 23 To aske in the Name of Christ. 33 Peace in Christ, and in the world affliction.

THese things haue I sayd vnto you, that ye should not be a offended.

2 They shall excommunicate you: yea, the time shall come, that whosoeuer killeth you, will thinke that he doeth Gods seruice.

3 And these things will they doe vnto you, because they haue not knowen the Father, nor me.

4 But these things haue I told you, that when the houre shall come, ye might remember, that I told you them. And these things b sayde I not vnto you from the beginning, because I was with you.

5 But now I goe my way to him, that sent me, and none of you asketh me, * Whither goest thou?

6 But because I haue sayd these things vnto you, your hearts are full of sorow.

7 Yet I tell you the trueth, it is expedient for you that I goe away: for if I goe not away, the Comforter will not come vnto you: but if I depart, I will send him vnto you.

8 And when he is come, he will c reproue the world of sinne, and of righteousnesse, and of iudgement:

9 Of * sinne, because they beleeue not in me:

10 Of * righteousnesse, because I goe to my Father, and ye shall see me no more.

11 Of * iudgement, because the prince of this world is iudged.

12 I haue yet * many things to say vnto you, but ye cannot beare them now.

13 Howbeit, when hee is come which is the Spirite of trueth, he will lead you into all trueth: for hee shall not speake of himselfe, but whatsoeuer he shall heare, shall hee speake, and he will shew you the things to come.

14 He shall glorifie me: for he shall receiue of mine, and shall shew it vnto you.

15 All things that the Father hath, are mine: therefore sayd I, that he shall take of mine, and shew it vnto you.

16 * A little while, and ye shal not see me: and againe a little while, and ye shall see me: for I goe to my Father.

17 Then said some of his disciples among themselues, What is this that he saith vnto vs, A little while, and ye shall not see me, and againe, A little while, and ye shal see me, and, For I goe to my Father?

18 They sayd therefore, What is this that he sayth, A little while? wee know not what he saith.

19 Now Iesus knewe that they would aske him, and said vnto them, Do ye enquire among your selues of that I sayd, A little while, and yee shall not see me: and againe a little while, and ye shall see me?

20 Verely, verely I say vnto you, that ye shall weepe and lament, and the world shall reioyce: and ye shall sorow, but your sorow shall be turned to ioy.

21 A woman when she trauaileth, hath sorow, because her houre is come: but assoone as she is deliuered of the childe, she remembreth no more the anguish, for ioy that a man is borne into the world.

1 The prayer of Christ vnto his Father both for himselfe and his Apostles, and also for all such as receiue the truth.

THese things spake Iesus, and lift vp his eyes to heauen, and said, Father, the houre is come: glorifie thy Sonne, that thy Sonne also may glorifie thee,

2 * As thou hast giuen him u power ouer all flesh, that hee should giue eternall life to all v them that thou hast giuen him.

3 And this is life eternall, that they know thee to be the onely very God, & whom thou hast sent, Iesus w Christ.

4 I haue d glorified thee on the earth: I haue finished the worke which thou gauest me to doe.

5 And nowe glorifie mee, thou Father, with thine owne selfe, with the glory which I had with thee before the world was.

6 I haue declared thy Name vnto the men which thou gauest me out of the world: x thine they were, and thou gauest them me, and they haue kept thy word.

7 Now they know that all things whatsoeuer thou hast giuen me, are of thee.

8 For I haue giuen vnto them the words which thou gauest me, and they haue receiued them, * and haue knowen surely that I came out from thee, and haue beleeued that thou hast sent me.

9 I pray for them: I pray not for y the world, but for them which thou hast giuen me: for they are thine.

10 And all mine are thine, and thine are mine, and I am glorified in them.

11 And now am I no more in the world, but these are in the world, & I come to thee. Holy Father, keepe them in thy Name, euen them whom thou hast giuen mee, that they may be z one, as we are.

12 While I was with them in the world, I kept them in thy name: those that thou gauest me, haue I kept, and none of them is lost, but the a childe of perdition, that the * Scripture might be fulfilled.

13 And now come I to thee, & these things speake I in the world, that they might haue my ioy fulfilled in themselues.

14 I haue giuen them thy word, and the worlde hath hated them, because they are not of the world, as I am not of the world.

15 I pray not that thou shouldest take them out of the world, but that thou keepe them from euill.

16 They are not of the world, as I am not of the world.

17 b Sanctifie them with the truth: thy word is truth.

18 As thou hast sent me into the world, so haue I sent them into the world.

19 And for their sakes sanctifie I my selfe, that they also may be c sanctified through the truth.

20 I pray not for these alone, but for them also which shall beleeue in me through their word, 21 That they all may be one, as thou, O Father, art in mee, and I in thee: euen that they may be also one in vs, that the d world may beleeue that thou hast sent me.

22 And the glory that thou gauest mee, I e haue giuen them, that they may be one, as we are one:

23 I in them, and thou in mee, that they may be made perfect in one, f that the world may know that thou hast sent me, and hast loued them, as thou hast loued me.

24 * Father, I will that they which thou hast giuen me, bee g with me euen where I am, that they may behold my glory, which thou hast giuen me: for thou louedst me before the foundation of the world.

25 O righteous Father, the world also hath not knowen thee, but I haue knowen thee, and these haue knowen that thou hast sent me.

26 And I haue declared vnto them thy Name, and will declare it, that the loue wherewith thou hast loued mee, may bee in them, and I in h them.

3 *Iudas then after he had receiued a band of men & officers of the high Priests, and of the Pharisees, came thither with lanternes, and torches, and weapons.

4 Then Iesus knowing all things that should come vnto him, went forth and sayd vnto them, ‖Whom seeke ye?

5 They answered him, Iesus of Nazaret. Iesus sayd vnto them, I am he. Now Iudas also which betrayed him, stood with them.

6 Assoone then as he had sayd vnto them, I am hee, they went backwards, and fell to the ground.

7 Then he asked them againe, Whom seeke ye? And they sayd, Iesus of Nazaret.

8 Iesus answered, I sayd vnto you, that I am he: therefore if ye seeke me, let these goe their way.

9 This was that the word might be fulfilled which hee spake, *Of them which thou gauest me, haue I lost none.

10 Then Simon Peter hauing a sword, drew it, & smote the high Priests seruant, and cut off his right eare. Now the seruants name was Malchus.

11 Then sayd Iesus vnto Peter, Put vp thy sword into the sheath: shall I not drinke of the cup which my Father hath giuen me?

12 Then the band and the captaine, and the officers of the Iewes tooke Iesus, and bound him,

13 And ledde him away to *a Annas first (for hee was father in lawe to Caiaphas, which was the hie Priest * the same yeere)

14 *And Caiaphas was hee that gaue counsell to the Iewes, that it was expedient that one man should die for the people.

15 ¶ *Now Simon Peter followed Iesus and an other disciple, and that disciple was knowen of the hie Priest: therefore hee went in with Iesus into the hall of the high Priest.

16 But Peter stoode at the doore without. Then went out the other disciple, which was knowen vnto the hie Priest, and spake to her that kept the doore, and brought in Peter.

17 Then saide the maide that kept the doore vnto Peter, Art not thou also one of this mans disciples? he said, I am not.

18 And the seruants and officers stoode there, which had made a fire of coales, (for it was colde, and they warmed themselues. And Peter also stoode among them, & warmed himselfe.

19 ¶ The high Priest then asked Iesus of his disciples, and of his doctrine.

20 Iesus answered him, I spake *openly to the world: I euer taught in the Synagogue and in the Temple, whither the Iewes resort continually, and in secret haue I said nothing.

21 *Why askest thou me? aske them which heard me what I said vnto them: beholde, they know what I said.

22 When he had spoken these things, one of the officers which stood by, smote Iesus with his rod, saying, Answerest thou the hie Priest so?

23 Iesus answered him, If I haue euill spoken, beare witnesse of the euill: but if I haue well spoken, why smitest thou me?

24 ¶ *Now Annas had sent him bound vnto Caiaphas the hie Priest.)

25 *And Simon Peter stoode and warmed himselfe, and they said vnto him. Art not thou also of his disciples? hee denied it and said, I am not.

26 One of the seruants of the hie Priest, his cousin, whose eare Peter smote off, saide, Did not I see thee in the garden with him?

27 Peter then denied againe, and immediatly the cocke crew.

28 ¶ *Then led they Iesus from Caiaphas into the common hall. Nowe it was morning, and they themselues went not into the common hall, lest they should bee *defiled, but that they might eate the Passeouer.

29 Pilate then went out vnto them, and said, What accusation bring ye against this man?

30 They answered, and said vnto him, If he were not an euil doer, we would not haue deliuered him vnto thee.

31 Then saide Pilate vnto them, Take *ye him, and iudge him after your owne Law. Then the Iewes said vnto him, It is not ‖ lawfull for vs to put any man to death.

32 It was that the word of Iesus * might be fulfilled which he spake, signifying what death he should die.

33 *So Pilate entred into the common hall againe, and called Iesus, and said vnto him, Art thou the king of the Iewes?

34 Iesus answered him, Sayest thou that of thy selfe, or did other tell it thee of me?

35 Pilate answered, Am I a Iew? Thine owne nation, and the high Priests haue deliuered thee vnto me. What hast thou done?

36 Iesus answered, *My kingdome is not of this ‖ worlde: if my kingdome were of this worlde, my seruants would surely fight, that I should not be deliuered to the Iewes: but now is my kingdome not from hence.

37 Pilate then sayde vnto him, Art thou a king then? Iesus answered, Thou sayest that I am a king: for this cause am I borne and for this cause came I into the worlde, that I should beare witnesse vnto the truth: euery one that is of the truth, heareth my voice.

38 Pilate saide vnto him, ‖ What is truth? and when he had said that, he went out againe vnto the Iewes, and said vnto them, I finde in him no cause at all.

39 *But ye haue a ‖ custome, that I should deliuer you one loose at the Passeouer: will you then that I loose vnto you the King of the Iewes?

40 *Then cried they all againe, saying, Not him, but Barabbas: now this Barabbas was a murtherer.

CHAP. XIX.

1 When Pilate could not assuage the rage of the Priests against Christ, hee deliuereth him vp vnto his superscription to bee hanged between two theeues. 23 They cast lots for his garments. 26 He commendeth his mother vnto Iohn. 28 Calleth for drinke. 33 dieth, and his side is pierced, and taken downe from the crosse. 38 He is buried.

THen Pilate tooke Iesus and [a] scourged him.

2 And the souldiers platted a crowne of thornes, and put it on his head, and they put on him a purple garment.

3 And sayde, Haile, King of the Iewes. And they smote him with their rods.

4 Then Pilate went foorth againe, and sayd vnto them, Behold, I bring him foorth to you, that yee may knowe, that I finde no fault in him at all.

5 Then came Iesus foorth wearing a crowne of thornes, and a purple garment. And Pilate sayd vnto them, [b] Beholde the man.

6 Then when the high Priests and officers saw him, they cryed, saying, Crucifie, crucifie him. Pilate sayde vnto them, Take ye him, and crucifie him: for I finde no fault in him.

7 The Iewes answered him, We haue a lawe, and by our lawe hee ought to dye, because he made himselfe the [c] Sonne of God.

8 ¶ When Pilate then heard that word, he was the more afrayd,

9 And went againe into the common hall, and said vnto Iesus, Whence art thou? But Iesus gaue him none answere.

10 Then sayde Pilate vnto him, Speakest thou not vnto mee? Knowest thou not that I haue power to crucifie thee, and haue power to loose thee?

11 Iesus answered, Thou couldest haue no [d] power at all against mee, except it were giuen thee from aboue: therefore hee that deliuered me vnto thee, hath the greater sinne.

12 From thenceforth Pilate sought to loose him, but the Iewes cryed, saying, If thou deliuer him, thou art not Cesars friend: for whosoeuer maketh himselfe a King, speaketh against Cesar.

13 ¶ When Pilate heard that worde, hee brought Iesus foorth, and sate downe in the iudgement seate in a place called the [e] Pauement, and in Hebrewe, Gabbatha.

14 And it was the preparation of the Passeouer, and about the [f] first houre: and hee sayde vnto the Iewes, Beholde your King.

15 But they cryed, Away with him, away with him, crucifie him. Pilate sayde vnto them, Shall I crucifie your King? The high Priests answered, We haue no King but Cesar.

16 Then deliuered he him vnto them to be crucified. [g] And they tooke Iesus and led him away.

17 And he bare his crosse, and came into a place named of dead mens [h] skulles, which is called in Hebrew, [i] Golgotha:

18 Where they crucified him, and two other with him, on either side one, and Iesus in the midst.

19 ¶ And Pilate wrote also a title, and put it on the crosse, and it was written, IESVS OF NAZARETH THE KING OF THE IEWES.

20 This title then read many of the Iewes: for the place where Iesus was crucified was nere to the city: and it was written in [k] Hebrew, Greeke, and Latine.

21 Then saide the high Priestes of the Iewes to Pilate, Write not, The King of the Iewes, but that he said, I am King of the Iewes.

22 Pilate answered, What I haue written, I haue written.

23 ¶ Then the [l] souldiers, when they had crucified Iesus, tooke his garments, and made foure parts, to euery souldier a part, and his coate: and the coat was without seame, wouen from the toppe throughout.

24 Therefore they saide one to another, Let vs not diuide it, but cast lots for it, whose it shall be. This was that the [m] Scripture might be fulfilled, which sayeth, [n] They parted my garments among them, and on my coat did cast lots. So the souldiers did these things indeed.

25 ¶ Then stoode by the crosse of Iesus his mother, and his mothers sister, Marie the wife of [o] Cleopas, and Marie Magdalene.

26 And when Iesus saw his mother, and the disciple standing by, whom hee loued, he said vnto his mother, Woman, beholde thy sonne.

27 Then said he to the disciple, Beholde thy mother: and from that houre the disciple tooke her home vnto him.

28 ¶ After, when Iesus knewe that all things were performed, that the [p] Scripture might be fulfilled, he sayde, I thirst.

29 And there was set a vessell full of vineger: and they filled a spunge with vineger, and [q] put it about an hyssope stalke, and put it to his mouth.

30 Now when Iesus had receiued of the vineger, he sayd, [r] It is finished, and bowed his head, and gaue vp the ghost.

31 The Iewes then (because it was the Preparation, that the bodies should not remaine vpon the crosse on the Sabbath day: for that Sabbath was an high day) desired Pilate that their legs might be broken, and that they might be taken downe.

32 Then came the souldiers, and brake the legs of the first, and of the other, which was crucified with Iesus.

33 But when they came to Iesus, and saw that hee was dead already, they brake not his legs.

34 But one of the souldiers with a speare [s] pierced his side, and foorthwith came there out blood and water.

35 And hee that saw it, bare record, and his record is true: and he knoweth that he saith true, that ye might beleeue it.

36 For these things were done, that the [t] Scripture should be fulfilled, Not a bone of him shall be broken.

3 Peter therefore went foorth, and the other Disciple, and they came vnto the sepulchre.

4 So they ran both together, but the other Disciple did outrun Peter, and came first to the sepulchre.

5 And her stouped downe, and sawe the linnen clothes lying: yet went he not in.

6 Then came Simon Peter following him, and went into the Sepulchre, and saw the linnen clothes lie,

7 And the ‖ kerchiefe that was vpon his head, not lying with the linnen clothes, but wrapped together in a place by it selfe.

8 Then went in also the * other disciple, which came first to the sepulchre, and he saw it, and ‖ beleeued.

10 And the Disciples went away againe vnto their ‖ owne home.

11 ¶ * But Mary stoode without at the sepulchre weeping: and as she wept, shee bowed herselfe into the sepulchre, 12 And saw two angels in white, sitting, the one at the head, and the other at the feet, where the body of Iesus had layen.

13 And they sayd vnto her, ¶Woman, why weepest thou? She sayd vnto them, They haue taken away my Lord, and I know not where they haue layd him.

14 When shee had thus sayd, she turned herselfe backe, and saw Iesus standing, and knew not that it was Iesus.

15 Iesus sayth vnto her, ¶Woman, why weepest thou? whom seekest thou? She supposing that hee had bene the gardiner, sayd vnto him, Sir, if thou hast borne him hence, tell me where thou hast layd him, and I will take him away.

16 Iesus sayd vnto her, Mary. She turned her selfe, and sayde vnto him, Rabboni, which is to say, Master.

17 Iesus saith vnto her, Touch me not, for I am not yet * ascended to my Father, but go to my * brethren, ‖ and say vnto them, I ascend vnto my Father, and to your Father, and to my God, and your ‖ God.

18 Marie Magdalene came and told the Disciples, that shee had seene the Lord, and that he had spoken these things vnto her.

19 ¶ * The same day then at night, which was the first day of the weeke, and when the ‖ doores were shut where the Disciples were assembled for feare of the Iewes, came Iesus and stood in the midst, ‖ and sayd to them, ‖ Peace be vnto you.

20 And when hee had so said, he shewed vnto them his hands, and his side. Then were the Disciples glad, when they had seene the Lord.

21 Then sayde Iesus vnto them againe, Peace be vnto you: as my Father sent mee, so send I you.

22 And when he had sayd that, he ‖ breathed on them, and sayd vnto them, Receiue the holy Ghost.

23 * Whosoeuers sinnes yee remit, they are remitted vnto them: and whosoeuers sinnes ye retaine they are retained.

24 ¶ But Thomas one of the twelue, called Didymus, was not with them when Iesus came.

26 ¶ And eight dayes after, againe his Disciples were within, and Thomas with them. Then came Iesus whe the doores were shut, and stood in the mids, and sayd, Peace be vnto you.

27 After, sayd hee to Thomas, Put thy finger here, and see my hands, and put forth thine hand and put it into my side, and bee not faithlesse but faithfull.

28 Then Thomas answered, and sayde vnto him, Thou art my Lord, and my God.

29 Iesus said vnto him, Thomas, because thou hast seene mee, thou beleeuest: blessed are they that haue * not seene, and haue beleeued.

30 ¶ * And many other signes also did Iesus in the presence of his Disciples, which are not written in this booke.

CHAP. XXI.

Christ appeareth to his disciples againe. 15 He commandeth Peter earnestly to feed his sheepe. 18 He forewarneth him of his death. 25 Of Christs manifold miracles.

AFter these things, Iesus shewed himselfe againe to his disciples at the sea of Tiberias: and thus shewed he himselfe.

2 There were together Simon Peter, and Thomas which is called Didymus, and Nathanael of Cana in Galile, and the [a] sonnes of Zebedeus, and two other of his disciples.

3 Simon Peter sayd vnto them, I go a fishing. They sayd vnto him, We also will go with thee. They went their way, and entred into a ship straightway, and that night caught they nothing.

4 But when the morning was now come, Iesus stoode on the shore: neuertheles the disciples knew not that it was Iesus.

5 Iesus then said vnto them, Sirs, haue ye any meate? They answered him, No.

6 Then he saide vnto them, Cast out the net on the right side of the ship, and ye shall finde. So they [b] cast out, and they were not able at all to draw it for the multitude of fishes.

7 Therefore said the disciple whom Iesus loued vnto Peter, It is the Lord. When Simon Peter heard that it was the Lord, he girded his [c] coate to him (for he was naked) and cast himselfe into the sea.

8 But the other disciples came by shippe (for they were not far from land, but about two hundreth cubites) & they drew the net with fishes.

9 As soone then as they were come to land, they saw hot coales, and fish laid theron, and bread.

10 Iesus said vnto them, Bring of the fishes, which ye haue now caught.

11 Simon Peter stepped forth and drew the net to land full of great fishes, an hundreth fiftie and three: and albeit there were so many, yet was not the net broken.

12 Iesus said vnto them, Come, and dine. And none of the disciples durst aske him, Who art thou, seeing they knew that he was the Lord.

13 Iesus then came, and tooke bread, and gaue them, and fish likewise.

14 This is now the third time that Iesus shewed himselfe to his disciples, after that he was risen againe from the dead.

15 ¶ So when they had dined, Iesus saith to Simon Peter, Simon the sonne of Iona, louest thou me more then these? He saith vnto him, Yea Lord, thou knowest that I loue thee. He sayde vnto him, Feede my lambes.

16 He said to him againe the second time, Simon the sonne of Iona, louest thou me? He sayd vnto him, Yea Lord, thou knowest that I loue thee. He sayd vnto him, Feede my sheepe.

17 He said vnto him the [d] third time, Simon the sonne of Iona, louest thou me? Peter was sory because he said to him the third time, Louest thou me? and sayd vnto him, Lord, thou knowest all things: thou knowest that I loue thee. Iesus sayde vnto him, Feede my sheepe.

18 Verily, verily I say vnto thee, When thou wast young, thou girdedst thy selfe and walkedst whither thou wouldest: but when thou shalt bee olde, thou shalt stretch forth thine hands, and another shall [e] gird thee, and leade thee whither thou wouldest not.

19 And thus spake he, signifying by what death he should glorifie God. And when he had said this, he said to him, Follow me.

20 Then Peter turned about, and sawe the disciple whom Iesus loued, following, which had also [f] leaned on his breast at supper, and had said, Lord, which is he that betrayeth thee?

21 When Peter therefore saw him, he sayd to Iesus, Lorde, what shall this man doe?

22 Iesus said vnto him, If I will that he tarie till I come, what is it to thee? follow thou me.

23 Then went this word abroad among the brethren, that this Disciple should not die. Yet Iesus said not to him, He shall not die: but, If I will that he tarie till I come, what is it to thee?

24 This is that disciple which testifieth of these things, and wrote these things, and we know that his testimonie is true.

25 [g] Howe there are also many other things which Iesus did, the which if they should bee written euery one, I suppose the world could not containe the bookes that should be written, Amen.

c It was some linnen garment, which fishers vsed to weare, which being trussed vnto him, couered his nether parts, and also letted not his swimming.

d Because Peter should be established in his office of an Apostle, Christ causeth him by these three times confessing, to wipe away the shame of his three times denying.

e In stead of a girdle, thou shalt bee tied with bands & cords: and whereas now thou goest at liberte, then thou shalt be drawen to punishment, when thy flesh shall after a sort resist.

The Acts of the holy Apostles, written by Luke the Euangelist.

THE ARGVMENT.

CHrist after his ascension performed his promise to his Apostles, and sent them the holy Ghost, declaring thereby, that he was not onely mindefull of his Church, but would be the head and maintainer thereof for euer. Wherein also his mightie power appeareth, who notwithstanding that Satan and the world resisted neuer so much against this noble worke, yet by a few simple men of no reputation, replenished all the worlde with the sound of his Gospel. And heere in the beginning of the Church, and in the increase thereof, we may plainely perceiue the practise and malice which Satan continually vseth to suppresse and ouerthrowe the Gospel: hee rayseth conspiracies, tumults, commotions, persecutions, slanders, and all kinds of cruelrie. Againe we shall here behold the prouidence of God, who ouerthroweth his enemies enterprises, deliuereth his Church from the rage of tyrants, strengtheneth and encourageth his most faithfull and constantly to folow their captaine Christ, leauing as it were by this history a perpetual memory to the Church, that the crosse is so ioyned with the Gospel, that they are fellowes inseparable, and that the end of one affliction, is but the beginning of another. Yet nevertheless God turneth the troubles, persecutions, imprisonings and temptations of his to a good issue, giuing them as it were, in sorow, ioy: in bonds freedome: in prison, deliuerance: in trouble, quietnesse: in death, life. Finally, this booke containeth many excellent Sermons of the Apostles and disciples, as touching the death, resurrection, & ascension of Christ. The mercy of God. Of the grace and remission of sinne through Iesus Christ. Of the blessed immortalitie. An exhortation to the ministers of Christs flocke. Of repentance, and feare of God, with other principall points of our faith: so that this only historie in a maner may be sufficient to instruct a man in all true doctrine and Religion.

CHAP. I.

7 The wordes of Christ and his Angels to the Apostles. 9 His ascension. 14 Wherein the Apostles are occupied till the holy Ghost bee sent. 26 And of the election of Matthias.

THe former treatise, O Theophilus, of all that Iesus began to a do, and teach,

2 Until the day, that hee was taken vp, after that he through the holy Ghost, had giuen b commandements vnto the c Apostles, whom hee had chosen:

3 To whom also hee presented himselfe aliue after that he had suffered, by many infallible tokens, being seene of them by the space of fourtie dayes, and speaking of those things which appertaine to the d kingdome of God.

4 And when he had e gathered them together, hee commanded them f they should not depart from Ierusalem, but to waite for the promise of the father, g which, said he, yee haue heard of me.

5 h For Iohn in deed baptized with water, but yee shall bee baptized with the i holy Ghost within these few dayes.

6 When they therefore were come together, they asked of him, saying, Lorde, wilt thou k at this time restore the kingdome to Israel?

7 And he said vnto them, It is not for you to know the l times, or the seasons, which the Father hath put in his owne power,

8 But ye shall receiue power of the holy Ghost, when he shall come on you: and ye shall bee m witnesses vnto mee both in Ierusalem, and in all Iudea, and in Samaria, and vnto the n vttermost part of the earth.

9 o And when he had spoken these things, while they beheld, hee was p taken vp: for a cloud tooke him vp out of their sight.

10 And while they looked stedfastly toward heauen, as hee went, beholde, q two men stood by them in white apparell, 11 Which also sayde, Yee men of Galile, why stand yee r gazing into heauen? This Iesus which is taken vp from you into heauen, shall s so come, as ye haue seene him goe into heauen.

12 t Then returned they vnto Ierusalem from the mount that is called the mount of Olives, which is neere to Ierusalem, containing a u Sabbath dayes iourney.

13 And when they were come in, they went vp into an vpper chamber, where abode both Peter, and Iames, and Iohn, and Andrew, Philip, and Thomas, Bartlemew and Matthewe, Iames the sonne of Alphæus, and Simon Zelotes, and Iudas Iames brother.

14 These all continued with one x accord in y prayer and supplication with the z women, and Mary the mother of Iesus, and with his brethren.

15 a And in those dayes Peter stoode vp in the middes of the disciples, and sayd, (nowe the number of b names that were in one place, were about an hundreth and twentie)

16 Ye men and brethren, this c Scripture must needes haue beene fulfilled, which the d holy Ghost by the mouth of Dauid spake before of Iudas, which was e guide to them that tooke Iesus.

17 For hee was numbred with vs, and had obtained b fellowship in this ministration.

18 Hee therefore hath purchased a fielde with the f reward of iniquitie: and when he g had thrown downe himselfe headlong, he brast asunder in the mids, and all his bowels gushed out.

19 And it is knowen vnto all the inhabitants of Ierusalem, insomuch that that fielde is called in their owne language, Aceldama, that is, The fielde of blood.

20 For it is written in the booke of Psalmes, h Let his habitation be voide, and let no man dwell therein: i also let another take his charge.

21 Wherefore, of these men which haue companied with vs, all the time that the Lord Iesus was k conuersant among vs, 22 Beginning from the Baptisme of Iohn, vnto the day that hee was taken vp from vs, must one of them be made a witnes with vs of his l resurrection.

23 And they presented two, Ioseph called Barsabas, whose surname was Iustus, and m Matthias.

24 And they prayed, saying, Thou Lord which knowest the hearts of all men, shewe whether of these two n thou hast chosen,

CHAP. II.

3 The Apostles hauing receiued the holy Ghost, make their hearers astonished. 14 When Peter had stopped the mouthes of the mockers, he sheweth by the visible graces of the holy Spirit, that Christ is come. 41 Hee baptiseth a great number that were conuerted. 42 The godly exercise, charity, and diuers vertues of the faithfull.

AND when the a day of Pentecost was come, they were b all with one accord in one place.

2 And c suddenly there came a sound from heauen, and of a rushing and mightie d wind, and it filled all the house where they sate.

3 And there appeared vnto them clouen e tongues, like e fire, and it sate vpon each of them.

4 And they were all filled with the holy Ghost, and beganne to speake with other tongues, as the spirit gaue them f vtterance.

5 And there were g dwelling at Jerusalem Iewes, men that feared God, of euery nation vnder heauen.

6 Now when this was h noised, the multitude came together, and were astonied, because that euery man heard them speake his owne language.

7 And they wondered all, and maruelled, saying among themselues, Behold, are not all these which speake, of Galile?

8 How then heare wee euery man our owne language, wherein we were borne?

9 Parthians, and Medes, and Elamites, and the inhabitants of Mesopotamia, and of Judea, and of Cappadocia, of Pontus, and Asia,

10 And of Phrygia, and Pamphylia, of Egypt, and of the parts of Libya, which is beside Cyrene, and ‖ strangers of Rome, and i Iewes, and k Proselytes, 11 Cretes, and Arabians: we heard them speake in our owne tongues the wonderfull workes of God.

12 They were all then amazed, and doubted, saying one to another, What may this be?

13 And others l mocked, and said, They are full of ‖ newe wine.

14 ¶ But Peter standing with the eleuen, lift vp his voice, and said vnto them, Ye men of Judea, and ye all that inhabite Jerusalem, bee this knowen vnto you, and hearken vnto my words.

15 For these are not drunken, as ye suppose, since it is but the third houre of the day.

16 But this is that, which was spoken by the m Prophet n Joel,

17 And it shall be in the last dayes, saieth God, I will powre out of my Spirit vpon all o flesh, and your sonnes, and your daughters shall prophesie, and your yong men shall see visions, and your p olde men shall dreame dreames.

18 And on my seruants, and on mine handmaides I will q powre out of my Spirit in those dayes, and they shall prophesie.

19 And I will shew wonders in heauen aboue, and tokens in the earth beneath, blood, and fire, and the vapour of smoke.

20 r The Sunne shall bee turned into darkenesse, and the Moone into blood, before that great and notable day of the Lord come.

21 And it shall be s that whosoeuer shall call on the t Name of the Lord shall bee saued.

22 Ye men of Israel, heare these words, Jesus of Nazaret, a man approued of God among you with great workes, and wonders, and signes, which God did by him in the middes of you, as yee your selues also know:

23 Him, I say, haue ye taken by the hands of u the wicked, being deliuered by the x determinate counsell, and ‖ foreknowledge of God, and haue crucified and slaine:

24 (Whom God hath raised vp, and loosed the y sorowes of death, because it was vnpossible that he should be holden of it.

25 For Dauid sayeth concerning him, I beheld the Lord alwayes before me: for hee is at my z right hand, that I should not be moued.

26 Therefore did mine heart reioyce, and my tongue was glad, and moreouer also my flesh shall rest in a hope, 27 Because thou wilt not leaue my soule in graue, neither wilt suffer thine holy one to ‖ see corruption.

28 Thou hast shewed me the b ways of life, and shalt make me full of ioy with thy countenance.

29 Men & brethren, I may boldly speake vnto you of the Patriarke Dauid, c that hee is both dead and buried, and his sepulchre remaineth with vs vnto this day.

30 Therefore seeing he was d a Prophet, and knewe that God had e sworne with an othe to him, that of the fruite of his loynes hee would raise vp Christ concerning the flesh to set him vpon his throne, 31 He knowing this before, spake of the resurrection of Christ, that f his soule should not be left in graue, neither his flesh should ‖ see corruption.

32 This Jesus hath God raised vp, whereof we all are witnesses.

3 Who seeing Peter and John, that they would enter into the Temple, desired to receiue an almes.
4 And Peter earnestly beholding him with Iohn, sayd, Looke on vs.
5 And he gaue heed vnto them, trusting to receiue some thing of them.
6 Then sayd Peter, Siluer and gold haue I none, but such as I haue, that giue I thee: In the p Name of Iesus Christ of Nazaret, rise vp, and walke.
7 And he tooke him by the right hand, and lift him vp, and immediately his feet and ankle bones receiued strength.
8 And he leaped vp, stood, and walked, and entred with them into the Temple, walking and leaping, and praising God.
9 And all the people saw him walke, and praising God,
10 And they knewe him that it was he which sate for the almes at the Beautifull gate of the Temple, and they were amazed, and sore astonied at that which was come vnto him.
11 ¶ And as the cripple which was healed, held Peter and John, all the people ran amaine vnto them in the porch which is called Salomons.

CHAP. IIII.

3 Peter and Iohn deliuered out of prison preach the Gospel boldly. 10 They confesse plainely the Name of Christ. 16 They are comanded to preach no more in that Name. 24 They pray for the good successe of the Gospel. 32 The increase, vnity, and charity of the Church.

AND as they spake vnto the people, the Priests and the captaine of the Temple, and the Sadducees came vpon them,

2 Taking it grieuously that they taught the people, and preached in Iesus Name the resurrection from the dead.

3 And they laid hands on them, and put them in hold vntill the next day: for it was now euentide.

4 Howbeit, many of them which heard the word, beleeued: and the number of the men was about fiue thousand.

5 And it came to passe on the morow, that their rulers and Elders, and Scribes were gathered together at Ierusalem,

6 And Annas the chiefe Priest, and Caiaphas, and Iohn, and Alexander, and as many as were of the kinred of the hie Priests.

7 And when they had set them before them, they asked, By what power, or in what Name haue ye done this?

8 Then Peter full of the holy Ghost, said vnto them, Ye rulers of the people, and Elders of Israel,

9 Forasmuch as we this day are examined of the good deede done to the impotent man, to wit, by what meanes he is made whole,

10 Be it knowen vnto you all, and to all the people of Israel, that by the Name of Iesus Christ of Nazaret, whom ye haue crucified, whom God raised againe from the dead, euen by him doeth this man stand here before you whole.

11 This is the stone cast aside of you builders, which is become the head of the corner.

12 Neither is there saluation in any other: for among men there is giuen none other name vnder heauen, whereby we must be saued.

13 Now when they saw the boldnesse of Peter and Iohn, and vnderstood that they were vnlearned men, and without knowledge, they marueiled, and knew them, that they had bene with Iesus:

14 And beholding also the man which was healed standing with them, they had nothing to say against it.

15 Then they commanded them to go aside out of the Councill, and conferred among themselues, 16 Saying, What shall we doe to these men? For surely a manifest signe is done by them, and it is openly knowen to all them that dwel in Ierusalem: and we cannot denie it.

17 But that it bee noysed no further among the people, let vs threaten and charge them, that they speake henceforth to no man in this Name.

18 So they called them, and commanded them, that in no wise they should speake or teach in the Name of Iesus.

19 But Peter and Iohn answered vnto them, and said, Whether it bee right in the sight of God, to obey you rather then God, iudge yee.

20 For we cannot but speake the things which we haue seene and heard.

21 So they threatned them, & let them go, and found nothing how to punish them, because of the people: for all men praised God for that which was done.

22 For the man was about fourtie yeere olde, on whom this miracle of healing was shewed.

23 Then assoone as they were let go, they came to their fellowes, and shewed all that the hie Priests and Elders had said vnto them.

24 And when they heard it, they lift vp their voyces to God with one accord, & said, O Lord, thou art the God which hast made the heauen and the earth, the sea & all things that are in them.

25 Which by the mouth of thy seruant Dauid hast sayde, Why did the Gentiles rage, and the people imagine vaine things?

26 The kings of the earth assembled, and the rulers came together against the Lorde, and against his Christ.

27 For doubtles against thine holy sonne Iesus, whom thou hast anointed, both Herode and Pontius Pilate, with the Gentiles and the people of Israel gathered themselues together, 28 To doe whatsoeuer thine hand and thy counsell had determined before to bee done.

29 And now, O Lord, behold their threatnings, and y grant vnto thy seruaunts with all boldnesse to speake thy word, 30 So that thou stretch forth thine hand, that healing, and signes, and wonders may bee done by the Name of thine holy Sonne Iesus.

assembled together, and they were all filled with the holy Ghost, & they spake the worde of God boldly.

32 And the multitude of them that beleeued, were of one heart, & of one soule: neither any of them said, that any thing of that which he possessed, was his owne, but they had all things common.

33 And with great power gaue the Apostles witnesse of the resurrection of the Lord Iesus: and great grace was vpon them all.

34 Neither was there any among them that lacked: for as many as were possessours of lands or houses, solde them, & brought the price of the things that were solde,

35 And laid it downe at the Apostles feet, and it was distributed vnto euery man, according as he had need.

36 And Ioses, which was called of the Apostles, Barnabas (that is by interpretation, the son of consolation) being a Leuite, and of the country of Cyprus, 37 Whereas hee had lande, sold it, and brought the money, and laid it downe at the Apostles feete.

CHAP. V.

The hypocrisie of Ananias & Sapphira is punished. 12 Miracles are done by the Apostles. 17 They are taken, but the Angel of God bringeth them out of prison. 29 Their bolde confession before the Councill. 34 The counsel of Gamaliel. 40 The Apostles are beat, and reuyce in trouble.

BVt a certaine man named Ananias, with Sapphira his wife, solde a possession,

2 And kept away part of the price, his wife also being of counsel, and brought a certaine part, and laid it downe at the Apostles feete.

3 Then said Peter, Ananias, why hath Satan filled thine heart, that thou shouldest lie vnto the holy Ghost, & keepe away part of the price of the possession?

4 Whiles it remained, appertained it not vnto thee? and after it was solde, was it not in thine owne power? howe is it that thou hast conceiued this thing in thine heart? thou hast not lied vnto men, but vnto God.

5 Nowe when Ananias heard these words, he fell downe, and gaue vp the Ghost. Then great feare came on all them that heard these things.

6 And the yong men rose vp, and tooke him vp, and caried him out, and buried him.

7 And it came to passe about the space of three houres after, that his wife came in, ignorant of that which was done.

8 And Peter said vnto her, Tell me, solde ye the land for so much? And she said, Yea, for so much.

9 Then Peter said vnto her, Why haue ye agreed together, to tempt the Spirite of the Lord? beholde, the feete of them which haue buried thine husband, are at the doore, and shall carry thee out.

10 Then fell downe straightway at his feete, & yeelded vp the Ghost: & the yong men came in, and found her dead, and caried her out, and buried her by her husband.

11 And great feare came on all the Church, and on as many as heard these things.

12 Thus by the handes of the Apostles, were many signes and wonders shewed among the people (and they were all with one accord in Solomons porch.

13 And of the other durst no man ioyne himselfe to them: neuertheless the people magnified them.

14 Also the number of them that beleeued in the Lord, both of men and women, grewe more and more.)

15 In somuch that they brought the sicke into the streets, and laide them on beds, and couches, that at the least way the shadowe of Peter, when he came by, might shadowe some of them.

16 There came also a multitude out of the cities rounde about vnto Ierusalem, bringing sicke folkes, and them which were vexed with vncleane spirits, who were all healed.

17 Then the chiefe Priest rose vp, and all they that were with him (which was the sect of the Sadducets) and were full of indignation, 18 And layd handes on the Apostles, and put them in the common prison.

19 But the Angel of the Lorde by night opened the prison doores, and brought them forth, and said, 20 Goe your way and stand in the Temple, and speake to the people all the wordes of this life.

21 So when they heard it, they entred into the Temple early in the morning, and taught. And the chiefe Priest came, and they that were with him, and called the Councill together, and all the Elders of the children of Israel, and sent to the prison, to cause them to be brought.

22 But when the officers came, & founde them not in the prison, they returned and tolde it,

23 Saying, Certainely wee found the prison shut as sure as was possible, and the keepers standing without before the doores: but when we had opened, wee found no man within.

24 Then when the chiefe Priest, and the captaine of the Temple, and the hie Priests heard these things, they doubted of them, whereunto this would grow.

25 Then came one and shewed them, saying, Beholde, the men that yee put in prison, are standing in the Temple, and teach the people.

26 Then went the captaine with the officers, and brought them without violence (for they feared the people, least they should haue bene stoned.)

27 And when they had brought them, they set them before the Councill, and the chiefe Priest asked them, a This was a signe of Gods presence and the performance of his promise.

a This boldnesse and constancie declared that their prayer tooke effect.

b Of one minde, will, consent, and affection.

c Their hearts were ioyned in God, that being all members of one body, they could not suffer their fellow members to be destitute.

Chap. 2. 44.

d As the Apostles suffred none to lack, so S. Paul commaunded that no idle loyterers bee maintained, 2 Thessa. 3. 10.

e The goods were not alike diuided among al, but as euery man had want, so was his necessity moderately relieued.

a Which signified their sacriledge, distrust, and hypocrisie.

b Who mooued thy heart to sell thy possession? whereas thou keptest part to another vse, as if God did not see thy dissimulation.

c His sinne therfore was so much greater in that he committed it wilfingly.

d Then no man was compelled to sell his possessions, nor to put his money to the common vse.

e Because God so disposed it.

f And to mocke him as if he should not haue knowen your crafty fetch, which declareth that when men do any thing of an euill conscience, they do not only pronounce the sentence of damnation vpon themselues, but also prouoke the wrath of God, because they doe proue, as it were purposely, whether God be righteous and Almightie.

g Because of their owne euil consciences, which made them to tremble: for they that were not assured of Gods mercies in Christ, were astonished at these his strange iudgements.

h That is, they gaue them great praise.

i Which then were the chiefe among them.

k They were full of blinde zeale, emulation and ielousie, in defence of their superstition.

l That is, of the liuely doctrine, whereby the way to life is declared.

m So that there was no fraud nor deceite, nor negligence: but it liuely setteth forth the power of God and his prouidence for his.

28 Saying, Did not we straightly command you, that ye should not teach in this Name? and beholde, ye haue filled n Ierusalem with your doctrine, and ye would bring this mans o blood vpon vs.

29 Then Peter and the Apostles answered, and said, We ought rather to obey God, then p men.

30 The q God of our fathers hath raysed vp Iesus, whom ye slew, and hanged on a tree.

31 Him hath God lift vp with his right hand, to be a prince and a r Sauiour, to giue repentance to Israel, and forgiuenesse of sinnes.

32 And we are his witnesses concerning these things which we say: yea, and the holy Ghost, whom God hath giuen to them that obey t him.

33 Now when they heard it, they were [illegible] for anger, and consulted to slay them.

34 Then stood there vp in the Councel a certaine Pharise named Gamaliel, a doctor of the lawe, honoured of all the people, and commanded to put the Apostles forth a little space, 35 And said vnto them, Men of Israel, take heede to your selues, what ye intend to do touching these men.

36 For before these times, rose vp f Theudas boasting himselfe, to whom resorted a number of men, about foure hundreth, who was slaine: and they all which obeyed him, were scattered and brought to nought.

37 After this man, rose vp g Iudas of Galile, in the dayes of the tribute, and drew away much people after him: hee also perished, and all that obeyed him, were scattered abroad.

38 And now I say vnto you, Withdraw your selues from these men, & let them alone: for if this counsell, or this worke be of man, it will come to nought:

39 But if it bee of h God, ye cannot destroy it, lest yee bee found euen fighters against God.

40 And to him they agreed, and called the Apostles: and when they had beaten them, they commanded that they should not speake in the name of Iesus, and let them goe.

41 So they departed from the Councell, reioycing that they were counted worthy to suffer rebuke for his Name.

42 And daily in the Temple, and from house to house they ceased not to teach, and preach Iesus Christ.

1 Seuen Deacons are ordained in the Church. 8 The graces and miracles of Steuen whom they accused falsely.

AND in those dayes, as the number of the i disciples grew, there arose a murmuring of the k Grecians towards the Hebrewes, because their widowes were l neglected in the daily ministring.

2 Then the twelue called the multitude of the disciples together, and said, It is not meete that we should leaue the word of God to serue the m tables.

3 Wherefore brethren, looke ye out among you seuen men of honest report, and full of the holy Ghost, and of wisedome, which we may appoint to this businesse.

4 And we will giue our selues continually to prayer, and to the ministration of the word.

5 And the saying pleased the whole multitude: and they chose Steuen a man full of n faith and of the holy Ghost, and o Philip, and Prochorus, and Nicanor, and Timon, and Parmenas, and Nicolas a p Proselyte of Antiochia, 6 Which they set before the Apostles, and they prayed, and q laid their hands on them.

7 And the word of God increased, & the number of the disciples was multiplied in Ierusalem greatly, and a great company of the Priests were obedient to the r faith.

8 Now Steuen full of faith and power, did great wonders and miracles among the people.

9 Then there arose certaine of the s Synagogue, which are called Libertines, and Cyrenians, and of Alexandria, and of them of Cilicia, and of Asia, and disputed with Steuen.

10 But they were not able to resist the wisedome, and the Spirit by the which hee spake.

11 Then they t suborned men, which said, Wee haue heard him speake blasphemous words against Moses, and God.

12 Thus they mooued the people and the Elders, and the Scribes: and running vpon him, caught him, and brought him to the Councell, 13 And set foorth false witnesses, which said, This man ceaseth not to speake blasphemous words against this holy place, and the Law.

14 For we haue heard him say, that u this Iesus of Nazaret shall destroy this place, and shal change the ordinances, which Moses gaue vs.

15 And as all that sate in the Councell, looked stedfastly on him, they saw his face as it had bene the x face of an Angel.

Gene. 12. 1.

3 * And said vnto him, Come out of thy countrey, and from thy kinred, and come into the land, which I shall shew thee.

4 Then came hee out of the land of the Chaldeans, and dwelt in Charran. And after that his father was dead, God brought him from thence into this land, wherein yee now dwell.

5 And he gaue him none inheritance in it, no, not the breadth of a foote: yet hee promised that he would giue it to him for a possession, and to his seede after him, when as yet he had no childe.

6 But God spake thus, that his * seede should be a sojourner in a strange land, and that they should keepe it in bondage, and entreate it euill * fours hundreth yeeres.

7 But the nation to whom they shall be in bondage will I * iudge, sayth God: and after that, they shall come forth and serue me in this place.

8 * He gaue him also the couenant of circumcision: and so Abraham begate * Isaac, and circumcised him the eight day: and Isaac begate * Iacob, and Iacob the twelue * Patriarkes.

9 And the Patriarks moued with enuie, sold * Ioseph into Egypt: but God was * with him,

10 And deliuered him out of all his afflictions, and * gaue him fauour and wisedome in the sight of Pharaoh king of Egypt, who made him gouernour ouer Egypt, and ouer his whole house.

11 ¶ Then came there a famine ouer all the land of Egypt and Canaan, and great affliction, that our fathers found no sustinance.

12 But when * Iacob heard that there was corne in Egypt, hee sent our fathers first.

13 * And at the second time, Ioseph was knowen of his brethren, and Josephs kinred was made knowen vnto Pharao.

14 Then sent Ioseph and caused his father to be brought, and all his kinred, euen * threescore and fiftеene soules.

15 So * Iacob went downe into Egypt, and he * died, and our fathers, 16 And were remoued into * Sychem, and were put in the sepulchre, that * Abraham had bought * for money of the sonnes of Emor, sonne of Sychem.

17 But when the time of the promise drewe neere, which God had sworne to Abraham, the people * grew and multiplied in Egypt, 18 Till another King arose, which knew not Ioseph.

19 The same dealt ‖ subtilly with our kinred, and euill entreated our fathers, and made them to cast out their yong children, that ‖ they should not remaine aliue.

20 * The same time was Moses borne, and was acceptable vnto God, which was nourished vp in his fathers house three moneths.

21 And when hee was cast out, Pharaos daughter tooke him vp, and nourished him for her owne sonne.

22 And Moses was learned in all the wisedome of the Egyptians, and was mighty in words and in deedes.

23 Now when he was full forty yere old, it came into his heart to visite his brethren the children of Israel.

24 * And when he saw one of them suffer wrong, he defended him, and auenged his quarel that had the harme done to him, and smote the Egyptian.

25 For he supposed his brethren would haue vnderstoode that God by his hand should giue them deliuerance: but they vnderstood it not.

26 * And the next day he shewed himselfe vnto them as they strone, and would haue set them at one againe, saying, Sirs, ye are brethren: why doe ye wrong one to another?

27 But he that did his neighbour wrong, thrust him away, saying, Who made thee a prince, and a Iudge ouer vs?

28 Wilt thou kill me, as thou diddest the Egyptian yesterday?

29 Then fled Moses at that saying, and was a stranger in y land of Madian, where he begate two sonnes.

30 And when fortie yeeres were expired, there appeared to him in the * wildernesse of mount Sina, an Angel of the Lord in a flame * of fire, in a bush.

31 And when Moses saw it, he wondred at the sight: and as he drew neere to consider it, the voyce of the Lord came vnto him, saying, 32 I am the * God of thy fathers, the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Iacob. Then Moses trembled, and durst not behold it.

33 Then the Lord said to him, * Put off thy shoes from thy feete: for the place where thou standest, is holy ground.

34 I haue seene, I haue seene the affliction of my people, which is in Egypt, and I haue heard their grouning, & am come downe to deliuer them: and now come, and I will send thee into Egypt.

35 This Moses whom they forsooke, saying, Who made thee a prince, and a Iudge? the same God sent for a prince, and a deliuerer by the hand of the Angel, which appeared to him in the bush.

AND Saul consented to his death, and at that time there was a great persecution against the Church which was at Ierusalem, and they were all scattered abroade through the regions of Iudea, and of Samaria, except the Apostles.

2 Then certaine men feating God, a caried Steuen among them, to be buried, and made great b lamentation for him.

3 But Saul made hauock of the Church, and entred into euery house, and drew out both men and women, and put them into prison.

4 Therefore they that were scattered abroad, went to and fro preaching the word.

5 ¶ Then came Philip into the citie c of Samaria, and preached Christ vnto them.

6 And the people gaue heede vnto those things which Philip spake, with one accord, hearing, and seeing the miracles which hee did.

7 For vncleane spirites crying with a loud voyce, came out of many that were possessed of them: and many taken with palsies, and that halted, were healed.

13 Then Simon himselfe f beleeued also and was baptized, and continued with Philip, and wondred, when hee saw the signes and great miracles which were done.

14 ¶ Now when the Apostles which were at Ierusalem, heard say, that Samaria had receiued the word of God, they sent vnto them Peter and John.

15 Which when they were come downe, prayed for them, that they might receiue the g holy Ghost.

23 For I see that thou art [m] in the gall of [n] bitternesse, and in the bond of iniquitie.

24 Then answered Simon, & said, Pray yee to the Lord for mee, that none of these things which ye haue spoken, come vpon me.

25 ¶ So they, when they had testified and preached the word of the Lord, returned to Ierusalem, and preached the Gospel in many townes of the Samaritanes.

26 Then the Angel of the Lorde spake vnto Philip, saying, Arise and goe toward the South vnto the way that goeth downe from Ierusalem vnto Gaza, which is [o] waste.

27 And he arose, & went out: and behold, a certaine [o] Eunuch of Ethiopia, Candaces the Queene of the Ethiopians chiefe gouernour, who had the rule of al her treasure, and came to Ierusalem to worship:

28 And as he returned sitting in his charet, he read Elias the Prophet.

29 Then the Spirit said vnto Philip, Go neere, and ioyne thy selfe to yonder charet.

30 And Philip ran thither, & heard him reade the Prophet Elias, and said, But vnderstandest thou what thou readest?

31 And he said, How can I, except I had a guide? and he desired Philip that he would come vp and sit with him.

32 Now the place of the Scripture which he read, was this, [p] He was led as a sheepe to the slaughter: and like a lambe dumbe before his shearer, so opened hee not his mouth.

33 [p] In his humilitie his [q] iudgement hath bene exalted: but who shall declare [r] his generation? for his life is taken from the [r] earth.

34 Then the Eunuch answered Philip, and sayd, I pray thee of whom speaketh the Prophet this? of himselfe, or of some other man?

35 Then Philip [s] opened his mouth, and began at the same Scripture, and preached vnto him Iesus.

36 And as they went on their way, they came vnto a certain water, and the Eunuch said, See, here is water: what doeth let mee to be baptized?

37 And Philip sayde vnto him, If thou beleeuest with [t] all thine heart, thou mayest. Then he answered and said, I beleeue that Iesus Christ is the Sonne of God.

38 Then hee commanded the charet to stand still: and they went downe both into the water, both Philip, and the Eunuch, and he baptized him.

39 And assoone as they were come vp out of the water, the Spirit of the Lord caught away Philip, that the Eunuch [u] saw him no more: so he went on his way reioycing.

40 But Philip [x] was found at [y] Azotus, and hee walked to and fro preaching in all the cities, till he came to Cesarea.

4 And he fell to the earth, and heard a voyce, saying to him, Saul, Saul, why persecutest thou me?

5 And he said, Who art thou, Lord? And the Lord said, I am Iesus whom thou persecutest: it is hard for thee to kicke against [c] pricks.

6 He then both trembling and astonied, said, Lord, what wilt thou that I doe? And the Lord said vnto him, Arise, and goe into the citie, and it shall be tolde thee what thou shalt doe.

12 (And he saw in a vision a man named Ananias comming in to him, and putting his hands on him, that he might receiue his sight.)

13 Then Ananias answered, Lorde, I haue heard by many of this man, how much euill hee hath done to thy Saints at Ierusalem.

14 Moreouer here hee hath authoritie of the high Priests, to binde all that call on thy Name.

15 Then the Lord sayd vnto him, Go thy way: for hee is a [h] chosen vessell vnto me, to beare my Name before the Gentiles, and kings, and the children of Israel.

16 For I will shew him how many things he must suffer for my Names sake.

17 Then Ananias went his way, and entred into the houle, and put his handes on him, and sayd, Brother Saul, the Lord hath sent me (euen Iesus that appeared vnto thee in the way as thou camest) that thou mightest receiue thy light and bee filled with the holy Ghost.

18 And immediately there fell from his eyes as it had bene scales, and suddenly he receiued light, and arose, and was baptized, 19 And receiued meate, and was strengthened. So was Saul certaine dayes with the disciples which were at Damascus.

20 And straightway he preached Christ in the Synagogues, that he was the Sonne of God.

21 So that all that heard him, were amazed, and sayd, Is not this he that destroyed them which called on this Name in Ierusalem, and came hither for that intent, that he should bring them bound vnto the high Priests?

22 But Saul increased the more in strength, and confounded the Iewes which dwelt at Damascus, [k] confirming that this was the Christ.

23 And after [l] that many dayes were fulfilled, the Iewes tooke counsell together to kill him, 24 But their laying awaite was knowen of Saul: now they [m] watched the gates day and night, that they might kill him.

25 Then the disciples tooke him by night, and put him through the wall, and let him downe in a basket.

26 And when Saul was come to Ierusalem, hee assayed to ioyne himselfe with the disciples: but they were all afrayde of him, and beleeued not that hee was a disciple.

27 But Barnabas tooke him, [n] brought him to the Apostles, and declared to them, how hee had seene the Lord in the way, and that he had spoken vnto him, and how he had spoken boldely at Damascus in the Name of Iesus.

28 And he [o] was conuersant with them at Ierusalem, 29 And spake boldly [p] in the Name of the Lorde Iesus, and spake and disputed with the [q] Grecians: but they went about to slay him.

30 But when the brethren knew it, they brought him to Cesarea, and sent him forth to [r] Tarsus.

31 Then had the Churches rest thorow all Iudea, and Galile, and Samaria, & were edified, and walked in the feare of the Lord, and were multiplyed by the comfort of the holy Ghost.

32 And it came to passe, as Peter walked throughout all quarters, hee came also to the Saints which dwelt at Lydda, 33 And there he found a certaine man named Aeneas, which had kept his bed eight yeeres, and was sicke of the palsie.

34 Then sayd Peter vnto him, Aeneas, Iesus Christ maketh thee whole: arise and [‖] make vp thy bed. And hee arose immediately.

35 And [s] all that dwelt at Lydda, and [t] Saron saw him, and turned to the Lord.

36 There was also at Ioppa, a certaine woman a disciple named Tabitha (which by interpretation is called [u] Dorcas) she was [‖] full of good workes and almes which shee did.

37 And it came to passe in those dayes, that she was sicke and died: and when they had [x] washed her, they layd her in an vpper chamber.

38 Now forasmuch as Lydda was neere to Ioppa, and the disciples had heard that Peter was there, they sent vnto him two men, desiring that hee would not delay to come vnto them.

39 Then Peter arose & came with them: and when hee was come, they brought him into the vpper chamber, where all the widowes stood by him weeping, and shewing the coats & garments which Dorcas made, while she was with them.

40 But Peter put them all foorth, and kneeled downe, and prayed, and turned him to the body, and sayd, Tabitha, Arise. And shee opened her eyes, and when she saw Peter, sate vp.

41 Then he gaue her the hand and lift her vp, and called the [y] Saints and widowes, and restored her aliue.

42 And it was knowen throughout all Ioppa, and many beleeued in the Lord.

43 And it came to passe that hee taried many dayes in Ioppa with one Simon a tanner.

feath, and sayth, Arise Peter, kill and eate.

14 And Peter sayd, Not so, Lord: for I haue neuer eaten any thing that is polluted or vncleane.

15 And the voice spake vnto him againe the second time, The things that God hath purified, pollute thou not.

16 This was so done thrise: and the vessell was drawen vp againe into heauen.

17 ¶ Now while Peter doubted in himselfe what this vision which he had seene, meant, beholde, the men which were sent from Cornelius, had enquired for Simons house, and stood at the gate, 18 And called, and asked whether Simon, which was surnamed Peter, were lodged there.

19 And while Peter thought on the vision, the spirit sayd vnto him, Beholde, three men seeke thee.

20 Arise therefore, and get thee downe, and goe with them, and e doubt nothing: for I haue sent them.

21 ¶ Then Peter went down to the men, which were sent vnto him from Cornelius, and sayd, Beholde, I am he whom ye seeke: what is the cause wherefore ye are come?

22 And they said, Cornelius the captain, a iust man, and one that feareth God, and of good report among all the nation of the Iewes, was warned from heauen by an holy Angel, to send for thee into his house, and to heare thy words.

23 Then called he them in, and lodged them. And the next day Peter went forth with them, and certaine brethren from Ioppa accompanied him.

24 ¶ And the day after, they entred into Cesarea. Now Cornelius waited for them, and had called together his kinsmen, and speciall friends.

25 And it came to passe, as Peter came in, that Cornelius met him, and fell downe at his feete, and worshipped him.

26 But Peter tooke him vp, saying, Stand vp: for euen I my selfe am a man.

27 And as he talked with him, he came in, and found many that were come together.

28 And he sayd vnto them, Ye know that it is an vnlawfull thing for a man that is a Iewe, to company or come vnto one of an other nation: but God hath shewed me, that I should not call any man i polluted, or vncleane.

29 Therefore came I vnto you without saying nay, when I was sent for. I aske therefore, for what intente haue ye sent for me?

30 Then Cornelius sayd, Foure dayes agoe, about this houre, I fasted, and at the ninth houre I prayed in mine house, and beholde, a man stood before me in bright clothing, 31 And sayde, Cornelius, thy prayer is heard, and thine almes are had in remembrance in the sight of God.

32 Send therefore to Ioppa, and call for Simon, whose surname is Peter (he is lodged in the house of Simon a tanner by the sea side) who when he commeth, shall speake vnto thee.

33 Then sent I for thee immediately, and thou hast well done to come. Now therefore are we all here present before God, to heare all things that are commanded thee of God.

34 Then Peter opened his mouth, and sayd, Of a truth I perceiue, that k God is no accepter of persons.

35 But in euery nation hee that l feareth him and worketh m righteousnesse, is accepted with him.

4 Peter sheweth the cause wherefore he went to the Gentiles. 18 The Church approueth it. 21 The Church increaseth. 22 Barnabas and Paul preach at Antiochia. 28 Agabus prophesieth dearth to come, 29 and the remedie.

NOw the Apostles and the brethren that were in Iudea, heard that the Gentiles had also receiued the word of God.

2 And when Peter was come vp to Ierusalem, they of the circumcision contended against him,

3 Saying, Thou wentest in to men vncircumcised, and hast eaten with them.

4 Then Peter began, and expounded the thing in order vnto them, saying,

5 I was in the citie of Ioppa, praying, and in a trance I saw this vision, A certaine vessel comming downe as it had bene a great sheete, let downe from heauen by the foure corners, and it came to me.

6 Toward the which, when I had fastened mine eyes, I considered, and sawe foure footed beastes of the earth, and wilde beastes, and creeping things, and foules of the heauen.

7 Also I heard a voyce saying vnto me, Arise, Peter: slay and eat.

8 And I said, God forbid, Lord: for nothing polluted or vncleane hath at any time entred into my mouth.

9 But the voyce answered me the second time from heauen, The things that God hath purified, pollute thou not.

10 And this was done three times, and all were taken vp againe into heauen.

11 Then behold, immediatly there were three men already come vnto the house where I was, sent from Cesarea vnto me.

12 And the Spirit said vnto me, that I should goe with them without doubting: moreouer these fiue brethren came with me, and we entred into the mans house.

13 And he shewed vs how he had seene an Angel in his house, which stood and said to him, Send men to Ioppa, and call for Simon whose surname is Peter.

14 Hee shall speake wordes vnto thee, whereby both thou and all thine house shalbe saued.

15 And as I began to speake, the holy Ghost fell on them, [b] euen as vpon vs at the beginning.

16 Then I remembred the worde of the Lorde, how he said, [c] Iohn baptized with water, but ye shalbe [d] baptized with the holy Ghost.

17 For as much then as God gaue them a like gift, as he did vnto vs, when we beleeued in the Lord Iesus Christ, who was I, that I could let God?

18 When they heard these things, [e] they held their peace, and glorified God, saying, Then hath God also to the Gentiles graunted [f] repentance vnto life.

19 ¶ And they which were [g] scattered abroad because of the [h] affliction that rose about Stephen, walked throughout till they came vnto Phenice, and Cyprus, and Antiochia, preaching the word to no man, but vnto the Iewes onely.

20 Now some of them were men of Cyprus and of Cyrene, which when they were come into Antiochia, spake vnto the Grecians, and preached the Lord Iesus.

21 And the [i] hand of the Lord was with them, so that a great number beleeued and turned vnto the Lord.

22 Then tidings of these things came vnto the eares of the Church, which was in Ierusalem, and they sent forth Barnabas that he should goe vnto [k] Antiochia.

23 Who when he was come, and had seene the grace of God, was glad, and exhorted all, that with purpose of heart they would [l] cleaue vnto the Lord.

24 For he was a good man, and full of the holy Ghost, and faith, and much people ioyned themselues vnto the Lord.

25 ¶ Then departed Barnabas to Tarsus to seeke Saul:

26 And when he had founde him, he brought him vnto Antiochia, and it came to passe, that a whole yeere they were conuersant with the Church, and taught much people, in so much, that the Disciples were first called [m] Christians in Antiochia.

27 In those dayes also came Prophets from Ierusalem vnto Antiochia.

28 And there stood vp one of them named Agabus, and signified by the [n] spirite, that there should be great famine throughout all the worlde, which also came to passe vnder Claudius Cesar.

29 Then the disciples euery man according to his ability, [o] purposed to sende succour vnto the brethren which dwelt in Iudea.

2 And her killed Iames the [b] brother of Iohn with the sword.

3 And when he sawe that it [c] pleased the Iewes, he proceeded further to take Peter also (then were the dayes of vnleauened bread.)

4 And when he had caught him, he put him in prison, and deliuered him to [d] foure quaternions of souldiers to be kept, intending after the Passouer to bring him forth to the people.

5 So Peter was kept in prison, but earnest prayer was made of the Church vnto God for him.

6 And when Herod would haue brought him out vnto the people, the same night slept Peter betweene two souldiers, bound with two chaines, & the keepers before the doore, kept the prison.

7 [e] And beholde, the Angell of the Lord came vpon them, and a light shined in the house, and hee smote Peter on the side, and raised him vp, saying, Arise quickly. And his chaines fell off from his hands.

8 And the Angel sayde vnto him, Gird thy selfe, and binde on thy [e] sandales. And so he did. Then hee sayde vnto him, Cast thy garment about thee, and followe mee.

9 So Peter came out and followed him, and knew not that it was true, which was done by the Angel, but thought he had seene a vision.

10 Now when they were past the first and the second watch, they came vnto the yron gate that leadeth vnto the citie, which opened to them by it owne accord, and they went out, and passed through one streete, and by and by the Angel departed from him.

11 ¶ And when Peter was come to himselfe, hee sayd, Now I knowe for a truth that the Lord hath sent his Angel, and hath deliuered me out of the hand of Herod, and from all the [f] waiting for of the people of the Iewes.

12 And as he considered the thing, he came to the house of Mary the mother of Iohn, whose surname was Marke, where many were gathered together, and prayed.

13 And when Peter knocked at the entrie doore, a maide came forth to hearken, named Rhode.

14 But when she knew Peters voyce, she opened not the entrie doore for gladnesse, but ran in, and told how Peter stood before the entrie.

15 But they sayde vnto her, Thou art madde. Yet she affirmed it constantly, that it was so. Then sayde they, It is his [g] Angel.

16 But Peter continued knocking, and when they had opened it, and saw him, they were astonied.

17 And he beckened vnto them with the hand to holde their peace, and told them how the Lord had brought him out of the prison. And hee sayd, Goe shewe these things vnto Iames and to the brethren: and he departed and went into [h] another place.

18 ¶ Now assoone as it was day, there was no small trouble among the souldiers, what was become of Peter.

19 And when Herod had sought for him, and found him not, he examined the keepers, and commanded them to be led to be punished. And he went down from Iudea to Cesarea, and there abode.

20 Then Herod intended to make warre against them of Tyrus and Sidon, but they came all with one accord vnto him, and perswaded Blastus the kings chamberlain, and they desired peace, because their country was nourished by the kings land.

21 And vpon a day appointed, Herode arayed himselfe in royall apparrell, & sate on the iudgement seat, & made an oration vnto them.

22 And the people gaue a shoute, saying, The voice of God and not of man.

23 But immediately [i] Angel of the Lord smote him, because hee [k] gaue not glory vnto God, so that he was eaten [l] of wormes, and gaue vp the Ghost.

CHAP. XIII.

1 Paul and Barnabas are called to preach among the Gentiles. 7 Of Sergius Paulus and Elymas the sorcerer. 15 The departure of Marke. 14 Paul preached at Antiochia. 42 The fruit of the Gentiles. 46 The Iewes reiected. 48 They that are ordained to life, beleeue. 52 The fruits of ioy.

THere were also in the Church that was at Antiochia, certaine prophets and teachers, as Barnabas, and Simeon called Niger, and Lucius of Cyrene, and [a] Manahen, (which had bene brought vp with Herode the Tetrarch) and Saul.

2 Now as they [b] ministred to the Lord, and fasted, the holy Ghost said, Separate me Barnabas and Saul, for the worke whereunto I haue called them.

3 Then fasted they, and prayed, and laid their hands on them, and let them goe.

4 And they, after they were sent forth of the holy Ghost, came downe vnto Seleucia, and from thence they sailed to Cyprus.

5 And when they were at Salamis, they preached the word of God in the Synagogues of the Iewes: and they had also Iohn to their minister.

6 So when they had gone throughout the yle vnto Paphos, they found a certaine sorcerer, a false prophet, being a Iew, named Bariesus, 7 Which was with the Deputy Sergius Paulus, a prudent man. Hee called vnto him Barnabas & Saul, and desired to heare the word of God.

9 Then Saul (which also is called Paul) being full of the holy Ghost, set his eyes on him,

10 And said, O ful of all subtiltie and all mischiefe, the childe of the deuill, and enemie of all righteousnesse, wilt thou not cease to peruert the straight c wayes of the Lord?

c Which are the doctrine of the Apostles, that onely leadeth vs to God.

11 Now therefore beholde, the hand of the Lord is vpon thee, and thou shalt bee blind, and not see the sunne for a season. And immediatly there fell on him a myste and a darkenesse, and he went about, seeking some to leade him by the hand.

12 Then the Deputie when he saw what was done, beleeued, and was astonied at the doctrine of the Lord.

13 Now when Paul and they that were with him, were departed by ship from Paphus, they came to Perga, a citie of Pamphylia: & then Iohn departed from them, and returned to Ierusalem.

14 But when they departed from Perga, they came to d Antiochia a citie of Pisidia, and went into the Synagogue on the Sabbath day, and sate downe.

d This was another Antiochia, then that which was in Syria.

15 And after the lecture of the Law and Prophets, the rulers of the Synagogue sent vnto them, saying, Ye men and brethren, if yee haue any worde of e exhortation for the people, say on.

e This declareth that the Scripture is giuen to teache and exhort vs, and that they refused none that had gifts to set forth Gods glory, and to edifie his people, Exod. 1.9. Exod. 13.14. Exod. 16.1.

16 Then Paul stoode vp and beckened with the hand, and sayd, Men of Israel, and ye that feare God, hearken.

17 The God of this people of Israel chose our fathers, and exalted the people when they dwelt in the lande of f Egypt, and with an * high arme brought them out thereof.

f Here is declared the great patience and long suffering of God before he punisheth. Iosh. 14.1. Iudg. 3.9.

18 And about the time * of fourty yeeres, suffered hee their f maners in the wildernesse.

g For these 450 yeeres were not fully accomplished, but there lacked 3. yeres, counting from the birth of Isaac, to § diffribution of the land of Chanaan.

19 And he destroyed seuen nations in the land of Chanaan, and * diuided their lande to them by lot.

20 Then afterward he gaue vnto them * Iudges g about foure hundreth and fifte yeeres, vnto the time of Samuel the Prophet.

21 So after that they desired a * King, and God gaue vnto them * Saul the sonne of Cis, a man of the tribe of Beniamin, by the space of fourty yeeres.

22 And after he had taken him away, he raised vp * Dauid to be their king, of whom hee witnessed, saying, I haue found Dauid the sonne of Iesse, a man after mine owne heart, which will doe all things that I will.

23 Of this mans seede hath God * according to his promise raised vp to Israel the Sauiour Iesus:

24 When * Iohn had first preached before his comming the baptisme of repentance to all the people of Israel.

25 And when Iohn had fulfilled his h course, he sayd, * Whom yee thinke that I am, I am not hee: but beholde, there commeth one after mee, whose shoe of his feete I am not worthy to loose.

26 Ye men and brethren, children of the generation of Abraham, and whosoeuer among you feareth God: to you is the worde of this saluation sent.

27 For the inhabitants of Ierusalem, and their rulers, because they * knew him not, nor yet the wordes of his Prophets, which are i read euery Sabbath day, they haue fulfilled them in condemning him.

28 And though they found no cause of death in him, * yet desired they Pilate to kill him.

29 And when they had * fulfilled all things that were written of him, they tooke him downe from the tree, and put him in a sepulchre.

30 But God * raised him vp from the dead.

31 And hee was seene many dayes of them, which came vp with him from Galile to Ierusalem, which are his witnesses vnto the people.

32 And we declare vnto you that touching the promise made vnto the fathers, 33 God hath fulfilled it vnto vs their children, in that hee * raised vp Iesus, euen as it is written in the second Psalme, * Thou art my Sonne: this day haue I begotten thee.

34 Nowe as concerning that hee raised him vp from the dead, no more to returne to the graue, he hath sayd thus, * I will giue you the * holy things of Dauid which are faithfull.

35 Wherefore hee saith also in another place, * Thou wilt not suffer thine holy one to see corruption.

36 Howbeit Dauid after hee had serued his time by the counsell of God, hee * slept, and was layd with his fathers, and saw corruption.

37 But hee whom God raised vp, saw no corruption.

38 Bee it knowen vnto you therefore, men and brethren, that through this man is preached vnto you the forgiuenesse of sinnes.

39 And from all things from which yee could not bee iustified by the Law of Moses, by him euery one that beleeueth, is iustified.

40 Beware therefore, least that come vpon you, which is spoken of in the Prophets, 41 * Behold, ye k despisers, and wonder, and vanish away: for I worke a l worke in your dayes, a worke which yee shall not beleeue, if a man would declare it you.

42 ¶ And when they were come out of the Synagogue of the Iewes, the Gentiles besought, that they would preach these words to them the next Sabbath day.

43 Now when the Congregation was dissolued, many of the Iewes, and Proselytes that feared God, followed Paul and Barnabas, which spake to them, and exhorted them to continue in the grace of God.

44 And the next Sabbath day came almost the whole citie together, to heare the word of God.

45 But when the Iewes saw the people, they were full of † enuie, and spake against those things, which were spoken of Paul, contrarying them, and railing on them.

46 Then Paul and Barnabas spake boldly, and said, * It was necessary that the worde of God should first haue bene spoken vnto you: but seeing ye put it from you, and iudge your selues vnworthy of ‡ euerlasting life, loe, we turne to the Gentiles.

47 For so hath the Lord commanded vs, saying, § I haue made thee a light of the Gentiles, that thou shouldest be the salvation vnto the end of the world.

48 And when the Gentiles heard it, they were glad, & glorified the worde of the Lord: and as many as were † ordeined vnto eternall life, beleeued.

49 Thus the worde of the Lord was published throughout the whole country.

51 But they * shooke off the dust of their feete against them, and came vnto Iconium.

52 And the disciples were filled with ioy, and with the holy Ghost.

CHAP. XIIII.

3 God giueth successe to his word, 6 Paul and Barnabas preach at Iconium and are persecuted. 13 At Lystra they would doe sacrifice to Barnabas and Paul which refuse it, and exhort the people to worship the true God. 19 Paul is stoned. 22 They confirme the disciples in faith and patience, 23 Appoint ministers, 26 And passing through many places, make report of their diligence at Antiochia.

AND it came to passe in Iconium, that they went both together into the Synagogue of the Iewes, and so spake, that a great multitude both of the Iewes and of the Grecians beleeued.

2 But the * vnbeleeuing Iewes stirred vp, and corrupted the mindes of the Gentiles against the brethren.

3 Go therefore they abode there a long time, and spake boldly in the Lord, which gaue testimonie vnto the word of his grace, and caused signes and wonders to be done by their handes.

4 But the people of the citie were diuided: and some were with the Iewes, and some with the Apostles.

5 And when there was an assault made both of the Gentiles, and of the Iewes with their rulers, to doe them violence, and to stone them,

6 They were ware of it, and fled vnto Lystra, and Derbe, cities of Lycaonia, and vnto the region round about,

7 And there were preaching the Gospel †

8 ¶ Now there sate a certaine man at Lystra, impotent in his feete, which was a cripple from his mothers wombe, who had neuer walked.

9 The same heard Paul speake: who beholding him, and perceiuing that he had faith to be healed, 10 Sayde with a loude voyce, † Stand vpright on thy feete. And he leaped vp, and walked.

11 Then when the people saw what Paul had done, they lifted vp their voyces, saying in the speech of Lycaonia, Gods are come downe to vs in the likenesse of men.

12 And they called Barnabas, Iupiter, and Paul, Mercurius, because hee was the chiefe speaker.

13 Then Iupiters Priest, which was before their citie, brought bulls with † garlands vnto the * gates, and would haue sacrificed with the people.

14 But when the Apostles Barnabas & Paul heard it, they ‡ rent their clothes, and came in among the people, crying,

15 And saying, O men, why doe ye these things? § wee are euen men * subiect to the like passions that ye be, & preach vnto you, that ye should turne from these ‖ vaine idoles vnto the liuing God, * which made heauen and earth, and the sea, and all things that in them are.

18 And speaking these things, scarce restrained they the people, that they had not sacrificed vnto them †.

19 Then there came certaine Iewes from Antiochia and Iconium, which when they had perswaded the people, ‖ * stoned Paul, and drew him out of the citie, supposing he had bene dead.

20 Howbeit, as the disciples stood round about him, he arose vp, and came into the citie, and the next day he departed with Barnabas to Derbe.

21 And after they had preached to that citie, and had taught many, they returned to Lystra, and to Iconium, and to Antiochia, 22 Confirming the disciples hearts, and exhorting them to continue in the faith, affirming that we must through many afflictions enter into the kingdome of God.

23 And when they had ordeined them Elders by † election in euery Church, & prayed, and fasted, they commended them to the Lord in whom they beleeued.

24 Thus they went throughout Pisidia, and came to Pamphylia.

25 And when they had preached the word in Perga, they came downe to Attalia, 26 And thence sailed to Antiochia, * from whence they had bene commended vnto the grace of God, to the worke which they had fulfilled.

27 And when they were come, and had gathered the Church together, they rehearsed all the things that God had done * by them, and how hee had opened the doore of faith vnto the Gentiles.

CHAP. XV.

1 Variance about circumcision. 22 The Apostles sende their determination to the Churches. 35 Paul and Barnabas preach at Antiochia. 39 And separate company because of Iohn Marke.

THen came down certaine from Iudea, and taught the brethren, saying, Except ye be circumcised after the maner of Moses, ye cannot be saued.

2 And when there was great dissension and disputation by Paul and Barnabas against them, they ordened that Paul and Barnabas, & certaine other of them should goe vp to Ierusalem vnto the Apostles and Elders about this question.

3 Thus being sent forth by the Church, they passed through Phenice, and Samaria, declaring the conuersion of the Gentiles: and they brought great ioy vnto all the brethren.

4 And when they were come to Ierusalem, they were receiued of the Church, and of the Apostles and Elders, and they declared what things God had done by them.

5 But sayd they, certaine of the sect of the b Pharises, which did beleeue, rose vp, saying, that it was needful to circumcise them, and to commaund them to keepe the Law of Moses.

6 Then the Apostles and Elders came together to looke to this matter.

7 And whenthere had bene great disputation, Peter rose vp, and sayde vnto them, c Ye men and brethren, ye know, that a good while agoe, among vs God chose out me, that the Gentiles by my mouth should heare the worde of the Gospell, and beleeue.

8 And God which knoweth the hearts, bare them witnesse, in giuing vnto them the holy Ghost, euen as he did vnto vs,

9 And put no d difference betweene vs, and them, after that by faith hee had e purified their hearts,

10 Now therefore, why e tempt ye God, to f lay a yoke on the disciples neck, which neither our fathers, nor wee were able to beare?

11 But we beleeue, through the g grace of the Lord Iesus Christ to be saued, euen as they doe.

12 Then all the multitude kept silence, and heard Barnabas and Paul, which told what signes and wonders God had done among the Gentiles by them.

13 And when they held their peace, Iames answered, saying, Men and brethren, hearken vnto me.

14 h Simeon hath declared how God first did visite the Gentiles, to take of them a people vnto his Name.

15 And to this agree the wordes of the Prophets, as it is written,

16 i After this I will returne, and will build againe the k Tabernacle of Dauid, which is fallen downe, and the ruines thereof will I build againe, and I will set it vp,

17 That the residue of men might seeke after the Lord, and all the Gentiles vpon whom my Name is called, sayeth the Lord which doeth all these things.

18 From the beginning of the world God knoweth all his workes.

19 Wherefore my sentence is, that wee trouble not them of the Gentiles that are turned to God, 20 But that we write vnto them, that they abstaine themselues from l filthinesse of Idoles, and m fornication, and that that is strangled, and from blood.

21 For n Moses of old time hath in euery citie them that preach him, seeing he is read in the Synagogues euery Sabbath day.

22 Then it seemed good to the Apostles and Elders with the whole Church, to send chosen men of their owne company to Antiochia with Paul and Barnabas: to wit, Iudas whole surname was Barsabas, and Silas, which were chiefe men among the brethren, 23 And wrote letters by them after this maner, THE APOSTLES, and the Elders, and the brethren, vnto the brethren which are of the Gentiles in Antiochia, and in Syria, and in Cilicia, sende greeting.

24 For as much as we haue heard, that certaine which departed fro vs, haue troubled you with wordes, and cumbred your mindes, saying, Ye must be circumcised and keepe the Law, to whom we gaue no such commandement:

25 It seemed therefore good to vs, when wee were come together with one accord, to send chosen men vnto you, with our beloued Barnabas and Paul, 26 Men that haue giuen vp their liues for the Name of our Lord Iesus Christ.

27 Wee haue therefore sent Iudas and Silas, which shall also tell you the same things by mouth.

28 For it seemed good to the holy Ghost, and o to vs, to lay no more burthen vpon you, then these necessary things, 29 That is, that ye abstaine from things offered to Idoles, and blood, and that that is strangled, & from fornication: p from which if ye keepe your selues, ye shall do well. Fare ye well.

30 Now when they were departed, they came to Antiochia, and after that they had assembled the multitude, they deliuered the Epistle.

31 And when they had read it, they reioyced for the consolation.

32 And Iudas & Silas being Prophets q exhorted the brethren with many wordes and strengthened them.

33 And after they had tarried there a space they were let goe in r peace of the brethren vnto the Apostles.

34 Notwithstanding s Silas thought good to abide there still.

35 Paul alſo and Barnabas continued in Antiochia, teaching and preaching with many other the word of the Lord.

36 ¶ But after certaine dayes, Paul ſaid vnto Barnabas, Let vs returne, and viſite our brethren in every citie, where wee haue preached the word of the Lord, and ſee how they doe.

37 And Barnabas † counſelled to take with them Iohn called Marke.

38 But Paul thought it not meet to take him vnto their companie, which departed from them from Pamphylia, and went not with them to the worke.

39 Then were they ſo ſtirred, that they P departed aſunder one from another, ſo that Barnabas tooke Marke, and ſayled vnto Cyprus.

40 And Paul choſe Silas and departed, being commended of the brethren vnto the grace of God.

41 And he went thorow Syria and Cilicia, ſtabliſhing the Churches.

2 Of whom the brethren which were at Lyſtra and Iconium, reported well.

3 Therefore Paul would that he ſhould go forth with him, and tooke and a circumciſed him, becauſe of the Iewes which were in thoſe quarters: for they knew all that his father was a Grecian.

4 And as they went thorow the cities, they deliuered them the decrees to keepe, ordained of the Apoſtles and Elders, which were at Ieruſalem.

5 And ſo were the Churches ſtabliſhed in the faith, and increaſed in number dayly.

6 ¶ Now when they had gone thorow out Phrygia, and the region of Galatia, they were forbidden b of the holy Ghoſt, to preach the word in c Aſia.

7 Then came they to Myſia, and ſought to goe into Bithinia: but the Spirit † ſuffered them not.

10 And after he had ſeene the viſion, immediatly we prepared to goe into Macedonia, being e aſſured that the Lord had called vs to preach the Goſpel vnto them.

11 Then went we forth from Troas, and with a ſtreight courſe came to Samothracia, and the next day to f Neapolis, 12 (And from thence to Philippi, which is the chiefe citie in the parts of Macedonia, and g whoſe inhabitants came from Rome to dwell there, and we were in that citie abiding certaine dayes.

13 And on the Sabbath day, wee went out of the citie, beſides a riuer where they were woont to h pray: and we ſate downe, and ſpake vnto the women, which were come together.

18 And this did ſhe many dayes: but Paul being grieued, † turned about, and ſaid to the ſpirit, I command thee in the name of Ieſus Chriſt, that thou come out of her. And hee came out the ſame houre.

CHAP. XVII.

1 Paul commeth to Thessalonica. 4 Some come receiue him, and others persecute him. 11 To search the Scriptures. 17 He disputeth at Athens, and the fruit of his doctrine.

NOw as they passed thorow Amphipolis, and Apollonia, they came to Thessalonica, where was a Synagogue of the Iewes.

2 And Paul, as his maner was, went in vnto them, and three Sabbathdaies disputed with them by the Scriptures,

3 Opening & alledging that Christ must haue suffred, and risen againe from the dead: and this is Iesus Christ, whom, sayd he, I preach to you.

4 And some of them beleeued, and ioyned in company with Paul and Silas: also of the Grecians that feared God, a great multitude, and of the chiefe women not a fewe.

5 But the Iewes which beleeued not, moued with enuy, tooke vnto them certaine vagabonds and wicked fellowes, and when they had assembled the multitude, they made a tumult in the citie, & made assault against the house of Iason, and sought to bring them out to the people.

6 But when they found them not, they drew Iason and certaine brethren vnto the heads of the citie, crying, These are they which haue subuerted the state of the world, and here they are,

7 Whom Iason hath receiued, and these all doe against the decrees of Cesar, saying, that there is another a King, one Iesus.

8 Then they troubled the people, and the heades of the citie, when they heard these things.

9 Notwithstanding when they had receiued ‖sufficient assurance of Iason and of the other, they let them goe.

10 And the brethren immediately sent away Paul and Silas by night vnto Berea, which when they were come thither, entred into the Synagogue of the Iewes.

11 These were also more noble men then they which were at Thessalonica, which receiued the word with all readines, and searched the Scriptures daily, whether those things were so.

12 Therefore many of them beleeued, and of honest women, which were Grecians, and men not a few.

13 ¶ But when the Iewes of Thessalonica knewe, that the word of God was also preached of Paul at Berea, they came thither also and moued the people.

14 But by and by the brethren sent away Paul to go as it were to the Sea: but Silas and Timotheus abode there still.

15 And they that ‖ did conduct Paul, brought him vnto Athens: and when they had receiued a commandement vnto Silas and Timotheus that they should come to him at once, they departed.

16 ¶ Now while Paul waited for them at Athens, his spirit was stirred in him, when he saw the citie b subiect to idolatrie.

17 Therefore he disputed in the Synagogue with the Iewes, and with them that were religious, and in the market daily, * with whomsoeuer he met.

18 Then certaine Philosophers of the ‖ Epicures, and of the ‖ Stoikes, disputed with him, and some sayd, What will this ‖ babbler say? Others sayd, He seemeth to be a setter foorth of strange gods (because he preached vnto them Iesus, and the resurrection.)

19 And they tooke him, and brought him into ‖ Mars streete, saying, May wee not know, what this new doctrine whereof thou speakest, is?

20 For thou bringest certaine strange things vnto our eares: wee would knowe therefore, what these things meane.

21 For all the Athenians and strangers which dwelt there, ‖ gaue themselues to nothing els, but either to tell or to heare some newes.

22 Then Paul stoode in the mids of ‖ Mars street, and sayd, Ye men of Athens, I perceiue that in all things ye are too superstitious.

3 Paul laboureth with his hands, and preacheth at Corinthus. 6 He is detested of the Iewes, 8 Yet receiued of many. 9 And comforted of the Lord. 14 Gallio refuseth to meddle with religion. 18 Pauls vowe. 21 His faith in the prouidence of God, 22 And care for the brethren. 24 The praise of Apollos.

AFter these things, Paul departed from Athens, and came to Corinthus,

2 And found a certaine Iew named * Aquila, borne in Pontus, lately come from Italy, and his wife Priscilla (because that ᵃ Claudius had commaunded all Iewes to depart from Rome) and he came vnto them.

3 And because he was of the same craft, he abode with them and ᵇ wrought (for their craft was to make ᶜ tents.)

4 And he disputed in the Synagogue euery Sabbath day, and exhorted the Iewes and the Grecians.

5 Nowe when Silas and Timotheus were come from Macedonia, Paul ᵈ burnedh in spirit, testifying to the Iewes that Iesus was the Christ.

6 And when they resisted and blasphemed, he * shooke his raiment, and sayd vnto them, * Your blood be vpon your own head: I am cleane: from henceforth will I goe vnto the Gentiles.

7 So he departed thence, and entred into a certaine mans house, named Iustus, a worshipper of God, whose house ioyned hard to the Synagogue.

8 And * Crispus the chiefe ruler of the Synagogue, beleeued in the Lord with all his household: and many of the Corinthians hearing it, beleeued and were baptized.

9 Then sayd the Lord to Paul in the night by a vision, Feare not, but speake, and hold not thy peace.

10 For ᵉ I am with thee, and no man shall lay handes on thee to hurt thee: for I haue much people in this citie.

11 So he continued there a yeere and sixe moneths, ᶠ taught the word of God among them.

12 ¶ Nowe when Gallio was deputie of Achaia, the Iewes arose with one accord against Paul, and brought him to the iudgement seat, 13 Saying, This fellow perswadeth men to worship God contrary to the ᵍ Law.

14 And as Paul was about to open his mouth, Gallio sayd vnto the Iewes, If it were a matter of wrong, or an euill deed, O yee Iewes, I would according to reason maintaine you.

15 But if it be a question of words, and names, and of your Lawe, looke yee to it your selues: for I will bee no iudge of those things.

16 And hee draue them from the iudgement seat.

17 Then tooke all the Grecians ʰ Sosthenes, the chiefe ruler of the Synagogue, and beat him before the iudgement seat: but Gallio cared nothing for those things.

18 But when Paul had taried there yet a good while, he tooke leaue of the brethren, and sayled into Syria (and with him Priscilla and Aquila) after that he had ⁱ shorne his head in Cenchrea: for he had a * vow.

19 Then hee came to Ephesus, and left them there: but hee entred into the Synagogue and disputed with the Iewes, 21 But bade them farewell, saying, I must needes keepe this feast that commeth, in Ierusalem: but I wil returne againe vnto you, * if God will. So he sayled from Ephesus.

22 ¶ And when he came downe to ᵏ Cesarea, he went vp to Ierusalem: and when he had saluted the Church, he went downe vnto Antiochia.

AND it came to passe, while Apollos was at Corinthus, that Paul when he passed through the vpper coastes, came to Ephesus, and found certaine disciples,

2 And sayd vnto them, Haue ye receiued the [a] holy Ghost since ye beleeued? And they sayd vnto him, Wee haue not so much as heard whether there be an holy Ghost.

3 And he sayd vnto them, [b] Vnto what were ye then baptised? And they sayd, Vnto Iohns baptisme.

4 Then sayd Paul, [a] Iohn verily baptized with the Baptisme of repentance, saying vnto the people, that they should beleeue in him, which should come after him, that is, in Christ Iesus.

5 So when they heard it, they were [c] baptized in the Name of the Lord Iesus.

6 And Paul layd his hands vpon them, and the holy Ghost came on them, and they spake the tongues and prophesied.

7 And all the men were about twelue.

8 ¶ Moreouer, he went into the Synagogue, and spake boldly [d] the space of three moneths, disputing and exhorting to the things that appertaine to the kingdom of God.

9 But when certaine were hardened, and disobeyed, speaking euill of the way of God before the multitude, hee departed from them, and separated the disciples, and disputed daily in the schoole of one [e] Tyrannus. †

10 And this was done by the space of two yeeres, so that all they which dwelt in Asia, heard the Word of the Lorde Iesus, both Iewes and Grecians.

11 And God wrought no small miracles by the hands of Paul,

12 So that from his body were brought vnto the sicke, [f] kercheefs or handkercheefs, and the diseases departed from them, and the euill spirits went out of them.

13 Then certaine of [g] vagabond Iewes, [f] exorcists, tooke in hand to name ouer them which had euill spirits, the Name of the Lord Iesus, saying, Wee [h] adiure you by Iesus whom Paul preacheth.

14 (And there were certaine sonnes of Sceua a Iew, the [i] chiefe, about seuen which did this)

15 And the euill spirit answered, and said, Iesus I acknowledge, and Paul I knowe: but who are ye?

16 And the man in whom the euill spirite was, ranne on them, and ouercame them, and preuailed against them, so that they fledde out of that house, naked and wounded.

17 And this was knowen to all the Iewes and Grecians also, which dwelt at Ephesus, and feare came on them all, and the Name of the Lorde Iesus was magnified.

18 And many that beleeued, came and confessed, and [k] shewed their works.

19 Many also of them which vsed curious arts, brought their bookes, and burned them before all men, and they counted the price of them, and found it [l] fiftie thousand pieces of siluer.

20 So the Word of God grew mightily, and preuailed.

21 ¶ Now when these things were accomplished, Paul purposed [m] by the Spirit to passe through Macedonia and Achaia, and to go to Ierusalem, saying, After I haue bene there, I must also see Rome.

22 So sent hee into Macedonia two of them that ministred vnto him, Timotheus and Erastus, but hee remained in Asia for a season.

23 And the same time there arose no small trouble about that [n] way.

24 For a certaine man named Demetrius, a siluersmith, which made siluer ‖ temples of Diana, [o] brought great gaines vnto the craftsmen:

26 Moreouer, yee see and heare, that not alone at Ephesus, but almost throughout all Asia this Paul hath perswaded, and turned away much people, saying, That they bee not gods which are made with hands:

27 So that not onely this thing is [q] dangerous vnto vs, [r] that the late shoulde bee reprooued, but also that the [s] temple of the great goddesse Diana should bee nothing esteemed, and that it woulde come to passe, that her magnificence, which 28 Now when they heard it, they were full of wrath, and cried out, saying, Great is Diana of the Ephesians.

29 And the whole citie was full of confusion, and they rushed into the common place with one assent, & caught Gaius, and Aristarchus, men of Macedonia, & Pauls companions of his iourney.

30 And when Paul would haue entred in vnto the people, the disciples suffered him not.

31 Certaine also of the chiefe of Asia which were his friends, sent vnto him, desiring him that hee would not present himselfe in the common place.

32 Some therefore cryed one thing, and some another: for the assembly was out of order, and the more part knew not wherefore they were come together.

33 And some of the company q drewe foorth Alexander, the Iewes thrusting him forwardes. Alexander then beckened with the hand, and would haue excused the matter to the people.

34 But when they knew that he was a Iew, there arose a shout almost for the space of two houres, of all men, crying, Great is Diana of the Ephesians.

35 Then the towne Clerke, when he had staied the people, said, Ye men of Ephesus, what man is it that knoweth not, how that the citie of the Ephesians is a worshipper of the great goddesse Diana, and of the image which came downe from r Iupiter?

NOw after the tumult was ceased, Paul called the Disciples vnto him, and embraced them, and departed to goe into Macedonia.

2 And when hee had gone through those partes, and had exhorted them with many wordes, he came into Grecia.

3 And hauing taried there three moneths because the Iewes layd waite for him, as he was about to saile into Syria, he purposed to returne through Macedonia.

4 And there accompanied him into Asia, Sopater of Berea, and of them of Thessalonica, Aristarchus, and Secundus, and Gaius of Derbe, and Timotheus, and of them of Asia, Tychicus, and Trophimus.

5 These went before, and taried vs at Troas.

9 And there sate in a window a certaine yoong ‖ man named Eutychus, fallen into a deepe sleepe: and as Paul was long preaching, he ouercome with sleepe, fell downe from the third loft, and was taken vp dead.

10 But Paul went downe, and layed himselfe vpon him, and imbraced him, saying, Trouble not your selues: for his life is in him.

11 So when Paul was come vp againe, and had broken bread, and eaten, he communed a long while till the dawning of the day, and so he departed.

35 I haue shewed you all things, how that so labouring, ye ought to support the weake, and to remember the words of our Lord Iesus, how that he said, ‘It is a blessed thing to giue, rather then to receiue.’
36 And when hee had thus spoken, hee kneeled downe, and prayed with them all.
37 Then they wept all abundantly, and fell on Pauls necke, and kissed him, 38 Being chiefly sory for the words which he spake, That they should see his face no more. And they accompanied him vnto the ship.

5 The common prayers of the faithfull. 9 Philips foure daughters prophetesses. 13 Pauls constancie to beare the crosse, as Agabus & other forspake, although he were otherwise counselled by the brethren. 28 The great danger that he was in, and how he escaped.

AND as we launched forth, and were departed from them, wee came with a straight course vnto Coos, and the day following vnto the Rhodes, and from thence vnto Patara.
2 And wee found a ship that went ouer vnto Phenice, & went aboard, and set forth.
3 And when we had discouered Cyprus, we left it on the left hand, and sayled toward Syria, and arriued at Tyrus: for there the ship vnladed the burden.
4 And when we had found disciples, we taried there seuen daies. And they told Paul a through the b Spirit, that he should not goe vp to Ierusalem.
5 But when the dayes were ended, wee departed and went our way, and they all accompanied vs with their wiues & children, euen out of the citie: and we kneeling down on the shore, prayed.
6 Then when we had imbraced one another, we tooke shippe, and they returned home.
7 And when we had ended the course from Tyrus, we arriued at Ptolemais, and saluted the brethren, and abode with them one day.
8 And the next day Paul and they that were with him, departed, & came vnto Cesarea: and we entred into the house of Philip the Euangelist, which was one of the seuen c Deacons, and abode with him.
9 Now he had foure daughters, virgins, which did prophesie.
10 And as we taried there many dayes, there came a certaine Prophet from Iudea, named Agabus.
11 And when hee was come vnto vs, hee tooke Pauls girdle, and bound his owne hands and feete, and said, d Thus saith the holy Ghost, So shall the Iewes at Ierusalem e bind the man that oweth this girdle, and shall deliuer him into the hands of the Gentiles.
12 And when we had heard these things, both we & other of the same place besought him that he would not go vp to Ierusalem.
13 Then Paul answered, and said, What doe yee weeping and breaking mine heart? For I am ready not to be bound onely, but also to die at Ierusalem for the name of the Lord Iesus.
14 So when he would not be perswaded, we ceased, saying, The will of the Lord bee done.
15 And after those dayes wee trussed vp our fardels, and went vp to Ierusalem.
16 There went with vs also certaine of the disciples of Cesarea, and brought with them one Mnason of Cyprus, an olde disciple, with whom we should lodge.
17 And when wee were come to Ierusalem, the brethren receiued vs gladly.
18 And the next day Paul went in with vs vnto f James: and all the Elders were there assembled.
19 And when hee had imbraced them, he told by order of all things, that GOD had wrought among the Gentiles by his ministration.

ken the Lord, may say vnto him, Thou seest brother, how many thousand Iewes there are which beleeue, and they are all zealous of the law.

21 Now they are informed of thee, that thou teachest all the Iewes which are among the Gentiles, to forsake Moses, and sayest, that they ought not to circumcise their children, neither to liue after the customes.

22 What is then to be done? the multitude must needes come together: for they shall heare that thou art come.

23 Doe therefore this that we say to thee. We haue foure men, which haue made a vow.

24 Them take, and purifie thy selfe with them, and contribute with them, that they may shaue their heads: and all shall know, that those things, whereof they haue bene informed concerning thee, are nothing, but that thou thy selfe also walkest and keepest the Law.

25 For as touching the Gentiles, which beleeue, wee haue written, and determined that they obserue no such thing, but that they keepe themselues from things offered to idoles, and from blood, and from that that is strangled, and from fornication.

26 Then Paul tooke the men, and the next day was purified with them, and entred into the Temple, declaring the accomplishment of the dayes of the purification, vntill that an offering should be offered for euery one of them.

27 And when the seuen dayes were almost ended, the Iewes which were of Asia (when they saw him in the Temple) mooued all the people, and layde hands on him, 28 Crying, Men of Israel, helpe: this is the man that teacheth all men euery where against the people, and the law, and this place: moreouer he hath brought Grecians into the Temple, and hath polluted this holy place.

29 For they had seene before Trophimus an Ephesian with him in the citie, whom they supposed that Paul had brought into the Temple.

30 Then all the citie was mooued, & the people ran together: and they tooke Paul, and drew him out of the Temple, and forthwith the doores were shut.

31 But as they went about to kill him, tidings came vnto the chiefe Captaine of the band, that all Ierusalem was on an vproare.

32 Who immediatly tooke souldiers, and Centurions, and ranne downe vnto them: and when they saw the chiefe Captaine and the souldiers, they left beating of Paul.

33 Then the chiefe Captaine came neere and tooke him, and commaunded him to be bound with two chaines, and demaunded who he was, and what he had done.

34 And one cryed this, another that, among the people. So when hee could not know the certaintie for the tumult, hee commanded him to be led into the castle.

35 And when hee came vnto the grieces, it was so that he was borne of the souldiers, for the violence of the people.

36 For the multitude of the people followed after, crying, Away with him.

37 And as Paul should haue bene led into the castle, hee sayd vnto the chiefe captaine, May I speake vnto thee? to who sayd, Canst thou speake Greeke?

38 Art not thou the Egyptian, who before these dayes caused a sedition, & led out into the wildernesse foure thousand men that were murderers?

39 Then Paul sayd, Doubtlesse I am a man which am a Iew, and citizen of Tarsus a famous citie in Cilicia, and I beseech thee, suffer me to speake vnto the people.

40 And when he had giuen him licence, Paul stood on the grieces, & beckened with the hand vnto the people: and when there was made great silence, he spake vnto them in the Hebrew tongue, saying.

CHAP. XXII.

3 Paul rendreth an account of his life, and calling. 25 He escapeth the whip by reason he was a citizen of Rome.

YE men, brethren, and fathers, heare my defence now toward you.

2 (And when they heard that he spake in the Hebrew tongue to them, they kept the more silence, and he sayd)

3 I am verily a man, which am a Iewe, borne in Tarsus in Cilicia, but brought vp in this citie at the feete of Gamaliel, and instructed according to the perfect maner of the Law of the fathers, and was zealous toward God, as ye all are this day.

4 And I persecuted this way vnto the death, binding & delinering into prison both men and women.

5 As also the chiefe Priest doth beare me witnesse, and all the state of the Elders: of whom also I receiued letters vnto the brethren, and went to Damascus to bring them which were there, bound vnto Ierusalem, that they might be punished.

6 And so it was, as I iourneyed and was come neere vnto Damascus about noone, that suddenly there shone from heauen a great light round about me.

7 So I fell vnto the earth, and heard a voyce, saying vnto me, Saul, Saul, why persecutest thou me?

8 Then I answered, Who art thou, Lord? And hee sayd to mee, I am Iesus of Nazaret, whom thou persecutest.

9 Moreouer, they that were with me, saw in deede a light, and were afrayd, but they heard not the voyce of him that spake vnto me.

10 Then I said, What shall I doe, Lord? And the Lord sayd vnto mee, Arise, and goe into Damascus: and there it shall be told thee of all things, which are appointed for thee to doe.

11 So when I could not see for the glory of that light, I was led by the hand of them that were with me, and came into Damascus.

12 And one Ananias, a godly man, as pertaining to the Law, having good report of all the Iewes which dwelt there, 13 Came vnto me, and stood, and said vnto me, Brother Saul, receiue thy sight: and that same houre I looked vpon him.

14 And he said, The God of our fathers hath * appointed thee, that thou shouldest know his will, and shouldest see that * Iust one, and shouldest heare the voyce of his mouth.

15 For thou shalt be his witnesse vnto all men, of the things which thou hast seene and heard.

16 Now therefore why tarriest thou? Arise, & be baptized, & wash away thy sinnes, in calling on the * Name of the Lord.

17 ¶ And it came to passe, that when I was come againe to Ierusalem, and prayed in the Temple, I was in a trance, 18 And saw him saying vnto me, Make haste, and get thee quickly out of Ierusalem: for they will not receiue thy witnesse concerning me.

19 Then I said, Lord, they know that I * pursued, and beat in euery Synagogue them that beleeued in thee:

20 And when the blood of thy martyr Steuen was shed, I also * stood by, and consented vnto his death, and kept the clothes of them that slew him.

21 Then he said vnto me, Depart: for I will send thee farre hence vnto the Gentiles.

22 ¶ And they heard him vnto this word, but then they lift vp their voyce, and said, Away with such a fellow from the earth: for it is not meete that he should liue.

23 And as they cryed and cast off their clothes, and threw dust into the ayre, 24 The chiefe Captaine commanded him to be led into the Castle, and bade that he should bee scourged and examined, that hee might know wherefore they cryed so on him.

25 And as they bound him with thongs, Paul said vnto the Centurion that stoode by, Is it lawfull for you to scourge one that is * a Romane, and not condemned?

26 Now when the Centurion heard it, he went and told the chiefe Captaine, saying, Take heed what thou doest: for this man is a Romane.

27 Then the chiefe captaine came, & said to him, Tell me, Art thou a Romane? And he said, Yea.

28 And the chiefe Captaine answered, With a great summe obtained I this burgesship. Then Paul said, But I was * so borne.

29 Then straightway they departed from him which should haue examined him: and the chiefe captaine also was afraid, after he knew that hee was a Romane, and that he had bound him.

30 On the next day, because hee would haue knowen the certaintie wherefore he was accused of the Iewes, hee loosed him from his bonds, and commanded the hie Priests and all their Councell to come together: and he brought Paul, and set him before them.

CHAP. XXIII.

1 The answere of Paul vnto Ananias, and the ouerthrow of his enemies. 12 The Lord encourageth him. 23 And because the Iewes laid wait for him, he is sent to Cesarea.

AND Paul beholding earnestly the Councell, said, Men and brethren, I haue in all good conscience serued God vnto this day.

2 Then the high Priest Ananias commanded them that stood by, to smite him on the mouth.

3 Then said Paul to him, God * will smite thee thou whited wall: for thou sittest to iudge me according to the Law, and commandest thou me to be smitten contrary to the Law?

4 And they that stood by, said, Reuilest thou Gods hie Priest?

5 Then said Paul, I * knew not, brethren, that hee was the hie Priest: for it is written, * Thou shalt not speake euill of the ruler of thy people.

6 But when Paul perceiued that the one part were of the Sadducees, and the other of the Pharises, he cried in the Councell, Men and brethren, * I am a Pharise, the sonne of a Pharise: I am accused of the hope and * resurrection of the dead.

7 And when he had said this, there was a dissention betweene the Pharises and the Sadducees, so that the multitude was diuided.

8 * For the Sadducees say that there is no resurrection, neither Angel nor spirit: but the Pharises confesse * both.

9 Then there was a great cry: and the Scribes of the Pharises part rose vp, and stroue, saying, We finde none euill in this man: but if a spirit or an Angel hath spoken to him, let vs not fight against God.

10 And when there was a great dissention, the chiefe Captaine, fearing lest Paul should haue bene pulled in peeces of them, commanded the souldiers to go downe, and to take him from among them, and to bring him into the castle.

11 ¶ Now the night following the Lord stood by him, and said, Be of good courage, Paul: for as thou hast testified of me in Ierusalem, so must thou beare witnesse also at Rome.

12 And when the day was come, certaine of the Iewes made an assembly, and bound themselues with an * othe, saying, that they would neither eate nor drinke, till they had killed Paul.

13 And they were moe then fortie, which had made this conspiracie.

14 And they came to the chiefe Priestes and Elders, and said, We haue bound our selues with a solemne othe, that we will eate nothing vntill we haue slaine Paul.

15 Now therefore, yee and the Councell, signifie to the chiefe captaine, that hee bring him forth vnto you to morrow, as though yee would know some thing more perfectly of him, and we or euer he come neere, will bee ready to kill him.

16 But when Paulis sisters * sonne heard of a Paul doeth not curse the hie Priest, but denounceth sharply the punishment of God which should light vpon him, who vnder pretence of maintaining the Law, doth trasgresse it.

b He made this excuse as it were in mockery, as if he would say, I know nothing in this man worthy the office of the high Priest. Exod. 22. 28. Phil. 3. 5. chap. 24. 22.

c He denieth not but there were other points, but he expresseth that for the which the Sadducees & we're the chiefe gouernours hated him most. Matth. 22. 23.

d Vnderstanding both kindes, the Angels, and the spirits, which he concluded vnder one, & the resurrection which is the other part.

e The word signifieth cursing, as when a man either sweareth, voweth, or wisheth himselfe to die, or to be giue to the deuil, except he bring his purpose to passe.

f This declareth that God hath so many meanes to deliuer his children out of danger, as there are creatures in the world, so that the aduersaries cannot conspire so craftily against them, but he hath infinite meanes to defeat their wicked practises.

of their laying awaite, he went, and entred into the castle, and told Paul.

17 And Paul called one of the Centurions vnto him, and sayd, Bring this young man vnto the chiefe captaine: for he hath a certaine thing to shew him.

18 So hee tooke him, and brought him to the chiefe captaine and sayd, Paul the prisoner called me vnto him, and prayed me to bring this yong man vnto thee, which hath some thing to say vnto thee.

19 Then the chiefe captaine tooke him by the hand, and went apart with him aside, and asked him, What hast thou to shew me?

20 And he sayd, The Iewes haue conspired to desire thee, that thou wouldest bring foorth Paul to morrow into the Councill, as though they would inquire somewhat of him more perfectly.

21 But let them not perswade thee: for there lie in waite for him of them more then fourty men, which haue bound themselues with an oth, that they will neither eat nor drinke, till they haue killed him: and now are they ready, and wait for thy promise.

22 The chiefe captaine then let the yong man depart, and charged him to speake it to no man, that hee had † shewed him these things.

† Greeke, that thou hast shewed these things to me.

23 And hee called vnto him two certaine Centurions, saying, Make ready two hundred souldiers, that they may go to Cesarea, and horsemen threescore and ten, and two hundreth with darts, at the third houre of the night,

24 And let them make ready an horse, that Paul being set on, may be brought safe vnto Felix the Gouernour.

25 And he wrote an ‖ Epistle in this maner:

g This letter was written partly in the fauour of Paul, that his aduersaries might not oppresse him.

26 Claudius Lysias vnto the most noble Gouernour Felix, sendeth greeting.

27 As this man was taken of the Iewes, and should haue bene killed of them, I came vpon them with the garison, & rescued him, ‖ perceiuing that he was a Romane.

h The Captaine dissembleth to commend his owne diligence: for he did not know that Paul was a Romane, before he had rescued him, and giuen him to bee straightly examined.

28 And when I would haue knowen the cause wherefore they accused him, I brought him forth into their Councill.

29 There I perceiued that he was accused of questions of their Lawe, but had no crime worthy of death, or of bonds.

30 And when it was shewed me how that the Iewes layd wait for the man, I sent him straightway to thee, and commanded his accusers to speake before thee the things that they had against him. Farewell.

31 Then the souldiers, as it was commanded them, tooke Paul, and brought him by night to Antipatris.

32 And the next day they left the horsemen to go with him, and returned vnto the castle.

33 Howbeit when they came to Cesarea, they deliuered the Epistle to the gouernour, and presented Paul also vnto him.

34 So when the gouernour had read it, he asked of what ‖ prouince hee was, and when he vnderstood that he was of Cilicia, i By this name the Romans called euery country which they had subdued.

35 I will heare thee, sayd he, when thy accusers also are come, and commanded him to be kept in Herods iudgement hall.

Chapter. XXIIII.

10 Paul being accused, answereth for his life and doctrine against his accusers. 25 Felix gro-peth him, thinking to haue a bribe, 28 And af-ter leaueth him in prison.

NOw after fiue dayes, Ananias the hie Priest came down with the Elders, and with Tertullus a certaine Oratour, which appeared before the Gouernour against Paul.

2 And when he was called forth, Tertullus began to accuse him, saying, Seeing that wee haue obtained great quietnesse through thee, and that many worthy things are done vnto this nation through thy prouidence,

3 We acknowledge it wholly, and in all places, most noble Felix, with all thanks.

4 But that I bee not tedious vnto thee, I pray thee, that thou wouldest heare vs of thy courtesie a few words.

5 Certainely we haue found this man a pestilent fellow, and a mouer of sedition among all the Iewes throughout the world, and a chiefe maintainer of the ‖ sect of the ‖ Nazarites:

a For Felix by his diligence had taken Eleazarus the captaine of the murtherers, and put the Egyptian to flight which raysed vp tumults in Iudea: for these the orator prayseth him: otherwise he was both cruell and couetous, reade Iosephus lib. 20. Antiq cap. 1. & 11. & lib. 2. de bello Iudaico cap. 12.

b Or, heresie: for so the wicked termed the true Christian Religion.

6 And hath gone about to pollute the Temple: therefore we tooke him, and would haue iudged him according to our law:

c Which taught the people to maintaine their libertie against the Romanes: and though the accusers approued both this sect, and their doctrine, yet to get Paul punished, they seeme to condemne it.

7 But the † chiefe captaine Lysias came vpon vs, and with great violence tooke him out of our hands,

8 Commanding his accusers to come to thee: of whom thou mayest (if thou wilt inquire) know all these things whereof we accuse him.

9 And the Iewes likewise affirmed, saying that it was so.

10 Then Paul, after that the gouernour had beckned vnto him that he should speake, answered, I doe the more gladly answer for my selfe, forasmuch as I know that thou hast bene of many yeeres a ‖ iudge vnto this ‖ nation, d Or, gouernour: for before this, he ruled Trachonitis, Batanea, and Gaulanites.

11 Seeing thou mayest know, that there are but twelue dayes since I came vp ‖ to worship in Ierusalem.

e So that thou are not ignorant of their fashions.

12 And they neither found mee in the Temple disputing with any man, neither making vproare among the people, neither in the synagogues, nor in the citie.

13 Neither can they proue the things whereof they now accuse me.

14 But this I confesse vnto thee, that after the way which they call a heresie, so worship I the God of my fathers, beleeuing all things which are written in the Law and the Prophets,

15 And haue hope towards God, that the resurrection of the dead which they themselues looke for also, shall be both of iust and vniust.

16 And herein I endeuor my selfe to haue

f Not that his purpose was to worship there, but him by the counsell of others: for he thought to haue wonne the simple brethren, and to stop the enemies mouthes, and Phaises turned the Christians doctrine.

23 Now when Felix heard these things, he deferred them, and sayd, [‖] When I shall more perfectly know the things which concerne this way, by the comming of Lysias the chiefe Captaine, I will decide your matter.

24 Then he commanded a Centurion to keepe Paul, and that hee should haue ease, and that hee should forbid none of his acquaintance to minister vnto him, or to come vnto him.

25 ¶ And after certaine dayes came Felix with his wife Drusilla, which was a [k] Iewesse, and hee called for the Paul, and heard him of the faith in Christ.

26 And as he disputed of righteousnesse, and temperance, and of the iudgement to come, Felix [l] trembled, and answered, Goe thy way for this time, and when I haue conuenient time, I will call for thee.

27 He hoped also that money should haue bene giuen him of Paul, that he might loose him: wherefore hee sent for him the oftner, and communed with him.

28 When two yeeres were expired, Portius Festus came into Felix roome: and Felix willing to get fauour of the Iewes, left Paul bound.

1 The Iewes accuse Paul before Festus. 8 He answereth for himselfe, 11 And appealeth vnto the Emperour. 14 His matter is rehearsed before Agrippa. 23 And he is brought forth.

WHen Festus was then come into the prouince, after three dayes hee went vp from Cesarea vnto Jerusalem.

2 Then the high Priest, and the chiefest [*] Iewes appeared before him against Paul: and they besought him,

3 And [a] desired fauour against him, that hee would send for him to Jerusalem: and they layd wait to kill him by the way.

4 But Festus answered, that Paul should be kept at Cesarea, and that he himselfe would shortly depart thither.

5 Let them therefore, sayd he, which among you are [b] able, come downe with vs: and if there bee any wickednesse in the man, let them accuse him.

6 ¶ Now when hee had taried among them no more then tenne dayes, hee went downe to Cesarea, and the next day sate in the iudgement seat, and commanded Paul to be brought.

7 And when he was come, the Iewes which were come from Jerusalem stood about him, and layd many and grieuous complaints against Paul, which they could not prooue,

8 Forasmuch as he answered [c] that hee had neither offended any thing against the law of the Iewes, neither against the Temple, nor against Cesar.

9 But Festus willing [*] to get fauour of the Iewes, answered Paul, and sayd, Wilt thou goe vp to Jerusalem, and there be iudged of these things before me?

10 Then said Paul, I stand at [d] Cesars iudgement seate, where I ought to be [e] iudged: to the Iewes I haue done no wrong, as thou very well knowest.

11 For if I haue done wrong, or committed any thing worthy of death, I refuse not to die: but if there bee none of these things whereof they accuse me, no man can deliuer me to them: I appeale vnto Cesar.

12 Then when Festus had spoken with the Councell, he answered, Hast thou appealed vnto Cesar? vnto Cesar shalt thou goe.

13 ¶ And after certaine dayes, King Agrippa and [g] Bernice came downe to Cesarea to salute Festus.

14 And when they had remayned there many dayes, Festus propoled Pauls cause vnto the King, saying, There is a certaine man left in prison by Felix.

15 Of whom when I came to Jerusalem, the hie Priestes and Elders of the Iewes informed me, and desired to haue iudgement against him.

16 To whom I answered, that it is not the manet of the Romanes for fauour to deliuer any man to death, before that hee which is accused, haue the accusers before him, and haue place to defend himselfe concerning the crime.

17 Therefore when they were come hither, without delay, the day following, I sate on the iudgement seat, and commanded the man to be brought forth.

18 Against whom when the accusers stood vp, they brought no crime of such things as I suppoled:

19 But had certaine questions against him of their owne [h] superstition, and of one Jesus which was dead, whom Paul affirmed to be aliue.

20 And because I doubted of such maner of question, I asked him, whether he would goe to Jerusalem, and there bee iudged of these things.

21 But because hee appealed to bee reserued to the examination of Augustus, I commaunded him to bee kept, till I might send him to Cesar.

22 Then Agrippa sayd vnto Festus, I would also heare the man my selfe. To morrow, sayd he, thou shalt heare him.

23 And on the morrowe when Agrippa was come and Bernice with great pompe, and were entred into the [‖] Common hall with the chiefe Captaines and chiefe men of the citie, at Festus commandement

31 And when they were gone apart, they talked betweene themselues, saying, This man doth nothing worthy of death, nor of the ſimme, ſhine round about me, and them which went with me.

14 So when wee were all fallen to the earth, I heard a voyce speaking vnto me, and saying in the Hebrewe tongue, * Saul, Saul, why persecutest thou me? It is hard for thee to kicke against pricks.

15 Then I sayd, Who art thou Lord? And he sayd, I am Iesus, whom thou persecutest.

19 Wherefore King Agrippa, I was not disobedient vnto the heauenly vision, 20 * But shewed first vnto them of Damascus, and at Ierusalem, and throughout all the coasts of Iudea, and then to the Gentiles, that they ſhould repent, and turne to God, and do workes worthy amendment of life.

23 To wit, that Chriſt should ſuffer, and that hee ſhould bee the first that ſhould riſe from the dead, and ſhould ſhew light vnto the people, and to the Gentiles.

24 And as he thus answered for himselfe, Festus sayd with a loud voyce, Paul, thou art beſides thy selfe: much learning doeth make thee mad.

25 But he sayd, I am not mad, O noble Festus, but I speake the wordes of truth and soberneſſe.

29 Then Paul sayde, I would to God, that not onely thou, but also all that heare me to day, were both almoſt, and altogether ſuch as I am, except theſe bonds.

30 And when hee had thus ſpoken, the King roſe vp, and the gouernour, and Bernice, and they that ſate with them.

31 And when they were gone apart, they talked betweene themſelues, saying, This man doth nothing worthy of death, nor 24 And Festus sayd, King Agrippa, and all men which are present with vs, yee ſee this man, about whom all the multitude of the Iewes haue called vpon me, both at Ieruſalem, and here, crying, that hee ought not to liue any longer.

CHAP. XXVII.

1 Pauls dangerous voyage, and his companie toward Rome. 44 How, and where they arriue.

NOwe when it was concluded, that we should saile into Italie, they deliuered both Paul, and certaine other prisoners vnto a Centurion named Julius, of the band of Augustus.

2 And a wee entred into a ship of Adramyttium, purposing to saile by the coastes of Asia, and launched forth, and had Aristarchus of Macedonia, a Thessalonian, with vs.

3 And the next day we arriued at Sidon: and Julius courteously intreated Paul, and gaue him libertie to goe vnto his friends, that they might refresh him.

4 And from thence we launched, & sailed hard by b Cyprus, because the winds were contrary.

5 Then sailed we ouer the sea by Cilicia, and Pamphylia, and came to Myra, a citie in Lycia.

6 And there the Centurion found a ship of Alexandria sayling into Italy, and put vs therein.

7 And when we had sayled slowly many dayes, and scarce were come against Gnidum, because the winde suffered vs not, we sayled hard by ‖ Candie, neere to c Salmone,

8 And with much adoe sayled beyond it, and came vnto a certaine place called the Faire hauens, neere vnto the which was the citie Lasea.

9 Now when much time was spent, and sayling was now ieopardous, because alsi the d Fast was now passed, Paul exhorted them,

10 And sayde vnto them, Sirs, I see that this voyage will be with hurt and much domage, not of the lading and ship onely, but also of our liues.

11 Nouertheless the Centurion beleeued rather the gouernour and the master of the ship, then those things which were spoken of Paul.

12 And because the hauen was not commodious to winter in, many tooke counsell to depart thence, if by any meanes they might attaine to Phenice, there to winter, which is an hauen of Candie, and lyeth towarde the Southwest and by West, and Northwest and by West.

13 And when the Southerne wind blew softly, they supposing to obtaine their purpose, loosed neerer, and sayled by Candie.

14 But anon after, there arose by it a stormie winde called e Euroclydon.

15 And when the ship was caught, and could not resist the wind, we let her go, and were carried away.

16 And wee ranne vnder a little Ile named f Clauda, and had much adoe to get the boate.

17 Which they tooke vp and vsed all helpe, vnder-girding the shippe, fearing lest they should haue fallen into Syrtes, and they let downe the ‖ vessell, and so were carryed.

18 The next day when wee were tossed with an exceeding tempest, they ‖ lightened the ship.

19 And the third day wee cast out with our owne handes the tackling of the ship.

20 And when neither sunne nor starres in many dayes appeared, and no small tempest lay vpon vs, all hope that we should be saued, was then taken away.

21 But after long abstinence, Paul stood forth in the middes of them, and said, Sirs, ye should haue hearkened to mee, and not haue loosed from Candie: so should ye haue ‖ gained this hurt and losse.

22 But now I exhort you to bee of good courage: for there shall be no losse of any mans life among you, saue of the shippe onely.

23 For there stood by me this night the Angel of g God, whose I am, and whom I serue, 24 Saying, Feare not, Paul: for thou must be brought before Cesar: and lo, God hath giuen vnto h thee all that sayle with thee.

25 Wherefore, sirs, bee of good courage: for I i beleeue God, that it shall be so as it hath bene told me.

26 Howbeit, we must be cast into a certaine Iland.

27 And when the fourteenth night was come, as we were caried to and fro in the k Adriaticall sea about midnight, the shipmen deemed that some countrey approched vnto them, 28 And sounded, and found it twenty fathoms: and when they had gone a little further, they sounded againe, and found fifteene fathoms.

29 Then fearing least they should haue fallen into some rough places, they cast foure ancres out of the sterne, and wished that the day were come.

30 Now as the mariners were about to flee out of the ship, and had let downe the boate into the sea vnder a colour as though they would haue cast ancres out of the foreship, 31 Paul said vnto the Centurion and the souldiers, Except these abide in the ship, ye cannot be safe.

32 Then the souldiers cut off the ropes of the boat, and let it fall away.

33 And when it began to be day, Paul exhorted them all to take meate, saying, This is the fourteenth day that yee haue tarryed, and continued l fasting, receiuing nothing.

34 Wherefore I exhort you to take meat: for this is for your safegard: for there shall not m an haire fall from the head of any of you.

35 And when hee had thus spoken, hee tooke bread, and gaue thankes to God, in presence of them all, and brake it, and began to eat.

a From Sidon to Myra they should haue sayled North, and by West: but the winds caused them to sayle to Cyprus plaine North: thence to Cilicia North & by East, and so to Pamphilia and Myra plaine West.

‖ Or, Crete.

b Which was an high hill of Candie bowing to the seaward.

c This fast the Iewes obserued about the moneth of October in the feast of their expiation, Leuit. 23. 27. So that Paul thought it better to winter there, then to saile in the deepe of winter which was at hand.

d That is, the Northeast wind or euery East wind that is furious and stormy.

e This Ile was West and by South from Candie streight toward the gulfe Syrtes, which were certaine boyling sandes that swallowed vp all that they caught.

‖ Or, boate.

‖ Or, cast out the wares.

f That is, yee should haue saued the losse by auoyding the danger.

g They could not then reproue him of rashnesse, seeing that this was the ordinance of God.

h The graces and blessings which God giueth to his children, prosite many times the enemies, which are vnworthy to receiue the fruit thereof.

k This sea in Strabos time was taken for all that part, which was about the mountaines called Ceraunij, and so diuideth Italy frō Dalmatia, and goeth vp to Venice.

m He meaneth an extraordinary abstinence, which came of the feare of death, and so tooke away their appetite.

n By this Hebrew phrase is meant that they should be in all points safe and sound, 1. Sam. 14. 45. 1. King. 1. 52. Matth. 10. 30.

36 Then were they all of good courage, and they also tooke meate.

37 Now we were in the ship in all two hundreth threescore and sixteene soules.

38 And when they had eaten inough, they lightened the shippe, and cast out the wheate into the sea.

39 And when it was day, they knew not the countrey, but they spied a certaine creeke with a banke, into the which they were minded (if it were possible) to thrust in the ship.

40 So when they had taken up the anters, they committed the shippe vnto the sea, and loosed the rudder bonds, and hoysted vp the maine saile to the wind, and drew to the shore.

41 And when they fell into a place where two seas met, they thrust in the shippe: and the fore-part stucke fast, and could not be moued, but the hinder part was broken with the violence of the waues.

42 Then the souldiers counsell was a to kill the prisoners: lest any of them, when hee had swomme out, should flee away.

43 But the Centurion willing to saue Paul, stayed them from this counsell, and commaunded that they that could swimme, should cast themselues first into the sea, and goe out to land:

44 And the other, some on boards, and some on certaine peeces of the shippe: and so it came to passe, that they came all safe to land.

CHAP. XXVIII.

1 Paul with his company are gently intreated of the barbarous people. 5 The viper heareth him not. 8 He healeth Publius father and others, and being furnished by them of things necessarie, he fareth toward Rome. 15 Where being received of the brethren, he declareth his busines. 30 And there preacheth two yeeres.

AND when they were come safe, then they knew that the ile was called b Melita.

2 And the Barbarians shewed vs no little kindnesse: for they kindled a fire, and receiued vs euery one, because of the present showre, and because of the cold.

3 And when Paul had gathered a number of sticks, and layed them on the fire, there came a viper out of the heate, and leapt on his hand.

4 Now when the Barbarians saw the worme hang on his hand, they sayd among themselues, This man surely is a c murtherer, whome, though hee hath escaped the sea, yet d Vengeance hath not suffered to liue.

5 But he shooke off the worme into the fire, and felt no harme.

6 Howbeit they waited when he should haue swollen, or fallen downe dead suddenly: but after they had looked a great while, and saw no inconuenience come to him, they changed their minds, and said, That he was a e God.

7 In the same quarters, the chiefe man of the Ile (whose name was Publius) had possessions: the same receiued vs, & lodged vs three dayes courteously.

8 And so it was, that a father of Publius lay sicke of the feuer, and of a bloody flixe: to whom Paul entred in, and when he prayed, he layd his hands on him, and healed him.

9 When this then was done, other also in the Ile, which had diseases, came to him and were healed.

10 Which also did vs great honour: and when we departed, they laded vs with things necessary.

11 Now after three moneths we departed in a ship of Alexandria, which had wintred in the Ile, whole badge was f Castor and Pollux.

12 And when we arriued at Syracuse, we taried there three dayes.

13 And from thence wee fet a compasse, and came to Rhegium: and after one day, the South winde blew, and we came the second day to Puteoli, 14 Where we found brethren, and were desired to tary with them seuen dayes, and so we went toward Rome.

15 And from thence, when the brethren heard of vs, they came to meete vs at the Market of Appius, and at the g Three tauernes, whom when Paul saw, he thanked God, and waxed bold.

16 So when we came to Rome, the Centurion deliuered the prisoners to the generall Captaine: but Paul was suffered to dwell by himselfe with a souldier that kept him.

17 And the third day after, Paul called the chiefe of the Iewes together: and when they were come, he said vnto them, Men and brethren, though I haue committed nothing against the people or Lawes of the fathers, yet was I deliuered prisoner from Ierusalem into the hands of the Romanes.

18 Who when they had examined me, would haue let me goe, because there was no cause of death in me.

19 But when the Iewes spake contrary, I was constrained to appeale vnto Cesar, not because I had ought to accuse my nation of.

20 For this cause therefore haue I called for you, to see you, and to speake with you: for the hope of h Israels sake, I am bound with this chaine.

21 Then they said vnto him, We neither receiued letters out of Iudea concerning thee, neither came any of the brethren that shewed or spake any euill of thee.

22 But we will heare of thee what thou thinkest: for as concerning this sect, we knowe that euery where it is spoken against.

23 And when they had appointed him a day, there came many vnto him into his lodging, to whom he expounded and testified the kingdome of God, and preached vnto them concerning Iesus, both out of the Lawes of Moses, and out of the Prophets, from morning to night.

24 And some were perswaded with the things which were spoken, and some beleeued not.

25 Therefore when they agreed not among themselues

The Epistle of the Apostle Paul to the Romanes.

THE ARGVMENT.

THe great mercie of God is declared toward man in Christ Iesus, whose righteousnes is made ours through faith. For when man by reason of his own corruptiō could not fulfil the law, yea, committed most abhominably, both against the law of God, & nature, the infinite bountie of God, mindfull of his promise made to his seruant Abraham, the father of all beleeuers, ordeined that mans saluation should only stand in the perfit obedience of his Sonne Iesus Christ: so that not only the circumcised Iewes, but also the vncircumcised Gentiles should be saued by faith in him: euen as Abraham before he was circumcised, was counted iust only through faith, & yet afterward receiued circumcision, as a seale or badge of the same righteousnesse by faith. And to the intent that none should thinke that the couenant which God made to him, and his posteritie was not performed: either because the Iewes receiued not Christ, (which was the blessed seede) or els beleeued not that he was the true redeemer, because he did not onely, or at least more notably preferue the Iewes: the examples of Ismael and Esau declare, that all are not Abrahams posteritie, which come of Abraham according to the flesh: but also the very strangers and Gentiles grafted in by faith, are made heires of the promise. The cause wherof is the only will of God: forasmuch as of his free mercie he electeth some to be saued, and of his iust iudgement reiecteth others to be damned, as appeareth by the testimonies of the Scriptures. Yet to the intent that the Iewes should not be too much beaten downe, nor the Gentiles too much puffed vp, the example of Elias proueth, that God hath yet his elect euen of that naturall posteritie of Abraham, though it appeareth not so to mans eye: & for that preferment that the Gentiles haue, it proceedeth of the liberall mercie of God, which he at length will stretch toward the Iewes againe, and so gather the whole Israel (which is his Church) of them both. This ground-worke of faith and doctrine laied, instructions of Christian maners follow: teaching euery man to walke in roundnesse of conscience in his vocation, with all patience and humblenesse, renouncing and obeying the magistratee, exercising charity, putting off the old man, and putting on Christ, bearing with the weake, and louing one another according to Christes example. Finally, S. Paul after his commendations to the brethren, exhorteth them to vnitie, and to flee false preachers and flatterers, and so concludeth with a prayer.

19 Forasmuch as that, which may bee knowen of God, is manifest in them: for God hath shewed it vnto them.

20 For the inuisible things of him, that is, his eternall power and Godhead, are seene by the creation of the world, being considered in his works, to the intent that they should be without excuse:

21 * Because that when they knew God, they * glorified him not as God, neither were thankefull, but became vaine in their imaginations, and their foolish heart was full of darknesse.

22 When they professed themselues to be wise, they became fooles.

23 For they turned the glory of the incorruptible GOD to the similitude of the image of a corruptible man, and of birdes, and foure footed beastes, and of creeping things.

24 Wherefore also God * gaue them vp to their hearts lustes, vnto vncleannesse, to defile their owne bodies betweene themselues:

18 And knowest his will, and ‖ allowest the things that are excellent, in that thou art instructed by the Law:

19 And perswadest thy selfe that thou art a guide of the blinde, a light of them which are in darkenesse, 20 An instructer of them which lacke discretion, a teacher of the vnlearned, which hast the ! forme of knowledge, and of the trueth in the Law.

21 Thou therefore which teachest another, teachest thou not thy selfe? thou that preachest, A man should not steale, doest thou steale?

22 Thou that sayest, A man should not commit aduulterie, doest thou commit aduulterie? thou that abhorrest idoles, committest thou sacrilege?

23 Thou that glorifiest in the Lawe, through breaking the Lawe, dishonourest thou God?

24 For the Name of God is blasphemed among the Gentiles through you, * as it is written.

25 For circumcision verely is profitable, if thou doe the Law: but if thou be a transgressour of the Law, thy ⁿ circumcision is made vncircumcision.

26 Therefore if the vncircumcision keepe the ordinances of the Lawe, shall not his vncircumcision bee counted for circumcision?

27 And shall not vncircumcision which is by nature (if it keepe the Law) ‖ iudge thee, which by the * letter and circumcision art a transgressour of the Law?

28 For he is not a Iew which is one outward: neither is that circumcision which is outward in the flesh:

29 But he is a Iew which is one within, and the * circumcision is of the heart, in the ỹ spirit, not in the letter, whose prayse is not of men, but of God.

CHAP. III.

Hauing graunted some prerogatiue to the Iewes, because of Gods free and stable promise, 10 he prooueth by the Scriptures, both Iewes and Gentiles to bee sinners, 21. 24 and to be iustified by grace through faith, and not by works, 31 and so the Law to be established.

WHat is then the preferment of the Iewe? or what is the profit of circumcision?

2 Much euery maner of way: for chiefly, because vnto them were committed the ‖ oracles of God.

3 For what though some did not beleeue? shall their * vnbeliefe make the ‖ faith of God without effect?

4 God forbid: yea, let God be true, and * euery man a lyar, as it is written, * That thou mightest bee ỹ iustified in thy wordes, and ouercome when thou art iudged.

5 Now if ỹ vnrighteousnesse commend the righteousnesse of God, what shall we say? Is God vnrighteous which punisheth? (I speake ỹ as a man)

6 God forbid: els how shall God iudge the world?

7 For if the veritie of God hath more aboundred, through my lie, vnto his glory, why am I yet condemned as a sinner?

8 And (as wee are blamed, and as some affirme that wee say) why doe wee not euill, that good may come thereof? whose damnation is iust.

9 What then? ỹ are we more excellent? No, in no wise: for we haue already proued, that all, both Iewes and Gentiles are * vnder sinne, 10 As it is written, * There is none righteous, no not one.

11 There is none, that vnderstandeth: there is none that seeketh God.

12 They haue all gone out of ỹ way: they haue bene made altogether vnprofitable: there is none that doeth good, no not one.

2 Lesson Euening

Chap 1.17.
i The word signifieth them which are left behind in the race, and are not able to runne to the marke, that is to euerlasting life, which here is called the glory of God.
k Or fidelity in performing his promise.
l The law of faith is the Gospel which offereth saluation with conditiō (if thou beleeuest) which condition also Christ freely giueth to vs, So the condition of the Law is (if thou doest all these things) the which only Christ hath fulfilled for vs.
m Meaning, that they are all iustified by one meanes, and if they will haue any difference, it onely standeth in wordes: for in effect there is none. n The doctrine of faith is the ornament of the Law: for it embraceth Christ, who by his death hath satisfied the Law. so that † Law which could not bring vs to saluation by reason of our owne corruption, is now made effectuall to vs by Christ Iesus.

21 But now is the righteousnesse of God made manifest without the Lawe, hauing witnesse of the Law and of the Prophets.
22 To wit, the righteousnesse of God by the faith of Iesus Christ, vnto all, and vpon all that beleeue.
23 For there is no difference: for all haue sinned, and are i depriued of the glory of God,
24 And are iustified freely by his grace, through the redemption that is in Christ Iesus,
25 Whom God hath set forth to be a reconciliation through faith in his blood, to declare his k righteousnesse, by the forgiuenesse of the sinnes that are passed, through the patience of God,
26 To shewe at this time his righteousnesse, that hee might be iust, and a iustifier of him which is of the faith of Iesus.
27 Where is then the reioycing? It is excluded. By what Law? of workes? Nay: but by the l Law of faith.
28 Therefore we conclude, that a man is iustified by faith without the workes of the Law.
29 God, is he the God of the Iewes only, and not of the Gentiles also? Yes, euen of the Gentiles also.
30 For it is one God who shall iustifie circumcision m of faith and vncircumcision through faith.
31 Doe wee then make the Law of none effect through faith? God forbid: yea, n we establish the Law.

CHAP. IIII. Epistle

1. 17 He declareth that iustification is a free gift, euen by themselues of whom the Iewes most boasted, as of Abraham and of Dauid, 15 And also by the office of the Law and faith.

WHat shall we say then, that Abraham our father hath found a concerning the flesh?
2 For if Abraham were iustified by workes, he hath wherein to b reioyce, but not with God.
3 For what saith the Scripture? Abraham beleeued God, and it was counted to him for righteousnesse.
4 Now to him that c worketh, the wages is not counted by fauour, but by debt:
5 But to him that d worketh not, but beleeueth in him that e iustifieth the vngodly, his faith is counted for righteousnesse.
6 Euen as Dauid declareth the blessednesse of the man, vnto whom God imputeth righteousnesse without works, saying,
7 f Blessed are they, whose iniquities are forgiuen, and whose sinnes are couered.
8 Blessed is the man, to whom the Lord imputeth not sinne.
9 Came this blessednesse then vpon the circumcision onely, or vpon the vncircumcision also? For we say, that faith was imputed vnto Abraham for righteousnesse.
10 How was it then imputed? when hee was circumcised, or vncircumcised? not when he was circumcised, but when he was vncircumcised.
11 g After he receiued the signe of circumcision, as the seale of the righteousnesse of the faith which he had, when he was vncircumcised, that he should be the father of all them that beleeue, not being circumcised, h righteousnesse might be imputed to them also,
12 And the father of circumcision, not vnto them onely which are of the circumcision, but vnto them also that walke in the i steps of the faith of our father Abraham, which he had when he was vncircumcised.
13 For the promise that he should be the heire of the worlde was not giuen to Abraham, or to his seed, through the k Lawe but through the righteousnesse of faith.
14 For if they which l are of the Law, bee heires, faith is made voyd, and the promise is made of none effect.
15 For the Lawe causeth m wrath: for where no Law is, there is no n transgression.
16 Therefore it is by faith, that it might come by grace, and the promise might bee sure to o all the seede, not to that onely which is of the Lawe: but also to that which is of the faith of Abraham, who is the father of vs all,
17 (As it is written, p I haue made thee a father of many nations) euen q before God whom hee beleeued, who quickeneth the r dead, and calleth those things which bee not, as though they were.
18 Which Abraham aboue hope beleeued vnder hope, that he should bee the father of many nations, according to that which was spoken to him, s So shall thy seed be.
19 And he not weake in the faith, considered not his owne body, which was now dead, being almost an hundred yere old, neither t the deadnesse of Saras wombe.
20 Neither did hee doubt of the promise of God through vnbeliefe, but was strengthened in the faith, and gaue u glory to God, 21 Being fully assured that he which had promised, was also able to doe it.
22 And therefore it was imputed to him for righteousnesse.
23 Now it is not written for him onely, that it was imputed vnto him for righteousnesse,
24 But also x for vs, to whome it shall be imputed for righteousnesse, which beleeue in him that raised vp Iesus our Lord from the dead.
25 Who was deliuered to death for our sinnes, and y is risen againe for our iustification.

q But most strong and constant. r In that shee was past child bearing. s For his mercy and trueth. t For our instruction: for wee shall be iustified by the same meanes. u To accomplish, and make perfect our iustification.

THen being iustified by faith, wee haue a peace toward God through our Lorde Iesus Christ.

2 By whome also wee haue accesse through faith vnto this grace, wherein wee stand, and reioyce vnder the hope of the glory of God.

3 Neither doe we so only, but also we reioyce in tribulations, knowing that tribulation bringeth forth patience.

4 And patience experience, and experience hope.

5 And hope maketh not b ashamed, because the c loue of God is shed abroade in our hearts by the holy Ghost, which is giuen vnto vs.

6 For Christ, when wee were yet of no strength, at his time, died for the d vngodly.

7 Doubtlesse one will scarce die for a e righteous man: but yet for a e good man it may be that one dare die.

8 But God setteth out his loue towarde vs, seeing that while we were yet sinners, Christ died for vs.

9 Much more then, being now iustified by his blood, we shall be saued from wrath through him.

10 For if when we were f enemies wee were reconciled to God by the death of his Sonne, much more being reconciled, wee shall be saued by his life.

11 And not onely so, but wee also reioyce in God through our Lorde Iesus Christ, by whom wee haue nowe receiued the atonement.

12 Wherefore, as by one man sinne entred into the world, and death by sinne, and so death went ouer all men: for all men haue sinned.

13 For vnto the g time of the Law was sinne in the world, but sinne is not imputed, while there is no Law.

14 But death raigned from Adam to Moses, euen ouer them also that sinned not h after the like maner of the transgression of i Adam, which was the figure of h him that was to come.

15 But yet the gift is not so, as is the offence: for if through the offence of one, many be dead, much more the grace of God, and the gift by grace, which is by one man Iesus Christ, hath abounded vnto many.

16 Neither is the gift so, as that which entred in by one that sinned: for the fault came of one offence vnto condemnation: but the gift is of many offences to iustification.

17 For if by the offence of one death raigned through one, much more they which receiue the aboundance of grace, and of the gift of k righteousnes, raigne in life through one, that is, Iesus Christ.

18 Likewise then, as by the offence of one the fault came on all men to condemnation, so by the iustifying of one, the benefite abounded towarde l all men to the iustification of life.

19 For as by one mans disobedience, many were made sinners: so by the obedience of one, shall many also be made righteous.

20 Moreouer the Law entred thereupon, that the offence should o abound: nevertheles, where sinne abounded, there grace aboundeth much more:

21 That as sinne had raigned vnto death, so might grace also raigne by righteousnesse vnto eternall life, through Iesus Christ our Lord.

CHAP. VI.

Because no man should glory in the flesh, but rather seeke to subdue it to the spirit, 3 He sheweth by the vertue and end of Baptisme, 5 That regeneration is ioyned with iustification and therefore exhorteth to godly life, 12 Setting before mens eies the reward of sinne and righteousnesse.

WHat shall we say then? Shall we continue still in sinne, that grace may abound? God forbid.

2 How shall we that are a dead to sinne, liue yet therein?

3 Know ye not, that b all we which haue bene baptized into Iesus Christ, haue bene baptized into his death?

4 c Wee are buryed then with him by baptisme into his death, that like as Christ was raised vp from the dead by the glory of the Father, so we also should walke in newnesse of life.

5 d For if we be e graffed with him f to the similitude of his death, euen so shall wee be to the similitude of his resurrection,

6 Knowing this, that our olde man is crucified with him, that the g body of sinne might bee destroyed, that henceforth wee should not serue sinne.

7 For hee that is dead is h freed from sinne.

8 Wherefore, if we be dead with Christ, we beleeue that we shall liue also with him, 9 Knowing that Christ being raised from the dead dieth no more: death hath no more dominion ouer him.

10 For in that he died, he died once i to sinne: but in that he liueth, he liueth to God.

11 Likewise thinke ye also, that yee are k dead to sinne, but are aliue l to God in Iesus Christ our Lord.

12 Let not sinne reigne therefore in your mortall body, that ye should obey it in the lusts thereof.

13 Neither giue ye your members as weapons of vnrighteousnesse vnto sinne: but giue your selues vnto God, as they that are aliue from the dead, and giue your members as weapons of righteousnesse vnto God.

c The Greeke word meaneth that we grow vp together with Christ, as we see mosse, yuie, misseltow, or such like grow vp by a tree, & are nourished with the iuyce thereof.

d If we by his vertue die to sinne.

e The flesh wherein sinne sticketh fast.

f Because that being dead we cannot sinne.

g That he might destroy sinne in our flesh.

h And sitteth at the right hand of the Father.

i Wee may gather that we are dead to sinne, when sinne beginneth to die in vs, which is by the participatiō of Christes death, by whom also being quickned, we liue to God, that is, to righteousnesse.

k In that yee are led with the Spirit of God.

l The minde first ministreth euill motions, whereby mans will is enuyed: hence burst foorth the lusts, by whom the body is prouoked, and the body by his actions doth follow the minde: therefore he commandeth, at the least, that we rule our bodies.

q It is a most vile thing for him that is deliuered from the slauerie of sinne, to returne againe to the same.
r Leauing to speake of heauenly things, according to your capacitie, I vse these similitudes of seruitude and freedome, that ye might the better vnderstand.

t Sinne is compared to a tyrant which reigneth by force, who giueth death as an allowance to them that were preferred by the Law.

14 For sinne shall not haue dominion ouer you, for ye are not vnder the [m] Law, but vnder [n] grace.

15 What then? shall we sinne, because we are not vnder the Law, but vnder grace? God forbid.

16 [o] Know ye not that to whom ye giue your selues as seruants to obey, his seruants ye are to whom ye obey, whether it be of sinne vnto death, or of [p] obedience vnto righteousnesse?

17 But God be thanked, that ye haue bene the seruants of sinne, but yee haue obeyed frō the heart vnto the forme of the doctrine, whereunto ye were [p] deliuered.

18 Being then made [q] free from sinne, ye are made the seruants of righteousnesse.

19 I speake [r] after the maner of men, because of the infirmitie of your flesh: for as ye haue giuen your members seruants to vncleannesse and to iniquitie, to commit iniquitie, so now giue your members seruants vnto righteousnesse in holinesse.

20 For when yee were the seruaunts of sinne, ye were freed from righteousnesse.

21 What fruite had yee then in those things, whereof ye are now ashamed? For the [s] ende of those things is death.

22 But nowe being freed from sinne, and made seruants vnto God, ye haue your fruit in holinesse, and the ende, euerlasting life.

23 For the [t] wages of sinne is death: but the gift of God is eternall life through Iesus Christ our Lord.

CHAP. VII.

1. 7. 12 The vse of the Law. 6. 24 And how Christ hath deliuered vs from it. 16 The infirmities of the faithfull. 23 The dangerous fight betweene the flesh and the spirit.

KNow ye not, brethren, (for I speake to them that knowe the Lawe) that the [a] Law hath dominion ouer a man as long as he liueth?

2 [b] For the woman which is in subiection to a man, is bound by the Lawe to the man, while hee liueth: but if the man bee dead, shee is deliuered from the lawe of the man.

3 So then, if while the man liueth, shee take another man, she shall be called an adulteresse: but if the man be dead, shee is free from the Lawe, so that she is not an adulteresse, though she take another man.

4 So ye, my brethren, are dead also to the Lawe by the body of Christ, that yee should be vnto another, euen vnto [c] him that is raysed vp from the dead, that we should bring forth fruit vnto God.

5 For when we were [d] in the flesh, the ‖ motions of sinnes, which were by the Lawe, had force in our members, to bring forth fruit vnto death.

6 But now wee are deliuered from the Lawe, being dead [e] vnto it, wherein wee were holden, that wee should serue in newnesse of spirit, and not in the oldnesse of the letter.

7 [f] What shall we say then? Is the Law sinne? God forbid. Nay, I knew not sinne, but by the Law: for I had not knowen lust, except the Law had sayd, [g] Thou shalt not lust.

8 But sinne tooke an occasion by the commandement, and wrought in mee all maner of concupiscence: for without the law sinne is dead.

9 For I once [h] was aliue, without the lawe: but when the commandement came, sinne reuiued.

10 But I died: and the same commaundement which was ordeined vnto life, was found to be vnto me vnto death.

11 For sinne tooke occasion by the commandement, and deceiued me, and thereby slew me.

12 Wherefore the Law is [i] holy, and the commaundement is holy, and iust, and good.

13 Was that then which is good, made death vnto mee? God forbid: but sinne, that it might appeare sinne, wrought death in me by that which is good, that sinne might bee out of measure sinfull by the commandement.

14 For we know that the Law [k] is spirituall, but I am carnall, sold vnder sinne.

15 For I allow not that which I doe: for what I [l] would, that doe I not: but what I hate, that doe I.

16 If I do then that which I would not, I consent to the Law, that it is good.

17 Now then, it is no more I, that doe [m] it, but the sinne that dwelleth in me.

18 For I know that in me, that is, in my ‖ flesh dwelleth no good thing: for to will is present with mee: but I finde no meanes to performe that which is good.

19 For I doe not the good thing, which I would, [n] but the euill, which I would not, that doe I.

20 Now if I doe that I would not, it is no more I that doe it, but the sinne that dwelleth in me.

21 I finde then by the Law, that when I would doe good, euill is present with me.

22 For I delight in the Law of God, concerning the [o] inner man:

23 But I see another ‖ Lawe in my [p] members, rebelling against the Lawe of my minde, and leading mee captiue vnto the law of sinne, which is in my members.

24 O wretched man that I am, who shall deliuer mee from the [q] bodie of this death?

25 I thanke God through Iesus Christ our Lord. Then I my selfe in my [r] minde serue the Law of God, but in my [s] flesh the law of sinne.

CHAP. VIII.

1 The assurance of the faithfull, and of the fruits of the holy Ghost in them. 3 The weakenes of the Lawe, and who accomplished it. 4 And wherefore. 5 Of what sort the faithfull ought to be. 6 The fruit of the spirit in them. 17 Of hope. 18 Of patience vnder the crosse. 28 Of the mutuall loue betwixt God and his children. 29 Of his foreknowledge.

NOwe then there is no [a] condemnation to them that are in Christ Iesus, which walke not [b] after the flesh, but after the Spirit.

2 For the [c] Lawe of the Spirit of life, which is in [d] Christ Iesus, hath freed me from the Lawe of sinne and of death.

3 For (that that was impossible to the Lawe, in as much as it was [‖] weake, because of the flesh) God sending his owne Sonne, in the [e] similitude of sinfull flesh, and [‖] for sinne, condemned sinne in the flesh,

4 That the [f] righteousnesse of the Lawe might be fulfilled in vs, which walke not after the flesh, but after the Spirit.

5 For they that are after the flesh, minde the [g] things of the flesh: but they that are after the Spirit, the things of the Spirit.

6 For the wildome of the flesh is death: but the wildome of the Spirit is life and peace,

7 Because the wildome of the flesh is enmity against God: for it is not subiect to the Law of God, neither in deed can be.

8 So then they that are in the flesh, cannot please God.

9 Now ye are not in the flesh, but in the Spirit, [h] because the Spirit of God dwelleth in you: but if any man hath not the Spirit of Christ, the same is not his.

10 And if Christ be in you, the body is dead, because of sinne: but the [i] Spirit is life for righteousnesse sake.

11 But if the Spirit of him that raysed vp Iesus from the dead, dwell in you, he that raised vp Christ from the dead, shall also quicken your mortall bodies, because that his Spirit dwelleth in you.

12 Therefore brethren, we are debters not to the flesh, to liue after the flesh:

13 For if ye liue after the flesh, ye shall die: but if ye mortifie the deedes of the body by the Spirit, ye shall liue.

14 For as many as are led by the Spirit of God, they are the sonnes of God.

15 For ye haue not receiued the spirit of bondage to feare againe: but ye haue receiued the spirit of [k] adoption, whereby we cry, Abba, Father.

16 The same Spirit [l] beareth witnesse with our spirit, that we are the children of God.

17 If we be children, we are also [m] heires, euen the heires of God, and heires annexed with Christ, if so be that we suffer with him, that wee may also be glorified with him.

18 For I count that the afflictions of this present time, are not [‖] worthy of the glory, which shall be shewed vnto vs.

19 For the feruent desire of the creature waiteth when the sonnes of God shall be reuelled.

20 Because the [n] creature is subiect to [o] vanity, not of it owne will, but by reason of him which hath subdued it vnder hope, 21 Because the creature also shall bee deliuered from the bondage of corruption into the glorious libertie of the sonnes of God.

22 For wee know that euery [p] creature groneth with vs also, and trauaileth in paine together vnto this present.

23 And not onely the creature, but we also which haue the [q] first fruits of the Spirite, euen we doe sigh in our selues, waiting for the adoption, euen the [r] redemption of our [r] body.

24 For we are saued by hope: but [s] hope that is seene, is not hope: for how can a man hope for that which he seeth?

25 But if we hope for that we see not, we do with patience abide for it.

26 Likewise the Spirit also helpeth our infirmities: for we know not what to pray as we ought: but the Spirit it selfe maketh request for vs with sighes, which cannot be expressed.

27 But hee that searcheth the hearts, knoweth what is the meaning of the Spirit: for hee [t] maketh request for the Saints, according to the will of God.

28 Also we know that all things worke together for the best vnto them that loue God, euen to them that are called of his purpose.

29 For those which he [u] knew before, he also predestinated to bee made like to the image of his Sonne, that he might be the first borne among many brethren.

30 Moreouer, whom he predestinated, them also he called, and whom hee called, them also he iustified, and whom he iustified, them he also glorified.

31 What shall we then say to these things? If God be on our side, who can bee against vs?

32 Who spared not his owne sonne, but gaue him for vs all to death, how shall he not with him giue vs all things also?

33 Who shall lay any thing to the charge of Gods chosen? It is God that [x] iustifieth.

34 Who shall condemne? It is Christ, which is dead, yea or rather, which is risen againe, who is also at the right hand of God, and maketh request also for vs.

35 Who shall separate vs from the loue of Christ? shall tribulation, or anguish, or persecution, or famine, or nakednesse, or perill, or sword?

36 As it is written, [y] For thy sake are we killed a Though sinne be in vs, yet it is not imputed vnto vs through Christ Iesus.

39 Nor height, nor depth, nor any other creature shall bee able to separate vs from the b loue of God, which is in Christ Iesus our Lord.

CHAP. IX.

1 Having testified his great loue towards his nation, and the signes thereof, 11 He entreateth of the election and reprobation. 24 Of the vocation of the Gentiles, 30 And reiection of the Iewes.

I Say the truth a in Christ, I lie not, my conscience bearing me witnesse in the holy Ghost,

2 That I haue great heauinesse, and continuall sorow in mine heart.

3 For I would wish my selfe to be b separated from Christ, for my brethren that are my kinsmen according to the flesh,

4 Which are the Israelites, to whome pertaineth the adoption, and the c glory, & the d Couenants, and the giuing of the Lawe, and the seruice of God, and the promises,

5 Of whom are the fathers, and of whom concerning the flesh, Christ came, who is e God ouer all blessed for euer, Amen.

6 f Notwithstanding it cannot bee that the word of God should take none effect: for all they are not Israel which are of Israel.

7 Neither are they all children, because they are the seede of Abraham: but, In g Isaac shall thy seed be called:

8 That is, they which are the children of the h flesh, are not the children of God: but the i children of the promise are counted for the seede.

9 For this is a word of promise, k In this same time will I come, and Sara shall haue a sonne.

10 Neither he only: but also l Rebecca when she had conceiued by one, euen by our father Isaac.

11 For yet the children were borne, and when they had done neither good nor euil (that the purpose of God might remaine according to election, not by workes, but by him that calleth)

12 It was sayd vnto her, m The elder shall serue the yonger:

13 As it is written, n I haue loued Iacob, and haue hated Esau.

14 What shall we say then? Is there vnrighteousnesse with God? God forbid.

15 For he sayth to Moses, o I will haue mercie on him to whom I will shew mercie: and will haue compassion on him, on whom I will haue compassion.

16 So then it is not in him that willeth, nor in him that runneth, but in God that sheweth mercy.

17 For the p Scripture sayth vnto Pharao, q For this same purpose haue I stirred thee vp, that I might shew my power in thee, and that my name might be declared throughout all the earth.

18 Therefore he hath mercy on whom he will, and whom he will, he hardeneth.

19 Thou wilt say then vnto me, Why doeth he yet complaine? for who hath resisted his will?

20 But, O man, who art thou which pleadest against God? shall the r thing formed say to him that formed it, Why hast thou made me thus?

21 Hath not the potter power of the clay to make of the same lumpe one vessel to s honour, and another to dishonour?

22 What and if God willing, to shew his wrath, and to make his power knowen, suffer with long patience the vessels of wrath prepared to destruction?

23 And that hee might declare the riches of his glory vpon the vessels of mercy, which he hath prepared vnto glory?

24 Euen vs, whom he hath called, not of the Iewes onely, but also of the Gentiles, 25 As he sayeth also in Oze, t I will call them, My people, which were not my people: and her, Beloued, which was not beloued.

26 And it shall bee, in the place where it was sayd vnto them, u Ye are not my people, that there they shall be called, The children of the liuing God.

27 Also Esaias crieth concerning Israel, x Though the number of the children of Israel were as the sand of the sea, yet shall but a remnant be saued.

28 y For hee will make his account, and gather it into a short summe with righteousnesse: for the Lord will make a short count in the earth.

29 z And as Esaias sayd before, Except the Lord of hostes had left vs a seede, we had beene made as a Sodome, and had beene like to Gomorrha.

30 What shall wee say then? That the Gentiles which followed not righteousnes, haue attained vnto righteousnesse, euen the righteousnesse which is of faith.

31 But Israel which followed the Law of righteousnesse, could not attaine vnto the Law of righteousnesse.

32 Wherefore so? Because they sought it not by faith, but as it were by the workes of the Law: for they haue stumbled at the stumbling stone, 33 As it is written, a Behold, I lay in Sion a stumbling stone, and a rocke to make men fall: and euery one that beleeueth in him, shall not be ashamed.

BRethren, mine hearts desire and prayer to God for Israel is, that they might be saued.

2 For I beare them recorde, that they haue a the zeale of God, but not according to knowledge.

3 For they, being ignorant of the righteousnesse of God, and going about to stablish their owne righteousnesse, haue not submitted themselues to the righteousnesse of God.

4 *For Christ is the b ende of the Law for righteousnesse vnto euery one that beleeueth.

5 For Moses thus describeth the righteousnesse which is of the Law, * That the man which doeth these things, shall liue thereby.

6 But the righteousnesse which is of faith, speaketh on this wise, c * Say not in thine heart, Who shall ascend into heauen? (that is to bring Christ from aboue)

7 Or, Who shall descend into the deepe? (that is to bring Christ againe from the dead)

8 But what sayeth it? * The worde is neere thee, euen in thy mouth, and in thine heart. This is the d word of faith which wee preach.

9 For if thou shalt confesse with thy mouth the Lord Iesus, and shalt beleeue in thine heart, that God raised him vp from the dead, thou shalt be saued.

10 For with the heart man beleeueth vnto righteousnesse, and with e the mouth man confesseth to saluation.

11 For the Scripture saith, * Whosoeuer beleeueth in him, shall not be ashamed.

12 For there is no difference betweene the Iewe and the Grecian: for hee that is Lord ouer all is rich vnto all, that call on him.

13 * For whosoeuer shall call vpon the Name of the Lord, shall be saued.

14 But how shall they call on him, in whom they haue not beleeued? and how shall they beleeue in him, of whom they haue not heard? and how shall they heare without a preacher?

15 And how shall they preach, except they be sent? as it is written, * How beautifull are the f feete of them which bring glad tidings of peace, and bring glad tidings of good things!

16 But they haue not all obeyed the Gospell. For Esaias saith, * Lord, who hath beleeued our g report?

17 Then faith is by hearing, and hearing by the word of God.

18 But I demaund, Haue h they not heard? * No doubt their sound went out through all the earth, and their words into the ende of the i world.

19 But I demaund, did not Israel know God? First * Moses saith, * I will prouoke you to enuie by a nation that is not my nation, and by a foolish nation I will anger you.

20 * And Esaias is bold, and saith, I was found of them that sought me not, and haue bene made manifest to them that asked not after me.

21 And vnto Israel he saith, * All the day long haue I stretched forth mine hand vnto a ‖ disobedient and gainesaying people.

CHAP. XI.

4 God hath his Church, although it be not seene to mans eye. 5 The grace shewed to the elect. 7 The iudgement of the reprobate. 8 God hath blinded the Iewes for a time, and reuealed himselfe to the Gentiles: 18 Whom he warneth to humble themselues. 29 The gifts of God without repentance. 33 The depth of Gods iudgements.

I Demaund then, Hath God cast away his people? God forbid: for I also am an Israelite, of the seede of Abraham, of the tribe of Beniamin.

2 God hath not cast away his people which hee * knewe before. Knowe yee not what the Scripture saith of Elias, how he maketh request vnto God * against Israel, saying,

3 * Lord, they haue killed thy Prophets, and digged downe thine altars: and I am left alone, and they seeke my life.

4 But what saith the answere of God to him? * I haue reserued vnto my selfe seuen thousand men, which haue not bowed the knee to Baal.

5 Euen so then at this present time is there a remnant through the ‖ election of grace.

6 And if it bee of grace, it is no more of workes: or else grace were no more grace: but if it be of workes, it is no more grace: or else were worke no more worke.

7 What then? Israel hath not obteined that hee sought: but the election hath obteined it, and the rest haue bene hardened.

8 According as it is written, * God hath giuen them the spirit of ‖ slumber: eyes that they should not see, & eares that they should not heare vnto this day.

9 And Dauid saith, * Let their k table be made a snare, and a net, and a stumbling blocke, euen for a recompence vnto them.

10 Let their eyes be darkened that they see not, & * bow downe their backe alwayes.

11 I demaund then, Haue they stumbled, that they * should fall? God forbid: but through their fall saluation commeth vnto the Gentiles, to l prouoke them to followe them.

12 Wherefore if the fall of them bee the riches of the world, and the diminishing of them the * riches of the Gentiles, how much more shall their aboundance bee?

13 For in that I speake to you Gentiles, in as much as I am the Apostle of the Gentiles, I magnifie mine office, a That is a certaine affection, but not a true knowledge.

15 For if the casting away of them be the reconciling of the world, what shall the receiuing be, but life from the dead?

16 For if the first fruits be holy, so is the whole lumpe: and if the roote bee holy, so are the branches.

17 And though some of the branches bee broken off, and thou being a wilde Olive tree, wast graft in for them, and made partaker of the roote, and fatnesse of the Olive tree, 18 Boast not thy selfe against the branches: and if thou boast thy selfe, thou bearest not the roote, but the roote thee.

19 Thou wilt say then, The branches are broken off, that I might be graft in.

20 Well: through vnbeliefe they are broken off, and thou standest by faith: bee not high minded, but feare.

21 For if God spared not the naturall branches, take heed, lest he also spare not thee.

22 Behold therefore the bountifulnesse, and seueritie of God: toward them which haue fallen, seueritie: but toward thee, bountifulnesse, if thou continue in his bountifulnesse: or else thou shalt also be cut off.

23 And they also, if they abide not still in vnbeliefe, shalbe graffed in: for God is able to graffe them in againe.

24 For if thou wast cut out of the Olive tree, which was wilde by nature, and wast graffed contrary to nature in a right Olive tree, how much more shall they that are by nature, be graffed in their owne Olive tree?

25 For I would not, brethren, that ye should be ignorant of this secret, (lest ye should be arrogant in your selues) that partly obstinacie is come vnto Israel, vntill the fulnesse of the Gentiles be come in.

26 And so all Israel shall be saued, as it is written, There shall come out of Sion him that shall turne away the vngodlinesse from Iacob.

27 And this is my couenant vnto them, when I shall take away their sinnes.

28 As concerning the Gospel, they are enemies for your sakes: but as touching the election, they are beloued for the fathers sakes.

30 For euen as ye in time past haue not beleeued God, yet haue now obtained mercy through their vnbeliefe, 31 Euen so now haue they not beleeued ‖ by the mercy shewed vnto you, that they also may obtaine mercy.

32 For God hath shut vp all in vnbeliefe, that he might haue mercy on all.

33 O the deepenesse of the riches, both of the wisedome and knowledge of God! how vnsearchable are his iudgements, and his wayes past finding out!

34 For who hath knowen the minde of the Lord? or who was his counseller?

35 Or who hath first giuen vnto him, and it shall be recompensed?

36 For of y him, and through him, and for him are all things: to him be glory for euer. Amen.

CHAP. XII.

The conuersation, loue and workes of such as be louers in Christ. 19 Not to take reuenge. &c.

I Beseech you therefore, brethren, by the mercies of God, that ye giue vp your bodies a liuing sacrifice, holy, acceptable vnto God, which is your reasonable seruing of God.

2 And fashion not your selues like vnto this world, but be ye changed by the renuing of your minde, that yee may proue what is the good will of God, and acceptable, and perfect:

3 For I say through the grace that is giuen vnto me, to euery one that is among you, that no man presume to vnderstand, aboue that which is meete to vnderstand, but that hee vnderstand according to sobrietie, as God hath dealt to euery man the measure of faith.

4 For as wee haue many members in one body, and all members haue not one office,

5 So wee being many are one body in Christ, and euery one, one anothers members.

6 Seeing then that we haue gifts that differ, according to the grace that is giuen vnto vs, whether wee haue prophesie, let vs prophesie according to the proportion of faith:

7 Or an office, let vs wait on the office: or he that teacheth, on teaching:

8 Or hee that exhorteth, ouer exhortation: hee that distributeth, let him doe it with simplicitie: hee that ruleth, with diligence: hee that sheweth mercie, with cheerefulnesse.

9 Let loue be without dissimulation. Abhorre that which is euill, & cleaue vnto that which is good.

10 Be affectioned to loue one another with brotherly loue. In giuing honour, goe one before another.

11 Not slouthfull to doe seruice: feruent in spirit: seruing the Lord.

12 Reioycing in hope, patient in tribulation, continuing in prayer, 13 Distributing vnto the necessities of the Saints: giuing your selues to hospitalitie.

14 Blesse them which persecute you: blesse, I say, and curse not.

1 The weake ought not to be despised. 10 No man should offend anothers conscience, 15 But one to support another in charitie and faith.

HIm that is weake in the a faith, receiue vnto you, but not b for controuersies of disputations.

2 One beleeueth that he may eate of all things: and another, which is weake, eateth herbes.

3 Let not him that eateth, despise him that eateth not: and let not him, which eateth not, iudge him that eateth: for God hath receiued him.

4 * Who art thou that condemnest another mans seruant? her standeth or falleth to his owne c master: yea, hee shall be established: for God is able to make him stand.

5 This man esteemeth one day aboue another day, and another man esteemeth euery day alike: let euery man bee d fully perswaded in his mind.

6 He that e obserueth the day, obserueth it to the f Lord: and hee that obserueth not the day, obserueth it not to the Lord. Hee that eateth, eateth to the Lord: for hee giueth God thankes: and he that eateth not, eateth not to the Lord, and giueth God thankes.

7 For none of vs liueth g to himselfe, neither doth any die to himselfe.

8 For whether we liue, we liue vnto the Lord: or whether wee die, wee die vnto the Lord: whether we liue therefore, or die, wee are the Lords.

9 For Christ therefore died, and rose againe, and reuiued, that hee might be Lord both of the dead and of the quicke.

12 So then euery one of vs shall giue accounts of himselfe to God.

13 Let vs not therefore iudge one another any more: but vse your iudgement rather in this, that no man put an occasion to fall, or a stumbling blocke before his brother.

14 [m] I know, and am perswaded through the Lord Iesus, that there is nothing vncleane of it selfe: but vnto him that iudgeth any thing to bee vncleane, to him it is vncleane.

15 But if thy brother bee grieued for thy meate, now walkest thou not charitably: [n] destroy not him with thy meate, for whom Christ died.

16 Cause not your [o] commodity to be euill spoken of.

17 For the [p] kingdome of God is not meate nor drinke, but righteousnesse, and peace, and ioy in the holy Ghost.

18 For whosoeuer [q] in these things serueth Christ, is acceptable vnto God, and is approued of men.

19 Let vs then follow those things which concerne peace, and wherewith one may edifie another.

20 Destroy not the worke of God for meates sake: [r] all things indeed are pure: but it is euill for the man which eateth with offence.

21 [s] It is good neither to eate flesh, nor to drinke wine, nor any thing, whereby thy brother stumbleth, or is offended, or made weake.

22 Hast thou [t] faith? haue it with thy selfe before God: blessed is he that [u] condemneth not himselfe in that thing which he alloweth.

23 For he that doubteth, is condemned if he eate, because hee eateth not of faith: and whatsoeuer is not of [x] faith, is sinne.

CHAP. XV.

1 Paul exhorteth them to support and loue one another by the example of Christ, 9 & by the only mercy of God, which is the cause of saluation both of the one and the other. 14 He sheweth his zeale toward them and the Church, 30 and requireth the same of them.

WE which are strong, ought to beare the infirmities of the weake, and not to please our selues.

2 Therefore let euery man please his neighbour in that that is good to [a] edification.

3 For Christ also would not please himselfe, but as it is written, [b] The rebukes of them which rebuke thee, fell [c] on me.

4 For whatsoeuer things are written aforetime, are written for our learning, that wee through patience, and comfort of the Scriptures, might haue hope.

5 Nowe the God of [d] patience and consolation giue you that ye be like minded one towards another, according to Christ Iesus,

6 That ye with one minde, and with one mouth may praise God, euen the Father of our Lord Iesus Christ.

7 Wherefore, receiue yee one another, as Christ also receiued vs to the [e] glorie of God.

8 Now I say, that Iesus Christ was a [f] minister of the circumcision, for the [g] truth of God, to confirme the promises made vnto the fathers, 9 And let the Gentiles praise God for his mercy, as it is written, [h] For this cause I will confesse thee among the Gentiles, and sing vnto thy Name.

10 And againe he sayeth, [i] Reioyce, yee Gentiles, with his people.

11 And againe, [k] Praise the Lord all yee Gentiles, and laud yee him all people together.

12 And againe Esaias saith, [l] There shal be a roote of Iesse, and he that shall rise to reigne ouer the [m] Gentiles, in him shall the Gentiles trust.

13 Now the God of hope fill you with all ioy, and peace in beleeuing, that yee may abound in hope, through the power of the holy Ghost.

14 And I my selfe also am perswaded of you, my brethren, that ye also are full of goodnesse, and filled with all knowledge, and are able to admonish one another.

15 Neuertheles brethren, I haue somewhat boldly also written vnto you, as one that putteth you in remembrance, through the grace that is giuen mee of God,

16 That I should be the minister of Iesus Christ toward the Gentiles, ministring the Gospel of God, that the offering vp of the Gentiles might bee acceptable, being sanctified by the holy Ghost.

17 I haue therefore whereof I may reioyce in Christ Iesus in those things which pertaine to God.

18 For I dare not [n] speake of any thing which Christ hath not wrought by me, to make the Gentiles obedient in word and deede, 19 Both the power of signes and wonders, by the power of the spirit of God: so that from Ierusalem, and round about vnto Illyricum, I haue caused to abound the Gospel of Christ.

20 Yea, so I enforced my selfe to preach the Gospel, not where Christ was named, lest I should haue built on another mans foundation.

21 But as it is written, [o] To whom hee was not spoken of, they shall see him, and they that heard not, shall vnderstand him.

22 Therefore also I haue ben [p] oft let to come vnto you.

The first Epistle of Paul to the Corinthians.

THE ARGVMENT.

AFter that Saint Paul had preached at Corinthus a yeare and an halfe, hee was compelled by the wickednesse of the Iewes to saile into Syria. In whose absence false apostles entred into the Church, who being puffed vp with vaine glory, and affectate eloquence, sought to bring into contempt the simplicity which Paul vsed in preaching the Gospel By whose ambition such factions and schismes sprang vp in the Church, that from opinions & policies in ceremonies, they fell to false doctrine and heresies, calling into doubt the resurrection from the dead, one of the chiefest points of Christian Religion. Against these euils the Apostle proceedeth, preparing the Corinthians hearts, and eares with gentle salutations: but soone after he reproueth their contentions and debates, their arrogancy and pride, and exhorteth them to concord and humility, setting before their eyes the spirituall vertue, and heauenly wisdome of the Gospel, which cannot be perswaded by worldly wit and eloquent reasons, but is reueiled by Gods spirit, and so sealed in mens hearts Therefore this salutation may not be attributed to the ministers, but only to God, whose seruants they are, and haue receiued charge to edifie his Church: wherein Saint Paul behaued himselfe skilfully, building according to the foundation (which is Christ) and exhorteth others to make the ende proportionable to the beginning, taking diligent heede that they be not polluted with vaine doctrine, seeing they are the Temple of God. And as for those which doubted of his Apostleship, he sheweth them that he dependeth not on mans iudgement, albeit he had declared by manifest signes, that he neuer sought his own glory, neither yet how he might liue, but only the glory of Christ: which thing at his comming he would declare more amply, to the shame of those vaineglorious braggers, who sought themselues onely, and therefore suffered most horrible vices vnreproued and vnpunished, as incest, contentions, pleadings before infidels, fornication, and such like to the great slander of the Gospel. This done, he answereth to certaine points of the Corinthians letter, as touching single life, duety of marriage, of discorde and dissention among the married, of virginitie, and second marriage And because some thought it nothing to be present at idole seruice, seeing in their heart they worshipped the true God, he warneth them to haue respect to their weake brethren, whose faith by that dissembling was hindered, and their consciences wounded, which thing, rather then he would doe, hee would neuer vse that liberty, which God had giuen him. But forasmuch as pride, & selfe will was the cause of those great euils, he admonisheth them by the example of the Iewes not to glory in these outward gifts, whose horrible punishment for the abuse of Gods creatures, ought to bee a warning to all men to follow Christ vprightly, without all pollution and offence of others. Then he correcteth diuers abuses in their Church, as touching the behauiour of men, and women in the assemblies: of the Lords Supper, the abuse of the spirituall giftes, which God hath giuen to maintaine loue and edifie the Church: as concerning the resurrection from the dead, without the which the Gospel serueth to no vse. Last of all, he exhorteth the Corinthians to relieue the poore brethren at Ierusalem, to perseuere in the loue of Christ, and well doing, sending his commendations, and wishing them peace.

CHAP. I.

1 Hee praiseth the great graces of God shewed toward them, 10 Exhorting them to concord and humilitie. 19 Hee beateth downe all pride, and wisedom which is not grounded on God, 26 Shewing whom God hath chosen to confound the wisedome of the world.

PAVL called to be an Apostle of IESVS CHRIST, through the will of God, and our brother Sosthenes,

2 Vnto the Church of God, which is at Corinthus, to them that are * a sanctified in Christ Iesus, * b Saints by calling, * with all that c call on the Name of our Lord Iesus Christ in euery place, both their Lorde and ours:

3 Grace bee with you, and peace from God our Father, and from the Lord Iesus Christ.

4 I thanke my God alwayes on your behalfe for the d grace of God, which is giuen you in Iesus Christ,

5 * That in all things yee are made rich e in him, in f all kinde of speach, and in all knowledge:

6 As the testimony of Iesus Christ hath bene confirmed in you:

7 So that yee are not destitute of any gift: * waiting for the appearing of our Lord Iesus Christ.

8 * Who shall also confirme you vnto the ende, that ye may be g blamelesse in the day of the Lord Iesus Christ.

9 * God is faithfull, by whom ye are called vnto the fellowship of his Sonne Iesus Christ our Lord.

10 Now I beseech you, brethren, by the Name of our Lord Iesus Christ, * that ye all h speake one thing, and that there bee no dissentions among you: but bee yee knit knit together in one mind, and in one iudgement.

11 For it hath bene declared vnto me, my brethren, of you, by them that are of the houſe of i Cloe, that there are contentions among you.

12 Now this I ſay, that euery one of you ſayeth, I am Pauls, and I am *Apollos, and I am Cephas, and I am Chriſts.

13 Is Chriſt diuided? was Paul crucified for you? either were ye baptized k into the name of Paul?

14 I thanke God, that I baptized none of you, but *Crispus, and l Gaius, 15 Leſt any ſhould ſay, that I had baptized into mine owne name.

16 I baptized alſo the houſhold of Stephanas: furthermore know I not whether I baptized any other.

17 For Chriſt ſent mee not to m baptize, but to preach the Goſpel, not with * wiſedome of wordes, o leſt the croſſe of Chriſt ſhould be made of none effect.

18 For the preaching of the croſſe is to them that periſh, fooliſhneſſe: but vnto vs which are ſaued, it is the * power of God.

19 For it is written, * I will deſtroy the wiſedome of the wiſe, and will caſt away the vnderſtanding of the prudent.

20 Where is the wiſe? where is the p Scribe? where is the q Diſputer of the worlde? hath not God made the wiſedome of this world fooliſhneſſe?

21 For ſeeing the world by wiſedom knew not God in the wiſedome of God, it pleaſed God by the fooliſhneſſe of preaching to ſaue them that beleeue:

22 Seeing alſo that the Iewes require a * ſigne, and the Grecians ſeeke after wiſedome.

23 But we preach Chriſt crucified: vnto the Iewes, euen a ſtumbling blocke, and vnto the Grecians, fooliſhneſſe:

24 But vnto them which are called, both of the Iewes and Grecians, we preach Chriſt, the power of God, and the wiſedome of God.

25 For the r fooliſhneſſe of God is wiſer then men, & the weakeneſſe of God is ſtronger then men.

26 For brethren, you ſee your calling, how that not many wiſe men ſ after the fleſh, not many mighty, not many noble are called.

27 But God hath choſen t fooliſh things of the world, to confound the wiſe, and God hath choſen the weake things of the world, to confound the mighty things.

28 And vile things of the world, & things which are deſpiſed, hath God choſen, and things u which are not, to bring to nought things * that are,

29 That no * fleſh ſhould reioyce in his preſence.

30 But yet are of him in Chriſt Ieſus, who of God is made vnto vs * wiſedome, and righteouſneſſe, and ſanctification, and redemption, 31 That according as it is written, * He that reioyceth, y let him reioyce in the Lord.

CHAP. II.

1 Her paineth for example his maner of preaching, which was according to the tenour of the Goſpel, 8 Wonderfull Goſpel was contemptible and hid to the carnall, 10 And againe honourable and manifeſt to the ſpirituall.

AND I brethren, when I came to you, came not with * excellencie of wordes, or of wiſedome, ſhewing vnto you the ‖ a teſtimony of God.

2 For I eſteemed not to ‖ knowe any thing among you, ſaue Ieſus Chriſt, and him crucified.

3 * And I was among you in b weakeneſſe, and in feare, and in much trembling,

4 Neither ſtood my worde, and my preaching in the * inticing ſpeach of mans wiſedome, but in plaine euidence of c the Spirit and of power,

5 That your faith ſhould not bee in the wiſedome of men, but in the power of God.

6 And we ſpeake wiſedom among them that are * perfite: not the wiſedome of this world, neither of the d princes of this world, which come to nought.

7 But wee ſpeake the wiſedome of God in a myſterie, euen the hid wiſedome, which God had determined before the world, vnto our glory.

8 Which * none of the Princes of this world hath knowen: for had they knowen it, they would not haue crucified the e Lord of glory.

9 But as it is written, * The things which eye hath not ſeene, neither eare hath heard, neither came into mans heart, are, which God hath prepared for them that loue him.

10 But God hath reuealed them vnto vs by his Spirite: for the Spirite * ſearcheth all things, yea, the deepe things of God.

11 For what man knoweth the things of a man, ſaue the ſpirit of a man, which is in him? euen ſo the things of God knoweth no man, but the Spirit of God.

12 Now wee haue * receiued not the Spirite of the world, but the Spirite, which is of GOD, that wee might knowe the f things that are giuen to vs of God.

CHAP. III.

1 Paul rebuketh the sects and authors thereof. 7 No man ought to attribute his saluation to the minister, but to God. 10 That they beware erroneous doctrines. 11 Christ is the foundation of his Church. 16 The dignitie and office both of the ministers, and also of all the faithfull.

AND I could not speake vnto you, brethren, as vnto spirituall men, but as vnto carnall, euen as vnto a babes in Christ.

2 I gaue you milke to drinke, and not meate: for yee were not yet able to beare it, neither yet now are ye able.

3 For yee are yet carnall: for whereas there is among you enuying, and strife, and diuisions, are yee not carnall, and walke as men?

4 For when one saith, I am Pauls, and another, I am Apollos, are ye not carnall?

5 Who is Paul then? and who is Apollos, but the ministers by whom yee beleeued, and as the Lord gaue to euery man?

6 I haue planted, Apollos watered, but God gaue the increase.

7 So then, neither is hee that planteth any thing, neither hee that watereth, but God that giueth the increase.

8 And he that planteth, and he that watereth are b one, * and euery man shall receiue his wages, according to his labour.

9 For wee together are Gods c labourers: yee are Gods husbandrie, and Gods building.

10 According to the grace of God giuen to me, as a skilfull master builder, I haue layde the foundation, and another buildeth thereon: but let euery man d take heed how he buildeth vpon it.

11 For other foundation can no man lay, then that which is layd, which is Iesus Christ.

12 And if any man build on this foundation gold, siluer, precious stones, timber, hay, or stubble, 13 Euery mans worke shall be made manifest: for the e day shall declare it, because it shall bee reuealed by the f fire: and the fire shall trie euery mans worke of what sort it is.

14 If any mans worke, that hee hath built vpon, abide, he shall receiue wages.

15 If any mans worke burne, hee shall s lose, but he h shall be i safe himself: yet neuertheless yet as it were by the fire.

16 * Know ye not that ye are the Temple of God, and that the Spirit of God dwelleth in you?

17 If any man destroy the Temple of God, him shall God destroy: for the Temple of God is holy, which ye are.

18 Let no man deceiue himselfe. If any man among you seeme to bee wise in this world, let him bee a foole, that hee may bee wise.

19 For the wisedome of this world is foolishnesse with God: for it is written, * Hee catcheth the wise k in their owne craftinesse.

20 * And againe, The Lord knoweth that the thoughts of the wise be vaine.

21 Therefore let no man l reioyce in men: for all things are yours.

CHAP. IIII.

1 After that he had described the office of a true Apostle, 3 Seeing they did not acknowledge him such one, 4 He appeareth to Gods iudgement. 7 Beating downe their glory which hindred them to praise that, which they dispraysed in him. 19 He sheweth what he requireth on their part, and what they ought to looke for of him at his returne.

LEt a man so thinke of vs, as of the a ministers of Christ, and disposers of the secrets of God.

2 And as for the rest, it is required of the disposers, that euery man be found faithfull.

3 * As touching me, I passe very little to bee iudged b of you, or * mans iudgement: no, I iudge not * mine owne selfe.

4 For I * know nothing by d my selfe, yet am I not thereby iustified: but hee that iudgeth me, is the Lord.

5 Therefore * iudge nothing before the time, vntill the Lord come, who will lighten things that are hid in darkenesse, and make the counsels of the heart manifest: and then shall euery man haue prayse of God.

6 Now these things, brethren, I haue figuratiuely applyed vnto mine owne selfe and Apollos for your sakes, that ye might learne e by vs, that no man presume aboue that which is written, that one swell not against another for any mans cause.

7 For who f separateth thee? and what hast thou, that thou hast not receiued? if thou hast receiued it, why reioycest thou, as though thou hadst not receiued it?

9 For I thinke that God hath set forth vs the z last Apostles, as men appointed to death: for we are made a gasing stocke vnto the world, and to the Angels, and to men.

10 We are a fooles for Christes sake, and ye are wise in Christ: wee are weake, and ye strong: yee are honourable, and wee are despised.

11 Vnto this houre we both hunger, and thirst, and are naked, and are buffeted, and haue no certaine dwelling place, 12 * And labour, working with our owne hands: we are reuiled, and yee we bleese: we are persecuted, and suffer it.

13 * We are euil spoken of, and we pray: we are made as the filth of the world, the offscowring of all things vnto this time.

14 I write not these things to shame you, but as my beloued children I admonish you.

15 For though ye haue ten thousand ‖ instructers in Christ, yet haue ye not many fathers: for in Christ Iesus I haue begotten you through the Gospel.

16 Wherefore, I pray you, be yee followers of me.

17 For this cause haue I sent vnto you Timotheus, which is my beloued sonne, and faithfull in the Lord, which shall put you in b remembrance of my wayes in Christ, as I teach euery where in euery Church.

18 Some are puffed vp as though I would not come to you.

19 But I will come to you shortly, * if the Lord will, and will know, not the speach of them which are puffed vp, but the power.

20 For the c kingdome of God is not in word, but in d power.

21 What will ye? shall I come vnto you with a rodde, or in loue, and in the spirit of meekenesse?

10 And l not altogether with the fornicators of this world, or with the couetous, or with extortioners, or with idolaters: for then ye must goe out of the world.

11 But now I haue written vnto you, that yee company not together: if any that is called a brother, be a fornicator, or couetous, or m a idolater, or a rayler, or a drunkard, or an extortioner, with such one eate not.

12 For what haue I to doe to iudge them also, which are n without? doe yee not iudge them that are o within?

CHAP. VI.

among you, because ye goe to law one with another: * why rather suffer ye not wrong? why rather suffeine ye not harme?

8 *Nay, ye your selues * doe wrong, and do harme, and that to your brethren.

9 Know yee not that the vnrighteous shall not inherite the kingdome of God? Be not deceiued: * neither fornicatours, nor idolaters, nor adulterers, nor wantons, nor buggerers, 10 Nor theeues, nor couetous, nor drunkards, nor railers, nor extortioners shall inherite the kingdome of God.

11 And such were * some of you: but yee are washed, but ye are sanctified, but ye are iustified in the Name of the Lord Iesus, and by the Spirit of our God.

12 ¶ * All [e] things are lawfull vnto mee: but all things are not profitable. I may doe all things, but I will not be brought vnder the power of any thing.

13 Meates are ordeined for the belly, and the belly for the meates: but God shall destroy both it, and them. Now the body is not for [h] fornication, but for the Lord, and the Lord for the body.

14 And God hath also raysed vp the Lord, * and shall raise vs vp by his power.

15 Know ye not that your bodies are the members of Christ? shall I then take the members of Christ, & make them the members of an [h] harlot? God forbid.

16 Do ye not know, that he which coupleth himselfe with an harlot, is one body? * for two, saith he, shall be one flesh.

17 But he that is ioyned vnto the Lord, is one spirit.

18 Flee fornication: euery sinne that a man doeth, is without the body: but he that committeth fornication, sinneth against his owne body.

19 Know ye not, that * your body is the temple of the holy Ghost, which is in you, whom ye haue of God? and ye are not your owne.

20 * For ye are bought for a price: therefore glorifie God in your body, and in your spirit: for they are Gods.

2 Neuerthelesse, to auoyd fornication, let [b] euery man haue his wife, and let euery woman haue her owne husband.

3 *Let the husband giue vnto the wife * due beneuolence, and likewise also the wife vnto the husband.

4 The wife hath not the power of her owne body, but the husband: and likewise also the husband hath not the power of his owne body, but the wife.

5 Defraud not one another, except it be with consent for a time, that yee may giue your selues to fasting and prayer, and againe come together, that Satan tempt you not for your incontinencie.

6 But I speake this by permission, [d] not by commandement.

7 For I would that all men were euen as I my selfe am: but euery man hath his proper gift of God, one after this maner, and another after that.

8 Therefore I say vnto the vnmaried, and vnto the widowes, It is good for them if they abide euen as I doe.

9 But if they cannot abstaine, let them marrie: for it is better to marrie then to * burne.

10 And vnto the married I command, not I, but the Lord, Let not the wife * depart from her husband.

11 But and if she [e] depart, let her remaine vnmarried, or bee reconciled vnto her husband, and let not the husband put away his wife.

12 But to the remnant I speake, and not [b] the Lord, If any brother haue a wife, that beleeueth not, if she be content to dwell with him, let him not forsake her.

13 And the woman which hath an husband that beleeueth not, if he be content to dwell with her, let her not forsake him.

14 For the vnbeleeuing husbande is [f] sanctified by the wife, and the vnbeleeuing wife is sanctified by the husband, else were your children vncleane: but now are they * holy.

15 But if the vnbeleeuing depart, let him depart: a brother or a sister is not in subiection in [f] such things: but God hath called vs in peace.

16 For what knowest thou, O wife, whether thou shalt saue thine husband? Or what knowest thou, O man, whether thou shalt saue thy wife?

17 But as God hath distributed to euery man, as the Lorde hath * called euery one, so let him walke: and so ordaine I in all Churches.

18 Is any man called being circumcised? let him not * gather his vncircumcision: is any called vncircumcised? let him not be circumcised.

21 Art thou called being a seruant? p care not for it: but if yet thou mayest be free, vse it rather.

22 For he that is called in the q Lord being a seruant, is the Lords free man: likewise also hee that is called being free, is Christs seruant.

23 * Yee are bought ‖ with a price: be not the seruants of men.

24 Brethren, let euery man, wherein hee was called, therein abide r with God.

25 Now concerning ‖ virgins. I haue no s commandement of the Lord: but I giue mine aduice, as one that hath obtained mercie of the Lord to be ‖ faithfull.

26 I suppose then t this to be good for the present u necessitie: I meane, that it is good for a man so to be.

27 Art thou bound vnto a wife? seeke not to bee loosed: art thou loosed from a wife? seeke not a wife.

28 But if thou takest a wife, thou sinnest not: and if a virgine marrie, she sinneth not: neuertheless, such shall haue x trouble in the flesh: but I x spare you.

29 And this I say, brethren, because the time is short, ‖ hereafter that both they which haue wiues, bee as though they had none:

32 And I would haue you without care. The vnmarried careth for the things of the Lord, how he may please the Lord.

33 But he that is married, careth for the things of the d world, how he may please his wife ‡.

34 There is difference also betweene a virgine and a wife: the vnmarried woman careth for the things of the Lord, that shee may bee e holy, both in body and in spirite: but shee that is married, careth for the things of the world, how she may please her husband.

35 And this I speake for your owne commoditie, not to f tangle you in a snare, but that ye follow that, which is honest, and that yee may cleaue fast vnto the Lord without separation.

36 But if any man thinke that it is vncomely for his virgine, if shee passe the flowre of her age, and g needs so require, let him do what he will, he sinneth not: let them be married.

CHAP. VIII.

1 Hee rebuketh them that vse their libertie to the slander of other, in going to the idolatrous sacrifices, 9 And sheweth how men ought to behaue themselues toward such as be weake.

AND as touching things sacrificed vnto idols, we know that we al haue * knowledge: knowledge puffeth vp, but loue edifieth.

2 Now, if any man thinke that he knoweth any thing, he knoweth nothing yet as he ought to know.

3 But if any man loue God, the same is ‖ knowen of him.

4 Concerning therefore meate sacrificed vnto idoles, wee know that an idole is b nothing in the world, and that there is none other God but one.

5 For though there bee that are called gods, whether in heauen, or in earth, (as there be many gods, and many c lords)

6 Yet vnto vs there is but one God, which is the Father, of whom are all things, and wee in him: and * one Lord Iesus Christ, by whom are all things, and wee by him.

7 But euery man hath not knowledge: for some hauing d conscience of the idole, vntill this houre, eate as a thing sacrificed vnto the idole, and so their conscience being weake, is defiled.

8 But meate maketh vs not acceptable to God: for neither if we eate, haue wee the e more: neither if we eate not, haue wee the lesse.

9 But take heede lest by any meanes this ‖ power of yours be an occasion of falling to them that are weake.

He exhorteth them by his example to vse their liberties to the edification of other. 24 To runne on forth in the course that they haue begunne.

A M I not an Apostle? am I not free? haue I not seene Iesus Christ our Lord? are ye not my worke in the Lord?
2 If I be not an Apostle vnto other, yet doubtlesse I am vnto you: for yee are the a seale of mine Apostleship in the Lord.
3 My defence to them b that examine me, is this,
4 Haue wee not power to eate, c and to drinke?
5 Haue we not power to d lead about a wife being a e sister, as well as the rest of the Apostles, and as the ‖ brethren of the Lord, and Cephas?
6 Haue I onely and Barnabas, haue not we power f not to worke?
7 Who goeth a warfare any time at his owne cost? who planteth a vineyard, and eateth not of the fruit thereof? or who feedeth a flocke, and eateth not of the milke of the flocke?
8 Say I these things according to man? saith not the Law the same also?
9 For it is written in the Law of Moses, * Thou shalt not muzzel the mouth of the ore that treadeth out the corne: doeth God take g care for oxen?
10 Either saith hee it not altogether for our sakes? For our sakes no doubt it is written, that hee which eareth, should eare in hope: and that hee that thresheth in hope, should be partaker of his hope.
11 * If we haue sowen vnto you spirituall things, is it a great thing if wee reape your carnall things?
12 If others with you bee partakers of this h power, are not we rather? neuertheless, we haue not vsed this power: but ‖ suffer all things, that we should not hinder the Gospel of Christ.
13 Do ye not know, that they which minister about the * holy things, eat of the things of the Temple? and they which wait at the altar, are partakers i with the altar?
14 So also hath the Lord ordained, that they which preach the Gospel, should liue of the Gospel.
15 But I haue vsed none of these things: neither wrote I these things, that it should be so done vnto me: for it were better for me to die, then that any man should make my * reioycing vaine.
16 For though I preach the Gospel, I haue nothing to reioyce of: for necessitie is layed vpon mee, and woe is vnto mee, if I preach not the Gospel.
17 For if I doe it willingly, I haue a reward: but if I doe it against my will, notwithstanding the dispensation is committed vnto me.
18 What is my reward then? verely that when I preach the Gospel, I make the Gospel of Christ k free, that I abuse not mine authority in the Gospel.
19 For though I bee free from all men, yet haue I made my selfe seruant vnto all men, that I might winne the more.
20 * And vnto the Iewes I become as a Iew, that I may winne the Iewes: to them that are vnder the Lawe, as though I were vnder the * Lawe, that I may winne them that are vnder the Law:
21 To them that are without Lawe, as though I were without Law (when I am not without Law as pertaining to God, but am in the Lawe through Christ) that I may winne them that are without Law.
22 To the weake I become as weake, that I may winne the weake: I am made * all things to all men, that I might by all meanes saue some.
23 And this I doe for the Gospels sake, that I might be partaker thereof with you.
24 Know ye not, that they which runne in a race, runne all, yet one receiueth the prize? so runne that ye may obtaine.
25 And euery man that proouveth masteries, l abstaineth from all things: and they doe it to obtaine a corruptible crowne: but we for an vncorruptible.
26 I therefore so runne, not as vncertainely: so fight I, not as one that beateth the aire.
27 But I beate downe my m body, and bring it into subiection, lest by any meanes after that I haue preached to other, I my selfe should be n reproued.

CHAP. X.

He feareth them with the examples of the Iewes, that they put not their trust carnally in the graces of God, 14 Exhorting them to flee all idolatrie, 23 and offence of their neighbour.

MOreouer, brethren, I would not that ye should be ignorant that all our fathers were vnder the * cloude, and all passed thorow the * sea,

3 * And did all eate the same b spirituall meate,
4 * And did all drinke the same spirituall drinke (for they dranke of the spirituall Rocke that followed them: and the Rocke c was Christ)
5 But with many of them God was not pleased: for they were * ouerthrowen in the wildernesse.
6 Now these are ensamples to vs, to the intent that wee should not lust after euill things * as they also lusted.

a praist vnto her for her haire is t giuen her for a couering.

16 But if any man list to be contentious, we haue no such custom, neither the Churches of God.

17 ¶ Now in this that I declare, I praise you not, that ye come together, not with profit, but with hurt.

18 For first of all, when ye come together in the Church, I heare that there are dissentions among you: and I beleeue it to be true u in some part.

19 For there must be v heresies euen among you, that they which are approoued among you, might be knowen.

20 ¶When ye come together therefore into one place, this is not to eate the Lordes supper.

21 For euery man when they should eate, taketh his own supper afore, and one is hungrie, and another is drunken.

22 Haue ye not houses to eate and to drinke in? despise ye the Church of God, and shame them that haue not? what shall I say to you? shall I praise you in this? I praise you not.

23 For I haue receiued of the w Lord that which I also haue deliuered vnto you, to wit, that the Lorde Iesus in the night that he was betrayed, tooke bread:

24 x And when he had giuen thankes, he brake it, and sayd, Take, eat: this is my body, which is y broken for you: this doe ye in remembrance of me.

25 After the same maner also he tooke the cup when he had supped, saying, This cup is the newe Testament in my blood: this doe as oft as ye drinke it, in remembrance of me.

26 For as often as ye shall eat this bread, and drinke this cup, ye shew the Lords death till he come.

27 Wherefore, whosoeuer shall eate this bread, and drinke the cup of the Lord vnworthily, shall be guiltie of the bodye & blood of the Lord.

28 z Let a man therefore examine himselfe, and so let him eate of this bread, and drinke of this cup.

29 For he that eateth and drinketh vnworthily, eateth and drinketh his own damnation, because he discerneth not a the Lords body.

30 For this cause many are weake, and sicke among you, and many b sleepe.

31 For if we would iudge our selues, we should not be iudged.

32 But when we are iudged, we are chastened of the Lord, because we should not be condemned with the world.

33 Wherefore, my brethren, when ye come together to eate, tary one for another.

34 And if any man be hungry, let him eat at home, that ye come not together vnto condemnation. Other things will I set in order when I come.

CHAP. XII.

The diuersitie of the gifts of the holy Ghost ought to be vsed to the edifying of Christs Church. 12 All the members of mans body serue to the vse one of another.

NOw concerning spirituall gifts, brethren, I would not haue you ignorant.

2 Ye know that ye were Gentiles, and were caried away vnto the c dumbe idoles, as ye were led.

3 Wherefore I declare vnto you, that no man speaking by the d Spirit of God, calleth Iesus execrable: also no man can say that Iesus is the Lord, but by the holy Ghost.

4 Now there are diuersities of gifts, but the same Spirit.

5 And there are diuersities of administrations, but the same Lord.

6 And there are diuersities of operations, but God is the same, which worketh all in all.

7 But the manifestation of the Spirit is giuen to euery man, to e profit withall.

8 For to one is giuen by the Spirit the word of wisedome, and to another the word of f knowledge by the same Spirit:

9 And to another is giuen g faith, by the same Spirit: and to another the giftes of healing, by the same Spirit:

10 And to another h the operations of great workes: and to another, i prophecie: and to another, k the discerning of spirites: and to another, diuersities of tongues: and to another, the interpretation of tongues.

11 * And all these things worketh euen the selfe same Spirit, distributing to euery man seuerally as he will.

12 For as the body is one, and hath many members, and all the members of the body, which is one, though they be many, yet are but one body: euen so is Christ.

13 For by one Spirit are we all baptized into l one body, whether we be Iewes or Grecians, whether we be bond or free, and haue bene all made to drinke into one Spirit.

14 For the body also is not one member, but many.

15 If the foot would say, Because I am not the hand, I am not of the body, is it therefore not of the body?

16 And if the eare would say, Because I am not the eye, I am not of the body, is it therefore not of the body?

17 If the whole body were an eye, where were the hearing? If the whole were hearing, where were the smelling?

18 But now hath God disposed the members euery one of them in the body at his owne pleasure.

19 For if they were all one member, where were the body?

20 But now are there many members, yet but m one body.

21 And the eye cannot say vnto the hand, I haue no need of thee: nor the head againe to the feete, I haue no need of you.

22 Yea, much rather those members of the body, which seeme to be n more feeble, a The Corinthians hauing notable gifts, seemed to haue forgotten, of whom, and for what ende they had receiued them.

b Which could not heare your prayers.

m And therefore whatsoeuer the diuersitie is, yet the publike ought to be common, and serue to the edification of the Church.

24 For our comely parts neede it not: but God hath tempered the body together, and hath giuen the more honor to that part which lacked,

25 Least there should bee any diuision in the body: but that the members should haue the same care one for another.

26 Therefore if one member suffer, all suffer with it: if one member bee had in honour, all the members reioyce with it.

27 Now yee are the body of Christ, and members ‖ for your part.

28 And God hath ordeined some in the Church: as first Apostles, secondly Prophets, thirdly teachers, then them that doe miracles: after that, the gifts of healing, helpers, gouernors, diuersitie of tongues.

29 Are all Apostles? Are all Prophets? are all teachers?

30 Are all doers of miracles? haue all the gifts of healing? do all speake with tongues? do all interprete?

31 But ‖ desire you the best gifts, and I will shew you a more excellent way.

CHAP. XIII.

Because loue is the fountaine and rule of edifying the Church, he setteth forth the nature, office, and praise thereof.

THough I speake with the tongues of men and Angels, and haue not loue, I am as sounding braſſe, or a tinckling cymball.

2 And though I had the gift of prophecie, and knew all secrets, and all knowledge, yea, if I had all faith, so that I could remoue mountaines, and had not loue, I were nothing.

3 And though I feede the poore with all my goods, and though I giue my body, that I be burned, and haue not loue, it profiteth me nothing.

4 Loue suffereth long, and is kinde: loue enuieth not: loue doth not boaste it selfe: is not puffed vp:

5 Doth not disdainefully: seeketh not her owne things: is not prouoked to anger: it thinketh not euill:

6 It reioyceth not in iniquitie, but reioyceth in the truth:

7 It suffereth all things: it beleeueth all things: it hopeth all things: it endureth all things.

8 Loue doeth neuer fall away: though that prophesyings be abolished, or the tongues cease, or knowledge vanish away.

9 For we know in part, and we prophesie in part.

10 But when that which is perfect, is come, then that which is in part, shall be abolished.

11 When I was a childe, I spake as a childe, I vnderstood as a childe, I thought as a childe: but when I became a man, I put away childish things.

12 For now wee see through a glasse darkly, but then shal we see face to face. Now I know in part: but then shall I know euen as I am ‖ known.

13 And now abideth faith, hope and loue, euen these three: but the b chiefest of these is loue.

CHAP. XIIII.

He exhorteth to loue, commendeth the gift of tongues, and other spirituall gifts, 5 But chiefly prophesying. 34 He commandeth women to keepe silence in the Church, 40 And sheweth what good order ought to be obserued in the Church.

FOllow after loue, and couet spirituall gifts, and rather that ye may a prophesie.

2 For hee that speaketh a strange tongue, speaketh not vnto men, but vnto God: for no man b heareth him: howbeit in the c spirit he speaketh secret things.

3 But he that prophesieth, speaketh vnto men to edifying, and to exhortation, and to comfort.

4 He that speaketh strange language, edifieth d himselfe: but he that prophesieth, edifieth the Church.

5 I would that yee all spake strange languages, but rather that yee prophesied: for greater is hee that prophesieth, then hee that speaketh diuers tongues, except hee expound it, that the Church may receiue edification.

6 And now, brethren, if I come vnto you speaking diuers tongues, what shall I profite you, except I speake to you, either by e reuelation, or by knowledge, or by prophesying, or by doctrine?

7 Moreouer, things without life, which giue a sound, whether it bee a ‖ pipe, or an harpe, except they make a difference in the sounds, how shall it be knowen what is piped or harped?

8 And also if the trumpet giue an vncertaine sound, who shall prepare himselfe to battell?

9 So likewise you, by the tongue, except ye vtter words that haue signification, how shall it be vnderstood what is spoken? for ye shall speake in the aire.

10 There are so many kindes of voyces (as I suppose) in the world, and none of them is without signification.

11 Except I know then the power of the voyce, I shall be vnto him that speaketh, a Barbarian, and he that speaketh, shall be a Barbarian vnto me.

12 Euen so you, forasmuch as ye are zealous of spirituall gifts, seeke that ye may excell vnto the edifying of the Church.

13 Wherefore, let him that speaketh a strange tongue, pray, that he may interpret.

14 For if I pray in a strange tongue, my spirit prayeth, but mine vnderstanding is without f fruit.

h Because it serueth both here and in the life to come: but faith and hope appertaine onely to this life.

15 What is it then? I will pray with the spirit, but I will pray with the understanding also: I will l sing with the spirit, but I will sing with the understanding also.

16 Else, when thou blessest with the spirit, howe shall he that occupieth the roome of the unlearned, say, m Amen, at thy giuing of thanks, seeing he knoweth not what thou sayest?

17 For thou verely giuest thankes well, but the other is not edified.

18 I thanke my God, I speake languages more then ye all.

19 Yet had I rather in the Church to speake n fiue wordes with mine understanding that I might also instruct others, then tenne thouland wordes in a strange tongue.

20 Brethren, be not o children in understanding, but as concerning maliciousnesse be children, but in understanding bee of a ripe age.

21 In the Law it is written, p By men of other tongues, and by other languages will I speake vnto this people: yet so shall they not heare me, saith the Lord.

22 Wherefore strange tongues are for a q signe, not to them that beleeue, but to them that beleeue not: but prophesying serueth not for them that beleeue not, but for them which beleeue.

23 If therefore when the whole Church is come together in one, and al speak strange tongues, there come in they that are vnlearned, or they which beleeue not, will they not say, that ye are out of your wittes?

24 But if all prophesie, and there come in one that beleeueth not, or one vnlearned, r hee is rebuked of all men, and is iudged of all.

25 And so are the secrets of his heart made manifest, and so he will fall downe on his face and worship God, and say plainely that God is in you indede.

26 What is to be done then, brethren? when yee come together, according as euery one of you hath a Psalme, or hath doctrine, or hath a tongue, or hath reuelation, or hath interpretation, let all things bee done vnto edifying.

27 If any man speake a strange tongue, let it be by two, or at the s most by three, and that by course, and let one interpret.

28 But if there be no interpreter, let him keepe silence in the Church, which speaketh languages, and let him speake to himselfe, and to God.

29 Let the Prophets speake, two, or three, and let the other iudge.

30 And if any thing bee reuealed to another that sitteth by, let the first holde his peace.

31 For yee may all prophesie one by one, that all may learne, and all may haue comfort.

32 And the t spirits of the Prophets are t subiect to the Prophets.

33 For God is not the author of confusion, but of peace, as we see in all the Churches of the Saints.

34 u Let your women keepe x silence in the Churches: for it is not permitted vnto them to speake: but they ought to be subiect, as also the y Law sayeth.

35 And if they will learne any thing, let them aske their husbands at home: for it is a shame for women to speake in the Church.

36 z Came the worde of God out from you? either came it vnto you onely?

37 If any man thinke himselfe to bee a Prophet, or spirituall, let him acknowledge, that the things that I write vnto you, are the commandements of the Lord.

38 a And if any man be ignorant, let him be ignorant.

39 Wherefore brethren, couet to prophesie, and forbid not to speake languages.

40 Let all things bee done honestly and by order.

CHAP. XV.

I am: and his grace which is in me, was not in vaine: but I laboured more abundantly then they all: yet not I, but the grace of God which is with me.

11 Wherefore whether it were I, or they, so we preach, and so haue ye beleeued.

12 ¶ Now if it be preached, that Christ is risen from the dead, how say some among you, that there is no resurrection of the dead?

13 For if there be no resurrection of the dead, then is Christ not risen.

14 And if Christ be not risen, then is our preaching *vaine, and your faith is also vaine.

15 And we are found also false witnesses of God: for we haue testified of God, that he hath raised vp Christ: whom he hath not raised vp, if so be the dead be not raised.

16 For if the dead be not raised, then is Christ not raised.

17 And if Christ be not raised, your faith is vaine: ye are yet in your sinnes.

18 And so they which are asleep in Christ, are perished.

19 If in this life | only we haue hope in Christ, we are of all men the most miserable.

20 But now is Christ risen from the dead, & was made the *first-fruits of them that slept.

21 For since by man came death, by man came also the resurrection of the dead.

22 For as in Adam all die, euen so in Christ shall | all be made aliue, 23 But euery man in his *owne order: the first fruits is Christ, afterward, they that are of Christ, at his comming shal rise againe.

24 Then shall be the ende, when he hath deliuered vp the kingdome to God, euen the Father, when he hath put downe al rule and all authority and power.

25 For he must reigne *till hee hath put all his enemies vnder his feete.

26 The last enemy that shall be destroyed, is death.

27 *For hee hath put downe all things vnder his feete. (And when he saith that al things are subdued to him, it is manifest that hee is excepted, which did put downe all things vnder him.)

28 And when all things shall be subdued vnto him, then shall the Sonne also himself be subiect vnto him, that did subdue all things vnder him, that God may be *all in all.

29 Else, what shall they doe which are baptized o for dead? if the dead rise not at all, why are they then baptized for dead?

30 Why are wee also in ieopardie euery houre?

31 q By our reioycing which I haue in Christ Iesus our Lord, I die dayly.

32 If I haue fought with beastes at Ephesus after the *maner of men, what aduantageth it me, if the dead be not raised vp? *let vs eate and drinke: for to morrow wee shall die.

33 Bee not deceiued: *euill speakings corrupt good maners.

34 Awake to iust righteously, and sinne not: for some haue not the knowledge of God: I speake this to your shame.

35 But some man will say, Howe are the dead raised vp? and with what body come they forth?

36 D foole, that which thou sowest, is not quickened, except it die.

37 And that which thou sowest, thou sowest not that body that shall bee, but bare corne, as it falleth, of wheate, or of some other.

38 But God giueth it a body at his pleasure, euen to euery seede his owne body.

39 All flesh is not the same flesh, but there is one *flesh of men, and another flesh of beastes, and another of fishes, and another of birdes.

40 There are also heauenly bodies, and earthly bodies: but the glory of the heauenly is one, and the glory of the earthly is another.

41 There is another glory of the *sunne, and another glory of the moone, and another glory of the starres: for one starre differeth from another starre in glory.

42 So also is the resurrection of the dead. The body is sowen in corruption, and is raised in incorruption.

43 It is sowen in *dishonour, and is raised in glory: it is sowen in weakenesse, and is raised in power.

44 It is sowen a naturall body, and is raised a spirituall body: there is a naturall body, and there is a spirituall body.

45 As it is also written, The first man *Adam was made a liuing soule: and the last Adam was made a quickening Spirit.

46 Howbeit that was not first made which is spirituall: but that which is naturall, and afterward that which is spirituall.

47 The first man is of the earth, earthly: the second man is the Lord from heauen.

48 As is the earthly, such are they that are earthly: and as is the heauenly, such are they also that are heauenly.

49 And as we haue borne the *image of the earthly: so shall wee beare the image of the heauenly.

50 This say I, brethren, that *flesh and blood cannot inherite the kingdome of God, neither doeth corruption inherite incorruption.

51 Beholde, I shew you a secret thing, We shall not all sleepe, but we shall all bee *changed, c When the Lord commeth to iudgement, some of the Saints shall bee aliue, whom he will change euen as if they were dead, so that this change is in stead of death to them.

52 In a moment, in the twinckling of an eye at the last *trumpet: for the trumpet shall blow, and the dead shall bee raised vp incorruptible, and we shalbe changed.

53 For this corruptible must put on incorruption: and this mortall must put on immortalitie.

54 So when this corruptible hath put on incorruption, and this mortall hath put on immortalitie, then shall be brought to passe the saying that is written, *Death is swalowed vp into victory.

55 †O death, where is thy sting? O grave, where is thy victory?

56 The sting of death is sinne: and the [d] strength of sinne is the Law.

57 *But thankes bee vnto God, which hath giuen vs victory through our Lord Iesus Christ.

58 Therefore my beloued brethren, be ye stedfast, vnmoueable, abundant alwayes in the worke of the Lord, forasmuch as ye know that your labour is not in [e] vaine in the Lord.

3 And when I am come, whomsoeuer ye shall allow [b] by letters, them will I send to bring your liberality vnto Ierusalem.

4 And if it be meete that I goe also, they shall goe with me.

5 Now I will come vnto you, after I haue gone through Macedonia (for I will passe through Macedonia)

6 And it may bee that I will abide, yea, or winter with you, that ye may bring me on my way whithersoeuer I goe.

7 For I will not see you now in my passage: but I trust to abide a while with you, if the Lord permit.

8 And I will tary at Ephesus vntill Pentecost.

10 CNow if Timotheus come, see that he bee *without feare with you, for he worketh the worke of the Lord, euen as I doe.

11 Let no man therefore *despise him: but conney him forth [c] in peace, that he may come vnto mee: for I looke for him with the brethren.

12 As touching our brother Apollos, I greatly desired him to come vnto you with the brethren: but his minde was not at all to come at this time: howbeit he will come when he shall haue conuenient time.

13 CWatch ye: stand fast in the faith: quite you like men, and be strong.

14 Let all your things be done in [h] loue.

15 Now, brethren, I beseech you (yee knowe the house of Stephanas, that it is the [i] first fruites of Achaia, and that they haue giuen themselues to minister vnto the Saints)

16 That ye be [k] obedient euen vnto such, and to all that helpe with vs and labour.

17 I am glad of the comming of Stephanas, and Fortunatus, and Achaicus: for they haue [l] supplied the want of you.

18 For they haue comforted my ‖spirite and yours: acknowledge therefore such men.

19 The Churches of Asia salute you: Aquila and Priscilla with the Church that is in their house, salute you greatly in the Lord.

20 All the brethren greete you. Greete ye one another with an *holy *kisse.

THE ARGVMENT.

AS nothing can be written either so perfectly, or with so great affection & zeale, which is not vnprofitable to many, and resisted by some: so the first Epistle written by S. Paul to the Corinthians, besides the purity and perfection of the doctrine, sheweth a loue toward them far passing all naturall affections: which did not onely not profit all, but hardened the hearts of many to remaine in the first stubbornesse, and contemne the Apostles authority. By reason whereof S. Paul, being let with iust occasions to come vnto them, wrote this Epistle from Macedonia, minding to accomplish the worke which he had begun among them. First therfore he wisheth them wel in the Lord, declaring that that albeit certaine wicked persons abused his afflictions to condemne thereby his authority, yet they were necessary schoolings, and sent to him by God for their bettering. And whereas they blame his long absence, it came of no inconstancy, but to beare with their inability and imperfection, lest contrary to his fatherly affection, he should haue bene compelled to vse rigour and severity. And as touching his sharpe writing in the former Epistle, it came through their fault as is now evident both in that, that he pardoneth the trespasser, seeing he doeth repent: and also in that he was vnquiet in his minde, till he was certified by Titus of their estate. But forasmuch as the false apostles went about to vndermine his authority, he confuteth their arrogant braggs, and commendeth his office, and the diligent executing of the same: for that Satan must haue greatly blinded their eyes, which see not the brightnesse of the Gospel in his preaching: the effect whereof is newnesse of life, forsaking of our selues, cleauing to God, fleeing from idolatry, embracing the true doctrine, and that sorrow which engendreth true repentance: to the which is ioyned mercy and compassion toward our brethren: also wisedome to put difference betwixt the simplicity of the Gospel, and the arrogancie of the false preachers, who vnder pretence of preaching the trueth, ought onely to fill their bellies, whereas he contrariwise sought them, and not their goods, as those ambitious persons slandered him, wherefore at his comming hee menaceth such as rebell against his authority, that hee will declare by liuely example that he is the faithfull ambassadour of Iesus Christ.

CHAP. I.

4 He declareth the great profite that commeth to the faithfull by their afflictions. 15. 17 And because they should not impute to lightnesse, that he deferred his coming contrary to his promise, he proueth his constancy, both by the sincerity of his preaching, and also by the immutable trueth of the Gospel. 21 Which trueth is grounded on Christ, and sealed in our hearts by the holy Ghost.

PAVL an Apostle of Iesus Christ, by the will of God, and our brother Timothens, to the Church of God, which is at Corinthus with all the Saints which are in all a Achaia:

2 Grace bee with you, and peace from God our Father, and from the Lord Iesus Christ.

3 *b Blessed be God, euen the Father of our Lord Iesus Christ, the Father of mercies, and the God of all comfort, 4 Which comforteth vs in all our tribulation, that we may be able to comfort them which are in any affliction by the comfort wherewith wee our selues are comforted of God.

5 For as the c sufferings of Christ abound in vs, so our consolation aboundeth through Christ.

6 And whether we be afflicted, it is for your consolation, and d saluation, which e is wrought in the enduring of the same sufferings, which we also suffer: or whether wee be comforted, it is for your consolation and saluation.

7 And our hope is stedfast concerning you, in as much as we know that as ye are partakers of the sufferings, so shall ye be also of the consolation.

8 For brethren, wee would not haue you ignorant of our affliction, which came vnto vs in Asia, how wee were pressed f out of measure passing strength, so that we altogether doubted, euen of life.

9 Yea, we receiued the sentence of death in our selues, because wee should not trust in our selues, but in God, which raiseth the dead.

10 Who deliuered vs from so g great a death, and doeth deliuer vs: in whom we trust, that yet hereafter he will deliuer vs, 11 *So that ye labour together in prayer for vs, that for the gift bestowed vpon vs for many, thankes may bee giuen by many persons for vs.

12 i For our reioycing is this, the testimonie of our conscience, that in simplicitie and godly pureneſſe and not in fleshly wisedome, k but by the grace of God wee haue had our conuersation in the world, and most of all to youwards.

13 For wee l write none other things vnto you, then that ye read, or els that ye acknowledge, and I trust ye shall acknowledge vnto the end.

14 Euen as ye haue acknowledged vs partly, that wee are your m reioycing, euen as ye are * ours, in the * day of our Lord Iesus.

15 And in this confidence was I minded first to come vnto you, that ye might haue had a double grace, 16 And to passe by you into Macedonia, and to come againe out of Macedonia vnto you, and to bee led forth toward Iudea of you.

17 When I therefore was thus minded, did I vse lightnesse? or mind I those things which I minde, * according to the flesh, that with mee should bee q Yea, yea, and Nay, nay?

18 Yea, * God is faithfull, that our word toward you, was not Yea, and Nay.

19 For the Sonne of God Iesus Christ, who was preached among you by vs, that is, by mee, and Siluanus, and Timotheus, was not Yea, and Nay: but in him it was r Yea.

20 For all the promises of God in him are * Yea, and are in him Amen, vnto the glorie of God through vs.

21 And it is God which establisheth vs with you in Christ, and hath anointed vs.

22 Who hath also * sealed vs, and hath giuen the * earnest of the Spirit in our hearts.

a Meaning the countrey, where of Corinthus was the chiefe citie. Ephes. 1 3.

b Or, praise and glory be giuen.

c Which I suffer for Christ, or which Christ suffereth in me, Rom. 7 5 and 8 5. col. 1. 24.

d For seeing him endure so much, they had occasion to be confirmed in the Gospel.

e As God onely worketh all things in vs, so doth he also our saluation by his free mercy, and by such meanes as he hath here left in this life for vs to be exercised in.

f Hereby hee sheweth his own infirmitie, that it might appeare how wonderfully Gods graces wrought in him.

g I was vtterly resolued in my selfe to die.

h So many dangers of death.

Rom. 15. 30.

i He rendreth a reason why they ought to pray vnto God for his recouery.

k Vsing that wisdome which God gaue me from heauen.

l Ye know partly my constancie both by my dwelling with you, and also by my writing vnto you: and I trust ye shall know me to bee the same to the very ende.

m In that we haue taught you the Gospel so sincerely.

n Because wee haue wonne you to Christ

o Which shal abolish all worldly glory.

p Which is rashly to promise and not to performe.

q Now to affirme one thing, and then to denie it, which is a signe of inconstancy.

r He taketh God to witnesse, that he preached the trueth.

s He preacheth nothing vnto them but onely Iesus Christ, who is the most constant and infallible trueth of the Father.

t They are made and performed, and wee are partakers onely by him, who is our Amen, in that hee hath fulfilled them for vs. Ephes. 1. 13. and 4. 30. Ephes. 1. 14. chap. 5. 5.

a In that I say I came not because I would spare you, I meane not that I have authoritie to alter true religion, or to binde your consciences, but that I am Gods minister to cõfirme and comfort you.

23 Now I call God for a record vnto my soule, that to spare you, I came not as yet vnto Corinthus.

24 Not that wee a haue dominion ouer your faith, but wee are helpers of your ioye: for b by x faith ye stand.

x And faith is not in subiection to man.

CHAP. II.

He sheweth his loue towards them, 7 requiring likewise that they would bee fauourable to the incestuous adulterer, seeing he did repent. 14 He also rendereth his God for the efficacies of his doctrine, 17 confuting thereby such craftie pickers, as vnder pretence of speaking against his person, sought nothing but the ouerthrow of his doctrine.

BVt I determined thus in my selfe, that I would not come againe to you in heauinesse.

2 For if I make you sory, who is he then that should make me glad, but a same which is made b sory by me?

3 And I wrote b this same thing vnto you, lest when I came, I should take heauinesse of them, of whom I ought to reioyce: this confidence haue I in you all, that my ioy is the ioy of you all.

4 For in great affliction, and anguish of heart I wrote vnto you with many teares: not that ye should bee made sory, but that ye might perceiue the loue which I haue, specially vnto you.

5 And if any haue caused sorow, the same hath not c made mee sory, but partly (lest I should d more charge him) you all.

6 It is sufficient vnto the same man, that he was rebuked of many.

7 So that now contrariwise yee ought rather to forgiue him, and comfort him, lest the same e should bee swallowed vp with ouermuch heauinesse.

8 Wherefore I pray you, that you would f confirme your loue towards him.

9 For this cause also did I write, that I might know the proofe of you, whether yee would be obedient in all things.

10 To whom ye forgiue any thing, I forgiue also: for verely if I forgaue any thing, to whom I forgaue it, for your sakes forgaue I it in the g sight of Christ, 11 Lest Satan should h circumuent vs: for we are not ignorant of his enterprises.

12 C Furthermore, when I came to Troas to preach Christes Gospel, and a dore was opened vnto me of the Lord, 13 I had no rest in mine spirit, because I found not Titus my brother, but tooke my leaue of them, and went away into Macedonia.

14 i Now thanke be vnto God, which alwaies causeth vs to triumph in Christ, and maketh manifest the fauour of his knowledge by vs in euery place.

15 For we are vnto God the k swet sauour of Christ, in them that are saued, & in them that perish.

16 To the one we are the l sauour of death vnto death, & to the other the sauour of life, vnto life, and who is sufficient for these things?

17 For wee are not as many, m which make merchandise of the word of God: but as of sinceritie, but as of God in the sight of God speake we i in Christ.

b From this place vnto the 6. chap. he intreateth onely of the ministerie of the Gospel, and of the excellencie thereof, and of the power which it hath in the hearts of the faithfull, aboue the ministerie of the Law, as in the 3. chap. 7. and 8. verses: and not onely to the minister, but also how the holy ghost mightily by vs, he worketh vpon the hearts of the children of God.

c The preaching of the crosse bringeth death to them which only consider Christs death as a common death, and be therat offended, or els thinke this death behold in That is, which preach for gaine & corrupt it to serue mens affections. ‖ Or, through Christ, or of Christ.

CHAP. III.

He taketh for example the faith of the Corinthians for a probation of the trueth which he preached. 6 And to exalt his Apostleship against the brags of the false apostles, 7, 13 he maketh comparison betwixt the Law and the Gospel.

DO a we begin to praise our selues againe? or need we as some other, Epistles of recommendation vnto you, or letters of recommendation from you?

2 Ye are our epistle, written in our hearts, which is vnderstood and read of all men,

3 In that ye are manifest, to be the epistle of Christ b ministred by vs, and written, not with yncke, but with the Spirit of the liuing God, not in c tables of stone, but in fleshly tables of the heart.

4 And such trust haue we through Christ to God:

5 Not that we are sufficient of our selues, to thinke any thing as of our selues: but our sufficiencie is of God,

6 Who also hath made vs able ministers of the new Testament, not of the d letter but of the e Spirit: for the letter killeth, but the f Spirit giueth life.

7 If then the ministration g of death written with letters and ingraued in stones, was glorious, so that the children of Israel could not behold the face of Moses for the glory of his countenance (which glory is done away)

8 How shall not the ministration of the Spirit be more glorious?

9 For if the ministery of h condemnation was glorious, much more doeth the ministration of i righteousnesse exceede in glory.

10 For euen that which was glorified, was not glorified in this point, that is, as touching the exceeding glory.

11 For if that which should be abolished, was glorious, much more shall that which remaineth, be glorious.

12 Seeing then that we haue such trust, we vse k great boldnesse of speech.

13 And we are not as Moses, which put a vaile vpon his face, that the children of Israel should not looke vnto the ende of that which should be abolished.

a Meaning himselfe, Timotheus, and Siluanus.

b Who were Gods pen-

c The hardnesse of mans heart, before he be regenerate, is as a stonie table, Ezek. 11. 19. and 36. 26. but being regenerate by the spirit of God, it is as soft as flesh, that the grace of the Gospel may be written in it, as in new tables, Jerem. 31, 31, 33.

d Whose minister Moses was.

e Which Christ gaue.

f Meaning, the spirituall doctrine, which is in our hearts.

g Thus he nameth the Law, in comparison of the Gospel.

h After that God had spoken with him, and giuen him the Law.

i For the Law declareth all men guiltie, but the Gospel, which declareth that Christ is made our righteousnesse.

k Meaning, that Moses shewed the Law as it was couered with a vaile, but he the Iewes eyes were not lightned, but blinded, and so could not come to Christ, who was the end thereof; and that we, the Gospel setteth forth the glory of God cleerely, not casting our eyes, but driuing the darknesse away from them.

of that which should be abolished.

14 Therefore their mindes are hardened: for vntill this day remaineth the same couering vntaken away in the reading of the old Testament, which vaile in Christ is put away.

15 But euen vnto this day, when Moses is read, the vaile is layd ouer their hearts.

16 Neuertheless, when their heart shall be turned to the Lord, the vaile shalbe taken away.

17 Now the n Lord is the * Spirit, and where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is libertie.

18 But wee all behold as in a o mirrour the glory of the Lord with open face, and are changed into the same image, from glory to glory, as by the Spirit of the Lord.

CHAP. IIII.

1 He declareth his diligence and roundnesse in his office. 8 And that which his enemies tooke for his disaduantage, to wit, the crosse and afflictions which he endured, he turneth to his great aduantage. 11. 17 shewing what profit commeth thereby.

THerefore, seeing that we haue this ministery, as we haue receiued mercie, * we faint not:

2 But haue cast from vs the b cloakes of shame, and *walke not in craftinesse, neither handle we the word of God deceitfully: but in declaration of the trueth we approoue our selues to euery mans conscience in the sight of God.

3 If our Gospel be then hid, it is hid to them that are lost.

4 In whom the c god of this world hath blinded the mindes, that is, of the infidels, that the light of the glorious Gospel of Christ, which is the *image of God, should not shine vnto them.

5 For wee preach not our c selues, but Christ Iesus the Lord, and our selues your seruants for Iesus sake.

6 For God that *commanded the light to shine out of darkenesse, is hee which hath shined in f our hearts, to giue the g light of the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Iesus Christ.

7 But we haue this h treasure in earthen vessels, that the excellencie of that power might be of God and not of vs.

8 Wee are afflicted on euery side, yet are we not in distresse: in powertie, but not ouercome of powertie.

9 Wee are persecuted, but not forsaken: cast downe, but we perish not.

10 Euery where wee beare about in our body the i dying of the Lord Iesus, that the life of Iesus might also be made manifest in our bodies.

11 For we which liue, are alwayes deliuered vnto death for Iesus sake, that the life also of Iesus might be made manifest in our mortall flesh.

12 So then k death worketh in vs, and life in you.

13 And because we haue the same l spirit of faith, according as it is written, * I beleeued, and therefore haue I spoken, we also beleeue, and therefore speake, 14 Knowing that he which hath raised vp the Lord Iesus, shall m raise vs vp also by Iesus, and set vs with you.

15 For all things are for your sakes, that most plenteous grace by the thanksgiuing of * many, may redound to the praise of God.

16 Therefore we faint not, but though our outward man n perish, yet the inward man is * renewed dayly.

17 For our p light affliction which is but for a moment, causeth vnto vs a farre most excellent and eternall weight of glory:

18 While wee looke not on the things which are seene, but on the things which are not seene: for the things which are seene, are temporall: but the things which are not seene, are eternall.

q We doe not esteeme, nor commend Christ himselfe nowe, as he was an excellent man: but as hee was the Sonne of God partaker of his glory, and in whom God dwelled corporally: and do you thinke that I will flatter my selfe or any man in setting forth his gifts? Yea, when I praise my ministery, I commend the power of God: when I commend his worthy factes, I praise the mighty power of God set foorth by vs wormes and wretches. r Let him be regenerate, and renounce himselfe, els all the rest is nothing. Isa.43.19. verse 17.5. I Therefore without Christ wee cannot enioy the life euerlasting; nor come to God. t That is, a sacrifice for sinne. u By imputation, which wee shall be clad with Christs iustice.

the Lord, we k perswade men, and wee l are made manifest vnto God, and I trust also that wee are made manifest in your consciences.

12 For wee praise not our selues againe vnto you, but giue you an occasion to reioyce of vs, that ye may haue to answere against them, which reioyce in the k face, and not in the heart.

13 For whether we be l out of our wit, we are it m to God: or whether we be in our right mind, we are it vnto you.

14 For the loue of Christ constraineth vs: because we thus iudge, that if one bee dead for all, then were n all dead.

15 And he died for all, that they o which liue, should not henceforth liue vnto themselues, but vnto him which died for them, and rose againe.

16 Wherefore, henceforth know wee no man p after the flesh, yea, though wee had known Christ after the flesh, yet now henceforth q know we him no more.

17 Therefore if any man be in Christ, let him be a r new creature. * Olde things are passed away: behold, all things are become new.

18 And all things are of God, which hath reconciled vs vnto himselfe by Iesus Christ, and hath giuen vnto vs the ministery of reconciliation.

19 For God was s in Christ, and reconciled the world to himselfe, not imputing their sinnes vnto them, and hath committed to vs the word of reconciliation.

20 Now then are wee ambassadors for Christ: as though God did beseech you through vs, we pray you in Christs stead, that ye be reconciled to God.

21 For hee hath made him to bee t sinne for vs, which knewe no sinne, that wee should bee u made the righteousnesse of God in him.

2 Receiue vs: we haue done wrong to no man: wee haue consumed no man: wee haue defrauded no man.

3 I speake it not to your condemnation: for I haue sayd before, that yee are in our hearts to die and liue together.

4 I vse great boldnesse of speach toward you: I reioice greatly in you: I am filled with comfort, and am exceeding ioyous in all our tribulation.

5 For when wee were come into Macedonia, our flesh had no rest, but wee were troubled on euery side, fightings * without, and terrors within.

6 But God, that comforteth the abiect, comforted vs at the comming of Titus:

7 And not by his comming onely, but also by the consolation wherewith hee was comforted of you, when hee tolde vs your great desire, your mourning, your feruent minde to me ward, so that I reioyced [i] much more.

8 For though I made you sory with a letter, I repent not, though I did repent: for I perceiue that the same Epistle made you sory, though it were but for a season.

9 I now reioice, not that yee were sory, but that ye sorowed to repentance: for ye sorowed godly, so that in nothing ye were hurt by vs.

10 * For godly sorow causeth repentance vnto saluation, not to be repented of: but the worldly sorow causeth death.

11 For beholde, this thing that yee haue been [z] godly sorie, what great care it hath wrought in you: yea, what [h] clearing of your selues: yea, what indignation: yea, what feare: yea, how great desire: yea, what a [z] zeale: yea, what [i] punishment: in all things ye haue shewed your selues that yee are pure in this matter.

12 Wherefore, though I wrote vnto you, I did not it for his cause that had done the wrong, neither for his cause that had the iniurie, but that our care toward you in the sight of God might appeare vnto you.

13 Therefore wee were comforted, because yee were comforted: but rather wee reioyced much more for the ioy of Titus, because his [l] spirite was refreshed by you all.

14 For if that I haue boasted any thing to him of you, I haue not beene ashamed: but as I haue spoken vnto you all things in truth, euen so our boasting vnto Titus was true.

15 And his [k] inward affection is more abundant toward you, when he remembreth the obedience of you all, and how with feare and trembling ye receiued him.

16 I reioyce therefore that I may [l] put my confidence in you in all things.

CHAP. VIII.

1 By the example of the Macedonians, 9 and Christ, he exhorteth them to continue in releeuing the poore Saints, commending their good beginning. 23 After he commendeth Titus and his fellowes vnto them.

WE doe you also to wit, brethren, of the [a] grace of God bestowed vpon the Churches of Macedonia,

2 Because in great triall of affliction their ioy abounded, and their most extreme pouertie [b] abounded vnto their rich liberalitie.

3 For to their power (I beare recorde) yea, and beyond their power, they were willing,

4 And prayed vs with great instance that we would receiue the [c] grace and fellowship * of the ministring which is toward the Saints.

5 And this they did, not as we looked for: but gaue their owne selues, first to the Lord, and after vnto vs by the will of God,

6 That we should exhort Titus, that as he had begun, so hee would also accomplish the same grace among you also.

7 Therefore, as yee abound in euery thing, in faith, and word, and knowledge, and in all diligence, and in your loue towards vs, euen so see that yee abound in this grace also.

8 This say I not by commaundement, but because of the diligence of others: therefore proue I the naturalnesse of your loue.

9 For ye know the grace of our Lord Iesus Christ, that he being rich, for your sakes became poore, that yee through his pouerty might be made rich.

10 And I shewe my minde herein: for this is expedient for you which haue begun not to doe onely, but also to [d] will, a yeere agoe.

11 Now therefore performe to doe it also, that as there was a readinesse to will, euen so yee may performe it of that which yee haue.

12 For if there be first a willing minde, it is accepted according to that a man hath, and not according to that he hath not.

13 Neither is it that other men should be eased and you grieued,

14 But vpon like condition, at this time your [e] abundance supplieth their lacke, that also their abundance may bee for your lacke, that there may be [f] equalitie:

15 As it is written, * Hee that gathered much, had nothing ouer, and he that gathered little, had not the lesse.

16 And thankes bee vnto God, which hath put in the heart of Titus the same care for you, 17 Because he accepted the [g] exhortation, yea, he was so carefull, that of his owne accord he went vnto you.

18 And wee haue sent also with him the brother, whose praise is [h] in the Gospel throughout all the Churches,

19 (And not so onely, but is also chosen of the Churches to bee a fellow in our iourney concerning this grace that is ministred by vs vnto the glory of the same Lord, and declaration of your prompt mind)

20 Auoiding this, that no man should blame vs in this abundance that is ministred by vs, 21 * Prouiding for [i] honest things, not onely before the Lord, but also before men.

CHAP. IX.

3 The cause of Titus and his companions comming to them. 6 He exhorteth to giue almes cheerfully, 7 Shewing what fruit will come thereof.

FOR as touching the ministring to the Saints, it is superfluous for me to write vnto you.

2 For I know your readinesse of mind, whereof I boast my selfe of you vnto them of Macedonia, and say, that Achaia was prepared a yeere agoe, and your zeale hath prouoked many.

3 Now haue I sent the brethren, lest our reioycing ouer you should bee in vaine in this behalfe, that yee (as I haue said) be ready:

4 Lest if they of Macedonia come with me, and find you vnprepared, wee (I meane not to say, you) should be ashamed in this my confident boasting.

5 Therefore, I thought it necessarie to exhort the brethren to come before vnto you, and to finish your beneuolence afore promised, that it might bee ready, and come as of beneuolence, and not as of charing.

6 This yet remember, that he which soweth sparingly, shall reape also sparingly, and hee that soweth liberally, shall reape also liberally.

7 As euery man wisheth in his heart, so let him giue, not * grudgingly or of necessitie: * For God loueth a cheerefull giuer.

8 And God is able to make all grace to abound toward you, that ye alwayes hauing a all sufficiencie in all things, may abound in euery * good worke, 9 * As it is written, c He hath sparsed abroad, and hath giuen to the poore: his beneuolence remaineth for euer.

10 Also he that findeth seede to the sower, will minister likewise bread for food, and multiplie your seede, and increase the fruits of your beneuolence, 11 That on all parts ye may be made rich vnto all liberalitie, which causeth through vs thanksgiuing vnto God.

12 For the ministration of this seruice not only supplieth the necessities of the Saints, but also is abundant by the thankesgiuing of many vnto God:

13 (Which by the experiment of this ministration prayse God for your voluntarie submission to the Gospel of Christ, and for your liberall distribution to them, and to all men)

14 And by d their praier for you, desiring after you greatly for the abundant grace of God in you.

15 Thankes therefore bee vnto God for his vnspeakeable gift.

CHAP. X.

He toucheth the false apostles and defendeth his authoritie, exhorting them to obedience, 11 And sheweth what his power is, 13 And how hee vseth it.

NOw I Paul my selfe beseech you by the meekenesse, and gentlenesse of Christ, which when I am present among you, am * base, but am bolde toward you being absent.

2 And this I require you, that I neede not to bee bolde when I am present, with that same confidence, wherewith I thinke to bee bolde against some, which esteeme vs as though wee walked b according to the flesh.

3 For though we walke in the flesh, yet we doe not warre after the flesh,

4 (For the weapons of our warfare are not carnal, but mightie through God, to cast downe holds)

5 Casting downe the imaginations, and euery high thing that is exalted against the knowledge of God, and bringing into captiuitie euery thought to the obedience of Christ,

6 And hauing ready the vengeance against all disobedience, when your obedience is fulfilled.

7 Looke yee on things after the appearance? If any man trust in himselfe that hee is Christes, let him consider this againe of himselfe, that as he is Christs, euen so are we Christs.

8 For though I should boast somewhat more of our authoritie, which the Lord hath giuen vs for edification, and not for your destruction, I should haue no shame.

9 This I say, that I may not seeme as if wee would feare you with letters.

10 For the letters, (saith he, are sore and strong, but his bodily presence is weake, and his speech is of no value.

11 Let such one thinke this, that such as we are in word by letters when wee are absent, such will we be also indeed, when we are present.

12 For we dare not make our selues of the number, or to compare our selues to them, which prayse themselues: but they vnderstand not that they e measure themselues with themselues, and compare themselues with themselues.

13 But wee will not reioyce of things, which are not within our measure, * but according to the * measure of the line, whereof God hath distributed vnto vs a measure to attaine euen vnto you.

14 For we stretch not our selues beyond our measure, as though wee had not attained vnto you: for euen to you also haue wee come in preaching the Gospel of Christ,

15 Not boasting of things which are without our measure: that is, of other mens labours: and we hope, when your faith shall increase, to bee magnified by you, according our line abundantly,

To slander my ministery, if I should receiue wages.

16 And to preach the Gospel in those regions which are beyond you: not to reioyce in another mans line, that is, in the things that are prepared already.

17 But let him that reioyceth, reioyce in the Lord.

18 For he that praiseth himselfe, is not allowed, but he whom the Lord praiseth.

CHAP. XI.

Hee declareth his affection toward them. 5 The excellencie of his ministerie. 9 And his diligence in the same. 13 The sutches of the false Apostles. 16 The peruerse iudgement of the Corinthians. 32 And his owne prayses.

WOuld to God yee could suffer a little my foolishnesse, and indeed yee suffer me.

2 For I am iealous ouer you, with godly iealousie: for I haue prepared you for one husband, to present you as a pure virgine to Christ:

3 But I feare lest as the serpent beguiled Eue through his subtilty, so your mindes should be corrupt from the simplicity that is in Christ.

4 For if hee that commeth preacheth an other Iesus then him whom we haue preached: or if yee receiue another spirite then that which ye haue receiued: either another Gospel, then that ye haue receiued, ye might well haue suffered him.

5 Verely I suppose that I was not inferiour to the very chiefe Apostles.

6 And though I bee rude in speaking, yet I am not so in knowledge, but among you we haue bene made manifest to the vtmost, in all things.

7 Haue I committed an offence, because I abased my selfe, that ye might be exalted, and because I preached to you the Gospel of God freely?

8 I robbed other Churches, and tooke wages of them to doe you seruice.

9 And when I was present with you and had neede, I was not slouthfull to the hinderance of any man: for that which was lacking vnto mee, the brethren which came from Macedonia supplyed, and in all things I kept and will keepe my selfe, that I should not bee grieuous to you.

10 The trueth of Christ is in mee, that this reioycing shal not be shut vp against me in the regions of Achaia.

11 Wherefore? because I loue you not? God knoweth.

12 But what I doe, that will I doe: that I may cut away occasion from them which desire occasion, that they might bee found like vnto vs in that wherein they reioyce.

13 For such false Apostles are deceitfull workers, and transforme themselues into the Apostles of Christ.

14 And no marueile: for Satan himselfe is transformed into an Angel of light.

15 Therefore it is no great thing, though his ministers transforme themselues, as though they were the ministers of righteousnesse, whose ende shall bee according to their workes.

16 I say againe, let no man thinke, that I am foolish: or else take me euen as a foole, that I may also boast my selfe a litle.

17 That I speake, I speake it not after the Lord: but as it were foolishly, in this my great boasting.

18 Seeing that many reioyce after the flesh, I will reioyce also.

19 For yee suffer fooles gladly, because that ye are wise.

20 For yee suffer euen if a man bring you into bondage, if a man deuoure you, if a man take your goods, if a man exalt himselfe, if a man smite you on the face.

21 I speake as concerning the reproch: as though that wee had bene weake: but wherein any man is bolde (I speake foolishly) I am bold also.

22 They are Ebrewes, so am I: they are Israelites, so am I: they are the seede of Abraham, so am I:

23 They are the ministers of Christ, (I speake as a foole) I am more: in labours more abundant: in stripes aboue measure: in prison more plenteously: in death oft.

24 Of the Iewes fiue times receiued I fourtie stripes saue one.

25 Thrise was I beaten with rodders: I was once stoned: I suffered thrise shipwracke: night and day haue I bene in the deepe sea.

26 In iourneying I was often, in perils of waters, in perils of robbers, in perils of mine owne nation, in perils among the Gentiles, in perils in the citie, in perils in wildernes, in perils in the sea, in perils among false brethren, 27 In wearinesse and painefulnesse, in watching often, in hunger, and thirst, in fastings often, in cold and nakednes.

28 Beside the things which are outward, I am cumbred dayly, and haue the care of all the Churches.

29 Who is weake, and I am not weake? who is offended, and I burne not?

30 If I must needs reioyce, I will reioyce of mine infirmities.

31 The God, euen the Father of our Lord Iesus Christ, which is blessed for euermore, knoweth that I lie not.

32 In Damascus the gouernour of the people vnder King Aretas, layed watch in the citie of the Damascens, and would haue caught me.

his boasting vpon the Corinthians: 14 He sheweth what good will he beareth them, 20 and feareth to come vnto them.

1 IT is not expedient for me no doubt, to reioyce: for I will come to visions and reuelations of the Lord.

2 * I knowe a man a in Christ, aboue fourteene yeeres agone, (whether bee were in the body, I cannot tell, or out of the body, I cannot tell: God knoweth) which was taken vp from the heauen.

3 And I know such a man (whether in the body or out of the body, I cannot tell: God knoweth)

4 How that he was taken vp into Paradise, & heard * words which cannot be spoken, which are not possible for man to vtter.

5 Of such a man will I reioyce: of my selfe will I not reioyce, except it be of mine infirmities.

6 For though I would reioyce, I should not be a foole: for I will say the truth, but I refraine lest any man should thinke of me aboue that he seeth in me, or that he heareth of me.

7 And lest I should bee exalted out of measure, through the abundance of reuelations, there was given vnto mee d a pricke in the flesh, the messenger of Satan to buffet me, because I should not be exalted out of measure.

8 For this thing I besought the Lorde * thrise, that it might depart from me.

9 And he said vnto me, My grace is sufficient for thee: for my power is made perfect through weakenesse. Very gladly therefore will I reioyce rather in mine infirmities that the power of Christ may dwell in me.

10 Therefore e I take pleasure in infirmities, in reproches, in necessitie, in persecutions, in anguish for Christes sake: for when I am weake, then am I strong.

11 I was a foole to boast my selfe, yee haue compelled mee: for I ought to haue bene commended of you, for in nothing was I inferiour vnto the very chiefe Apostles, though I be nothing.

12 The signes of an Apostle were wrought among you with all patience, with signes, and wonders, and great workes.

13 For what is it wherein yee were inferiours vnto other Churches, * except that I haue not bene f chargeable to you? forgiue me this wrong.

14 Beholde, the * third time I am readie to come vnto you, and yet will I not be chargeable to you: for I seeke not yours, but you: for the children ought not to lay vp for the fathers, but the fathers for the children.

15 And I will most gladly bestowe, and will bee bestowed for your soules: though the more I loue you, the lesse I am loued.

16 But bee it that I charged you not: yet forasmuch as I was craftie, I tooke you with guile.

17 Did I pill you by any of them whom I sent vnto you?

18 I haue desired Titus, and with him I haue sent a brother: did Titus pill you of any thing? walked we not in the like same spirite? walked we not in the like steps?

19 Againe, thinke ye that we excuse our selues vnto you? wee speake before God in Christ. But we doe all things, dearely beloued, for your edifying.

20 For I feare, lest when I come, I shall not find you such as I would: and that I shall be found vnto you * such as ye would not, and lest there be strife, enuying, wrath, contentions, backbiting, whisperings, swellings, and discord.

21 I feare lest when I come againe, and God * abase me among you, and I shall bewaile many of them which haue sinned alreadie, and haue not repented of the vncleannesse, and fornication, and wantonnes, which they haue committed.

The Epistle of the Apostle Paul to the Galatians.

THE ARGVMENT.

THe Galatians, after they had bene instructed by Saint Paul in the trueth of the Gospel, gaue place to false Apostles, who entring in, in his absence corrupted the pure doctrine of Christ, & taught that the ceremonies of the Law must bee necessarily obserued, which thing the Apostle so earnestly reasoneth against, that hee proueth that the graunting thereof, is the ouerthrow of mans saluation purchased by Christ: for thereby the light of the Gospel is obscured: the conscience burned: the testaments confounded: mans iustice established. And because the false preachers did pretend, as though they had bene sent of the chiefe Apostles, & that Paul had no authoritie, but spake of himselfe, hee prooueth both that he is an Apostle ordeined by God, and also that he is not inferious to the rest of the Apostles. Which thing established, hee proceedeth to his purpose, prouing that we are freely iustified before God without any workes or ceremonies: which notwithstanding in their time had their vse and commoditie: but now they are not onely vnprofitable figures, but also pernicious, because Christ the trueth and the end thereof is come: Wherefore men ought now to imbrace that libertie, which Christ hath purchased by his blood, and not to haue their consciences snared in the greines of mans traditions: finally he sheweth wherein this libertie standeth: and what exercises appertaine thereunto.

CHAP. I.

1 Paul rebuketh their inconstancie which suffered themselues to bee seduced by the false Apostles, who preached that the obseruation of the ceremonies of the law were necessary to saluation, 8 And detesteth them that preach any otherwise then Christ purely. 13 He sheweth his owne conuersation, magnifieth his office and Apostleship, and declareth himselfe to be equal with the chiefe Apostles.

PAul an Apostle (not of men neither by a man, but by Iesus Christ, and God the Father, which hath raised him from the dead)

2 And all the brethren which are with mee, vnto the Churches of Galatia:

3 Grace bee with you, and peace from God the Father, and from our Lorde Iesus Christ,

4 Which gaue himselfe for our sinnes, that hee might deliuer vs * from this c present euil world, according to the wil of God, euen our Father,

5 To whom bee glory for euer and euer, Amen.

6 I marueile that yee are so soone remooued away vnto another d Gospell from him that had called you in the e grace of Christ,

7 Which is not another Gospel, saue that there be some which trouble you, and intend to f peruert the Gospel of Christ.

8 But though that wee, or an g Angell from heauen preach vnto you otherwise then that which wee haue preached vnto you, let him be accursed.

9 As wee sayde before, so say I now againe, If any man preach vnto you otherwise then that yee haue receiued, let him bee accursed.

10 For h now preach I mans doctrine, or Gods? or goe I about to please men? for if I should yet please men, I were not the seruant of Christ.

11 * Now I certifie you, brethren, that the Gospel which was preached of me, was not after a man.

12 For neither receiued I it of man, neither was I taught it, but by the i reuelation of Iesus Christ.

13 For ye haue heard of my conuersation in time past, in the Iewish religion, how that * I persecuted the Church of God extremely, and wasted it, 14 And profited in the Iewish religion aboue many of myne companions of mine owne nation, and was much more zealous of the b traditions of my fathers.

15 But when it pleased God (which had separated me from my mothers woombe, and called me by his grace)

16 To reueale his sonne in me, that I should preach him among the Gentiles, immediatly I communicated not with k flesh and blood:

17 Neither came I againe to Ierusalem, to them which were Apostles before me, but I went into Arabia, and turned againe vnto Damascus.

18 Then after three yeres I came againe to Ierusalem to visite Peter, & abode with him fiftene dayes.

19 And none of the other Apostles sawe I, saue Iames the Lords brother.

20 Now the things which I write vnto you, beholde, I witnesse before God, that I lie not.

21 After that, I went into the coasts of Syria and Cilicia: for I was vnknowen by face vnto the Churches of Iudea, which were in Christ.

22 But they had heard onely some say, He which persecuted vs in time past, now preacheth the * faith which before he destroyed.

23 And they glorified God for me.

CHAP. II.

Confirming his Apostleship to be of God, 3 He forweth why Titus was not circumcised, 6 And that he is nothing inferiour to other Apostles: 11 Yea, and that he hath reproued Peter the Apostle of the Iewes. 16 After he commeth to the principall scope, which is to proue that iustification only commeth of the grace of God by faith in Iesus Christ, and not by the workes of the Law.

THen fourteene yeres after, I went vp againe to Ierusalem with Barnabas, and tooke with me Titus also.

2 And I went vp by reuelation, and * communicated with them of the Gospell which I preach among the Gentiles, * but particularly with them that were the chiefe, least by any meanes I should runne, or had runne ‡ in vaine.

3 But neither yet Titus which was with me, though he were a Grecian, was ᵇ compelled to bee circumcised,

4 For all the false brethren that crept in: who came in priuily to spie out our libertie, which we haue in Christ Iesus, that they might bring vs into bondage,

5 To whom we * gaue not place by subiection for an houre, that the trueth of the Gospel might continue with you.

6 And of them which seemed to be great, (I was not taught (what they ᵈ were in time passed, it maketh no matter to me: * God accepteth no mans person) neuertheless, they that are the chiefe, * did communicate nothing with me.

7 But contrariwise when they saw that the Gospel ouer the vncircumcision, was committed vnto me, as the Gospel ouer the circumcision was vnto Peter:

8 (For he that was mightie by Peter in the Apostleship ouer the Circumcision, was also mightie by mee toward the Gentiles)

9 And when Iames, and Cephas, and Iohn knew of the grace that was giuen vnto me, which are counted to be pillars, they gaue to mee and to Barnabas the † right handes of fellowship, that we should preach vnto the Gentiles, and they vnto the Circumcision,

10 * Warning only that we should remember the poore: which thing also I was diligent to doe.

11 ¶ And when Peter was come to Antiochia, I withstood him * to his face: for he was to be blamed.

12 For before that certaine came from Iames, he ate with the Gentiles: but when they were come, he withdrew and separated himselfe, fearing them which were of the circumcision.

13 And the other Iewes dissembled likewise with him, in so much that Barnabas was brought into their dissimulation also.

14 But when I saw that they went not the † right way to the trueth of the Gospel, I sayd vnto Peter before all men, If thou being a Iew, liuest as the Gentiles, and not like the Iewes, why * constrainest thou the Gentiles to doe like the Iewes?

15 We which are Iewes by nature, and not * sinners of the Gentiles, 16 Know that a man is not iustified by the workes of the Lawe, but by the faith of Iesus Christ: euen wee I say, haue beleeued in Iesus Christ, that wee might bee iustified by the faith of Christ, and not by the workes of the Lawe, because that by the workes of the Lawe, no ‖ flesh shall be iustified.

17 * If then while we seeke to be made righteous by Christ, we our selues are found ᵇ sinners, is Christ therefore the minister of sinne? God ᶜ forbid.

18 For if I build againe the things that I haue destroyed, * I make my selfe a trespasser.

19 For I through the Lawe am dead to the Lawe, and that I might liue vnto God, I am * crucified with Christ.

20 Thus I liue, yet * not I nowe, but Christ liueth in me: and in that that I now liue in the ᵖ flesh, I liue by the faith in the Sonne of God, who hath loued me, and giuen himselfe for me.

21 I do not abrogate the ᵍ grace of God: for if righteousnesse be by the Lawe, then Christ died ‖ without a cause.

a That is, the Gospel which is the doctrine of faith.

l For he caused them not to sinne, but disclosed it, neither tooke he away the righteousnes of the Law, but shewed their hypocrisie, which were not able to performe that whereof they boasted.

m For my doctrine is to destroy sinne by faith in Christ, and not to establish sinne.

of the Law, or by the hearing of faith preached?

3 Are ye so foolish, that after ye haue begun in the Spirit, yee would now be made perfect by the flesh?

4 Haue yee suffered so many things in vaine? if it be it be euen in vaine.

5 He therefore that ministreth to you the Spirit, and worketh miracles among you, doeth he it through the workes of the Law, or by the hearing of faith preached?

6 Yea rather as Abraham beleeued God, and it was imputed to him for righteousnesse.

7 Know ye therefore, that they which are of faith, the same are the children of Abraham.

8 For the Scripture foreseeing that God would iustifie the Gentiles through faith, preached before the Gospel vnto Abraham, saying, In thee shall all the Gentiles bee blessed.

9 So then they which bee of faith, are blessed with faithfull Abraham.

10 For as many as are of the workes of the Lawe, are vnder the curse: for it is written, Cursed is every man that continueth not in all things, which are written in the booke of the Lawe, to doe them.

11 And that no man is iustified by the Law in the sight of God, it is euident: for the iust shall liue by faith.

12 And the Law is not of faith: but the man that shall doe those things, shall liue in them.

13 Christ hath redeemed vs from the curse of the Lawe, when he was made a curse for vs (for it is written, Cursed is every one that hangeth on tree)

14 That the blessing of Abraham might come on the Gentiles through Christ Iesus, that we might receiue the promise of the Spirit through faith.

15 Brethren, I speake as men doe. Though it be but a mans couenant, when it is confirmed, yet no man doeth abrogate it, or adde any thing thereto.

16 Nowe to Abraham and his seede were the promises made. Hee sayth not, And to the seedes, as speaking of many: but, And to thy seede, as of one, which is Christ.

17 And this I say, that the Lawe which was foure hundreth and thirtie yeeres after, cannot disanull the couenant that was confirmed afore of God in respect of Christ, that it should make the promise of none effect.

18 For if the inheritance bee of the Law, it is no more by the promise, but God gaue it vnto Abraham by promise.

19 Wherefore then serueth the Lawe? It was added because of the transgressions, till the seede came vnto the which the promise was made: and it was ordained by Angels in the hande of a Mediatour.

20 Now a Mediatour is not a Mediatour of one: but God is one.

21 Is the Law then against the promise of God? God forbid: for if there had beene a Lawe giuen which could haue giuen life, surely righteousnesse should haue bene by the Law.

22 But the Scripture hath concluded all vnder sinne, that the promise by the faith of Iesus Christ should be giuen to them that beleeue.

23 But before faith came, we were kept vnder the Lawe, and shut vp vnto the faith which should afterward be reuealed.

24 Wherefore the Law was our schoolemaster to bring vs to Christ, that wee might be made righteous by faith.

25 But after that faith is come, we are no longer vnder a schoolemaster.

26 For yee are all the sonnes of God by faith, in Christ Iesus.

27 For all yee that are baptized into Christ, haue put on Christ.

28 There is neither Iewe nor Grecian: there is neither bond nor free: there is neither male nor female: for yee are all one in Christ Iesus.

29 And if ye be Christes, then are ye Abrahams seede, and heires by promise.

CHAP. IIII.

1 He sheweth wherefore the ceremonies were ordained. 3 Which being shadowes, must ende when Christ the truth commeth. 9 He moueth them by certaine exhortations. 22 And confirmeth his argument with a strong example, or allegorie.

NOw I say, that the heire as long as he is a childe, differeth nothing from a seruant, though he be lord of all,

2 But is vnder tutors and gouernours, vntill the time appointed of the father.

3 Euen so, we when we were children, were in bondage vnder the rudiments of the world.

4 But when the fulnesse of time was come, God sent forth his Sonne made of a woman, and made vnder the Law,

5 That hee might redeeme them which were vnder the Law, that we might receiue the adoption of the sonnes.

6 And because ye are sonnes, God hath sent forth the Spirite of his Sonne into your hearts, which cryeth, Abba, Father.

7 Wherefore, thou art no more a seruant, but a sonne: nowe if thou bee a sonne, then art also the heire of God through Christ.

8 But

8 But euen then when yee [b] knew not God, ye did seruice vnto them, which by nature are not Gods.

9 But now seeing ye know God, yea, rather are knowen of God, how turne [h] yee againe vnto impotent & beggerly rudiments, wherevnto as from the beginning ye will be in bondage againe?

10 Ye obserue [i] dayes, and moneths, and times, and yeeres.

11 I am in feare of you, lest I haue bestowed on you labour in vaine.

12 Bee yee as [m] I: for I am euen as you: brethren, I beseech you: yee haue not hurt [n] me at all.

13 And ye know, how through [o] infirmitie of the flesh, I preached the Gospel vnto you at the first.

14 [p] And the triall of mee which was in my flesh, yee despised not, neither abhorred: but yee receiued mee as an [q] Angel of God, yea, as Christ Iesus.

15 What was then your felicitie? for I beare you record, that if it had bene possible, ye would haue plucked out your owne eyes, and haue giuen them to mee.

16 Am I therefore become your enemie, because I tell you the trueth?

17 They are ielous ouer you [r] amisse: yea, they would exclude [s] you, that ye should altogether loue them.

18 But it is a good thing to loue earnestly alwayes in a good thing, and not onely when I am present with you, 19 My little children, of whom I trauile in birth againe, vntill Christ be [t] formed in you.

20 And I would I were with you now, that I might change my voice: for I am in doubt of you.

21 Tell mee, ye that will bee vnder the Law, do ye not heare the Law?

22 For it is written, that Abraham had two sonnes, [u] one by a seruant, [x] and one by a free woman.

23 But he which was of the seruant, was borne after the flesh: and hee which was of the free woman, was borne by promise.

24 By the which things another thing is meant: for these mothers [a] are the two Testaments, the one which is [x] Agar of mount Sina, which gendreth vnto bondage, 25 (For Agar or Sina is a mountaine in [y] Arabia, and it answereth to Ierusalem which now is) and shee is in bondage with her children.

26 But Ierusalem, which is [z] aboue, is free: which is the mother of all.

27 For it is written, [*] Reioice thou barren that bearest no children: breake foorth, and crie thou that trauailest not: for the desolate hath many mo children then she which hath an husband.

28 [*] Therefore, brethren, we are after the maner of Isaac, children of the promise.

29 But as then hee that was borne after the flesh, persecuted him that was borne after the spirit, euen so it is now.

30 But what saith the Scripture? [*] Put out the seruant and her sonne: for the sonne of the seruant shall not be heire with the sonne of the free woman.

31 Then brethren, we are not children of the seruant, but of the [a] free woman.†

CHAP. V.

1 Hee laboureth to draw them away from circumcision, 19 And sheweth them the battell betwixt the spirite and the flesh, and the fruits of them both.

STand fast therefore in the liberty wherewith Christ hath made vs free, and bee not intangled againe with the yoke of bondage.

2 [*] Beholde, I Paul say vnto you, that if ye be [a] circumcised, Christ shall profit you nothing.

3 For I testifie again to euery man, which is circumcised, that he is bound to keepe the whole Law.

4 Ye are [b] abolished from Christ, whosoeuer are iustified by the Law, yee are fallen from grace.

5 For we through the Spirit [b] waite for the hope of righteousnesse through faith.

6 For in Iesus Christ neither circumcision auaileth any thing, neither vncircumcision, but faith which worketh by loue.

7 Yee did runne well: who did let you, that ye did not obey the [c] trueth?

8 It is not the perswasion of him that [d] calleth you.

7 Be not deceiued: God is not mocked: for whatsoeuer a man soweth, that shall hee also reape.

8 For he that [g] soweth to his flesh, shall of the flesh reape corruption: but hee that soweth to the spirit, shall of the spirit reape life euerlasting.

9 [h] Let vs not therefore be weary of well doing: for in due season wee shall reape, if we faint not.

10 While we haue therefore time, let vs doe good vnto all men, but specially vnto them which are of the houshold of faith.

11 ¶ See how large a letter I haue written vnto you with mine owne hand.

12 As many as desire to make a faire shewe [i] in the flesh, they constraine you to bee circumcised, onely because they would not suffer persecution for the [k] crosse of Christ.

13 For they themselues which are circumcised, keepe not the Lawe, but desire to haue you circumcised, that they might reioyce [l] in your flesh.

14 But God forbid that I should reioyce, but in the crosse of our Lorde Iesus Christ, whereby the [l] world is crucified vnto mee, and I vnto the world.

15 For in Christ Iesus neither circumcision auaileth any thing, nor vncircumcision, but a new [m] creature.

The Epistle of Paul to the Ephesians.

THE ARGVMENT.

WHile Paul was Prisoner at Rome, there entred in among the Ephesians false teachers, who corrupted the true doctrine which hee had taught them, by reason whereof hee wrote this Epistle to confirme them in that thing, which they had learned of him. And first after his salutation, hee assureth them of saluation, because they were thereunto predestinate by the free election of God, before they were borne, and sealed vp to his eternall life by the holy Ghost, giuen vnto them by the Gospel, the knowledge of which mysterie hee prayeth God to confirme towards them. And to the intent they should not glorie in themselues, hee sheweth them their extreme miserie, misery wherin they were plunged before they knew Christ, as people without God, Gentiles to whō the promises were not made, and yet, by the free mercie of God in Christ Iesus, they were saued, & he appointed to be their Apostle, as of all other Gentiles: therefore he desireth God to lighten ỹ Ephesians hearts with the perfect vnderstanding of his Sonne, and exhorteth him likewise to be mindfull of so great benefits, neither to be moued with the false apostles, which seeke to ouerthrow their faith, and tread vnder foote the Gospel, which was not preached to them, as by chance or fortune, but according to the eternall counsell of God: who by this meanes only preserueth his Church. Therfore the Apostle commendeth his ministery, for asmuch as God thereby reigneth among men, & causeth it to bring foorth most plentifull fruites, as innocencie, holinesse, with all such offices, appertaining to godlinesse. Last of all he declareth not onely in generall, what ought to be the life of the Christians, but also sheweth particularly, what things concerne euery mans vocation.

CHAP. I.

After his salutation, 4 He sheweth that the chiefe cause of their saluation standeth in the free election of God through Christ. 16 He declareth his good will toward them giuing thanks & praying God for their faith. 21 The maiestie of Christ.

PAVL an Apostle of Iesus Christ, by the will of God, to the *Saints which are at Ephesus, and to the faithfull in Christ Iesus:

2 Grace be with you, and peace from God our Father, and from the Lord Iesus Christ.

3 *Blessed bee God euen the Father of our Lord Iesus Christ, which hath blessed vs with all *spirituall blessing in heauenly things in Christ,

4 *As he hath *chosen vs in him, before the foundation of the world, that we *should be holy, & without blame before him in loue:

5 Who hath predestinate vs, to bee *adopted through Iesus Christ vnto himselfe, according to the good pleasure of his will,

6 To the *praise of the glory of his grace, wherewith hee hath made vs accepted in his beloued.

7 By whom we haue redemption through his blood, euen the forgiuenesse of sinnes, according to his rich grace:

8 Wherein he hath beene aboundant toward vs in al wisdom and vnderstanding,

9 And hath opened vnto vs the mystery of his will according to his good pleasure, which he had purposed *in him,

10 That in the dispensation of the fulnes of the times, hee might gather together in one all things, both which are in heauen and which are in earth, euen in Christ:

11 In whom also we are chosen, when we were predestinate according to the purpose of him, which worketh all things after the counsell of his owne will,

12 That *we which first trusted in Christ, should be vnto the praise of his glory:

13 In whom also ye haue trusted after that ye heard the word of trueth, euen the Gospel of your saluation, wherein also after that yee beleeued, ye were sealed with the holy Spirit of promise, 14 Which is *the earnest of our inheritance, *vntill the redemption of the possession, purchased vnto the praise of his glory.

15 Therefore also, after that I heard of the faith, which ye haue in the Lord Iesus, and loue toward all the Saints,

16 I cease not to giue thanks for you, making mention of you in my prayers,

17 That the GOD of our Lord Iesus Christ the Father of glory, might giue vnto you the Spirit of wisdome, and reuelation through the knowledge of *him,

18 That the eyes of your vnderstanding may be lightned, that yee may know what the hope is of his calling, and what the riches of his glorious inheritance is in the Saints,

19 And what is the exceeding greatnesse of his power toward vs, which beleeue, *according to the working of his mighty power,

CHAP. II.

5 To magnifie the grace of Christ, which is the onely cause of saluation, 11 He sheweth the what manner of people they were before their conuersion, 18 And what they are now in Christ.

AND *you hath he quickened, that were dead in trespasses and sinnes,

2 Wherein in time past yee walked according to the course of this world, and after the *prince that ruleth in the ayre, euen the spirit, that now worketh in the children of disobedience,

3 Among whom we also had our conuersation in time past, in the lustes of our flesh, in fulfilling the will of the flesh, and of the minde, and were by *nature the children of wrath as well as others.

4 But GOD which is rich in mercie, through his great loue wherewith he loued vs,

6 And hath [a] raised vs vp together, and made vs sit together in the heauenly places in Christ Iesus,

7 That he might shewe in the ages to come, the exceeding riches of his grace, through his kindnesse toward vs in Christ Iesus.

8 For by grace are ye saued through faith, and that not of your selues: it is the gift of God, 9 Not of workes, lest any man should boast himselfe.

10 For we are his workemanship created in Christ Iesus vnto good workes, which God hath ordained that we should walke in them.

11 Wherefore [f] remember that ye being in time past Gentiles in the flesh, and called [] vncircumcision of them, which are called circumcision in the flesh, made with hands, 12 That ye were, I say, at that time without Christ, and were aliants from the common wealth of Israel, and were [] strangers from the [g] conenants of promise, and had no hope, and were without God in the world.

13 But nowe in Christ Iesus, ye which once were farre off, are made neere by the blood of Christ.

14 For he is our peace, which hath made of both one, and hath broken the [i] stop of the partition wall,

15 In abrogating through his [k] flesh the hatred, that is, the Law of commandements which standeth in ordinances, for to make of twaine one new man in himselfe, so making peace,

16 And that he might reconcile both vnto God in one [l] body by his [m] crosse, and slay hatred thereby,

17 And came, and preached peace to you which were afarre off, and to them that were neere.

18 For through him we both haue an entrance vnto the Father by one Spirit.

19 Now therefore yee are no more strangers and forreiners: but citizens with the Saints, and of the household of God,

20 And are built vpon the foundation of the Apostles & Prophets, Iesus Christ himselfe being the chiefe corner stone, 21 In whom all the building coupled together, groweth vnto an holy Temple in the Lord.

22 In whom ye also are built together to be the habitation of God by the Spirit.

CHAP. III.

1 He sheweth the cause of his imprisonment, 13 Desireth them not to faint because of his trouble. 14 And prayeth God to make them stedfast in his spirit.

FOr this cause, I Paul [a] the prisoner of Iesus Christ for you Gentiles,

2 If ye haue heard of the [b] dispensation of the grace of God, which is giuen me to youward,

3 That is, that God by reuelation hath shewed this mystery vnto me (as I wrote [c] aboue in few words,

4 Whereby when ye reade, yee may know mine vnderstanding in the mystery of Christ.)

5 Which in other ages was [d] not opened vnto the sons of men, as it is now reuealed vnto his holy Apostles and prophets by the Spirit,

6 That the Gentiles should be inheritors also, and of the same body, and partakers of his promise in Christ by the Gospel,

7 Whereof I am made a minister by the gift of the grace of God giuen vnto me [*] through the working of his power.

8 [*] Vnto me the least of all Saints is this grace giuen, that I should preach among the Gentiles the vnsearchable riches of Christ,

9 And to make cleare vnto all men what the fellowship of the mystery is, which from the beginning of the world hath bene hid in God, who hath created all things by Iesus Christ,

10 To the intent that now vnto [*] principalities & powers in heauenly places might be knowen [f] by the Church the manifolde wisedome of God,

11 According to the eternall purpose, which he wrought in Christ Iesus our Lord, 12 By whom we haue boldnesse and entrance with confidence by faith in him.

13 Wherefore I desire that yee faint not at my tribulations for your sakes, which is your glory.

14 For this cause I bow my knees vnto the Father of our Lord Iesus Christ,

15 (Of whome is named the whole [i] familie in [k] heauen and earth.)

16 That he might graunt you according to the riches of his glory, that yee may bee strengthened by his Spirit in the inner man,

17 That Christ may dwel in your hearts by faith, that ye, being rooted and grounded in loue,

18 May be able to comprehend with all Saints, what is the [l] breadth, and length, and depth, and height:

19 And to know the loue of Christ, which passeth knowledge, that yee may bee filled with all [l] fulnesse of God.

20 [*] Vnto him therefore that is able to doe exceeding abundantly aboue all that we aske or thinke, according to the power that worketh in vs, 21 Vnto him be the glory in the Church by Christ Iesus, throughout all generations for euer, Amen.

l That all the graces of God may abound in you, that we seeke Christ in vs.

CHAP. IIII.

1 He exhorteth both the ministers, and people, to suffering, vnto loue and peace, 3 Euery one to serue & edifie one another with the gift that God hath giuen him. 14 To beware of strange doctrine 22 To lay aside the old conuersation of greedy lusts, and to walke in a new life.

2 With all humblenesse of minde, and meekenesse, with long sufferinge, supportinge one another through loue,
3 Endeuouring to keepe the vnitie of the Spirit in the bond of peace.
4 There is one body, and one Spirit, euen as ye are called in one hope of your vocation.
5 There is one Lord, one Faith, one Baptisme,
6 One God and Father of all, which is above all, & through all, and in you all.
7 But vnto euery one of vs is giuen grace, according to the measure of the gift of Christ.
8 Wherefore he saith, When he ascended vp on high, he led captiuitie captiue, and gaue gifts vnto men.
9 (Now in that he ascended, what is it but that he had also descended first into the lowest parts of the earth?
10 He that descended, is euen the same that ascended, farre aboue all heauens, that he might fill all things.)
11 He therefore gaue some to be Apostles, and some Prophets, and some Euangelists, and some Pastours and Teachers,
12 For the gathering together of the Saints, for the worke of the ministery, and for the edification of the body of Christ,
13 Till we all meet together (in the vnitie of faith and knowledge of the Sonne of God) vnto a perfect man, & vnto the measure of the age of the fulnesse of Christ,
14 That we henceforth be no more children, wauering and caried about with euery winde of doctrine, by the deceit of men, and with craftinesse, whereby they lay in wait to deceiue.
15 But let vs follow the trueth in loue, and in all things grow vp into him, which is the head, that is, Christ,
16 By whom all the body being coupled and knit together by euery ioynt, for the furniture thereof (according to the effectuall power, which is in the measure of euery part) receiueth increase of the body, vnto the edifying of it selfe in loue.
17 This I say therefore and testifie in the Lord, that ye henceforth walke not as other Gentiles walke, in vanitie of their minde,
18 Hauing their conuersation darkened, and being strangers from the life of God through the ignorance that is in them, because of the hardnesse of their heart:
19 Which being past feeling, haue giuen themselues vnto wantonnesse, to worke all vncleannesse, euen with greedinesse.
20 But ye haue not so learned Christ,
21 If so be ye haue heard him, and haue been taught by him, as the trueth is in Iesus,
22 That is, that ye cast off, concerning the conuersation in time past, the old man, which is corrupt through the deceitable lusts,
23 And be renewed in the spirit of your mind,
24 And put on the new man, which after God is created in righteousnesse, and true holinesse.
25 Wherefore cast off lying, and speake euery man trueth vnto his neighbour: for we are members one of another.
26 Be angry, but sinne not: let not the sunne goe downe vpon your wrath.
27 Neither giue place to the deuil.
28 Let him that stole, steale no more: but let him rather labour, and worke with his hands the thing which is good, that he may haue to giue vnto him that needeth.
29 Let no corrupt communication proceed out of your mouthes: but that which is good to the vse of edifying, that it may minister grace vnto the hearers.

11 And haue no fellowship with the vnfruitfull works of darknes, but euen reprooue them rather.

12 For it is shame euen to speake of the things which are done of them in secret.

13 But all things when they are reprooued of the light, are manifest: for it is light that maketh all things manifest.

14 Wherefore he saith, [b] Awake thou that sleepest, and stand vp from the dead, and Christ shall giue thee light.

15 Take heed therefore that ye walke circumspectly, not as fooles, but as [c] wise, 16 [i] Redeeming the time: for the [d] dayes are euill.

17 [*] Wherefore be ye not vnwise, but vnderstand what the will of the Lord is.

18 And be not drunke with wine, wherein is excesse: but be fulfilled with the Spirit,

19 Speaking vnto your selues in psalmes, and ‖ hymnes, and spirituall songs, singing, and making melodie to the Lord in your [k] hearts,

20 Giuing thankes alwayes for all things vnto God euen the Father, in the Name of our Lord Iesus Christ, 21 Submitting your selues one to another in the [l] feare of God.

22 [*] Wiues, submit your selues vnto your husbands, as vnto the Lord.

23 [*] For the husband is the wiues head, euen as Christ is the head of the Church, and the same is the sauiour of his [m] body.

24 Therefore, as the Church is in subiection to Christ, euen so let the wiues be to their husbands in euery thing.

25 [*] Husbands, loue your wiues, euen as Christ loued the Church, and gaue himselfe for it,

26 That he might sanctifie it, & cleanse it by the [n] washing of water through the word, 27 That he might make it vnto himselfe a glorious Church, not hauing [o] spot or wrinkle, or any such thing: but that it should be holy, and without blame.

28 So ought men to loue their wiues, as their owne bodies: he that loueth his wife, loueth himselfe.

29 For no man euer yet hated his owne flesh, but nourisheth and cherisheth it, euen as the Lord doeth the Church.

30 For we are members of his body, of his flesh, and of his bones.

31 [*] For this cause shall a man leaue father and mother, and shall cleaue to his wife, and they twaine shalbe one flesh.

32 This is a great [p] secret, but I speake concerning Christ, & concerning [q] Church.

33 Therefore euery one of you, doe ye so let euery one loue his wife, euen as himselfe, and let [r] wife see that she feare her husband.

The Epistle of Paul to the Philippians.

THE ARGVMENT.

PAul being warned by the holy Ghost to go to Macedonia, planted first a Church at Philippi a citie of the same countrey: but because his charge was to preach the Gospel vniuersally to all the Gentiles, he trauailed from place to place, til at the length he was taken prisoner at Rome, whereof the Philippians being aduertised, sent their minister Epaphroditus with reliefe vnto him: who declaring him the estate of the Church, caused him to write this Epistle, wherein he commended them that they stood manfully against the false apostles, putting them in mind of his good will toward them, and exhorteth them that his imprisonment make them not to shrinke: for the Gospel thereby was confirmed and not diminished: especially he desireth them to flee ambition, & to imbrace modestie, promising to send Timotheus vnto them, who should instruct them in matters more amply: yea, and that he himselfe would also come vnto them, adding likewise the cause of their ministers so long abode. And because there were no greater enemies to the crosse then the false apostles, here confuteth their false doctrine, by prouing onely Christ to be the end of all true religion, with whom we haue all things, and without whom we haue nothing, so that his death is our life, and his resurrection our iustification. After this follow certaine admonitions both particular and general, with testification of his affection toward them, and thankefull accepting of their benevolence.

CHAP. I.

1 Saint Paul discouereth his heart toward them, 3 By his thanksgiuing, 4 Prayers, 8 And wishes for their faith & saluation. 7. 12. 20 He sheweth the fruite of his crosse, 15. 27 And exhorteth them to vnitie, 28 And patience.

PAul and Timotheus the seruants of Iesus Christ, to all the Saints in Christ Iesus which are at Philippi, with the a Bishops, and Deacons:

2 Grace be with you and peace from God our Father, and from the Lord Iesus Christ.

3 I thanke my God, hauing you in perfect memorie,

4 (Alwayes in all my prayers for all you, praying with gladnesse)

5 Because of the b fellowship which yee haue in the Gospel, from the c first day vnto now.

6 And I am perswaded of this same thing, that hee that hath begunne this good worke in you, will performe it vntill the d day of Iesus Christ.

7 As it becommeth mee so to iudge of you all, because I haue you in remembrance, e that both in my bonds, and in my defence and confirmation of the Gospel, you all were partakers of my f grace.

8 For God is my record, how I long after you all from the very heart roote in Iesus Christ.

9 And this I pray, that your loue may abound, yet more and more in knowledge, and in all iudgement,

10 That yee may discerne things that differ one from another, that ye may be pure, and g without offence, vntill the day of Christ.

11 Filled with the fruits of h righteousnesse, which are by Iesus Christ vnto the glory and praise of God.

12 ¶ I would ye vnderstood, brethren, that the things which haue come vnto mee, are turned rather to the furthering of the Gospel,

13 So that my bonds in i Christ are famous throughout all the k iudgement hall, and in all other places,

14 And so much that many of the brethren in the Lord are boldened through my bonds, and dare more frankely speake the l word.

15 Some preach Christ, euen through enuie and strife, and some also of good will.

16 The one part preach Christ of contention and not m purely, supposing to adde more affliction to my bands:

17 But the others of loue, knowing that I am set for the defence of the Gospel.

18 What then? yet Christ is preached all manner wayes, whether it bee n vnder a pretence, or sincerely: and I therein ioy: yea, and will ioy.

19 For I know that this shall turne to my saluation, through your prayer, and by the helpe of the Spirit of Iesus Christ.

20 As I heartily looke for, and hope, that in nothing I shall be ashamed, but that with all confidence, as alwayes, so now Christ shall be magnified in my body, whether it be by life or by death.

21 For Christ is to me both in life, and in death aduantage.

22 And

c That ye receiued the Gospel.

d When you shall receiue the crowne of glory.

e It was a sure token of their loue, they did helpe him by al meanes possible when he was absent, & in prison, euen as if they had bin prisoners with him.

f Of this peculiar benefit to suffer for Christs sake.

g That you so increase in godlines, that not only ye can put difference betweene good & euil: but also that ye profit more and more without slipping backe, or standing in a stay.

h Righteousnes is the tree, good works the fruit.

i Which I sustain for Christs cause.

k That is, in the court or palace of the Emperour Nero.

l Or, professe the Gospel considering my constancie.

m But with a corrupt minde.

n Or, for an occasion.

n Their pretence was to preach Christ, and therefore their doctrin was true: but they were full of ambition and enuie, thinking to deface Paul and preferre themselues.

22 And whether to [a] liue in the flesh, were profitable for me, and what to choose, I know not.

23 For I am greatly in doubt of both sides, desiring to bee loosed, and to bee with Christ, which is best of all.

24 Neuertheless, to abide in the ‖ flesh, is more needfull for you.

25 And this am I sure of, that I shall abide, and with you all continue, for your furtherance and ioy of your faith, 26 That your reioice in Iesus Christ for me, by my comming to you againe.

27 [b] Onely let your conuersation bee, as it becommeth the Gospel of Christ, that whether I come and see you, or else bee absent, I may heare of your matters, that ye ‖ continue in one spirit, and in one minde fighting together through the faith of the Gospel.

28 And in nothing feare your aduersaries, which is to them a token of perdition, and to you of saluation, and that of God.

29 For vnto you it is giuen for Christ, that not onely yee should beleeue in him, but also suffer for his sake, 30 Hauing the same fight which yee saw in me, and now heare to be in me.

[a] To liue in the flesh, is to liue in this brittle body, till we be called to liue euerlastingly: but to liue according to the flesh, or to be in the flesh, signifie, to be destitute of the Spirit, and to be plunged in the filthie concupiscences of the flesh.

[b] The more that tyrants rage against the Gospel, the more manifestly they declare that they runne to their owne destruction, and againe, constant perseuerance for Christes sake, is an euident signe of saluation.

CHAP. II.

1 He exhorteth them about all things to humilitie, whereby pure doctrine is chiefly maintained, 19 Promising that he and Timotheus will speedily come vnto them, 27 And excuseth the long tarrying of Epaphroditus.

IF there bee therefore any [a] consolation in Christ, if any comfort of loue, if any fellowship of the Spirit, if any compassion and mercie,

2 Fulfill my ioy, that yee be like minded, hauing the same loue, being of one accord, and of [b] one iudgement.

3 That nothing be done through contention or vaine glory, but that in meekenesse of minde [c] euery man esteeme other better then himselfe.

4 Looke not euery man on his owne things, but euery man also on the things of other men.

5 Let the same minde be in you that was euen in Christ Iesus,

6 Who [c] being in the forme of GOD, thought it no [d] robbery to be equall to God:

7 [e] But he made himselfe of no reputation, and tooke on him the forme of a seruant, and was made like vnto men, and was found in [f] shape as a man.

8 [g] He humbled himselfe, and became obedient vnto the death, euen the death of the crosse.

9 Wherefore God hath also highly exalted him, and giuen him a Name aboue euery Name,

10 [h] That at the Name of Iesus should euery knee [i] bow, both of things in heauen, and things in earth, and things vnder the earth, 11 [k] And that euery tongue should confesse that Iesus Christ is the Lord, vnto the glory of God the Father.

12 Wherefore my beloued, as yee haue alwayes obeyed me, not as in my presence only, but now much more in mine absence, [l] make an end of your owne saluation with feare and trembling.

13 For it is God which worketh in you, both the will and the deed, euen of his [k] good pleasure.

14 Doe all things without [m] murmuring and reasonings,

15 That ye may be blamelesse, and pure, and the sonnes of God without rebuke in the middes of a naughtie and crooked nation, among whom yee shine, as [n] lights in the world,

16 [o] Holding forth the [p] word of life, that I may reioyce in the day of Christ, that I haue not runne in vaine, neither haue laboured in vaine.

17 Yea, and though I be [q] offered vp vpon the sacrifice, and seruice [r] of your faith, I am glad, and reioyce with you all.

18 For the same cause also be ye glad, and reioyce with me.

19 And I trust in the Lord Iesus to send [s] Timotheus shortly vnto you, that I also may be of good comfort, when I know your state.

20 For I haue no man like minded, who will faithfully care for your matters.

21 [t] For all [u] seeke their owne, and not that which is Iesus Christs.

22 But ye know the proofe of him, that as a sonne with the father, hee hath serued with me in the Gospel.

23 Him therefore I hope to send alloone as I know how it will goe with me.

24 And trust in the Lord, that I also my selfe shall come shortly.

25 But I supposed it necessary to send my brother Epaphroditus vnto you, my companion in labour, and fellow souldier, euen your [x] messenger, and he that ministred vnto me such things as I wanted.

26 For he longed after all you, and was full of heauinesse, because ye had heard, that he had bene sicke.

27 And no doubt he was sicke, very neere vnto death: but God had mercy on him, and not on him only, but on me also, lest I should haue sorow vpon sorow.

28 I sent him therefore the more diligently, that when ye should see him againe, ye might reioyce, and I might be the lesse sorowfull.

29 Receiue him therefore in the Lord with all gladnesse, and make much of such:

30 Because that for the [y] worke of Christ he [z] was neere vnto death, and regarded not his life, to fulfill that seruice which was lacking on your part toward me.

[b] From the consent of wils and mindes he proceedeth to the agreement in doctrine, that there might be full and perfect concord.
Rom. 12. 10.

[c] If Christ being very God equall with the Father, layde aside his glory, and being Lord, became a seruant, and willingly submitted himselfe to most shameful death, shall we which are nothing but vile slaues, through arrogancie treade downe our brethren, and preferre our selues?

CHAP. III.

1 He warneth them to beware of false teachers, 2 against whom he setteth Christ, 4 likewise himselfe, 9 and his doctrine, 12 and reproueth many owne righteousnesse.

MOreouer, my brethren, reioyce in the Lord. It grieueth me not to write the same things vnto you, and for you it is a sure thing.

2 Beware of [b] dogs: beware of euill workers: beware of the [c] concision.

3 For wee are the circumcision, which worship God in the spirit, and reioyce in Christ Iesus, and haue no confidence [d] in the flesh:

4 Though I might also haue confidence in the flesh. If any other man thinketh that he hath whereof he might trust in the flesh, much more I:

5 Circumcised the eight day, of the kinred of Israel, of the tribe of Beniamin, [e] an Ebrewe of the Ebrewes, [f] by the [g] law a Pharisie.

6 Concerning zeale, I persecuted the Church: touching the righteousnesse which is in the Law, I was vnreprouable.

7 But the things that were vantage vnto mee, the same I counted losse for Christs sake.

8 Yea, doubtlesse I thinke all things but losse for the excellent knowledge sake of Christ Iesus my Lorde, for whom I haue counted all things losse, and doe iudge them to bee dongue, that I might winne Christ,

9 And might bee [h] found in him, that is not hauing mine owne righteousnes, which is of the Law, but that which is through the faith of Christ, euen the righteousnesse which is of God through faith,

10 That I may know him, and the vertue of his resurrection, and the fellowship of his afflictions, and bemade conformable vnto his death,

11 If by any meanes I might attaine vnto the [i] resurrection of the dead.

12 [k] Not as though I had already attained to it, either were already perfect: but I follow, if that I may comprehend that for whose sake also I am [l] comprehended of Christ Iesus.

13 Brethren, I count not my selfe, that I haue attained to it, but one thing I doe: I forget that which is behind, and endeuour my selfe vnto that which is before,

14 And follow hard toward the [m] marke, for the price of the high calling of God in Christ Iesus.

15 Let vs therefore as many as [n] be perfect, be thus minded: and if ye be otherwise minded, God shall reueale euen this [o] same vnto you.

16 Neuertheless in that whereunto wee are come, let vs procede by one rule, [p] that we may minde one thing.

17 Brethren, be followers of me, and looke on them, which walke so, as yee haue vs for an ensample.

18 [q] For many walke, of whom I haue told you often, and now tel you weeping, that they are the enemies of the [r] crosse of Christ, 19 Whose [s] end is damnation, whose God is their belly, & whose [t] glory is to their shame, which minde earthly things.

20 But our [u] conuersation is in heauen, from whence also wee looke for the [x] Sauiour, euen the Lord Iesus Christ, 21 Who shall change our vile body, that it may bee fashioned like vnto his glorious body, according to the working, whereby he is able euen to subdue all things vnto himselfe.

CHAP. IIII.

1 He exhorteth them to be of honest conuersation, 5 and thanketh them, because of the prouision that they made for him being in prison, 21 and so concludeth with salutations.

THerefore, my brethren, beloued and longed for, my ioy and my crowne, so continue in the Lord, ye beloued.

2 I pray Euodias, and beseech Syntiche, that they be of one accord in the Lord.

3 Yea, and I beseech thee, faithfull yoke-fellow, helpe those women, which laboured with me in the Gospel, with Clement also, and with other my fellow labourers, whose names are in the [y] booke of life.

4 Reioyce in the Lord alway, againe I say, reioyce.

5 Let your patient mind be knowen vnto all men. The Lord is [z] at hand.

6 [a] Be nothing carefull, but in all things let your requests bee shewed vnto God in prayer, and supplication, with giuing of thankes.

7 And the peace of God which passeth all vnderstanding, shall [b] preserue your hearts and minds in Christ Iesus.

8 Furthermore, brethren, whatsoeuer things are true, whatsoeuer things are honest, whatsoeuer things are iust, whatsoeuer things are pure, whatsoeuer things pertaine to loue, whatsoeuer things are of good report, if there be any vertue, or if there be any prayse, thinke on these things,

9 Which ye haue both learned and receiued, and heard, and seene in me: those things doe, and the God of peace shall bee with you.

10 Now I reioyce also in the Lord greatly, that now at the last yee are [c] reuiued againe to care for me, wherein notwithstanding ye were carefull, but ye lacked opportunitie.

11 I speake not because of [d] want: for I haue learned in whatsoeuer state I am, therewith to be content.

12 And I can bee abased, and I can abound: euery where in all things I am instructed both to be full, & to be hungry, and to abound, and to haue want.

13 I am able to doe all things through the helpe of [e] Christ, which strengtheneth me.

14 Notwithstanding yee haue well done, that ye did communicate to mine affliction.

15 And ye Philippians know also that in the [f] beginning of the Gospel, when I departed from Macedonia, no Church communicated with me concerning the [g] matter of giuing and receiuing, but ye onely.

The Epistle of Paul to the Colossians.

THE ARGVMENT.

IN this Epistle S. Paul putteth difference betweene the liuely, effectuall and true Christ, and the falned, counterfait, and imagined Christ, whom the false apostles taught. And first, he confirmeth the doctrine, which Epaphras had preached, wishing the the increase of faith, to esteeme the excellency of Gods benefit toward them, teaching them also that saluation, and whatsoeuer good thing can be desired, standeth only in Christ, whom onely we embrace by the Gospel. But forasmuch as the false brethren would haue mixed the Law with the Gospel, he toucheth those flatterers vehemently, and exhorteth the Colossians to stay onely on Christ, without whom all things are but meere vanitie. And as for circumcision, abstinence frō meats, externall holinesse, worshipping of Angels as means whereby to come to Christ, he vtterly condemneth, shewing what was the office and nature of ceremonies, which by Christ are abrogate: so that now the exercises of the Christians stand in mortification of the flesh, newnesse of life, with other like offices appertaining both generally and particularly to all the faithfull.

CHAP. I.

1 He giueth thanks vnto God for their faith, 7 Confirmeth the doctrine of Epaphras, 9 Prayeth for the increase of their faith. 13 He sheweth vnto them the true Christ, and discouereth the counterfeit Christ of the false apostles. 25 He approueth his authoritie and charge, 28 And of his faithfull executing of the same.

PAul an Apostle of IESVS Christ, by the will of God, and Timotheus our brother,

2 To all them which are at a Colosse, Saints and faithfull brethren in Christ: Grace bee with you, and peace from God our Father, and from the Lord Iesus Christ.

3 We giue thankes to God euen the Father of our Lorde Iesus Christ, alwayes praying for you:

4 Since we heard of your faith in Christ Iesus, and of your loue toward all Saints,

5 For the hopes sake which is laid vp for you in heauen, whereof ye haue heard before by the word of trueth, which is the Gospel,

6 Which is come vnto you, euen as it is vnto all the world, and is fruitfull, as it is also among you, from the day that ye heard and truely knew the grace of God,

7 As yee also learned of Epaphras our deare fellow seruant, which is for you a faithfull minister of Christ:

8 Who hath also declared vnto vs your loue, which ye haue c by the spirit.

9 For this cause wee also, since the day we heard of it, cease not to pray for you, and to desire that yee might be fulfilled with knowledge of his will, in all wisedome, and spirituall vnderstanding,

10 d That ye might walke worthy of the Lord, & please him in all things, being fruitfull in all good works, and increasing in the knowledge of God,

11 Strengthened with all might through his glorious power, vnto all patience, and long suffering with ioyfulnesse,

12 Giuing thanks vnto the Father, which hath made vs meete to be partakers of the inheritance of the Saints in light,

13 Who hath deliuered vs from e the power of darkenes, and hath translated vs into the kingdome of his deare Sonne,

14 In whome wee haue redemption through his blood, that is, the forgiuenesse of sinnes, 15 Who is the f image of the inuisible God, the g first borne of euery creature.

16 * For by him were all things created, which are in heauen, and which are in earth, things visible and inuisible: whether they be Thrones, or Dominions, or Principalities, or Powers, all things were created by him and for him, 17 And he is before all things, and in him all things consist.

18 And hee is the head of the body of the Church: he is the beginning, and g the first borne of the dead, that in all things he might haue the preeminence.

19 * For it pleased the Father, that in him should all h fulnesse dwell, 20 And by him to reconcile i all things vnto himselfe, and to set at peace through the blood of his crosse, both the things in earth, and the things in heauen.

21 And you which were in times past strangers and enemies, because your minds were set in euill workes, hath he now also reconciled,

The first Epistle of Paul to the Thessalonians.

THE ARGVMENT.

After that the Thessalonians had bene well instructed in the faith, persecution (which perpetually followeth the preaching of the Gospell) arose, against the which although they did constantly stand, yet S. Paul (as most carefull for them) sent Timothie to strengthen them, who soone after admonishing him of their estate, gaue occasion to ℣ Apostle to confirme them by diuers arguments to bee constant in faith, and to suffer whatsoeuer God calleth them vnto for the testimonie of the Gospel, exhorting them to declare by their godly liuing the puritie of their religion. And as the Church can neuer be so purged, that some cockle remaine not among the wheate, so there were among them wicked men, which by mouuing vaine and curious questions to ouerthrow their faith, taught falsely, as touching the poynt of the resurrection frō the dead: whereof he briefly instructeth them what to thinke, earnestly forbidding them to seeke curiously to know the times, willing them rather to watch, lest the sudden comming of Christ come vpon them at vnawars: and so after certaine exhortations, and his commendations to the brethren, he endeth.

CHAP. I.

1 He thanketh God for them, that they are so stedfast in faith and good workes, 6 And receiue the Gospel with such earnestnes, 7 That they are an example to all others.

PAul and Siluanus, and Timotheus, vnto the Church of the Thessalonians, which is in a God the Father, and in the Lord Iesus Christ: Grace be with you, ℣ peace from God our father, and from the Lord Iesus Christ.

2 We giue God thankes alwayes for you all, making mention of you in our prayers.

3 Without ceasing, remembring your b effectual faith, and c diligent loue, and the patience of your hope in our Lorde Iesus Christ, in the sight of God euen our Father,

4 Knowing, beloued brethren, that yee are elect of God.

5 For our d Gospel was not vnto you in worde onely, but also in power, and in the holy Ghost, and in much assurance, as yee knowe after what maner wee were among you for your sakes.

6 And yee became followers of vs, and of the Lord, and receiued the word in much affliction, with e ioy of the holy Ghost,

7 So that ye were as f ensamples to all that beleeue in Macedonia and Achaia.

8 For from you sounded out the worde of the Lorde, not in Macedonia and in Achaia onely: but your faith also which is towarde God, spread abroad in all quarters, that wee neede not to speake any thing.

9 For g they themselues shewe of you what maner of entring in wee had vnto you, and howe yee turned to God from idoles, to serue the h liuing and true God,

10 And to looke for his Sonne from heauen, whome he raysed from the dead, euen Iesus which deliuereth vs from ℣ i wrath to come.

CHAP. II.

1 To the intent they should not faint vnder the crosse, 2 Hee commendeth his diligence in preaching, 13 And their in obeying. 18 Hee excuseth his absence, that he could not come and open his hart to them.

FOr ye your selues knowe, brethren, that our entrance in vnto you was not in a vaine,

2 But euen after that wee had suffered before, and were shamefully intreated at *Philippi (as yee know) wee were bold b in our God, to speake vnto you the Gospell of God with much striuing.

3 For our exhortation was not by deceit, nor by vncleanesse, nor by guile.

4 But as wee were allowed of God, that the Gospel should bee committed vnto vs, so wee speake not, as they that c please men, but God, which trieth our hearts.

5 Neyther yet did we euer vse flattering wordes, as yee know, nor coloured couetousnesse, God is record.

6 Neyther sought we praise of men, neyther of you, nor of others,

7 When wee might haue bene ‖ chargeable, as the Apostles of Christ: but wee were gentle among you, euen as a d nource cherisheth her children.

8 Thus being affectioned toward you, our good will was to haue dealt vnto you, not the Gospell of God onely, but also our owne soules, because yee were deare vnto vs.

9 For yee remember, brethren, * our labour and trauaile: for we laboured day and night, because wee would not be chargeable vnto any of you, and preached vnto you the Gospel of God.

10 Ye are witnesses, and God also, how holily, and iustly, ℣ vnblameably wee behaued our selues among e you that beleeue.

11 As yee knowe how that wee exhorted you, and comforted, and besought euery one of you (as a father his children)

12 That yee * would walke worthy of God, who hath called you vnto his kingdome and glory.

13 For this cause also thanke wee God without ceasing, that when yee receiued of vs the worde of the preaching of God, yee receiued it not as the worde of men, but as it is in verde the worde of God, which also worketh in you that beleeue.

14 For brethren, yee are become followers of the Churches of God, which in Iudea are in f Christ Iesus, because yee haue also suffered the same things of your owne

CHAP. III.

2 He sheweth how greatly hee was affectioned towarde them, both in that hee sent Timotheus to them, 10. And also prayed for them.

WHerefore since wee could no longer forbeare, wee thought it good to remaine at Athens [a] alone,
2 * And haue sent Timotheus our brother and minister of God, & our labour fellow in the Gospel of Christ, to stablish you, and to comfort you touching your faith,
3 That no man should be mooued with these afflictions: for ye your selues knowe, that we are appointed thereunto.
4 For verily when wee were with you, we tolde you before that wee should suffer tribulations, euen as it came to passe, and ye know it.
5 Euen for this cause, when [b] I could no longer forbeare, I sent him that I might knowe of your faith, least the [c] tempter had tempted you in any sort, and that our labour had bene in vaine.
6 But nowe lately when Timotheus came from you vnto vs, and brought vs good tidings of your faith & loue, and that ye haue good remembrance of vs alwayes, desiring to see vs, as we also doe you,
7 Therefore, brethren, we had consolation in you, in all our affliction, and necessitie through your faith.
8 For nowe are wee [d] aliue, if ye [e] stand fast in the Lord.
9 For what thankes can we recompense to GOD againe for you, for all the ioy wherewith wee reioyce for your sakes before our God,

11 Nowe God himselfe, euen our Father, and our Lord Iesus Christ, guide our iourney vnto you,
12 And the Lord increase you, and make you abound in loue one towarde an other, and towarde all men, euen as wee doe towarde you:
13 * To make your hearts stable, and vnblameable in holinesse before God euen our Father, at the comming of our Lorde Iesus Christ with all his Saints.

CHAP. IIII.

1 He exhorteth them to holinesse, 6 Innocencie, 9 Loue, 11 Labour, 13 And moderation in lamenting for the dead, 17 Describing the end of the resurrection.

AND furthermore wee beseech you, brethren, and exhort you in the Lorde Iesus, that [a] yee increase more and more, as yee haue receiued of vs, how yee ought to walke, and to please God.
2 For yee knowe what [b] commaundements wee gaue you by the Lord Iesus.
3 * For this is the will of God euen your sanctification, [c] and that ye should abstaine from fornication,
4 That euery one of you shoulde knowe, how to possesse his [d] vessell in holinesse and honour,
5 And not in the lust of concupiscence, euen as the Gentiles which know not God:

18 Wherefore, comfort your selues one another with these wordes.

CHAP. V.

1 He informeth them of the day of iudgement and comming of the Lorde, 6 Exhorting them to watch, 12 And to regard such as preach Gods word among them.

BUt of the [a] times and seasons, brethren, ye haue no nede that I write vnto you.

2 For yer your selues knowe perfectly, that the [b] day of the Lord shall come as a theefe in the night.

3 For when they shall say, Peace, & safetie, then shall come vpon them sudden destruction, as the [c] trauaile vpon a woman with childe, and they shall not escape.

4 But ye, brethren, are not in darkenes, that that day should come on you, as it were a theefe.

5 Ye are all the children of light, and the children of the day: we are not of the night, neither of darkenesse.

6 Therefore let vs not [d] sleepe as doe other, but let vs [e] watch and be sober.

7 For they that sleepe, sleepe in the night, and they that be dronken, are dronken in the night.

8 But let vs which are of the [f] day, be sober, [g] putting on the brestplate of faith and loue, & the hope of saluation for an helmet.

9 For God hath not appointed vs vnto wrath, but to obteine saluation by the meanes of our Lord Iesus Christ,

10 Which died for vs, that whether we wake or [h] sleepe, wee should liue together with him.

11 Wherefore exhort one another, and edifie one another, euen as ye doe.

12 Now we beseech you, brethren, that yee know them, which labour among you, and are ouer you in the Lorde, and [i] admonish you, 13 That yee haue them in singular loue for [k] their workes sake. Be at peace among your selues.

14 Wee desire you brethren, admonish them that are vnruly: comfort the feeble minded, beare with the weake: be patient toward all men.

15 [l] See that none recompence euill for euill vnto any man: but euer followe that which is good, both toward your selues, and toward all men.

16 [m] Reioyce euermore.

17 [n] Pray continually.

18 In all things giue thankes: for this is the will of God in Christ Iesus towarde you.

19 Quench not the [o] Spirite.

20 Despise not [p] prophecying.

21 Trie all things, and keepe that which is good.

22 Abstaine from all appearance of euill.

23 Now the very God [q] of peace sanctifie you throughout: and I pray God that your [r] whole spirit and soule and body, may be kepe blamelesse vnto the comming of our Lord Iesus Christ.

24 [s] Faithfull is hee which calleth you, which will also doe it.

25 Brethren, pray for vs.

26 Greete all the brethren with an holy kisse.

27 I charge you in the Lorde, that this Epistle bee read vnto all the brethren the Saintes.

The second Epistle of Paul to the Thessalonians.

THE ARGVMENT.

LEast the Thessalonians should thinke that Paul neglected them, because he went to other places rather then came to them, he writeth vnto them, and exhorteth them to patience & other fruits of faith, neither to be moued with that vaine opinion of such as taught that the comming of Christ was at hand, forsmuch as before that day there should be a falling away from true religion, men by a great part of the world, and that Antichrist should reigne in the Temple of God: finally commending himselfe to their prayers, and encouraging them to constancy, he willeth them to correct such sharpely, as liue idlely or otherwise labours, whom, if they doe not, obey his admonitions, he commandeth to excommunicate.

CHAP. I.

1 He thanketh God for their faith, loue & patience. 11 He prayeth for the encrease of the same. 12 And sheweth what fruit shall come thereof.

PAul and Siluanus, and Timotheus vnto the Church of the Thessalonians, which is in God our Father, and in the Lord Iesus Christ.

2 Grace be with you, & peace from God our father, and from the Lord Iesus Christ.

3 [t] Wee ought to thanke God alwayes for you brethren, as it is worthy, because that your faith groweth exceedingly, and the loue of euery one of you towarde another aboundeth.

t 1. Thes. 1. 2.

4 So that we our selues reioyce of you in the Churches of God, because of your a patience, and faith in all your persecutions and tribulations that ye suffer.

5 Which is a b token of the righteous b iudgement of God, that yee may be counted worthy of the kingdome of God, for the which ye also suffer.

6 For it is a righteous thing with God, to recompense tribulation to them that trouble you.

7 And to you which are troubled, rest with vs: c when the Lorde Iesus shall shewe himselfe from heauen with his c mightie Angels,

8 In flaming fire, rendring vengeance vnto them that doe not know God, & which obey not vnto the Gospell of our Lorde Iesus Christ,

9 Which shall be punished with d euerlasting perdition, from the presence of the Lord, and from the glory of his power,

10 When he shall come to be glorified in his Saints, and to bee made marueilous in all them that beleeue (because our testimonie toward you was beleeued) in that day.

11 Wherefore, we also pray alwayes for you, that our God may make you worthy of his calling, and fulfill e all the good pleasure of his goodnesse, and the f worke of faith with power, 12 That the Name of our Lorde Iesus Christ may g be glorified in you, that yee in him, according to the grace of our God, and of the Lord Iesus Christ.

a Which proceedeth of your faith as a most notable fruit.
b The faithful by their afflictions see as in a cleare glasse, the end of Gods iust iudgement, when as they shall reigne with Christ which haue suffered with him, & the wicked shall feele his extreme wrath and vengeance. Iude 6. 1. The. 4. 16.
c By whom he declareth his might.
d As God is euerlasting, so shall their punishment be euerlasting: & as hee is most mighty of power, so shall their punishment be most sore.
e The free benevolence of Gods goodnes, comprehendeth his purpose, his predestination and vocation: the worke of faith conteineth our iustification, to the which God addeth glorification: and all these bee workes of his meere grace through Christ. f Faith is Gods worke in vs. g As the head with the body.

CHAP. II.

1 He sheweth them that the day of the Lord shal not come, till the departing fro the faith come first, 9 And the kingdome of Antichrist, 15 And therefore he exhorteth them not to be deceiued, but to stand stedfast in the things that hee hath taught them.

NOw, wee beseech you brethren, by the comming of our Lord Iesus Christ, and by our assembling vnto him,

2 That yee be not suddenly moued from your minde, nor troubled, neither by a spirite, nor by b worde, nor by letter, as it were from vs, as though the day of Christ were at hand.

3 c Let no man deceiue you by any meanes: for that day shall not come, except there come a a departing first, and that that d man of sinne be disclosed, euen the sonne of e perdition,

4 Which is an aduersarie, and exalteth himselfe against all that is called God, or that is worshipped: so that hee sitteth as God in the Temple of God, shewing himselfe that he is God.

5 Remember ye not, that when I was yet with you, I told you these things?

6 And nowe yee knowe what f withholdeth that he might be reuealed in his time.

7 For the mysterie of iniquitie doeth already e worke: onely hee which b now withholdeth, shall let, till hee be taken out of the way.

8 And then shall the wicked man be reuealed, * whome the Lorde shall consume with the Spirit of his mouth, and shall abolish with the brightnesse of his comming,

9 Euen him whose a comming is by the working of Satan, with all power and signes, and lying wonders,

10 And in all deceiueablenes of vnrighteousnes, among them that b perish, because they receiued not the loue of the truth, that they might be saued.

11 And therefore God shall send them strong delusion, that they should beleeue lies, 12 That all they might be damned, which beleeued not the truth, but had c pleasure in vnrighteousnesse.

13 But we ought to giue thankes alway to God for you, brethren * beloued of the Lord, because that God hath * from the beginning chosen you to saluation, through sanctification of the Spirit, and the faith of f truth, 14 Whereunto hee called you by g our Gospell, to obteine the glory of the Lorde Iesus Christ.

15 Therefore, brethren, stand fast and keepe the * instructions, which yee haue been taught, either f by word, or by our Epistle.

16 Nowe the same Iesus Christ our Lord, and our God, euen the Father which hath loued vs, and hath giuen vs euerlasting consolation and good hope through grace, 17 Comfort your hearts, and stablish you in euery word and good worke.

f Because the false apostles had persuaded after a sort the Thessalonians, that the day of the Lord was neere, and so the redemption of the Church, Paul teacheth them to looke for this horrible dissipatiō before: and therefore rather to prepare themselues to patience then to rest & quietnes: for as yet there was a let, that is, that the Gospel should be preached throughout all, Matt. 24. 14.

CHAP. III.

1 He desireth them to pray for him, that the Gospel may prosper, 6 And giueth them warning to reproue the idle, 16 And so wisheth them all wealth.

FUrthermore, brethren, a pray for vs, that the worde of the Lorde may haue free passage, and be glorified, euen as it is with you,

2 And that wee may bee deliuered from vnreasonable and euill men: for all men haue not a faith.

3 But the Lord is faithfull, which will stablish you, and keepe you from b euill.

4 And we are perswaded of you through the Lord, that ye both doe, and will doe the things which we c commaund you.

5 And the Lorde guide your hearts to the loue of God, and the waiting for of Christ.

a Although they boast themselues thereof.
b From the sleights of Satan.
c By the word of God.

6 Wee commaund you, brethren, in the Name of our Lorde Iesus Christ, that yee withdrawe your selues from euery brother that walketh inordinately, and not after the [d] instruction, which he receiued of vs.

7 For yee your selues knowe [e] how yee ought to follow vs: for we behaued not our selues inordinately among you,

8 Neither tooke wee bread of any man for nought: but wee wrought with [f] labour and trauaile night and day, because wee would not be chargeable to any of you.

9 Not but that we had authoritie, [g] but that we might make our selues an ensample vnto you to follow vs.

10 For euen when wee were with you, this we warned you of, that if there were any, which would not [h] worke, that he should not eate.

11 For wee heard, that there are some which walke among you inordinately, and worke not at all, but are busie bodies.

12 Therefore them that are such, wee commaund and exhort by our Lorde Iesus Christ, that they worke with quietnesse, and eate their owne bread.

13 [i] And yee brethren, be not wearie in well doing.

14 If any man obey not our sayings, note him by a letter, [k] and haue no company with him, that he may be ashamed.

15 Yet count him not as an [l] enemie, but admonish him as a brother.

16 Now the Lord of peace giue you peace alwayes by all meanes. The Lorde be with you all.

¶ The first Epistle of Paul to Timotheus.

THE ARGVMENT.

IN writing this Epistle, Paul seemed not onely to haue respect to teach Timotheus, but chiefly to keepe other in awe, which would haue rebelled against him, because of his youth. And therefore he doth arme him against those ambitious questionists, which vnder pretence of zeale to the Law, disquieted the godly with foolish and vnprofitable questions, wherby they declared, that professing the Law, they knew not what was the chiefe end of the Law. And as for himselfe, hee so confesseth his vnworthinesse, that he sheweth to what worthinesse the grace of God hath preferred him: and therefore he willeth prayers to be made for all degrees and sorts of men, because that God by offring his Gospel and Christ his Sonne to them all, is indifferent to euery sort of men, as his Apostleship, which is peculiar to the Gentiles witnesseth. And forasmuch as God hath left ministers as ordinary meanes in his Church to bring men to saluation, he describeth what maner of men they ought to be, to whom the mystery of the Sonne of God manifested in flesh is committed to be preached. After this he sheweth him what troubles the Church at all times shall sustaine, but specially in the latter dayes, when as vnder pretence of religion, men shal teach things contrary to the word of God. This done: he teacheth what widowes should be receiued or refused to minister to the sicke: also what Elders ought to be chosen into office, exhorting him neither to bee hastie in admitting nor in lodging any: also what is the duetie of seruants, the nature of false-teachers, of vaine speculations, of couetousnesse, of rich men, and aboue all things he chargeth him to beware of false doctrine.

CHAP. I.

3 Hee exhorteth Timotheus to waite vpon his office, namely to see that nothing be taught but Gods word, &c. 5 Declaring that faith, with a good conscience, charitie, and edification are the end thereof; 10 And admonisheth of Hymenæus and Alexander.

PAVL an Apostle of Iesus Christ, by the ‖ commaundement of God our Sauiour, and of our Lord Iesus Christ [a] our hope,

2 Vnto Timotheus my [a] naturall sonne in the faith: Grace, mercie, and peace from God our Father, and from Christ Iesus our Lord.

3 As I besought thee to abide still in Ephesus, when I departed into Macedonie, so doe, that thou mayest commaund some, that they teach none other doctrine,

4 Neither that they giue heede to [b] fables and genealogies, [c] which are endlesse, which breede questions rather then godly edifying which is by faith.

5 For [d] the ende of the ‖ commandement is loue out of a pure heart, and of a good conscience, and of faith vnfained:

6 From the which things some haue erred, and haue turned vnto vaine iangling.

7 They would be Doctors of the Law, and yet vnderstand not what they speake, neither whereof they affirme.

8 [e] And we know that the Law is good, if a man vse it lawfully,

9 Knowing this, that the Law is not giuen vnto a [f] righteous man, but vnto the lawlesse and disobedient, to the vngodly, and to [g] sinners, to the vnholy, and to the prophane, to murtherers of fathers and mothers, to manslayers,

12 Therefore i I thanke him which hath made mee strong, that is, Christ Iesus our Lord: for hee counted me faithfull, and put me in his seruice:

CHAP. I.

6 Paul exhorteth Timotheus to stedfastnes and patience in persecution, and to continue in the doctrine that hee had taught him, 12 Whereof his bondes and afflictions were a gage. 16 A commendation of Onesiphorus.

PAul an Apostle of Jesus Christ, by the will of God, according to the promise of life, which is in Christ Jesus,

2 To Timotheus my beloued sonne: Grace, mercie and peace from God the Father, and from Jesus Christ our Lord.

3 I thanke God, * whom I serue from mine [b] elders with pure conscience, that without ceasing I haue remembrance of thee in my prayers night and day,

4 Desiring to see thee, mindfull of thy teares, that I may be filled with ioy:

5 When I call to remembrance the vnfained faith that is in thee, which dwelt first in thy grandmother Lois, and in thy mother Eunice, and am assured that it dwelleth in thee also.

6 Wherefore I put thee in remembrance that thou * stirre vp the gift of God which is in thee, by the putting on of [d] mine hands.

7 For God hath not giuen to vs the Spirit of * feare, but of power, and of loue, and of a sound minde.

8 Be not therefore ashamed of the testimonie of our Lord, neither of mee his prisoner: but be partaker of the afflictions of the Gospel, according to the power of God,

9 Who hath saued vs and called vs with an * holy calling, not according to our * workes, but according to his owne purpose and grace, which was giuen to vs through Christ Jesus before the * world was,

10 But is now made manifest by the [f] appearing of our Sauiour Jesus Christ, who hath abolished death, and hath brought life and immortalitie vnto light through the Gospel.

11 * Whereunto I am appointed a preacher, and Apostle, and a teacher of the Gentiles.

12 For the which cause I also suffer these things, but I am not ashamed: for I know whom I haue beleeued, and I am perswaded that hee is able to keepe that which I haue [g] committed to him against that day.

13 Keepe the true paterne of the wholesome words, which thou hast heard of me in faith and loue which is in Christ Jesus.

14 That [h] worthy thing, which was committed to thee, keepe through the holy Ghost, which dwelleth in vs.

15 This thou knowest, that all they which are in Asia, be turned from me: of which sort are Phygellus and Hermogenes.

16 The Lord giue mercie vnto the house of Onesiphorus: for he oft refreshed me, and was not ashamed of my chaine.

17 But when he was at Rome, he sought me out very diligently, and found me.

18 The Lord grant vnto him that he may finde mercie with the Lord at that day, and in how many things he hath ministred vnto me at Ephesus, thou knowest very well.

CHAP. II.

2 He exhorteth him to be constant in trouble, to suffer manly, and to abide fast in the wholesome doctrine of our Lord Jesus Christ, 11 shewing him the faithfulnesse of Gods counsel touching the saluation of his, 19 and the marke thereof.

THou therefore my sonne, be strong in the grace that is in Christ Jesus.

2 And what things thou hast heard of mee, [i] by many witnesses, the same deliuer to faithfull men, which shall be able to [k] teach other also.

3 Thou therefore suffer affliction as a good souldier of Jesus Christ.

4 No man that warreth entangleth himselfe with the [l] affaires of this life, because he would please him that hath chosen him to be a souldier.

The Epistle of Paul to Titus.

THE ARGVMENT.

When Titus was left in Creta to finish that doctrine which Paul had there begun, Sathan stirred vp certaine which went about not onely to ouerthrow the gouernment of the Church, but also to corrupt the doctrine: for some by ambition would haue thrust in themselues to bee pastours: others, vnder pretext of Moses Law brought in many trifles. Against these two sortes of men Paul armeth Titus: first teaching him what maner of ministers he ought to chuse, chiefely requiring that they bee men of sound doctrine, to the intent they might resist the aduersaries, and among other things he noteth the Iewes which put a certaine holinesse in meates and such outward ceremonies, teaching them which are the true exercises of a Christian life, and what things appertaine to euery mans vocation. Against the which if any man rebell or else doeth not obey, he willeth him to bee auoyded.

CHAP. 1.

1 He aduertiseth Titus touching the gouernment of the Church. 7 The ordinance and office of ministers. 12 The nature of the Cretians and of them which serue abroad. Iewish fables and inuentions of men.

1 Paul a seruant of God, and an Apostle of Iesus Christ, according to the [a] faith of Gods elect, and the knowledge of the truth, which is according to godlinesse,

2 Vnder the hope of eternall life, which God that cannot lie, hath [b] promised before the [c] world began:

3 But hath made his word manifest in due time through the preaching, which is [d] committed vnto me, according to the commandement of God our [e] Sauiour:

4 To Titus my naturall [f] sonne according to the common faith, grace, mercie and peace from God the Father, and from the Lord Iesus Christ our Sauiour.

5 For this cause left I thee in Creta, that thou shouldest continue to redresse the things that remaine, and shouldest ordaine Elders in euery citie, as I appointed thee,

6 [g] If any [h] be vnreproueable, the husband of one wife, hauing faithfull children, which are not slandered of riot, neither are disobedient.

7 For a Bishop must bee vnreproueable as [i] Gods steward, not [k] froward, not angry, not giuen to wine, no striker, not giuen to filthy lucre.

8 But harborous, one that loueth [l] goodnesse, wise, [i] righteous, [h] holy, temperate,

9 Holding fast the faithfull word according to doctrine, that he also may be able to exhort with wholesome doctrine, and improoue them that say against it.

10 For there are many disobedient and vaine talkers and deceiuers of minds, chiefly 12 One of themselues, euen one of their owne [k] prophets said, The Cretians are alwayes liars, euill beasts, slowe bellies.

13 This witnesse is true: wherefore rebuke them sharpely, that they may bee sound in the faith,

14 And not taking heede to * Iewish fables and commaundements of men, that turne from the truth.

15 Vnto the pure * are all things pure, but vnto them that are defiled, and vnbeleeuing is nothing pure, but euen their minde and conscience are defiled.

16 They professe that they know God, but by [l] workes they denie him, and are abominable and disobedient, and vnto euery good worke reprobate.

l Forasmuch as they stay at things of nothing, and passe not for them, that are of importance, and so giue themselues to all wickednesse.

CHAP. II.

1 He commendeth vnto him the wholesome doctrine, and telleth him how he shall teach all degrees to behaue themselues, 11 Through the benefit of the grace of Christ.

BVt speake thou the things which become [a] wholesome doctrine,

2 That the elder men be sober, honest, discreete, sound in the faith, in loue, and in patience:

3 The elder women likewise, that they bee in such behauiour as becommeth holinesse, not false accusers, not giuen to much wine, but teachers of honest things,

4 That they may instruct the yong women to be sober minded, that they loue their husbands, that they loue their children,

5 That they be discreete, chaste, [b] keeping at home, good, and * subiect vnto their husbands, that the word of God be not euill spoken of.

6 Exhort yong men likewise, that they be sober minded.

7 Aboue all things shew thy selfe an ensample of good workes with vncorrupt doctrine, with grauitie, integritie,

8 And with the wholesome worde, which cannot be reproued, that he which withstanded, may be ashamed, hauing nothing concerning you to speake euill of.

9 * Let seruants be subiect to their masters, and please them in all things, not answering again,

10 Neither pikers, but that they shew all good faithfulnesse, that they may adorne the doctrine of God our Sauiour in all things.

11 * For the grace of God, that bringeth [c] saluation vnto all men hath appeared,

12 And teacheth vs that we should denie vngodlinesse, and worldly lustes, and that wee should liue soberly, and righteously, and godly in this present world,

13 Looking for the blessed hope, and appearing of the glory of the mighty God, and of our Sauiour Iesus Christ,

PVt them in remembrance that they * [a] be subiect to the principalities and powers, and that they be obedient and ready to euery good worke,

2 That they speake euill of no man, that they bee no fighters, but soft, shewing all meekenesse vnto all men.

3 * [b] For we our selues also were in times past vnwise, disobedient, deceiued, seruing the lustes and diuers pleasures, liuing in malicious nesse and enuie, hateful, and hating one another.

6 Which hee shedde on vs abundantly through Iesus Christ our Sauiour,

7 That we, being iustified by his grace, should be made heires according to the hope of eternall life.

8 This is a true saying, and these things I will thou shouldest affirme, that they which haue beleeued in God, might bee carefull to shew foorth good workes. These things are good and profitable vnto men.

9 * But [e] shun foolish questions, & genealogies, & contentions, & brawlings about the Law: for they are vnprofitable and vaine.

The Epistle to the Hebrewes.

THE ARGVMENT.

Forasmuch as diuers, both of the Greeke writers & Latines witnesse, that the writer of this Epistle for iust causes would not haue his name knowen, it were curiositie of our part to labour much therein. For seeing the Spirit of God is the authour thereof, it diminisheth nothing the authority although wee know not with what pen he wrote it. Whether it were Paul (as it is not like) or Luke or Barnabas, or Clement, or some other, his chiefe purpose is to perswade vnto the Hebrewes (whereby he principally meaneth them that abode at Ierusalem, and vnder them all the rest of the Iewes) that Christ Iesus was not only the redeemer, but also that at his comming all ceremonies must haue an end: forasmuch as his doctrine was the conclusion of all the Prophesies, and therefore not only Moses was inferiour to him, but also the Angels: for they all were seruants, and he the Lord, but the Lord, that he hath also taken our flesh, and is made our brother to assure vs of our saluation through himselfe, for he is that eternall Priest, whereof all the Leuiticall Priests were but shadowes, & therefore at his comming they ought to cease, & all sacrifices for sinne to be abolished, as he proueth from the 7 Chap. vers. 11. vnto the 12. Chap. vers. 18. Also he was that Prophet of whom all the Prophets in time past witnessed, as is declared from the 12. Chap. vers. 18. to the twentie and fiue verse of the same Chapter: yea & is the king to whom all things are subiect, as appeareth from the vers. 25 to the beginning of the last Chapter. stantly beleeue in him, that being sanctified by his iustice, taught by his wisedome, and gouerned by his power, we may stedfastly and courageously persueuer euen to the end in that ioy that is set before our eyes, occupying our selues in Christian exercises, that we may both be thankefull to God, and dueti full to our neighbour.

CHAP. I.

1 He sheweth the excellencie of Christ aboue the Angels. 7 and of their office.

AT sundry times and in diuers manners a God spake in the old time to our Fathers by the Prophets:

2 In these b last dayes hee hath spoken vnto vs by his Sonne, whom he hath made heire of all things, c by whom also he made the worlds,

3 d Who being the brightnesse of the glory, and the e ingraued forme of his person, and bearing vp all things by his mightie word, hath by himselfe e purged our sinnes, and sitteth at the right hand of the maiestie, in the highest places,

4 And is made so much more excellent then the Angels, inasmuch as he hath obtained a more excellent name then they.

5 For vnto which of the Angels said he at any time, f Thou art my Sonne, this day begate I thee? and againe, I f will be his Father, and he shalbe my Sonne?

6 And againe when hee bringeth in his first begotten Sonne into the worlde, hee saith, g And let all the Angels of God worship him.

7 And of the Angels he saith, h He maketh the i Spirits his messengers, and his ministers a flame of fire.

8 But vnto the Sonne he saith, k O God, thy throne is for euer and euer: the e scepter of thy kingdome is a scepter of righteousnesse.

9 Thou hast loued righteousnesse, and hated iniquity. Therefore God, euen thy God, hath l anointed thee with the oyle of gladnesse aboue thy fellowes.

10 And, m Thou, Lord, in the beginning hast established the earth, and the heauens are the workes of thine hands.

11 They shall perish, but thou doest remaine: and they all shall waxe olde as doeth a garment.

12 And as a vesture shalt thou folde them vp, and they shall be changed: but thou art the same, and thy yeeres shall not faile.

13 Vnto which also of the Angels saide hee at any time, n Sit at my right hand, till I make thine enemies thy footestoole?

14 Are they not all ministring spirits, sent forth to minister, for their sakes which shall be heires of saluation?

a God, who is euer constant, and mercifull to his Church, declared his will in time past, not all at once, or after one sort, but from time to time and in sundry sorts: but now last of all he hath fully declared all truth to vs by his Sonne.

b So that now we may not credite any newe reuelations after him.

c He intreateth here of Christ, both as touching his person, which is very God and very man, by whom all things are made, and also as touching his office, whereby he is King, Prophet, and Priest. Wisd.7.26. Colos.1.15.

d The liuely image & patterne, so that he that seeth him, seeth the Father, Iohn 14.9. for else the person of the Father is not seene, but apprehended by faith.

e So that our sinnes can be purged by none other meanes.

f Much more then, then all other things created. Psal.2.7 chap 5.5 act.13.33.

g Because he was at the time appointed, declared to the world. 2 Sam 7.14. 1.Chro.22.10. Psal.97.7.

Psal.104.4. h Hee compareth the Angels to the windes, which are here beneath as Gods messengers. Psal.45.6,7. i The administration of thy kingdom is iust. k This is meant in y that the word is made flesh, and that the holy Ghost was powred on him without measure, that we may all receiue of him euery one according to his measure. Psa.102.25. Psa.110 1.Mat.22.44 1.cor.15.25 chap 10.12

CHAP. II.

1 He exhorteth vs to be obedient vnto the new Lawe which Christ hath giuen vs, 9 And not to bee offended at the infirmitie and lowe degree of Christ. 10 Because it was necessary that for our sakes hee should take such an humble state vpon him, that he might be like vnto his brethren.

WHerefore we ought the more diligently to geue heede to the things which wee haue heard, lest at any a time wee should let them slippe.

2 For if the b worde spoken by Angels was stedfast, and euery transgression, and disobedience receiued a iust recompence of reward,

3 How shall we escape, if we neglect so c great saluation, which at the first beganne to bee preached by the Lorde, and afterward was confirmed vnto vs by d them that heard him,

4 e God bearing witnesse thereto, both with signes and wonders, and with diuers miracles and gifts of the holy Ghost, according to his owne will?

5 For he hath not put in subiection vnto the Angels the f world to come, whereof we speake.

6 But g one in a certaine place witnessed, saying, What is man, that thou shouldest be mindfull of him? or the sonne of man that thou wouldest consider him?

7 Thou madest him a litle inferiour to the Angels: thou crownedst him with glorie and honour, and hast set him aboue the workes of thine hands.

8 h Thou hast put all things in subiection vnder his feete. And in that hee hath put all things in subiection vnder him, hee left nothing that should not be subiect vnto him. i But we yet see not all things subdued vnto him.

9 But we see Iesus k crowned with glorie and honour, which was made a litle inferiour to the Angels, through the suffering of death, that by Gods grace he might taste death for all men.

10 For it became him, for whome are all things, and by whom are all things, seeing that hee brought many children vnto glory, that hee should consecrate the l Prince of their saluation through m afflictions.

11 For hee that sanctifieth, and they which are sanctified, are all n of one: wherefore hee is not ashamed to call them brethren, 12 Saying, o I will declare thy Name vnto my p brethren: in the middes of the Church will I sing prayses to thee.

a We must diligently keepe in memorie the doctrine, which we haue learned, lest like vessels full of chaps wee leake, & runne out on euery part.

b Which was the law giuen to Moses by the hands of the Angels, Gal. 3.19. Actes 7.53.

f He speaketh here chiefly of the faithfull, which are made through Christ, citizens of the world to come, where they shall enioy with their prince all these things which now they haue onely but in part.

g In making him fellow heire with Christ. Mat.28.18 1.cor.15.27.philip.2 9,10,11.

h To them which obiect that they see not these things accomplished in man, the Apostle answereth that they are fulfilled in Christ our captaine, who leadeth his to the same glory with him.

k By his vertue which most mirafestly appeareth in the Church.

l Iesus Christ by humbling himselfe, and taking vpon him the forme of a seruant, which was our flesh, & mortalitie, giueth vs assurance of our saluation.

m Therefore we by afflictions are made like to the Sonne of God.

CHAP. III.

1 Hee requireth them to bee obedient vnto the word of Christ. 3 Who is more worthie then Moses. 12 The punishment of such as will harden their hearts, and not beleeue, that they might haue eternall rest.

Wherefore, holy brethren, partakers of the heauenly vocation, * consider the Apostle and high Priest of our b profession, Christ Iesus:

2 Who was faithfull to him that hath appointed * him, euen as * Moses was in all his house.

3 For this man is counted worthie of more glorie then Moses, in as much as hee which hath builded the house, d hath more honour then the house.

4 For euery house is builded of some man, and he that hath built all things, is e God.

5 And Moses verily was faithfull in all his house, as a seruant, for a witnesse of the things which should be spoken after.

6 But Christ is as the Sonne, ouer his owne house, whose f house wee are, if wee holde fast the confidence, and the reioycing of the hope vnto the end.

7 Wherefore, as the holy Ghost saith, * To day if yee shall heare his voyce,

8 Harden not your hearts, as in the g prouocation, according to the day of the tentation in the wildernesse,

9 Where your fathers tempted me, prouoked mee, and saw my workes fourtie yeeres long.

10 Wherefore I was grieued with that generation, and sayd, They erre euer in their heart, neither haue they knowen my wayes.

11 Therefore I sware in my wrath, h If they shall enter into my i rest.

12 Take heede, brethren, lest at any time there be in any of you an euill heart, and vnfaithfull, to depart away from the liuing God.

13 But exhort one another dayly, while it is called k To day, least any of you be hardened through the deceitfulnesse of sinne.

14 For we are made partakers of Christ, if we keepe sure vnto the l ende the || beginning, wherewith we are vpholden, 15 So long as it is said, To day if yee heare his voice, harden not your hearts, as in the prouocation.

16 For some when they heard, prouoked m him to anger: howbeit, not all that came out of Egypt by Moses.

17 But with whom was hee displeased fourty yeeres? was hee not displeased with them that sinned, * whose || karkeises fell in the wildernesse?

18 And to whome sware hee that they should not enter into his rest, but vnto them that obeyed not?

19 So wee see that they could not enter in, because of vnbeliefe.

Let vs feare therefore, lest at any time by forsaking the promise of entring into his rest, any of you should seeme to bee depriued.

2 For vnto vs was the Gospel preached as also vnto them: but the word that they heard, profited not them, because it was not a mixed with faith in those that heard it.

3 For we which haue beleeued, doe enter into rest, as hee sayde to the other, * As I haue sworne in my wrath, If * they shall enter into my rest: although * the workes were finished from the foundation of the world.

4 For he spake in a certaine place of the seuenth day on this wise, * And God did rest the seuenth day from all his workes.

as God did from his.

11 Let vs studie therefore to enter into that rest, lest any man fall after the same ensample of disobedience.

12 For the worde of God is liuely, and mighty in operation, and sharper then any two edged sword, and g entereth through, euen vnto the dividing asunder of the h soule and the i spirit, and of the ioyntes, and the marowe, and is a discerner of the thoughts, and the intents of the heart.

13 Neither is there any creature, which is not manifest in his sight: but all things are naked and k open vnto his eyes, l with whom we haue to doe.

14 Seeing then that wee haue a great hie Priest, which is entred into heauen, euen Iesus the Sonne of God, let vs holde fast our profession.

15 For we haue not an hie Priest, which cannot bee touched with the feeling of our infirmities, but was in all things tempted in like sort, yet without sinne.

16 Let vs therefore goe boldly vnto the throne of grace, that we may receiue mercy, and find grace to helpe in time of neede.

CHAP. V.

*He compareth Iesus Christ with the Leuitical Priestes, shewing wherin they either agree, or dissent. 11 Afterward he reproueth the negligence of the Iewes.

FOr euery high Priest is taken from among men, and is a ordeyned for men, in things pertaining to God, that hee may offer both b giftes, and c sacrifices for sinnes,

2 Which is able sufficiently to haue compassion on them that are ignorant, and that are out of the way, because that hee also is compassed with infirmitie.

3 And for the same sake he is bound to offer for sinnes, as well for his owne part, as for the peoples.

4 And no man taketh this honour vnto himselfe, but he that is called of God, as was Aaron.

5 So likewise Christ tooke not to himselfe this honour, to be made the hie Priest: but hee that sayd vnto him, Thou art my sonne, this day begate I thee, gaue it him.

6 As hee also in another place speaketh, Thou art a Priest for euer after the order of Melchi-sedec.

7 Which in the d dayes of his flesh did offer vp prayers and supplications, with e strong crying and teares vnto him, that was able to saue him from death, and was also heard f in that which he feared.

8 And though hee were the Sonne, yet learned hee obedience, by the things which he suffered.

9 And being consecrate, was made the author of eternall saluation vnto all them that obey him:

10 And is called of God an hie Priest after the order of Melchi-sedec.

11 g Of whome we haue many things to say, which are hard to be vttered, because ye are dull of hearing.

12 For when as concerning the time yee ought to bee teachers, yet haue yee need againe that wee teach you the first *principles of the worde of God: and are become such as haue neede of a milke, and not of strong meate.

13 For euery one that vseth milke, is inexpert in the i word of righteousnesse: for he is a babe.

14 But strong meate belongeth to them that are of age, which through long custome haue their wittes exercised, to discerne both good and euill.

CHAP. VI.

1 *He proceedeth in reproouing them, & exhorteth them not to faint, 12 But to be stedfast & patient. 18 Forasmuch as God is sure in his promise.

THerefore leauing the doctrine of the a beginning of Christ, let vs be led forward vnto perfection, not laying againe the foundation b of repentance from dead workes, and of faith toward God,

2 Of the doctrine of c baptismes, and laying on of hands, & of the resurrection from the dead, and of eternall iudgement.

3 And this will we doe, if God permit.

4 For it is impossible that they, which were once lightened, and haue tasted of the heauenly gift, and were made partakers of the holy Ghost,

5 And haue tasted of the good worde of God, & of the powers of the world to come,

6 If they fall away, should be renewed againe by repentance: seeing they d crucifie againe to themselues the Sonne of God, and make a mocke of him.

7 For the earth which drinketh in the raine that commeth oft vpon it, and bringeth forth herbes meete for them by whom it is dressed, receiueth blessing of God.

8 But that which beareth thornes and briers, is reprooued, & is neere vnto cursing, whose end is to be burned.

9 But beloued, we haue perswaded our selues better things of you, and such as accompanie saluation, though we thus speake.

10 For God is not vnrighteous, that hee should forget your worke, and labour of loue, which ye haue shewed toward his Name, in that ye haue ministred vnto the Saints, and yet ministre.

11 And wee desire that euery one of you shew the same diligence, to the e full assurance of hope vnto the end, 12 That ye be not slouthfull, but followers of f them, which through faith and patience, inherite the promises.

13 For when God made the promise to Abraham, because hee had no greater to sweare by, he sware by himselfe, 14 Saying, Surely I will abundantly blesse thee and multiply thee marueilously.

15 And so after that hee had tarried patiently, he enioyed the promise.

17 So God willing more abundantly to shewe vnto the heires of promise the stablenes of his counsel, bound him selfe by an oth,

Which is heauen, whither Christ is gone before to prepare vs place.

CHAP. VII.

1 He compareth the Priesthood of Christ vnto Melchisedec, 12 Also Christes Priesthood with the Leuites.

FOr this Melchisedec* was King of Salem, the Priest of the most high God, who met Abraham, as hee returned from the slaughter of the Kings, and blessed him:

2 To whome also Abraham gaue the tithe of all things, who first is by interpretation King of righteousnesse: after that, hee is also King of Salem, that is, King of peace,

3 Without father, without mother, without kinred, and hath neither beginning of his dayes, neither ende of life: but is likened vnto the Sonne of God, and continueth a Priest for euer.

4 Now consider howe great this man was vnto whom euen the Patriarch Abraham gaue the tithe of the spoyles.

5 For verily they which are the children of Leui, which receiue the office of the Priesthood, haue a commandement to take according to the law, tithes of the people (that is, of their brethren) though they came out of the loynes of Abraham.

6 But hee whose kinred is not counted among them, receiued tithes of Abraham, and blessed him that had the promises.

7 And without al contradiction, the lesse is blessed of the greater.

8 And here men that die, receiue tithes: but there hee receiueth them, of whom it is witnessed, that he liueth.

9 And to say as the thing is, Leui also which receiueth tithes, payed tithes in Abraham.

10 For hee was yet in the loynes of his father Abraham, when Melchisedec met him.

11 If therefore perfection had bene by the Priesthoode of the Leuites (for vnder it the Lawe was established to the people) what needed it furthermore, that another Priesthood rise after the order of Melchisedec, and not to be called after the order of Aaron?

12 For if the Priesthood bee changed, then of necessitie must there be a change of the Law.

13 For hee of whom these things are spoken, pertaineth vnto another tribe, whereof no man serued at the altar.

14 For it is euident, that our Lord sprung out of Iuda, concerning the which tribe Moses spake nothing, touching the Priesthood.

15 And it is yet a more euident thing, because that after the similitude of Melchisedec, there is risen vp another Priest, 16 Which is not made Priest after the Lawe of the carnall commandement, but after the power of the endeles life.

17 For hee testifieth thus, Thou art a Priest for euer, after the order of Melchisedec.

18 For the commandement that went afore, is disanulled, because of the weakenesse thereof, and vnprofitablenesse.

19 For the Law made nothing perfite, but the bringing in of a better hope made perfite, whereby we draw neere vnto God.

20 And forasmuch as it is not without an othe (for these are made Priests without an othe:

21 But this, hee is made with an othe by him that sayd vnto him, The Lord hath sworne, and will not repent, Thou art a Priest for euer, after the order of Melchisedec.)

22 By so much is Iesus made a suretie of a better Testament.

23 And among them many were made Priests, because they were not suffered to endure, by the reason of death.

24 But this man, because he endureth euer, hath an euerlasting Priesthood.

25 Wherefore, he is able also perfectly to saue them that come vnto God by him, seeing hee euer liueth, to make intercession for them.

26 For such an high Priest it became vs to haue, which is holy, harmelesse, vndefiled, separate from sinners, and made higher then the heauens:

27 Which needed not daily as those high Priests, to offer vp sacrifice, first for his owne sinnes, & then for the peoples: for that did he once, when he offered vp himselfe.

28 For the Lawe maketh men high Priestes, which haue infirmitie: but the worde of the othe that was since the Law, maketh the Sonne, who is consecrated for euermore.

was first made after the Law was giuen: but because of that eternall othe was then reuciled vnto

CHAP. VIII.

1 He proueth the abolishing of all of the Leuiticall Priesthood, as of the old Couenant by the Priest all and euerlasting Priesthood of Christ, 8 And by the New couenant.

NOw of the things which we haue spoken, this is the summe, that we haue such an high Priest, that sitteth at the right hand of the throne of the Maiestie in heauens,

2 And is a minister of the Sanctuary, and a Because of mans wickednes, which will not beleeue God except he sweare.

b Gods word and othe are two things in him vnchangeable, & lie vnderneath to the comparison betweene Christes Priesthood and the Leuitical, which he had begun in the fift Chapter.

and of the true [b] Tabernacle, which the Lord pight, and not [c] man.

3 For [d] every high Priest is ordained to offer both gifts & sacrifices: wherefore it was of necessitie, that this man should have somewhat also to offer.

9 Not like the Testament that I made with their fathers, in the day that I tooke them by the hande, to leade them out of the lande of Egypt: for they [i] continued not in my Testament, and I regarded them not, saith the Lord.

10 For this is the Testament that I will make with the house of Israel, After those dayes saith the Lord, I will put my lawes in their minde, and in their heart I will write them, and I will bee their God, and they shall be my people:

11 And they shall not [k] teach euery man his neighbour, and euery man his brother, saying, Know the Lord, for all shall knowe mee, from the least of them to the greatest of them.

12 For I will bee mercifull to their vnrighteousnesse, and I will remember their sinnes and their iniquities no more.

CHAP. IX.

1 How that the ceremonies and sacrifices of the Law are abolished 11 by the eternall and perfection of Christs sacrifice.

Then the first ‖ Testament had also ‖ ordinances of religion, & a [a] worldly Sanctuarie.

2 For the first * Tabernacle was made, wherein was the candlesticke, and the table, and the shewbread, which Tabernacle is called the holy places.

3 And after the second vaile was the Tabernacle, which is called the holiest of all,

4 Which had the golden censer, and the Arke of the Testament ouerlayed rounde-bout with golde, wherein the golden potte which had Manna was, and * Aarons rod that had budded, and the [b] Tables of the Testament.

5 * And ouer the Arke were the glorious Cherubims, shadowing the [c] Mercie seate: of which things we will not now speake particularly.

6 Nowe when these things were thus ordeined, the Priestes went alwayes into the first Tabernacle, and accomplished the seruice.

7 But into the second went the * high Priest alone, once euery yeere, not without blood which hee offered for himselfe, and for the ‖ ignorances of the people,

8 Whereby the holy Ghost this signified, that the [d] way into the Holiest of all was not yet opened, while as yet the first tabernacle was standing,

10 Which only stood in meats & drinkes, and diuers washings, and * carnall rites, vntill the time of [g] reformation.

11 But Christ being come an hie Priest of good things to come, by a greater and a more perfect [h] Tabernacle, not made with hands, that is, not of this building,

15 And for this cause is he the Mediator of the new Testament, that through * death which was for the redemption of the transgressions that were in the [p] former Testament, they which were called might receiue the promise of eternall inheritance.

x without sinne vnto saluation.

CHAP. X.

1 The old Law had no power to cleanse away sinne, 10 but Christ did it with offring of his body once for all. 22 An exhortation to receiue the goodnesse of God thankfully, with patience and stedfast faith.

FOr the * Law hauing the a shadow of good things to b come, and not the very ‖ image of the things, can neuer with those sacrifices which they offer yeere by yeere continually, ‖ sanctifie the commers thereunto.

2 For would they not then haue ceased to haue bene offred, because that the offerers once purged, should haue had no more conscience of sinnes?

3 But in those sacrifices there is a remembrance againe of sinnes euery yeere.

4 For it is vnpossible that the blood of buls and goates should * take away sinnes.

5 Wherefore when hee c commeth into the world, he saieth, * Sacrifice and offering thou wouldest not: but a d body hast thou obtained me.

6 In burnt offerings, and sinne offerings thou hast had no pleasure.

7 Then I said, Lo, I come, (In the beginning of the * booke it is written of me) that I should do thy will, O God.

8 Aboue when he said, Sacrifice and offering, and burnt offerings, and sinne offerings thou wouldest not haue, neither hadst pleasure therein (which are offered by the Law.)

9 Then said he, Lo, I come to doe thy will, O God, he taketh away e the first, that he may establish the f second.

10 By the which will we are sanctified, euen by the offering of the body of Iesus
Christ once made.

11 And euery Priest appeareth daily ministring, and oft times offereth one maner of offering, which can neuer take away sinnes:

12 But this man after he had offered one sacrifice for sinnes, * sitteth for euer at the right hand of God,

13 And from henceforth tarieth * till his enemies be made his footestoole.

14 For with one offering hath h he consecrated for euer them that are sanctified.

15 For the holy Ghost also beareth vs record: for after that he had said before,

16 * This is the Testament that I will make vnto them, After those dayes, saith the Lord, I will put my lawes in their heart, and in their minds I will write them,

17 And their sinnes and iniquities will I remember no more.

18 Now where i remission of these things is, there is no more k offering for sinne.

19 Seeing therefore brethren, that by the blood of Iesus we l may be bold to enter into the holy place,

20 By the new, and m liuing way, which he hath prepared for vs, through the vaile, that is, his flesh:

21 And seeing we haue an high Priest, which is ouer the house of God,

22 Let vs draw neere with a true heart in assurance of faith, n sprinkled in our hearts from an euill conscience, and washed in our bodies with pure water.

23 Let vs keepe the profession of our hope without wauering (for hee is faithfull that promised.)

24 And let vs consider one another, to prouoke vnto loue, and to good workes,

25 Not forsaking the fellowship that we haue among our selues as the manner of some is: but let vs exhort one another, and that so much the more, because ye see that the o day draweth neere.

26 * For if we sinne p willingly after that wee haue receiued the knowledge of the truth, there remaineth no more sacrifice for sinnes,

27 But a fearefull looking for of iudge-ment, and violent fire, which shall deuoure the aduersaries.

28 He that despiseth Moses lawe, dieth ses.

31 It is a fearefull thing to fall into the hands of the liuing God.

32 Nowe call to remembrance the dayes that are passed, in the which, after ye had receiued light, yee endured a great fight of afflictions.

33 Partly whilst ye were made a gazing stocke both by reproches & afflictions, and partly whilst ye became companions of them which were r so vsed to and fro.

34 For both yee sorowed with me for my bonds, and suffered with ioy the spoyling of your goods, knowing in your selues howe that ye haue in heauen a better and an enduring substance.

35 Cast not away therefore your confidence which hath great recompence of reward.

36 For ye haue needs of patience, that after ye haue done the will of God, yee might receiue the promise.

37 For yet a very little while, and he that shall come, will come, and will not tary.

38 * Now the iust shall liue by faith: but if any withdraw himselfe, my soule shall haue no pleasure in him.

39 But we are not they which withdraw our selues vnto perdition, but follow faith vnto the conseruation of the soule.

CHAP. XI.

1 What faith is, and a commendation of the same. 9 Without faith we cannot please God. 16 The stedfast belefe of the fathers in old time.

NOw faith is the ground of things which are hoped for, and the euidence of things which are not seene.

2 For by it our Elders were well reported of.

3 * Through faith we vnderstande that the world was ordeined by the word of God, so that the things which were see, are not made of things which did * appeare.

4 By faith Abel * offered vnto God a greater sacrifice then Cain, * by * the which he obtained witnes that he was [a] righteous, God testifying of his gifres: by the which faith also, he being dead, yet * speaketh.

5 By faith was * [e] Enoch taken away, that he should not see death: neither was he founde, for God had taken him away: for before he was taken away, he was reported of, that he had pleased God.

6 But without faith it is impossible to please him: for hee that commeth to God, must beleeue that God is, and that hee is a rewarder of them that seeke him.

7 By faith * Noe being warned of God of the things which were as yet not seene, moued with reuerence, prepared the Arke to the sauing of his household, through the which Arke he condemned the world, & was made heire of the righteousnesse, which is by faith.

8 By faith * Abraham, when he was called, obeyed God, to go out into a place, which he should afterward receiue for inheritance, and he went out, not knowing whither hee went.

9 By faith he abode in the lande of promise, as in a strange country, as one that dwelt in tents with Isaac and Jacob heires with him of the same promise.

10 For hee looked for a citie hauing a [b] foundation, whose builder & maker is God.

11 Through faith * Sarra also receiued strength to conceiue seed, and was deliuered of a childe when she was past age, because shee iudged him faithfull which had promised.

12 And therefore sprang there of one, euen of one which was [i] dead, so many as * the starres of the skie in multitude, and as the sand of the sea shore which is innumerable.

13 All these died in faith, and [k] receiued not the promises, but saw them [l] a farre off, and beleeued them, and receiued them thankfully, & confessed that they were = strangers and pilgrims on the earth.

14 For they that say such things, declare plainely that they seeke a country.

15 And if they had been mindfull of that country, from whence they came out, [m] they had leasure to haue returned.

16 But now they desire a better, that is, an heauenly: wherefore God is not ashamed of them to be called their God: for hee hath prepared for them a citie.

17 By faith * Abraham offered vp Isaac, when he * was tried, and he that had receiued the promises, offered his onely begotten sonne.

18 (To whom it was said, * In Isaac shal thy seed be called.)

19 For he considered that God was able to raise him vp euen from the dead: from whence he receiued him also after a sort.

20 By faith, * Isaac blessed Jacob and Esau, concerning things to come.

21 By faith, * Jacob when he was a dying, blessed both the sonnes of Joseph, and * leaning on the end of his staffe, worshipped God.

22 By faith * Joseph when he died, made mention of the departing of the children of Israel, & gaue commandement of his bones.

23 * By faith Moses when he was borne, was hid three monethes of his parents, because they saw he was a proper child, neither feared they the Kings * commaundement.

24 By faith * Moses when he was come to age, refused to be called the sonne of Pharaohs daughter,

25 And chose rather to suffer aduersitie with the people of God, then to inioy the [n] pleasures

26 Esteeming the reproche of Christ greater riches then the treasures of Egypt: for he had respect vnto the recompence of the reward.

27 By faith hee forsooke Egypt, & feared not the fiercenesse of the king: for he endured as he that saw him which is inuisible.

28 Through faith he ordeined the Passeouer and the effusion of bloud, lest he that destroyed the first borne, should touch them.

30 By faith the walles of Ierisho fell downe, after they were compassed about seuen dayes.

31 By faith the harlot Rahab perished not with them which obeyed not, when she had receiued the spies peaceably.

32 And what shall I more say? for the time would be too short for me to tell of Gedeon, of Barak, and of Samson, and of Iephte, also of Dauid, and Samuel, and of the Prophets:

33 Which through faith subdued kingdomes, wrought righteousnesse, obtained the promises, stopped the mouthes of Lyons, 34 Quenched the violence of fire, escaped the edge of the sword, of weake were made strong, waxed valiant in battell, turned to flight the armies of the aliants.

35 The women receiued their dead raised to life againe: the rest were racked, and would not be deliuered, that they might receiue a better resurrection.

36 And others haue been tryed by mockings & scourgings, yea, moreouer by bonds and imprisonment.

37 They were stoned, they were hewen asunder, they were tempted, they were slaine with the sworde, they wandred vp & downe in sheepes skins, and in goates skinnes, being destitute, afflicted, and tormented:

38 (Of whom the world was not worthy:) they wandred in wildernesses, and mountaines, and dennes, and caues of the earth.

39 And these all through faith obtained good report, and receiued not the promise, Exod. 19. 13.

3 Consider therefore him that endured such speaking against of sinners, lest ye should be wearied, and faint in your mindes.

4 Ye haue not yet resisted vnto bloud, striuing against sinne.

5 And ye haue forgotten the consolation, which speaketh vnto you as vnto children, My sonne, despise not the chastening of the Lord, neither faint when thou art rebuked of him.

6 For whom the Lord loueth, he chastneth: and he scourgeth euery sonne that he receiueth.

7 If ye endure chastening, God offereth himselfe vnto you as vnto sonnes: for what sonne is it whom the father chasteneth not?

8 If therefore ye be without correction, whereof all are partakers, then are ye bastards, and not sonnes.

9 Moreouer we haue had the fathers of our bodies which corrected vs, & we gaue them reuerence: should we not much rather be in subiection vnto the Father of spirits, that we may liue?

10 For they verely for a few dayes chastened vs after their owne pleasure: but he chastneth vs for our profite, that we might be partakers of his holinesse.

11 Now no chastising for the present seemeth to be ioyous, but grieuous: but afterward, it bringeth the quiet fruite of righteousnesse, vnto them which are therby exercised.

12 Wherefore lift vp your handes which hang downe, and your feeble knees, 13 And make straight steps vnto your feet, lest a that which is halting, bee turned out of the way, but let it rather be healed.

14 Follow peace with all men, and holinesse, without the which no man shall see the Lord.

15 Take heede, that no man fall away from the grace of God: let no root of bitternesse spring vp and trouble you, lest therby many be defiled.

16 Let there bee no fornicator, or prophane person as Esau, which for a portion of meate sold his birthright.

17 For ye know how that afterwards also when he would haue inherited the blessing, he was reiected: for he found no place to repentance, though he sought the blessing with teares.

18 For ye cannot come vnto the mount that might be touched, nor vnto burning fire, nor to blacknesse, and darknesse, and tempest,

19 And the sound of a trumpet, and the voyce of wordes, which they that heard it, refused them more, that the word should not be spoken to them any more.

20 For they were not able to abide that which was commanded. Yea, though a beast touch the mountaine, it shall be stoned or thrust through with a dart.

21 And so terrible was the sight which appeareth, that those things which cannot be shaken, may remaine.

28 Wherefore seeing we receiue a kingdome, which cannot be shaken, let us haue grace, whereby we may serue God, that we may please him with reuerence & feare.

29 For our God is a consuming fire.

CHAP. XIII.

He exhorteth vs to loue, 2 To hospitalitie, 3 To thinke vpon such as be in aduersitie, 4 To maintaine wedlocke, 5 To auoyd couetousnes, 7 To make much of them that preach Gods word, 9 To beware of strange learning, 13 To be content to suffer rebuke with Christ, 15 To giue thankefull vnto God, 17 And obedient vnto our gouernors.

LEt brotherly loue continue.

2 Be not forgetful to lodge strangers: for thereby some haue receiued Angels into their houses vnawares.

3 Remember them that are in bonds, as though ye were bound with them: and them that are in affliction, as if ye were also afflicted in the body.

4 Marriage is honourable among all, and the bed vndefiled: but whoremongers and adulterers God will iudge.

5 Let your conuersation be without couetousnes, and be content with such things as ye haue: for he hath said, I will not faile thee, neither forsake thee.

6 So that we may boldly say, The Lord is mine helper, I will not feare what man can doe vnto me.

7 Remember them which haue the ouersight of you, which haue spoken vnto you the word of God: whose faith follow, considering the end of their conuersation.

8 Iesus Christ the same yesterday, and to day, the same also is for euer.

9 Be not carried about with diuers and strange doctrines: for it is a good thing that the heart be established with grace, and not with meates, which haue not profited them that haue been occupied therein.

10 We haue an altar, whereof they haue no authoritie to eate, which serue in the tabernacle.

11 For the bodies of those beasts whose blood is brought into the holy place by the high Priest for sinne, are burnt without the campe.

12 Wherefore euen Iesus, that he might sanctifie the people with his owne blood, suffered without the gate.

13 Let vs goe forth therefore vnto him without the campe, bearing his reproch.

14 For here haue we no continuing citie, but we seeke one to come.

15 Let vs therefore by him offer the sacrifice of praise alwayes to God, that is, the fruite of the lippes, which confesse his Name.

16 To doo good and to distribute, forget not: for with such sacrifices God is pleased.

17 Obey them that haue the ouersight of you, and submit your selues: for they watch for your soules, as they that must giue accounts, that they may doe it with ioy, and not with griefe: for that is vnprofitable for you.

18 Pray for vs: for we are assured that we haue a good conscience in all things, desiring to liue honestly.

19 And I desire you exceedingly that I may be restored to you more quickly.

20 The God of peace that brought againe from the dead our Lorde Iesus, the great Shepheard of the sheepe, through the blood of the euerlasting Couenant, 21 Make you perfect in all good workes, to doe his will, working in you that which is pleasant in his sight, through Iesus Christ, to whom be praise for euer and euer. Amen.

22 I beseech you also, brethren, suffer the words of exhortation: for I haue written vnto you in few words.

23 Know that our brother Timotheus is deliuered, with whom (if he come shortly) I will see you.

24 Salute all them that haue the ouersight of you, and all the Saints. They of Italie salute you.

25 Grace be with you all. Amen.

CHAP. I.

1 He exhorteth to rejoice in trouble, 6 To be fervent in prayer with stedfast belief, 17 To look for all good things from above, 21 To lay aside all vice, & thank fully to receive the word of God, 22 & to be doers of it, 26 & not deceived by hearing only, 27 & to do thereafter indeed. 27 What true religion is.

JAmes a servant of God, and of the Lord Jesus Christ, to the twelve Tribes which are scattered abroad, salutation.

2 My brethren, count it exceeding joy, when ye fall into diuers a temptations;

3 Knowing that the b trying of your faith bringeth forth patience.

4 And let patience have her c perfect worke, that ye may be perfect and entire, lacking nothing.

5 If any of you lacke wisedome, let him aske of God, (which giueth to all men liberally, and reproacheth no man,) and it shall be giuen him.

6 But let him aske in faith, and waver not: for he that wauereth, is like a waue of the sea, tost of the winde and carried away.

7 For let not that man thinke that he shall receiue any thing of the Lord.

8 A d wauering minded man is vnstable in all his waies.

9 Let the brother of low degree reioyce in that he is exalted:

10 Againe he that is rich, in that he is made e low: for as the flowre of the grasse shall he e passe away.

11 For as when the sunne riseth with heate, then the grasse withereth, and his flower falleth away, and the beauty of the fashion of it perisheth: euen so shall the rich man fade away in all his f waies.

12 Blessed is the man that endureth tentation: for when he is tried, he shall receiue the crowne of life, which the Lord hath promised to them that loue him.

13 Let no man say when he is g tempted, I am tempted of God: for God cannot be tempted with euill, neither tempteth he any man.

14 But euery man is tempted, when he is drawen away by his owne concupiscence and is enticed.

15 Then when lust hath conceiued, it bringeth forth sinne, and sinne when it is finished, bringeth forth death.

16 Erre not my deare brethren.

17 Euery good h giuing, & euery perfect gift is from aboue, & commeth downe from the Father of lights, with whom is no i variablenesse, neither shadowing by turning.

18 Of his owne will begate he vs by k the word of truth, that we should be as the first fruites of his creatures.

19 Wherefore my deare brethren, l let euery man be swift to heare, slow to speake, and slow to wrath.

20 For the wrath of man worketh not the m righteousnesse of God.

21 Wherefore lay apart all filthinesse, and superfluity of naughtinesse, and receiue with meekenesse the worde that is n grafted in you, which is able to saue your soules.

22 But be ye doers of the worde, and not hearers onely, deceiuing your owne selues.

23 For if any heare the worde, and doe it not, he is like vnto a man, that beholdeth his naturall face in a o glasse.

24 For when he hath considered himselfe, he goeth his way, and forgetteth immediately what manner of one he was.

25 But whoso looketh in the perfect Law of liberty, and continueth therein, (her not being a forgetful hearer, but a doer of the p worke,) shalbe blessed q in his deed.

26 If any man among you seemeth religious, and refraineth not his tongue, but deceiueth his owne heart, this mans religion is vaine.

27 Pure religion r vndefiled before God, euen the Father, is this, to visite the fatherlesse and widowes in their aduersitie, and to keepe himselfe vnspotted of the world.

CHAP. II.

1 He forbiddeth to haue any respect of person, 5 But to regard the poore as well as the rich. 8 To be louing and mercifull, 14 And not to boast of faith, where no deedes are: 19 For it is but a dead faith, where good workes follow not.

MY brethren, haue not the faith of our glorious Lord Iesus Christ s in respect of persons.

2 For if there come into your congregation a man with a golde ring, and in goodly apparell, and there come in also a poore man in vile raiment,

3 And ye haue a respect to him that weareth the gay clothing, and say vnto him, Sit thou here in a good place, and say vnto the poore, Stande thou there, or sit here vnder my footestoole,

4 Are ye not partiall in your selues, and are become iudges of euil thoughts?

5 Harken my beloued brethren, hath not t God chosen the poore of this world, that they should be rich in faith, and heires of the kingdome which he promised to them that loue him?

6 But ye haue despised the poore. Do not the rich oppresse you by tyranny, and not they draw you before the iudgement seates?

7 Doe not they blaspheme the u worthy Name after which ye be named?

8 But if ye fulfill the x royall law according to the Scripture, which saith, Thou shalt loue thy neighbour as thy selfe, ye do well.

and yet offend in one, he is guilty of all.

11 For he that said, Thou shalt not commit adultery, said also, Thou shalt not kill. Now though thou doest none adultery, yet if thou killest, thou art a transgressour of the Law.

12 So speake ye, and so doe, as they that shall be iudged by the [f] Law of liberty.

13 For he shall iudge without mercie to him that hath shewed no mercie, and mercie reioyceth against iudgement.

14 What auaileth it my brethren, though a man saith he hath [g] faith, when he hath no workes? can the faith saue him?

15 For if a brother or a sister be naked and destitute of daily food,

16 And one of you say vnto them, Depart in peace: warme your selues, and fill your bellies, notwithstanding ye giue them not those things which are needfull to the body, what helpeth it?

17 Euen so the faith, if it haue no workes, is dead in it selfe.

18 But some man might say, Thou hast [i] the faith, and I haue workes: shew me thy faith out of thy [k] workes, and I will shew thee my faith by my workes.

19 Thou beleeuest that there is one God: thou doest well: the deuils also beleeue it, and tremble.

20 But wilt thou vnderstand, O thou vaine man, that the faith which is without workes is dead?

21 Was not Abraham our father iustified through workes, when he offered Isaac his sonne vpon the altar?

22 Seest thou not that the faith wrought with his workes? and through the workes was the faith made [l] perfect?

23 And the Scripture was fulfilled which saith, [m] Abraham beleeued God, and it was imputed vnto him for righteousnesse, and he was called the friend of God.

24 Ye see then how that of workes a man is [n] iustified, and not [o] of faith only.

25 Likewise also was not [p] Rahab the harlot iustified through workes, when she had receiued the messengers, and had sent them out another way?

26 For as the body without the spirit is dead, euen so the faith without workes is dead.

CHAP. III.

1 He forbiddeth all meddling to seek honor aboue our brethren. 3 He describeth the properties of the tong. 13, 14, 16 and what difference there is betweene the wisedome of God, & the wisedome of the world.

MY brethren, be not many masters, knowing that we shall receiue the greater condemnation.

2 For in many things we offend all. If any man offend not in [a] word, he is a perfite man, and able to bridle all the body.

3 Behold, we put bits into the horses mouthes, that they should obey vs, and we turne about all their body.

4 Beyond all the rest, which though they bee so great, and are driuen of fierce windes, yet are they turned about with a very small rudder, whithersoeuer the gouernour listeth.

5 Euen so the tongue is a little member, and boasteth of great things: behold, how great a thing a little fire kindleth.

6 And the tongue is fire, yea, a [b] world of wickednesse: so is the tongue set among our members, that it defileth [c] whole body, and [d] setteth on fire the course of nature, and it is set on fire of hell.

7 For the whole nature of beasts, and of birds, and of creeping things, and things of the sea is tamed, and hath been tamed of the nature of man.

8 But the tongue can no man tame. It is an vnruly euill, full of deadly poyson.

9 Therewith blesse we God euen the father, and therewith curse we men, which are made after the similitude of God.

10 Out of one mouth proceedeth blessing and cursing: my brethren, these things ought not so to be.

11 Doeth a fountaine send foorth at one place sweete water and bitter?

12 Can the figtree, my brethren, bring foorth oliues, either a vine figs? so can no fountaine make both salt water and sweete.

13 Who is a wise man and endued with knowledge among you? let him shewe by good conuersation his workes in meeknesse of wisedome.

14 But if ye haue bitter enuying, and strife in your hearts, reioyce not, neither be lyars against the truth.

15 This wisedome descendeth not from aboue, but is earthly, sensuall, and deuilish.

16 For where enuying and strife is, there is fickelnesse, and all manner of euill workes.

17 But the wisedome that is from aboue, is first [e] pure, then peaceable, gentle, easie to bee intreated, full of mercie and good fruits, without [f] iudging, and without hypocrisie.

18 And the [g] fruite of righteousnesse is sowen in peace, of them that make peace.

CHAP. IIII.

1 Hauing shewed the cause of all euill, and withall how to vse all the gifts and graces of God, 11 He reproueth them to vse God, 7 and submit themselues to him, 11 Not speaking euill of others, 13 nor boasting of the time to come, 15 but referring all to Gods prouidence.

FRom whence are warres & contentions among you? are they not hence, euen of your lusts, that fight in your members?

2 Ye lust, and haue not: ye enuie, & haue indignation, and cannot obtaine: yet fight and q He that well considereth himselfe, shall not be rigorous to ward his brethren. Eccles. 14.1. and 19.16. and 25.8.

and warre, and get nothing, because ye aske not.

3 Ye aske and receiue not, because ye aske amisse, that ye might consume it on your lusts.

4 Ye adulterers and [b]adulteresses, know ye not that the amitie of the world is the enmitie of God? * Whosoeuer therefore will be a friend of the world, maketh himselfe the enemy of God.

5 Doe ye thinke that the Scripture saith in vaine, The [c] spirit that dwelleth in vs, lusteth after enuy?

6 But the Scripture offereth more grace, and therefore saith, * God resisteth the proud, and giueth grace to the humble.

7 * Submit your selues to God: resist the deuill, and he will flee from you.

8 Draw neere to God, and he will draw neere to you. Cleanse your hands, ye sinners, and purge your hearts, ye wauering minded.

9 Suffer afflictions, and [d] sorow ye, and weepe: let your laughter bee turned into mourning, and your ioy into heauinesse.

10 * Cast downe your selues before the Lord, and he will lift you vp.

11 Speake not euill one of another, brethren. He that speaketh euill of his brother, or he that condemneth his brother, speaketh euill of the Law, and * condemneth the Law: and if thou condemnest the Law, thou art not an obseruer of the Law, but a iudge.

12 There is one [f] Lawgiuer, which is able to saue, and to destroy. * Who art thou that iudgest another man?

13 Goe to now ye that say, [g] To day or to morow we will goe into such a citie, and continue there a yeere, and buy and sell, and get gaine,

14 (And yet ye cannot tell what shall be on morow. For what is your life? It is euen a vapour that appeareth for a little time, and afterward vanisheth away)

15 For that ye ought to say, * If the Lord will, and, If we liue, wee will doe this or that.

16 But now ye reioyce in your boastings: all such reioycing is euill.

17 Therefore, [h] to him that knoweth how to doe well, and doeth it not, to him it is sinne.

CHAP. V.

1 He threatneth the wicked rich men, 7 exhorteth vnto patience, 12 to beware of swearing, 16 one to knowledge his faults to another, 20 and one to labour to bring another to the truth.

GOe to now, ye rich men: weepe, and [a] howle for your miseries that shall come vpon you.

2 Your riches are corrupte, and your garments are motheaten.

3 Your golde and siluer is canckered, and the rust of them shall be a [b] witnesse against you, and shall eate your flesh as it were fire.

* Prouide [c] treasure against the last dayes.

4 Behold, the hire of the labourers, which haue reaped your fieldes (which is of you kept backe by fraud) crieth, and the cries of them which haue reaped, are entred into the eares of the Lord of hosts.

5 Ye haue liued in pleasure on the earth, and been wanton: Ye haue nourished your hearts, as in a day of [d] slaughter.

6 Ye haue condemned & haue killed the iust, and he hath not resisted you.

7 Bee patient therefore, brethren, vnto the comming of the Lorde. Behold, the husbandman waiteth for the precious fruit of the earth, and hath long patience for it, vntill he receiue the * former and the latter raine.

8 Be ye also patient therefore, and settle your hearts: for the comming of the Lord draweth neere.

9 [f] Grudge not one against another, brethren, least ye be condemned: behold, the iudge standeth before the doore.

10 Take, my brethren, the Prophets for an ensample of suffering aduersitie, & of long patience, which haue spoken in the Name of the Lord.

11 Behold, we count them blessed which endure. Ye haue heard of the patience of Iob, and haue knowen what ende the Lord made. For the Lord is very pitifull and mercifull.

12 But before all things, my brethren, * sweare not, neither by heauen, nor by earth, nor by any other othe: but let your [g] yea, be yea, and your nay, nay, least ye fall into [i] condemnation.

13 Is any among you afflicted? Let him pray. Is any merry? let him sing.

14 Is any sicke among you? Let him call for the * Elders of the Church, and let them pray for him, and anoynt him with * oile in the [k] Name of the Lord.

15 And the prayer of faith shall saue the sicke, and the Lord shall raise him vp: and if he haue committed sinne, it shall be forgiuen him.

16 Acknowledge [l] your faults one to another, and pray one for another, that ye may bee healed: for the prayer of a righteous man auayleth much, if it be feruent.

17 * Helias was a man subiect to like passions as we are, and he prayed earnestly that it might not raine, and it rained not on the earth for three yeeres and sixe moneths.

18 And he prayed againe, and the heauen gaue raine, and the earth brought forth her fruit.

19 Brethren, if any of you haue erred from the truth, and some man hath conuerted him, 20 Let him know that he which hath conuerted the sinner from going astray out of his way, shall saue a soule from death, and shall hide a multitude of sinnes.

The first Epistle generall of Peter.

THE ARGVMENT.

He exhorteth the faithfull to denie themselues, and to contemne the world, that being deliuered from all carnall affections and impediments, they may more speedily attaine to the heauenly kingdome of Christ, whereunto wee are called by the grace of God reuciled to vs in his Sonne, and haue already receiued it by faith, possessed it by hope, and are therein confirmed by holinesse of life. And to the intent this faith should not faint, seeing Christ contemned and reiected almost of the whole world, he declareth that this is nothing els but the accomplishing of the Scriptures which testifie that he should be the stumbling stone to the reprobate, and the sure foundation of saluation to the faithfull: therefore he exhorteth them courageously to goe forward, considering what they were, and to what dignitie God hath called them. After, he entreateth particular points, teaching subiects how to obey their gouernours, and seruants their masters, and how married folkes ought to behaue themselues. And, because it is appointed for all that are godly to suffer persecutions, he sheweth them what good issue their afflictions shal haue, and contrariwise what punishment God reserueth for the wicked. Last of all, he teacheth how the ministers ought to behaue themselues, forbidding them to vsurpe authoritie ouer the Church: also that yong men ought to be modest, and apt to learne, and so endeth with an exhortation.

CHAP. I.

1 He sheweth that through the abundant mercy of God we are elect and regenerate to a liuely hope. 7 and how faith must be tried, 10 that the saluation of Christ is no newes, but a thing prophesied of old. 13 He exhorteth them to a godly conuersation, forasmuch as they are now borne anew by the word of God.

PETER an Apostle of Iesus Christ, to the strangers that dwel here and there throwout Pontus, Galatia, Cappadocia, Asia, and Bithynia,

2 Elect according to the foreknowledge of God the Father vnto sanctification of the spirit, through obedience and sprinkling of the blood of Iesus Christ: Grace and peace be multiplied vnto you.

3 Blessed be God euen the Father of our Lord Iesus Christ, which according to his abundant mercy hath begotten vs againe vnto a liuely hope by the resurrection of Iesus Christ from the dead,

4 To an inheritance immortall and vndefiled, and that fadeth not away, reserued in heauen for you,

5 Which are kept by the power of God, through faith vnto saluation, which is prepared to be reuealed in the last time:

6 Wherein ye reioice, though now for a season (if need require) ye are in heauinesse, through manifold temptations,

7 That the tryall of your faith, being much more precious then golde that perisheth (though it be tryed with fire) might be found vnto your prayse, and honour, and glory, at the appearing of Iesus Christ:

8 Whom ye haue not seene, and yet loue him, in whom now, though ye see him not, yet doe you beleeue, and reioice with ioy vnspeakable and glorious,

9 Receiuing the end of your faith, euen the saluation of your soules.

10 Of the which saluation the Prophets haue enquired and searched, which prophesied of the grace that should come vnto you,

11 Searching when or what time the spirit which testified before of Christ which was in them, should declare the sufferings that should come vnto Christ, and the glory that should follow.

12 Vnto whom it was reuealed, that not vnto themselues, but vnto vs they should minister the things that are now shewed vnto you by them which haue preached vnto you the Gospel by the holy Ghost sent downe from heauen, the which things the Angels desire to behold.

13 Wherefore, gird vp the loines of your minde; be sober, and trust perfectly on the grace that is brought vnto you, by the reuelation of Iesus Christ,

14 As obedient children, not fashioning your selues vnto the former lustes of your ignorance:

15 But as hee which hath called you, is holy, so be ye holy in all manner of conuersation, 16 Because it is written, Be ye holy, for I am holy.

17 And if ye call him Father, which without respect of person iudgeth according to euery mans worke, passe the time of your dwelling here in feare,

18 Knowing that ye were not redeemed with corruptible things, as siluer and golde, from your vaine conuersation, receiued by the traditions of the fathers,

19 But with the precious bloud of Christ, as of a Lambe vndefiled, and without spot,

20 Which was ordeined before the foundation of the world, but was declared in the last times for your sakes,

21 Which by his meanes doe beleeue in God that raysed him from the dead, and gaue him glory, that your faith and hope might

7 * Likewise yee husbands dwell with them as men of b knowledge, c giuing honour vnto the woman, as vnto the weaker vessell, euen as they which are d heires together of the grace of life; that your e prayers be not interrupted.

8 Finally be ye all of one mind: one suffer with another: loue as brethren: be pitifull: be courteous,

9 * Not rendring euill for euill, neither rebuke for rebuke: but contrariwise blesse, knowing that ye are thereunto called, that ye should be f heires of blessing.

10 * For if any man long after life, and to see good dayes, let him refrayne his tongue from euill, and his lippes that they speake no guile.

11 * Let him eschewe euill and doe good: let him seeke peace and follow after it.

12 For the eyes of the Lord are ouer the righteous, and his eares are open vnto their prayers: and the face of the Lord is vpon them that doe euill.

13 And who is it that will harme you, if ye follow that which is good?

14 * Notwithstanding blessed are ye, if ye suffer for righteousnes sake. Feare, h feare not their feare, neither be troubled.

15 * But i sanctifie the Lord God in your hearts: and be ready alwayes to giue an answere to euery man that asketh you a reason of the hope that is in you,

16 * And that with meekenesse and reuerence, hauing a good conscience, that when they speake euill of you as of euill doers, they may bee ashamed, which blame your good conuersation in Christ.

17 For it is better (if the will of God be so) that ye suffer for well doing, then for euill doing.

18 * For Christ also hath once suffered for sinnes, the iust for the vniust, that he might bring vs to God, and was put to death concerning the flesh, but was quickened in the k spirit.

19 By the which he also went and preached vnto the spirits that are in prison, 20 Which were in time past disobedient, when once the long suffering of God abode in the dayes of * Noe, while the Arke was preparing, wherein fewe, that is, eight soules were saued in the water.

21 To the which also the figure that now saueth vs, euen Baptisme agreeth (not the putting away of the filth of the flesh, but the l that a good conscience maketh request to God) by the resurrection of Iesus Christ.

CHAP. III.

1 He exhorteth men to cease from sinne. 3 To spend no more time in vice. 7 To be sober and apt to pray. 8 To loue each other. 12 To bee patient in trouble. 15 To beware that no man suffer as an euill doer. 16 But as a Christian man, and so not to be ashamed.

FOrasmuch then as Christ hath suffered for vs in the flesh, arme your selues likewise with the same a minde, which is, that he which hath suffered in the flesh, hath ceased from sinne,

2 That he henceforward should liue (as much time as remaineth in the ‖ flesh) not after the lusts of men, but after the will of God.

3 * For it is sufficient for vs that we haue spent the time past of the life, after the lust of the Gentiles, walking in wantonnesse, lusts, drunkennesse, in gluttony, drinkings, and in abominable idolatries.

4 Wherein it seemeth to them strange, that ye runne not with them vnto the same excesse of riot: therefore speake they euill of you.

5 Which shal giue accounte to him, that is ready to iudge quicke and dead.

6 For vnto this purpose was the Gospel preached also vnto the b dead, that they might be condemned according to men, in the flesh, but might liue according to God, in the spirit.

7 Now the end of all things is at hand. Bee yee therefore sober, and watching in prayer.

8 But aboue all things haue feruent loue among you: * for c loue couereth the multitude of sinnes.

9 * Be ye harborous one to another without grudging.

10 * Let euery man, as he hath receiued the gift, minister the same one to another, as good d dispensers of the manifold grace of God.

11 If any man speake, let him talke as the wordes of God. If any man minister, let him doe it as of the abilitie which God ministreth, that God in all things may be glorified through Iesus Christ, to whom is prayse and dominion for euer and euer, Amen.

12 Dearely beloued, thinke it not strange concerning the fiery tryall, which is among you, to proue you, as though some strange thing were come vnto you:

13 But reioyce, in as much as yee are partakers of Christs sufferings, that when his glory shall appeare, ye may be glad and reioyce.

14 * If yee be rayled vpon for the name of Christ, blessed are you: for the spirit of glorie and of God, resteth vpon you: which on their ‖ part is euill spoken of: but on your part is glorified.

15 But let none of you suffer as a murtherer, or as a theefe, or as an euill doer, or as a busie bodye in other mens matters.

16 But if any man suffer as a Christian, let him not be ashamed: but let him glorifie God in this behalfe.

17 For a Our sanctification standeth in two poynts, in dying to sinne, and liuing to God.

‖ Or, body. Ephes. 4. 22.

b Although the wicked thinke this Gospel new, and vexe you that imbrace it: yet hath it been preached to them of time past, which now are dead, to the intent that they might haue been condemned, or dead to sinne in the flesh, and also might haue liued to God in the spirit, which two are the effect of the Gospel.

Prou. 10 12.

c As hate moueth vs to reproch our brother when hee offendeth vs: so loue kideth and pardoneth the faults which be committeth against vs, though they be neuer so many.

Rom. 12. 13. heb. 13. 2. 1. Pet. 4. 8. Iam. 5. 20.

d That is, by the infidels.

17 For the time is come, that ‖ iudgement must begin at * the house of God. If it first begin at vs, what shall the ende be of them which obey not the Gospel of God?

18 * And if the righteous scarcely be saued, where shall the vngodly and the sinner appeare?

19 Wherefore let them that suffer according to the will of God, commit their soules to him in well doing, as vnto a faithfull Creator.

CHAP. V.

1 The duety of Pastours is to feede the flocke of Christ, and what reward they shall haue if they be diligent. 5 He exhorteth yong persons to submit themselues to the Elders, 8 To be sober, and to watch that they may resist the enemie.

THe * Elders which are among you, I beseech which am also an Elder, and a witnesse of the sufferings of Christ, and also a partaker of the glory that shall be reuealed,

2 Feede the flocke of ‖ God, which is dependeth vpon you, caring for it not by constraint, but willingly: not for filthie lucre, but of a ready mind:

3 Not as though yee were lordes ouer Gods heritage, but that ye may be examples to the flocke.

4 And when the chiefe shepheard shall appeare, yee shall receiue an incorruptible crowne of glory.

5 Likewise ye yonger, submit your selues vnto the Elders, ‖ submit your selues euery man one to another, * decke your selues inwardly in lowlinesse of mind: for God * resisteth the proude, and giueth grace to the humble.

6 Humble * your selues therefore vnder the mighty hand of God, that he may exalt you in due time.

7 * Cast all your care on him: for he careth for you.

8 Be sober and watch: for * your aduersary the deuill as a roaring lion walketh about seeking whom he may deuoure:

9 Whome resist stedfast in the faith, knowing * that the same afflictions are accomplished in your brethren which are in the world.

10 And the God of all grace, which hath called vs vnto his eternall glory by Christ Iesus, after that ye haue suffered a little, make you perfect, confirme, strengthen, and stablish you.

11 To him be glory and dominion for euer and euer, Amen.

12 By Silvanus a faithfull brother vnto you, as I suppose, haue I written briefly, exhorting and testifying how that this is the true grace of God, wherein ye stand.

13 The Church that is at * Babylon elected together with you, saluteth you, and Marcus my sonne.

The second Epistle generall of Peter.

THE ARGVMENT.

THe effect of the Apostle here, is to exhort the which haue once professed the true faith of Christ, to stand to the same euen to the last breath: also that God by his effectuall grace towards men moueth them to holinesse of life, in punishing the hypocrites which abuse his Name, & encreasing his gifts in the godly: wherefore by godly life, he being now almost at deaths doore, exhorteth them to approue their vocation, not setting their affections on worldly things (as he had oft written vnto them) but lifting their eies toward heauen, as they be taught by the Gospel, whereof he is a cleere witnesse, chiefly in that he heard with his owne eares that Christ was proclaimed from heauen to be the Sonne of God, as likewise the Prophets testified. And least they should promise to themselues quietnesse by ‖ professing the Gospel, he warneth them both of troubles which they should sustaine by the false teachers, and also by the mockers and contemners of religion, whose maners and trade he lively setteth forth as in a table, aduertising the faithfull not onely to waite diligently for Christ, but also to behold presently the day of his comming, and to preserue themselues vnspotted against the same.

CHAP. I.

1 Forasmuch as the power of God hath giuen them all things pertaining vnto life, he exhorteth them to flee the corruptions of wordly lusts. 10 To make their calling sure with good works, & fruits of faith. 14 He maketh mention of his own death. 17 Declaring the Lord Iesus to be the true Sonne of God as he himself had seene vpon the mount.

SImon Peter a seruant, and an Apostle of Iesus Christ, to you which haue obtained like precious faith with vs by the * righteousnesse of our God and Sauiour Iesus Christ.

2 Grace and peace be multiplied to you, by the knowledge of God and of Iesus our Lord,

3 According as his * godly power hath giuen vnto vs all things that pertaine vnto * life and godlines, * through the knowledge of him that hath called vs ‖ vnto glory and vertue.

4 Whereby most great, and precious promises are giuen vnto vs, that by them ye should be partakers of the * godly nature, in that ye flee the corruption, which is in the world through lust.

5 Therfore giue euen all diligence thereunto: ioyne moreouer * vertue with your faith: and with vertue, knowledge.

b He speaketh of Christ as he is God and Sauiour.
c That is, saluation.
d The summe of our saluation and religion is to be led by Christ to the Father, who calleth vs in the Sonne.
‖ Or, through his glory.
e We are made partakers of the diuine nature, in that we flee the corruption of the world, or as Paul writeth, are dead to sin, and are not in the flesh.
f Godly maners.

6 And

6 And with knowledge, temperance: and with temperance, patience; and with patience, godlinesse;

7 And with godlinesse, brotherly kindnesse; and with brotherly kindnesse, loue.

8 For if these things be among you, and abound, they will make you that ye neither shall be idle nor unfruitful in the knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ.

9 For he that hath not these things, is blind, and g cannot see farre off, and hath forgotten that he was purged from his old sinnes.

10 Wherefore brethren, giue rather diligence to make your calling & election sure: for if ye doe these things, ye shall neuer fall.

11 For by this meanes an entring shalbe ministred vnto you abundantly into the euerlasting kingdome of our Lord and Sauiour Jesus Christ.

12 Wherefore, I will not be negligent to put you alwayes in remembrance of these things, though that ye haue knowledge, and be stablished in the present truth.

13 For I thinke it meete as long as I am in this * tabernacle, to stirre you vp by putting you in remembrance, 14 Seeing I knowe that the time is at hand that I must lay downe this my tabernacle, euen as our Lord Jesus Christ hath * shewed me.

15 I will endeuour therfore alwaies, that ye also may be able to haue remembrance of these things after my departing.

16 For we followed not * ‖ deuerisable fables, when we opened vnto you the power, and comming of our Lord Jesus Christ, but with our eyes we sawe his maiestie:

17 For he receiued of God the Father honour and glory, when there came such a voice to him from the excellent glory, * This is my beloued Sonne, in whom I am well pleased.

18 And this voyce we heard when it came from heauen, being with him in the holy mount.

19 We haue also a more sure * worde of the Prophets, to the which ye do wel that ye take heede, as vnto a light that shineth in a darke place, vntill the * day dawne, and the * day starre arise in your hearts.

20 * Knowing this first that yee know this, that no prophesie of the Scripture is of any priuate ‖ motion.

21 For the prophesie came not in olde time by the will of man: but holy men of God spake as they were moouen by the holy Ghost.

CHAP. II.

Her prophesieth of false teachers, and sheweth their punishment.

BVt there were false prophets also among the people, euen as there shall be false teachers among you: which priuily shall bring in damnable heresies, euen denying the Lord that hath bought them, & bring vpon themselues swift damnation.

2 And many shall follow their pernicious waies, by reason of whom the way of truth shall be euill spoken of.

3 And through couetousnesse shall they with fained wordes make * merchandise of you, whose iudgement long agone is not farre off, and their damnation slumbereth not.

4 For if God spared not the * Angels that had sinned, but cast them downe into hell, and deliuered them into chaines of darknesse, to be reserued vnto damnation:

5 Neither hath spared the old world, but saued * noe the eight person a preacher of righteousnesse, and brought in the flood vpon the world of the vngodly,

6 And * turned the cities of Sodom and Gomorre into ashes, condemned them and ouerthrewe them, and made them an ensample vnto them that after should liue vngodly,

7 And deliuered iust Lot, vexed with the vncleanly conuersation of the wicked,

8 (For he being righteous, and dwelling among them, in seeing and hearing, vexed his righteous soule from day to day with their vnlawfull deedes.)

9 The Lord knoweth to deliuer the godly out of tentation, and to reserue the vniust vnto the day of iudgement to be punished:

10 And chiefly them that walke after the flesh, in the lust of vncleannesse, and despise the gouernment, which are presumptuous, and stand in their owne conceit, and feare not to speake euill of them that are in dignitie.

11 Whereas the Angels which are greater both in power and might, * giue not * rashing iudgement against them before the Lord.

12 But these, as * brute beasts, led with sensualitie, & made to be taken, and destroyed, speake euill of those things which they know not, and shal perish through their own corruption,

13 And shall receiue the wages of vnrighteousnesse, as they which count it pleasure to liue deliciously for a season. Spots they are and blots, * delighting themselues in their deceiuings, in feasting with you,

14 Hauing eyes full of adulterie, and that cannot cease to sinne, beguiling vnstable soules: they haue hearts exercised with couetousnesse, cursed children,

15 Which forsaking the right way, haue gone astray, following the way of * Balaam, the sonne of Bosor, which loued the wages of vnrighteousnesse, 16 But yet was rebuked for his iniquitie: for the dumbe Asse speaking with mans voyce, forbade the foolishnesse of the prophet.

17 * These are wels without water, and * cloudes carried about with a tempest, to whom the blacke darkenesse is reserued for euer.

18 For * in speaking swelling wordes of vanitie, they beguile with wantonnesse through the lustes of the flesh them that were

g The Greeke word signifieth him that naturally cannot see, except he bold-eth neere his eyes. So Peter calleth such as cannot see heauenly things which are farre off, purblind, or sandblind.

h Albeit it be sure in it selfe, forasmuch as God cannot change: yet we must confirme it in our selues by the fruits of the Spirit, knowing that the purpose of God electeth, calleth, sanctifieth and iustifieth vs.

i For God will euer vphold you.

THis second Epistle I now write vnto you, beloued, wherewith * I stirre vp and warne your pure minds,

2 To call to remembrance the wordes, which were tolde before of the b holy Prophets, & also the commaundement of vs the Apostles of the Lord and Sauiour.

3 * This first vnderstand, that there shall come in the last dayes, mockers, which will walke after there lusts,

4 And say, Where is the promise of his comming? for since the fathers died, all things continue alike from the beginning of the creation.

5 For this they * willingly know not, that the heauens were of olde, and the earth that was of the water, and by the water, by the word of God.

6 Wherefore the * world that then was, perished, ouerflowed with the water.

7 But the heauens and earth, which are now, are kept by the same word in store, and reserued vnto fire against the day of iudgment, & of the destruction of vngodly men.

8 Dearely beloued, bee not ignorant of this one thing, that one day is with the Lord, * as a thousand yeeres, and a thousand yeeres as one day.

9 The Lord is not slacke concerning his promise (as some men count slackenesse) but is patient towards vs, and * d would haue no man to perish, but would all men to come to repentance.

10 * But the day of the Lord will come as a theefe in the night, in the which the heauens shall passe away with a noyse, & the elements shall melt with heat, and the earth with the workes that are therein, shalbe burnt vp.

11 Seeing therefore that all these things must be dissolued, what maner persons ought ye to be in holy conuersation and godlinesse, 12 Looking for, & hasting vnto the comming of the day of God, by the which the heauens being on fire, shall be dissolued, and the elements shall melt with heat?

13 But we looke for * new heauens, and a new earth, according to his promise, wherein dwelleth righteousnesse.

14 Wherefore, beloued, seeing that yee looke for such things, be diligent that ye may be found of him in * peace, without spot, and blamelesse.

15 * And suppose that the long suffering of our Lord is saluation, euen as our beloued brother Paul according to the wisedome giuen vnto him, wrate to you,

16 As one, that in all his Epistles speaketh of these things: among the which some things are a hard to bee vnderstood, which they that are vnlearned and vnstable b peruert, as they doe also other Scriptures vnto their owne destruction.

17 Ye therefore, beloued, seeing ye know these things before, beware least yee be also pluckted away with the error of the wicked, and fall from your owne stedfastnesse.

18 But growe in grace, and in the knowledge of our Lord & Sauiour Iesus Christ: to him be glory both now and for euermore. Amen.

¶ The first Epistle generall of Iohn.

THE ARGVMENT.

After that S. Iohn had sufficiently declared, how that our whole saluation doeth consist onely in Christ, lest that any man should thereby take a boldnes to sinne, he sheweth that no man can be Iesus in Christ, vnlesse he doeth endeuour himselfe to keepe his commandements, which thing being done, hee exhorteth them to beware of false prophets, whom he calleth Antichrists, and to try the spirits. Last of all, he doth earnestly exhort them vnto brotherly loue, and to beware of deceiuers.

CHAP. I.

4 And these things write wee vnto you, that your ioy may be full.

5 This then is the message, which wee haue heard of him, and declare vnto you, that God is [t] light, and in him is no darkenesse.

6 If we say that we haue fellowship with him, and walke in [u] darkenesse, we lie, and do not truly:

7 But if we walke in the light as hee is in the light, we haue fellowship [x] one with another, and the [y] blood of Iesus Christ his Sonne cleanseth vs from all sinne.

8 [z] If we say that we haue no sinne, we deceiue our selues, and trueth is not in vs.

9 If we [a] acknowledge our sinnes, he is faithfull and iust, to forgiue vs our sinnes, and to cleanse vs from all vnrighteousnesse.

10 If wee say wee haue not sinned, wee make him a liar, and his [‖] word is not in vs.

[t] The fruites of our faith must declare whether we be ioyned in God or no: for God being the verie puritie and light, will not haue fellowship with them which lie in sinne and darkenesse.

CHAP. II.

1 Christ is our aduocate. 10 Of true loue, and how it is tried. 18 To beware of Antichrist.

MY babes, these things write I vnto you, that ye sinne not: and if any man sinne, we haue an [a] Aduocate with the Father, Iesus Christ the Iust,

2 And hee is the reconciliation for our sinnes: and not for ours onely, but also for the sinnes of [b] the whole world.

3 And hereby we are sure that we [c] know him, if we keepe his commandements.

4 He that sayth, I know him, and keepeth not his commandements, is a liar, and the trueth is not in him.

5 But hee that keepeth his word, in him is [d] the loue of God perfect in deed: hereby we know that we are in him.

6 Hee that sayth hee remaineth in him, ought euen so to walke, as he hath walked.

7 Brethren, I write no new [‖]commandement vnto you: but an olde commaundement which ye haue had from the [e] beginning: the [f] olde commaundement is the word, which ye haue heard from the beginning.

8 Againe, a newe commaundement I write vnto you, that which is true in him, and also in you: for the darkenesse is past, and the true light now shineth.

9 He that saith that he is in the light, and hateth his brother, is in darkenesse vntil this time.

10 [g] Hee that loueth his brother abideth in the light, and there is none occasion of euill in him.

11 But hee that hateth his brother, is in darkenesse, and walketh in darkenesse, and knoweth not whither he goeth, because that darkenesse hath blinded his eyes.

[a] Christ is our onely aduocate and atonement: for the office of intercession and redemption are ioyned together.

[b] That is, of them which haue embraced the Gospell by faith in all ages, degrees and places: for there is no saluation without Christ.

[c] That is, by faith, & so obey him: for knowledge cannot be without obedience.

[d] Whereby he loueth God: so that to loue God is to obey his word.

[e] Or, doctrine.

[f] When the Law was giuen.

[g] Loue thy neighbor as thy selfe, is the olde commandement taught in the Law: but when Christ saith, So loue one another, as I haue loued you, he giueth a new commandement: onely as touching the forme, but not as touching the nature or substance of the precept. Chap 3.14.

12 [h] Little children, I write vnto you, because your sinnes are forgiuen you for [i] his Names sake.

13 I write vnto you, fathers, because yee haue knowen him that is from the beginning. I write vnto you young men, because ye haue ouercome the [k] wicked.

14 I write vnto you, babes, because yee haue knowen the Father. I haue written vnto you, fathers, because ye haue knowen him, that is from the beginning. I haue written vnto you, young men, because ye are strong, and the word of God abideth in you, and yee haue ouercome the wicked.

15 Loue not the [l] worlde, neither the things that are in the world. If any man loue the [m] worlde, the loue of the Father is not in him.

16 For all that is in the world (as the lust of the [n] flesh, the [o] lust of the eyes, and the [p] pride of life) is not of the Father, but is of the world.

17 And the world passeth away, and the lust thereof, but he that fulfilleth the will of God abideth euer.

18 Babes, it is the last time, and as ye haue heard that Antichrist shall come, euen now are there many Antichrists, whereby we know that it is the last time.

19 [q] They went out from vs, but they were not of vs: for if they had beene of vs, they would haue continued with vs. But this commeth to passe, that it might appeare, that they are not all of vs.

20 But ye haue an [r] ointment from him, that is [s] holy, & ye haue knowen all things.

21 I [t] haue not written vnto you, because ye know not the truth: but because ye know it, and that no lie is of the truth.

22 Who is a lyar, but hee that denieth that Iesus is [u] Christ? he same is the Antichrist that denieth the Father and the Sonne.

23 Whosoeuer denyeth the Sonne, the same [x] hath not the Father.

24 Let therefore abide in you that same which yee haue heard from the beginning. If that which ye haue heard from the beginning, shall remaine in you, yee also shall continue in the Sonne, and in the Father.

25 And this is the promise that hee hath promised vs, euen eternall life.

26 These things haue I written vnto you concerning them that deceiue you.

27 But the anointing which ye receiued of him, dwelleth in you: and ye need not that any man teach you: but as the same anointing teacheth you of al things, and it is true, and is not lying, and as it taught you, ye shall abide in him.

28 And now, [y] little children, abide in him, that when he shall appeare, wee may be bolde, and not be ashamed before him at his comming.

29 If ye knowe that hee is righteous, know ye that hee which doth righteously, is borne of him.

[h] He nameth all the faithfull children, as he being their spirituall Father, attributing to olde men knowledge of great things, to yoong men strength, to children obedience and reuerence to their gouernours.

[i] For Christs sake.

[k] Or, the deuill.

[l] Or, the deuill.

[m] As it is aduersary to God. Iames.4.4.

[n] To liue in pleasure.

[o] Wantonnesse.

[p] Ambition and pride.

[q] Which seemed to haue beene of our number, because for a time they occupied a place in the Church.

[r] The grace of the holy Ghost.

[s] Which is Christ.

[t] In this Epistle which I now write vnto you.

[u] He that taketh away or diminisheth either of the natures in Christ, or he that confoundeth or separateth them, els he that putteth not difference betweene the person of the Sonne, and also he that beleeueth not to haue remission of sinnes by his onely sacrifice, denieth Christ to be the true Messias.

[x] Then the infidels worship not the true God.

[y] But he that confesseth the Sonne, hath also [‖] Father.

CHAP. III.

¶ The singuler loue of God toward vs. 11. And how we ought to loue one another.

BEholde, what loue the father hath shewed on vs, that wee should be a called the sonnes of God: for this cause the worlde knoweth you not, because it knoweth not him.

2 Dearely beloued, nowe are wee the sonnes of God, but yet it doeth not appeare what we shall be: and we knowe that when b he shall appeare, we shall be c like him: for we shall see him as he is.

3 And euery man that hath this hope in him, purgeth himselfe, euen as he is pure.

4 Wholoeuer d committeth sinne, transgresseth also the law: for sinne is the transgression of the Law.

5 And ye knowe that he appeared that he might e take away our sinnes, and in him is no sinne.

6 Wholoeuer abideth in him sinneth not: wholoeuer sinneth hath not seene him, neither hath knowen him.

7 Little children, let no man deceiue you: he that doeth righteousnesse, is righteous, as he is righteous.

8 He that f committeth sinne, is of the deuill: for the deuil sinneth from the g beginning: for this purpose appeared the Sonne of God, that he might loose the workes of the deuill.

9 Wholoeuer is borne of God, sinneth not: for h his seede remaineth in him, neither can hee sinne, because he is borne of God.

10 In this are the children of God knowen, and the children of the deuill: wholoeuer doeth not righteousnesse, is not of God, neither he that i loueth not his brother.

11 For this is the message that ye heard from the beginning, that k wee should loue one another.

12 Not as l Cain which was of the wicked, and slewe his brother: and wherefore slewe he him? because his owne workes were euill, and his brothers good.

13 Marueile not, my brethren, though the world hate you.

14 Wee knowe that wee are translated from death vnto life, because wee m loue the brethren: n He that loueth not his brother, abideth in death.

15 Whosoeuer hateth his brother, is a manslayer: and ye knowe that no manslayer hath eternall life abiding in him.

16 o Hereby haue we perceiued loue, that hee layde downe his life for vs: therefore we ought also to lay downe our liues for the brethren.

17 p And whosoeuer hath this worldes good, and seeth his brother haue neede, and shutteth vp his compassion from him, howe dwelleth the loue of God in him?

18 My little children, let vs not loue in word, neither in tongue onely, but in q deede and in truth.

19 For thereby wee knowe that wee are of the truth, and shall assure him allure our hearts.

20 For if our r heart condemne vs, God is greater then our heart, and knoweth all things.

21 Beloued, if our heart condemne vs not, then haue we boldnesse toward God.

22 s And whatsoeuer wee aske, wee receiue of him, because we keepe his commandements, and doe those things which are pleasing in his sight.

23 t This is then his commaundement, That we beleeue in the Name of his sonne Iesus Christ, and loue one another, as hee gaue commandement.

24 u For hee that keepeth his commandements, dwelleth in him, and hee in him: and hereby wee knowe that hee abideth in vs, euen by the spirit which hee hath giuen vs.

CHAP. IIII.

1 Difference of spirits. 2 How the spirit of God may bee knowen from the spirit of errour. 7 Of the loue of God, and of our neighbours.

DEarely beloued, beleeue not euery spirit, but trie the a spirits whether they are of God: for many false prophets are gone out into the world.

2 Hereby shal ye know the spirit of God. Euerie spirit that confesseth that Iesus b Christ is come in the flesh, is of God.

3 And euery spirit which confesseth not that Iesus Christ is come in the flesh, is not of God: but this is the spirit of Antichrist, of whome yee haue heard, howe that hee should come, and c now already he is in the world.

4 Little children, ye are of God, and haue ouercome them: for greater is hee that is in you, then d he that is in the world.

5 They are of the world, therefore speake they of the worlde, and the world heareth them.

6 Wee are of God, e hee that knoweth God, f heareth vs: hee that is not of God, heareth vs not. Hereby know we the spirit of truth, and the spirit of errour.

7 Beloued, let vs loue one another: for loue commeth of God, and euery one that loueth is borne of God, and knoweth God.

8 He that loueth not, knoweth not God: For God is loue.

9 g In this h appeared the loue of God toward vs, because God sent his only begotten Sonne into the worlde, that we might liue through him.

10 Herein is loue, not that we loued God, but that he loued vs, and sent his Sonne to be a i reconciliation for our sinnes.

11 Beloued, if God so loued vs, we ought also to loue one another.

12 k No man hath seene God at any time. If we loue one another, God dwelleth in vs, and his loue is perfect in vs.

13 Hereby knowe wee that wee dwell in him, and he in vs: because he hath giuen vs of his Spirit.

14 And wee haue seene and doe l testifie, that the Father sent the Sonne to be the Saniour of the world.

15 Whosoeuer m confesseth that Iesus is the Sonne of God, in him dwelleth God, and he in God.

16 And we haue knowen, and beleeued

Or, reward vs. 1 By inspiring it into vs.

the loue that God hath [1] in vs. God is loue, and hee that dwelleth in loue, dwelleth in God, and God in him.

17 Herein is the loue perfect in vs, that we should haue boldnes in the day of iudgement: for as hee is, euen so are wee in this world.

18 There is no [k] feare in loue, but perfect loue casteth out feare: for feare hath paine: whereof he that feareth, is not perfect in loue.

19 We loue him, because he loued vs first.

20 If any man say, I loue God, and hate his brother, hee is a lyar: for [l] how can hee that loueth not his brother whom he hath seene, loue God whom he hath not seene?

21 [m] And this commandement haue wee of him, that hee which loueth God, should loue his brother also.

CHAP. V.

1 10. 13 Of the fruits of faith. 14. 20 The office, authority, and dismissse of Christ. 21 Against images.

WHosoeuer beleeueth that Iesus is the Christ, is [a] borne of God, and euerie one that loueth him which begate, loueth him also which is begotten of him.

2 In this we know that we loue the children of God, when we loue [b] God, and keepe his commandements.

3 For this is the loue of God, that wee keepe his commandements: and his [c] commandements are not [c] grieuous.

4 For all that is borne of God ouercommeth the world: and this is the victory that ouercommeth the world, euen our faith.

5 [d] Who is it that ouercommeth the world, but hee which beleeueth that Iesus is the sonne of God?

6 This is that Iesus Christ that came by [e] water and blood, not by water onely, but by water and blood: and it is the spirit that beareth witnesse: for the spirit is a truth.

7 For there are three, which beare record in heauen, the Father, the Word, and the holy Ghost: and these three are one.

8 And there are three, which beare record in the earth, the spirit, and the water, and the blood: and these three agree in one.

9 If we receiue the witnesse of men, the witnesse of God is greater: for this is the witnesse of God, which hee testified of his Sonne.

10 [n] Hee that beleeueth in the Sonne of God, hath the witnesse [f] in himselfe: he that beleeueth not God, hath made him a lyar, because hee beleeued not the record, that God witnessed of his Sonne.

11 And this is the record, that God hath giuen vnto vs eternall life, and this life is in his Sonne.

12 He that hath the Sonne, hath life: and hee that hath not the Sonne of God, hath not life.

13 These things haue I written vnto you, that beleeue in the Name of the Sonne of God, that yee may know that yee haue eternall life, and that yee may beleeue in the Name of the Sonne of God.

14 And this is the assurance, that wee haue in him, [o] that if we aske any thing according to his will, he heareth vs.

15 And if wee know that hee heareth vs, whatsoeuer wee aske, wee know that we haue the petitions that we haue desired of him.

16 If any man see his brother sinne a sinne, that is not vnto death, let him aske, & he shall giue him life for them that sinne not [p] vnto death. [p] There is a sinne vnto death: I say not that thou shouldest pray for it.

17 All vnrighteousnesse is sinne, but there is a sinne not vnto death.

18 [q] We know that whosoeuer is borne of God, [r] sinneth not: but he that is begotten of God, [r] keepeth himselfe, and the [s] wicked [s] toucheth him not.

19 [t] We know that we are of God, and the whole world [u] lieth in wickednesse.

20 But wee know that the Sonne of God is [x] come, and hath giuen vs a minde to know him, which is true: and we are in him that is true, euen in his Sonne Iesus Christ: the same is very [y] God, and [z] eternall life.

21 Babes, keepe your selues from [a] Idols. Amen.

The second Epistle of Iohn.

He writeth vnto a certaine Lady, 4 Reioycing that her children walke in the truth, 5 And exhorteth them vnto loue. 7 Warneth her to beware of such deceiuers as denie that Iesus Christ is come in the flesh. 9 Prayeth them to continue in the doctrine of Christ, 10 And to haue nothing to do with the that bring not the true doctrine of Christ Iesus our Sauiour.

THe Elder vnto the [1] elect Ladie, and her children, whome I loue in [a] the truth: and not I onely, but also all that haue knowen the truth,

2 For the truethes sake which dwelleth in vs, and shalbe with vs for euer:

3 Grace be with you, mercie and peace from God the Father, and from the Lorde Iesus Christ the sonne of the Father, with [b] truth and loue.

4 I reioiced greatly, that I found of thy children walking [a] in truth, as we haue receiued a commandement of the Father.

5 And now beseech I thee Lady, (not as writing a new commandement vnto thee, but that same which we haue had from the beginning) that we [b] loue one another.

6 And this is the loue, that wee should walke after his [c] commandements. This commandement is, that as yee haue heard from the beginning, ye should walke in it.

7 For many deceiuers are entred into the world, which confesse not that Iesus Christ is come in the flesh. Hee that is such one, is a deceiuer and an Antichrist.

THE ARGVMENT.

SAint Iude admonisheth all Churches generally to take heede of deceiuers, which goe about to draw away the hearts of the simple people from the trueth of God, and willeth them to haue no societie with such, whom he setteth forth in their liuely colours, shewing by diuers examples of the Scriptures, what horrible vengeance is prepared for them: finally, he comforteth the faithfull, and exhorteth them to persewere in the doctrine of the Apostles of Iesus Christ.

IUDE a seruant of Iesus Christ, & brother of Iames, to them which are called and sanctified ᵃ of God the Father, and ᵇ reserued to Iesus Christ:
2 Mercy vnto you, and peace, and loue be multiplied.
3 Beloued, when I gaue all diligence to write vnto you of the common saluation, it was needfull for me to write vnto you, to exhort you, that ye should earnestly ᶜ contend for the maintenance of the faith, which was ᵈ once giuen vnto the Saints.
4 For there are certaine men crept in, which were before of olde ᵉ ordeined to this condemnation: vngodly men they are which turne the grace of our God into wantonnesse, and ᶠ denie God the onely Lord, and our Lord Iesus Christ.
5 I will therefore put you in remembrance, for asmuch as ye once knew this, how that the Lorde, after that he had deliuered the people out of Egypt, ᵍ destroyed them afterward which ‖ beleeued not.
6 The ʰ Angels also which kept not their first ‖ estate, but left their owne habitation, he hath reserued in euerlasting chaines vnder darkenesse vnto the ⁱ iudgement of the great day.

THE ARGVMENT.

IT is manifest, that the holy Ghost would, as it were, gather into this most excellent Booke a sum of those prophesies, which were written before, but should be fulfilled after his comming of Christ, adding also such things as should be expedient, as well to forewarne vs of the dangers to come, as to admonish vs to beware some, & encourage vs against others. Herein therefore is liuely set forth the diuinity of Christ, and the testimonies of our redemption: what things the Spirit of God alloweth in the ministers, and what things he reproueth: the prouidence of God for his elect, & of their glory and consolation in the day of vengeance: how that the hypocrites which sting like scorpions the members of Christ shalbe destroyed. But the Lambe Christ shall defend them which beare witnesse to the trueth, who in the despight of the beast & Satan wil reigne ouer all. The liuely description of Antichrist is set forth, whose time and power notwithstanding is limited: and albeit that he is permitted to rage against the elect, yet his power stretcheth no further then to the hurt of their bodies: and at length he shall be destroyed by the wrath of God, when as the elect shall giue praise to God for the victorie: neuertheless, for a season God will permit this Antichrist, & strumpet vnder colour of fair speach and pleasant doctrine, to deceiue the world: wherfore he aduertiseth the godly (which are but a small portion) to auoid this harlots flatteries and brags, whose ruine without mercy they shall see, and with the heauenly companies sing continuall praises for the Lambe is maried: the word of God hath gotten the victorie: Satan that a long time was vnited, is now cast with his ministers into the pit of fire to be tormented for euer, whereas contrariwise the faithfull (which are the holy citie of Ierusalem, and wife of the Lambe) shall enioy perpetuall glory. Read diligently, iudge soberly, and call earnestly to God for the true vnderstanding hereof.

CHAP. I.

1 The cause of this reuelation. 3 Of them that reade it. 4 Iohn writeth to the seuen Churches. 5 The Maiestie & office of the sonne of God. 20 The vision of the Candlesticks and starres.

THe [a] Reuelation of IESVS CHRIST which [b] GOD gaue vnto him, to shew vnto his seruaunts things which must shortly be [c] done: which he sent, and shewed by his Angel vnto his seruant Iohn.

2 Who bare record of the word of God, and of the testimony of Iesus Christ, and of all things that he saw.

3 Blessed is hee that readeth, and they that heare the words of this [d] prophesie, and keepe those things which are written therein: for the time is at [e] hand.

4 Iohn to the [f] seuen Churches which are in Asia, Grace be with you, & peace from him, [Which] [g] is, and [Which] was, & [Which] is to come, and from the seuen spirits which are before his throne,

5 And from Iesus Christ, which is a [h] faithfull witnesse, and [i] the first begotten of the dead, and Prince of the Kings of the earth, vnto him that loued vs, and washed vs from our sinnes in his [k] blood,

6 And made vs [l] Kings and [m] Priests vnto God, euen his Father, to him be glory and dominion for euermore, Amen.

7 Behold, he commeth with [n] clouds, and euery eye shall see him: yea, euen they which [o] pearced him thorow: and all kindreds of the earth shall wayle [p] before him. Euen so, Amen.

8 I [q] am [r] Alpha and Omega, the beginning and the ending, saith the Lord, [Which] is, and [Which] was, and [Which] is to come, euen the Almighty.

9 I Iohn euen your brother, and companion in tribulation, and in the kingdom and patience of Iesus Christ, was in the yle called Patmos, for the word of God, and for the witnessing of Iesus Christ.

10 And I was rauished in spirite on [s] the Lords day, and heard behinde me a great voyce, as it had bene of a trumpet, 11 Saying, I am [t] Alpha and Omega, the first and the last: and that which thou seest, write in a booke, and sende it vnto the [u] seuen Churches which are in Asia, vnto Ephesus, and vnto Smyrna, and vnto Pergamus, and vnto Thyatira, and vnto Sardis, and vnto Philadelphia, and vnto Laodicea.

12 Then I turned backe to see the [x] voice that spake with mee: and when I was turned, I saw [y] seuen golden candlesticks, 13 And in the middes of the seuen candlesticks, one like vnto [z] the sonne of man, clothed with a garment [a] downe to the feet, and girded [b] about the paps with a golden girdle.

14 His head, and haires were [c] white as white wool, and as snow, and his eyes were as [d] flame of fire,

15 And his feete like vnto [e] fine [f] brasse, burning as in a furnace: and his [g] voyce as the sounde of many waters.

16 And hee had in his right hand seuen [h] starres: [i] out of his mouth went a [k] sharpe two edged sword: and his face shone as the sunne shineth in his strength.

17 And when I sawe him, I fell at his feete as [l] dead: then he layd his right [m] hand vpon me, saying vnto me, Feare not: I am the [n] first and the last,

18 And am alyue, but I was dead: and behold, I am alyue for euermore, Amen: and I haue the [o] keyes of hell and of death.

19 [Write the things which thou hast seene, and the things which are, and the things which shall come [p] hereafter.

20 The mystery of the seuen starres which thou sawest [q] in my right hand, and the seuen golden candlesticks, is this, The seuen starres are the [r] Angels of the seuen Churches: and the seuen candlesticks which thou sawest, are the seuen Churches.

a Of things which were hid before.
b Christ receiued this reuelation out of his Fathers bosome as his owne doctrine, but it was hid in respect of vs, so that Christ as Lord and God reueiled it to Iohn his seruant by the ministery of his Angel, to the edification of his Church.

VNto the [a] Angel of the Church of Ephesus write, These things saith he that [b] holdeth the seuen starres in his [c] right hand, and [d] walketh in the middes of the seuen golden candlesticks.

2 I know thy workes, and thy labour, and thy patience, and how thou canst not forbeare them which are euill, and hast examined them which say they are Apostles, and are not, and hast found them lyars.

3 And thou hast suffered, and hast patience, and for my names sake hast laboured, and hast not fainted.

4 Neuertheless, I haue somewhat against thee, because thou hast left thy first [e] loue.

5 Remember therefore from whence thou art fallen, and repent, & doe the first workes: or els I will come against thee shortly, and will remoue thy [f] candlestick out of his place, except thou amend.

a To the Pastor or ministers which are called by this name, because they are Gods messengers and haue their office common with Iesus Christ, who also is called an Angel.
b Reade Chap. 1. 13.
c In his protection.
d According to his promise, Mat. 28 20 he will be with them to the end of the world.
e The first loue that thou hadst toward God and thy neighbour at the first preaching of the Gospel.
f The office of the Pastor is compared to a candlestick or lampe, forasmuch as he ought to shine before men.

6 But this thou hast, that thou hatest the works of the [g] Nicolaitanes, which I also hate.

7 Let him that hath an eare, heare, what the Spirit saith vnto the Churches. To him that ouercommeth, will I giue to eat of the tree of [h] life, which is in the middes of the Paradise of God.

8 ¶ And vnto the [i] Angel of the Church of the Smyrnians write, These things saith he that is first, and last, which was dead, and is [k] aliue.

9 I knowe thy workes and [l] tribulation, and pouerty, (but thou art [m] rich) and I know the blasphemy of them, which say they are Iewes, and are [n] not, but are the Synagogue of Satan.

10 Feare none of those things, which thou shalt suffer: beholde, it shall come to passe, that the [o] deuill shall cast some of you into prison, that ye may be [p] tryed, and ye shall haue tribulation [q] ten dayes: be thou faithfull vnto the death, and I will giue thee the crowne of life.

11 Let him that hath an eare, heare what the Spirite saieth to the Churches. He that ouercommeth, shall not be hurt of the [r] second death.

12 And to the Angel of the Church which is at Pergamus write, This saieth hee which hath the sharpe [s] sworde with two edges, 13 I knowe thy workes and where thou [t] dwellest, euen where Satans [u] throne is, and thou keepest my Name, and hast not denied my faith, [v] euen in those dayes when Antipas my faithfull martyr was slaine among you, where Satan [w] dwelleth.

14 But I haue a fewe things against thee, because thou hast there them that maintaine the doctrine of [x] Balaam, which taught Balac to put a stumbling blocke before the children of Israel, that they should eate of things sacrificed vnto idoles, and commit fornication.

15 Euen so hast thou them, that maintaine the doctrine of the Nicolaitanes, which thing I hate.

16 Repent thy selfe, or els I will come vnto thee shortly, and will fight against them with the [y] sword of my mouth.

17 Let him that hath an eare, heare what the Spirit saieth vnto the Churches. To him that ouercommeth, will I giue to eate of the [z] Manna that is hid, and will giue him a [a] white stone, and in the stone a [b] new name written, which no man knoweth saue he that receiueth it.

18 ¶ And vnto the Angel of the Church which is at Thyatira write, These things saieth the Sonne of God, which hath his eyes like vnto a flame of fire, and his feete like [c] fine brasse.

19 I know thy workes and thy loue, and [d] seruice, and faith, and thy patience, and thy workes, and that they are moe at the last then at the first.

20 Notwithstanding, I haue a fewe things against thee, that thou sufferest the woman [e] Iezebel, which calleth her selfe a Prophetesse, to teach and to deceiue my seruants, to make them [f] commit fornication, and to eate meate sacrificed vnto idoles.

21 And I gaue her space to repent of her fornication, and she repented not.

22 Behold, I will cast her into a bed, and them that commit fornication with her, into great affliction, except they repent them of their workes.

23 And I will kill her [g] children with death: and all the Churches shall knowe that I am hee which [h] searche the reines and hearts: and I will giue vnto euery one of you according vnto your workes.

24 And vnto you, I say, the rest of them of Thyatira, As many as haue not this learning, neither haue knowen the [i] deepenesse of Satan (as they speake) I will put vpon you none other burden.

25 But that which ye haue already, hold fast till I come.

26 For hee that ouercommeth and keepeth my workes vnto the ende, to him will I giue power ouer nations, 27 [k] And hee shall rule them with a rod of yron: and as the vessels of a potter shall they be broken.

28 Euen as I receiued of my Father, so will I giue him the morning starre.

29 Let him that hath an eare, heare what the Spirit saith vnto the Churches.

CHAP. III.

Here exhorteth the Churches or ministers to the true profession of faith, and to watching, 12 With promises to them that persuere.

AND write vnto the Angel of the Church which is at Sardi, These things saieth he that hath the seuen Spirits of God, and the seuen starres, I knowe thy workes: for thou hast a name that thou [a] liuest, but thou art dead.

a The minister liueth when he bringeth foorth good fruit, els he is dead.

2 Be awake and strengthen the things which remaine, that are ready to die: for I haue not found thy workes perfite before God.

3 Remember therefore, howe thou hast receiued and heard, and holde fast, and repent. If therefore thou wilt not watch, I

I will come on thee as a theefe, and thou shalt not know what houre I will come vpon thee.

4 Notwithstanding thou hast a few names yet in Sardi, which haue not [b] defiled their garments, and they shall walke with mee in white: for they are worthy.

5 He that ouercommeth, shall be clothed in white aray, and I will not put out his name out of the [c] Booke of life, but I will confesse his name before my Father, and before his Angels.

6 Let him that hath an eare, heare what the Spirit saith vnto the Churches.

7 ¶ And write vnto the Angel of the Church which is of Philadelphia, These things sayeth hee that is Holy and True, which hath the [d] key of Dauid, which openeth and no man shutteth, and shutteth and no man openeth.

8 I knowe thy workes: behold, I haue set before thee an open [e] doore, and no man can shut it: for thou hast a little strength, and hast kept my word, and hast not denied my Name.

9 Beholde, I will make them of the Synagogue of Satan, which call themselues Iewes and are not, but doe lie: beholde, I say, I will make them that they shall come and [f] worship before thy feete, and shall know that I haue loued thee.

10 Because thou hast kept the worde of my patience, therefore I will deliuer thee from the houre of tentation, which wil come vpon all the worlde, to trie them that dwell vpon the earth.

11 Beholde, I come shortly: holde that which thou hast, that no man take thy [f] crowne.

12 Him that ouercommeth, will I make a pillar in the Temple of my God, and hee shall goe no more out: and I will write vpon him the Name of my God, and the Name of the citie of my God, which is the new Ierusalem, which commeth downe out of heauen from my God, and I will write vpon him my new Name.

13 Let him that hath an eare, heare what the Spirit saith vnto the Churches.

14 And vnto the Angel of the Church of the Laodiceans write, These things sayeth [g] Amen, the faithfull and true witnesse, the [h] beginning of the creatures of God, 15 I knowe thy workes, that thou art neither colde nor hot: I would thou werett cold or hot.

16 Therefore, because thou art lukewarme, and neither colde nor hot, it will come to passe, that I shall spew thee out of my mouth.

17 For thou sayest, I am [i] rich and increased with goods, and haue [k] neede of nothing, and knowest not how thou art wretched, and miserable, and poore, and blinde, and naked.

18 I counsell thee to buy of me golde tried by the fire, that thou mayest bee made rich, and white rayment, that thou mayest bee clothed, and that the filthie nakednesse doe not appeare: and [l] anoynte thine eyes with eye salue, that thou mayest see.

19 As many as I loue, I [m] rebuke and chasten: bee [n] zealous therefore and amende.

20 Beholde, I stand at the doore, and knocke. If any man heare my voyce and open the doore, I will come in vnto him, and will sup with him, and he with me.

21 To him that ouercommeth, will I graunt to sit with me in my [o] throne, euen as I ouercame, and sit with my Father in his throne.

22 Let him that hath an eare, heare what the Spirit saith vnto the Churches.

CHAP. IIII.

1 The vision of the Maiestie of God. 2 He seeth the throne & one sitting vpon it, 8 and 24 seates about it with 24. elders sitting vpon them, and foure beasts praysing God day and night.

AFter this I looked, and behold, a [a] doore was open in heauen, and the first voice which I heard, was as it were of a trumpet talking with mee, saying, Come vp hither, and I will shew thee things which must bee done hereafter.

2 And immediatly I was rauished in the spirit, and beholde, a throne was set in heauen, and one sate vpon the throne.

3 And [b] hee that sate, was to looke vpon like vnto a Iasper stone, and a Sardine, and there was a rainebow round about the throne in sight like vnto an Emerand.

4 And round about the throne were foure and twenty seates, and vpon the seates I saw [c] foure and twentie Elders sitting, clothed in white rayment, and had on their heads crownes of gold.

5 And out of the throne [d] proceeded [e] lightnings, and thunderings, and voyces, and there were seuen lamps of fire burning before the throne, which are the seuen spirits of God.

6 And before the throne there was a [f] sea of glasse like vnto christal: and in the midst of the throne, and round about the throne were foure [g] beastes full of eyes before and behinde.

7 And the first beast was like a lion, and the second beast like a calfe, and the third beast had a face as a man, and the fourth beast was like a flying Eagle.

8 And the foure beastes had each one of them sixe wings about him: and they were full of eyes within, and they ceased not day nor night, saying, [h] Holy, holy, holy, Lord God Almighty, Which was, and Which is, and Which is to come.

9 And when those beasts gaue glory and honour, and thankes to him that sate on the throne, which liueth for euer and euer,

10 The foure and twentie Elders fell downe before him that sate on the throne, and worshipped him, that liueth for euermore, [i] and cast their crownes before the throne, saying,

CHAP. V.

1 He seeth the Lambe opening the booke, 8.14 And therefore the foure beastes, the 24 Elders, and the Angels praise the Lambe, and do him worship, 9 For their redemption and other benefites.

AND I saw in the right hand of him that sate vpon the throne, a a Booke written within, and on the backeside, sealed with b seuen seales,

2 And I saw a strong Angell, which preached with a loud voyce, Who is worthy to open the Booke, and to loose the seales thereof?

3 And no man in heauen, nor in earth, neither vnder the earth was able to open the Booke, neither to looke thereon.

4 Then I wept much, because no man was found worthy to open, and to reade the Booke, neither to looke thereon.

5 And one of the Elders sayd vnto me, Weepe not: behold, the *Lion which is of the tribe of Iuda, the roote of Dauid, hath obteyned to open the Booke, and to loose the seuen seales thereof.

6 Then I beheld, and loe, in the middes of the throne, and of the foure beasts, and in the middes of the Elders, stood a c Lambe, as though hee had bene killed, which had d seuen hornes, and c seuen eyes, which are the seuen spirits of God, sent into all the world.

7 And he came and tooke the Booke out of the right hand of him that sate vpon the throne.

8 And when hee had taken the Booke, the foure beastes, and the foure and twentie Elders f fell downe before the Lambe, hauing euery one harpes and golden vialles full of odours, which are the g prayers of Saints.

9 And they sung a newe song, saying, Thou art worthy to take the Booke, and to open the seales thereof, because thou wast killed, and hast h redeemed vs to God by thy blood out of euery kinred, and tongue, and people, and nation,

10 And hast made vs vnto our GOD *Kings and Priests, and wee shall i reigne on the earth.

11 Then I beheld, and I heard the voyce of many Angels round about the throne, and about the beastes and the Elders, and there were *thousand thousands, 12 Saying with a loude voyce, Worthy is the *Lambe that was killed, to receiue power, and riches, and wisedome, and strength, and honour, and glorie, and prayse.

13 And all the creatures which are in heauen, and on the earth, and vnder the earth, and in the sea, and al that are in them, heard I saying, Prayse, and honour, and glorie, and power bee vnto him, that sitteth vpon the throne, and vnto the Lambe for euermore.

14 And the foure beasts said, Amen, and the foure & twentie Elders fell downe, and worshipped him that liueth for euermore.

CHAP VI.

The Lambe openeth the fiue seales, and many things follow the opening thereof, so that this conteineth a generall prophesie to the ends of the world.

AFter, I beheld when the Lambe had opened one a of the seales, and I heard one of the foure beastes say, as it were the b noyse of thunder, Come and see.

2 Therefore I beheld, and loe, there was a c white horse, and he that d sate on him, had a bowe, and a crowne was giuen vnto him, and he went forth conquering, that he might ouercome.

3 And when hee had opened the second seale, I heard the second beast say, Come and see.

4 And there went out another horse, that was e red, and power was giuen to him that f sate thereon, to take peace from the earth, and that they should kill one another, and there was giuen vnto him a great sword.

5 And when hee had opened the third seale, I heard the third beast say, Come and see. Then I beheld, and loe, g a blacke horse, and hee that sate on him, had balances in his hand.

6 And I heard a voyce in the middes of the foure beastes say, A h measure of wheate for a peny, and three measures of barley for a peny, and oyle, and wine hurt thou not.

7 And when hee had opened the fourth seale, I heard the voyce of the fourth beast say, Come and see.

8 And I looked, and beholde, a i pale horse, and his name that sate on him was Death, and k Hell followed after him, and power was giuen vnto them ouer the fourth part of the earth, to kil with sword, and with hunger, and with death, and with the beasts of the earth.

9 And when hee had opened the l fift seale, I sawe vnder the altar m the soules of them that were killed for the worde of God, and for the testimonie which they maintained.

10 And they cryed with a loude voyce, saying, How long, Lord, holy and true! doest not thou iudge & auenge our blood on them that dwell on the earth?

11 And long white robes were giuen vnto euery one, and it was sayd vnto them, that they should rest for a little season, vntill their fellowe seruants, and their brethren that should be killed euen as they were, were fulfilled.

12 And I beheld when hee had opened the fift seale, and loe, there was a great n earthquake, and the o sunne was as blacke as p sackcloth of haire, and the q moone was like blood.

CHAP. VII.

4 He seeth the seruants of God sealed in their foreheads out of all nations and people, 15 which though they suffer trouble, yet the Lambe feedeth them, leadeth them to the fountaines of liuing water, 17 and God shall wipe away all teares from their eyes.

AND after that, I saw foure angels stand on the foure corners of the earth, holding the foure ᵃ windes of the ᵇ earth, that the windes should not blow on the earth, neither on the ᶜ sea, neither on any ᵈ tree.

2 And I saw another ‖ Angel come vp from the East, which had the seale of the liuing God, and he cryed with a loud voice to the foure Angels to whom power was giuen to hurt the earth and the sea,

3 Saying, ᵉ Hurt ye not the earth, neither the sea, neither the trees, till wee haue sealed the seruants of our God in their foreheads.

4 And I heard the number of them, which were sealed, and there were sealed an hundreth and foure and forty thousand of all the tribes of the children of Israel.

5 Of the tribe of Iuda were sealed twelue thousand. Of the tribe of Reuben were sealed twelue thousand. Of the tribe of Gad were sealed twelue thousand.

6 Of the tribe of Aser were sealed twelue thousand. Of the tribe of Nephtali were sealed twelue thousand. Of the tribe of Manasses were sealed twelue thousand.

8 Of the tribe of ⁱ Ioseph were sealed twelue thousand. Of the tribe of Beniamin were sealed twelue thousand.

9 After these things I beheld, and loe, a great multitude, which no man could number of all nations, and kindreds, and people, and tongues, stoode before the throne, and before the Lambe, clothed with long ᵏ white robes, and ˡ palmes in their hands.

10 And they cryed with a loude voyce, saying, ᵐ Saluation commeth of our God, that sitteth vpon the throne, and of the Lambe.

11 And all the Angels stood round about the throne, and about the Elders, & the foure beasts, & they fell before the throne on their faces, and worshipped God, 12 Saying, Amen. Praise and glory, and wisdome, and thanks, and honour, and power, and might be vnto our God for euermore, Amen.

13 And one of the Elders spake, saying vnto me, What are these which are arayed in long white robes? and whence came they?

14 And I sayde vnto him, Lord, thou knowest. And he sayd to me, These are they, which came out of great tribulation, and haue washed their long robes, and haue made their long robes white in the ⁿ blood of the Lambe.

much odours was giuen vnto him, that he should offer with the prayers of all Saints vpon the golden altar, which is before the throne.

4 And the smoke of the odours with the prayers of the Saints, went vp before God, out of the Angels hand.

5 And the Angel tooke the censer, and filled it with [d] fire of the altar, and cast it into the [e] earth, and [f] there were voyces, and thundrings, and lightnings, & earthquake.

6 Then the seuen Angels, which had the seuen trumpets, prepared themselues to blow the trumpets.

7 So the first Angel [g] blew the trumpet, and there was haile and fire, mingled with blood, and they were cast vnto the earth, and the third part of [h] trees was burnt, and all greene [i] grasse was burnt.

8 And the second Angel blew the trumpet, and as it were a great [k] mountaine, burnning with fire, was cast into the sea, and the third part of the sea became blood.

9 And the third part of the creatures, which were in the sea, and had life, died, and the third part of [l] ships were destroyed.

10 Then the third Angel blew the trumpet, and there fell [m] a great starre from heauen burning like a torch, and it fell into the third part of the riuers, and into the fountaines of waters.

11 And the name of the starre is called Wormewood: therfore the third part of the waters became wormewood, and many men died of the waters, because they were made bitter.

12 And the fourth Angel blew the trumpet, and the third part of the [n] Sunne was smitten, and the third part of the [o] moone, and the third part of the [p] starres, so that the third part of them was [q] darkened: and the day was smitten, and the third part of it could not shine, and likewise the night.

13 And I beheld, and heard one Angel flying through the middes of heauen, saying with a lowde voyce, [r] Woe, woe, woe, to the inhabitants of the earth, because of the sounds to come of the trumpet of the three Angels, which were yet to blowe the trumpets.

CHAP. IX.

1 The fift and sixt Angel blow their trumpets: the starre falleth from heauen. 3 The locusts come out of the smoke. 12 The first woe is past. 14 The foure Angels that were bound, are loosed. 18 And the third part of men is killed.

AND the fift Angel blewe the trumpet, and I saw [a] a starre which was fallen from heauen vnto the earth, and to him was giuen the [b] key of the bottomlesse pit.

2 And he opened the bottomlesse pit, & there arose the smoke of the pit, as the [c] smoke of a great fornace, and the Sunne and the aire were darkened by the smoke of the pit.

3 And there came out of the smoke [d] Locusts vpon the earth, and vnto them was giuen [e] power, as the [f] scorpions of the earth haue power.

4 And it was commaunded them, that they should not hurt the [g] grasse of the earth, neither any greene thing, neither any tree:
but onely those [h] men which haue not the seale of God in their foreheads.

5 And to them was commaunded that they should not [i] kill them, but that they should bee [k] vexed fiue moneths, and that their paine should be as the paine that commeth of a [l] scorpion, when he hath [m] stung a man.

6 [n] Therefore in those dayes shall men [o] seeke death, and shall not finde it, and shall desire to die, and death shall flee from them.

7 [p] And the forme of the locusts was like vnto [q] horses prepared vnto battell, and on their heades were as it were [r] crownes like vnto golde, and their faces [s] were like the faces of men.

bergions of yron: and the sound of their [y] wings was like the sound of charets when

6 These haue power to shut i heauen, that it raine not in the dayes of their prophesying, and haue power ouer waters to turne them into k blood, & to smite the earth with all maner plagues, as often as they will.

7 And when they haue finished their testimony, the l beast that commeth out of the bottomlesse pit, shall make warre against them, and shall m ouercome them, and kill them.

8 And their corpses shal lie in the streetes of the great n citie, which spiritually is called Sodome and Egypt, where our Lord also was crucified.

9 And they of the people and kindreds, and tongues, & Gentiles shall see their corpses three dayes and an halfe, & shal not suffer their carkeises to be put in graues.

10 And they that dwell vpon the earth, shall reioyce ouer them, & be glad, and shall send giftes one to another: for these two Prophets o vexed them that dwelt on the earth.

11 But after three dayes and an halfe, the spirit of life comming from God, shall enter into them, and they shall p stande vp vpon their feete: and great feare shall come vpon them which saw them.

12 And they shall heare a great voyce fro heauen, saying vnto them, q Come vp hither. And they shall ascend vp to heaue in a cloud, and their enemies shall see them.

13 And the same houre shall there be a great earthquake, and the tenth part of the citie r shall fall, and in the earthquake shall be slaine in number seuen thousand: and the remnant shall be afraid, s and giue glory to the God of heauen.

14 The second woe is past, and beholde, the third woe will come anone.

15 And the seuent Angel blew the trumpet, and there were great voices in heauen, saying, The x kingdomes of this worlde are our Lords, and his Christes, and hee shall reigne for euermore.

16 Then the foure and twentie Elders, which sate before God on their seates, fell vpon their faces, and worshipped y God, 17 Saying, z We giue thee thanks, Lord God Almighty, which art, and which wast, and which art to come: for thou hast receiued thy great might, and hast obteined thy kingdome.

18 And the Gentiles were angrie, and thy wrath is come, and the time of the dead, that they should be iudged, and that thou shouldest giue reward vnto thy seruants the Prophets, and to the Saintes, and to them that feare thy Name, to small and great, and shouldest destroy them, which destroy the earth.

19 Then the Temple of God was opened in heauen, and there was seene in his Temple the arke of his couenant: and there were t lightnings, and voyces, and thundrings, and earthquake, and much haile.

CHAP. XII.

1 There appeareth in heauen a woman clothed with the sunne. 4 Michael fighteth with the Dragon, which persecuteth the woman. 11 The victory is gotten, to the comfort of the faithfull.

AND there appeared a great wonder in heauen: A a woman clothed with the sunne, and the b moone was vnder her feete, and vpon her head a c crowne of twelue starres.

2 And she was with childe, and d cried trauailing in birth, and was pained ready to be deliuered.

3 And there appeared another woonder in heauen: for beholde, a great e red Dragon hauing f seuen heads, and ten hornes, and seuen crownes vpon his heads:

4 And his taile drew the g third part of the starres of heauen, and cast them to the earth. And the Dragon stoode before the woman, which was readie to be deliuered, to deuour her childe when shee had brought it foorth.

5 So shee brought foorth a h man childe, which should rule all nations with a * rod of iron: and her sonne was taken vp vnto God and to his throne.

6 And the woman fled into i wildernes, where she hath a place prepared of God, that they should feede her there a thousand, two hundreth and threescore dayes.

7 And there was a battell in heauen: k Michael and his Angels fought against the Dragon, and the Dragon fought and his Angels.

8 But they preuailed not, neither was their place founde any more in l heauen.

even cast into the earth, and his angels were cast out with him.

10 Then I heard a loud voyce, saying, Now is salvation in heauen, and strength, and the kingdome of our God, and the power of his Christ: for the accuser of our brethren is cast downe, which accused them before our God day and night.

11 But they ouercame him by the blood of the Lambe, and by the word of their testimony, and they loued not their liues vnto the death.

12 Therefore reioyce, ye heauens, and ye that dwell in them. Woe to the inhabitants of the earth, and of the sea: for the deuill is come downe vnto you, which hath great wrath, knowing that hee hath but a short time.

13 And when the dragon saw that hee was cast vnto the earth, hee persecuted the woman which had brought foorth the man childe.

14 But to the woman were giuen two wings of a great Eagle, that shee might flie into the wildernesse, into her place, where shee is nourished for a time, and times, and halfe a time, from the presence of the serpent.

15 And the serpent cast out of his mouth water after the woman like a flood, that he might cause her to bee caried away of the flood.

16 But the earth holpe the woman, and the earth opened her mouth, and swallowed vp the flood, which the dragon had cast out of his mouth.

17 Then the dragon was wroth with the woman, and went and made warre with the remnant of her seede, which keepe the commandements of God, and haue the testimonie of Iesus Christ.

18 And I stood on the sea sand.

CHAP. XIII.

1. 8 The beast deceiueth the reprobate. 2. 4. 11 And is confirmed by another beast. 17 The priuiledge of the beastes marke.

AND I saw a beast rise out of the Sea, hauing seauen heads, and ten hornes, and vpon his hornes were tenne crownes, and vpon his heads the name of blasphemie.

2 And the beast which I sawe, was like a leopard, and his feete like a beares, and his mouth as the mouth of a lion: and the dragon gaue him his power, & his throne, and great authoritie.

3 And I saw one of his heads as it were wounded to death, but his deadly wound was healed, and all the world wondered and followed the beast.

4 And they worshipped the dragon which gaue power vnto the beast, and they worshipped the beast, saying, Who is like vnto the beast? who is able to warre with him?

5 And there was giuen vnto him a mouth that spake great things and blasphemies, and power was giuen vnto him, to doe two and forty moneths.

6 And hee opened his mouth vnto blasphemie against God, to blaspheme his name and his tabernacle, and them that dwell in heauen.

7 And it was giuen to him to make warre with the Saints, and to ouercome them, and power was giuen him ouer euery kinred, and tongue, and nation.

8 Therefore all that dwell vpon the earth, shall worship him, whose names are not written in the booke of life of the Lambe, which was slaine from the beginning of the world.

9 If any man haue an eare, let him heare.

10 If any leade into captiuitie, he shall goe into captiuitie: if any kill with a sword, he must be killed by a sword: here is the patience, and the faith of the Saints.

11 And I beheld another beast comming vp out of the earth which had two hornes like the Lambe, but he spake like the dragon.

12 And hee did all that the first beast could doe before him, and hee caused the earth, and them which dwell therein, to worship the first beast, whose deadly wound was healed.

13 And he did great wonders, so that he made fire to come downe from heauen on the earth, in the sight of men,

14 And deceiued them that dwell on the earth by the signes, which were permitted to him to doe in the sight of the beast, saying to them that dwell on the earth, that they should make the image of the beast, which had the wound of a sword, and did liue.

15 And it was permitted to him to giue a spirit vnto the image of the beast, that the image of the beast should speake, and should cause that as many as would not worship the image of the beast, should bee killed.

d He that is not sealed with Antichrists marke, cannot be suffered to liue among men. e Such as may be vnderstood by mans reason: for about 666. yeeres after this reuelation, the Pope or Antichrist began to be manifest in the world: for these characters χξϛ signifie 666. and this number is gathered of the small number, Καταλογος, which in the whole make 666. and signifie Latinus, or Latin, which noteth the Pope or Antichrist, who vseth in all things the Latin tongue, and in respect thereof hee contemneth the Hebrewe and Greeke, wherein the word of God was first and best written: and because Italy in old time was called Latinum, the Italians are called Latini, so that hereby hee noteth of what country chiefly hee should come.

CHAP. XIIII.

1 The notable company of the Lambe. 6 One Angel announceth the Gospel. 8 Another the fall of Babylon. 9 And the third warneth to flee from the beast. 13 Of their blessednesse which die in the Lord. 18 Of the Lords harueste.

THen I looked, and lo, a Lambe stoode on mount Sion, and with him an hundreth fourtie and foure thousand, hauing his fathers a name written in their foreheads.

2 And I heard a voyce from heauen, as the sound of many waters, and as the sound of a great thunder: and I heard the voyce of harpers harping with their harpes.

3 And they sung as it were a new song before the throne and before the foure beasts, and the Elders, and no man could learne that song, but the hundreth fourtie and foure thousande, which were bought from the earth.

4 These are they which are not defiled with women, for they are virgins: these followe the Lambe: whith erloever he goeth: these are bought from men, being the first fruits vnto God, and to the Lambe.

5 And in their mouthes was found no guile: for they are without spot before the throne of God.

6 Then I saw another Angel flie in the middes of heauen, hauing an euerlasting Gospel, to preach vnto them that dwell on the earth, and to euery nation, and kinred, and tongue, and people,

7 Saying with a loud voyce, Feare God, and giue glory to him: for the houre of his iudgement is come: and worship him that made heauen and earth, and the sea, and the fountaines of waters.

8 And there followed another Angel, saying, It is fallen, it is fallen, Babylon the great citie: for shee made all nations to drinke of the wine of the wrath of her fornication.

9 Then the third Angel followed them, saying with a loud voyce, If any man worship the beast and his image, and receiue his marke in his forehead, or on his hand,

10 The same shall drinke of the wine of the wrath of God, yea, of the pure wine, which is powred into the cup of his wrath, and he shall bee tormented in fire and brimstone before the holy Angels, and before the Lambe.

11 And the smoke of their torment shall ascend euermore: and they shall haue no rest day nor night, which worship the beast and his image, & whosoeuer receiueth the print of his name.

12 Here is the patience of Saints: here are they that keepe the commandements of God, and the faith of Iesus.

13 Then I heard a voyce from heauen, saying vnto mee, Write, Blessed are the dead, which hereafter die in the Lorde. Euen so saith the Spirit: for they rest from their labours, and their works follow them.

14 Then I looked, and beheld, a white cloud, and vpon the cloud one sitting like vnto the Sonne of man, hauing on his head a golden crowne, and in his hand a sharpe sickle.

15 And another Angel came out of the Temple, crying with a loud voyce to him that sate on the cloud, Thrust in thy sickle, and reape: for the time is come to reape: for the harueste of the earth is ripe.

16 And he that sate on the cloud, thrust in his sicke on the earth, and the earth was reaped.

17 Then another Angel came out of the Temple which is in heauen, hauing also a sharpe sicke.

18 And another Angel came out from the aulear, which had power ouer fire, and cried with a loud crie to him that had the sharp sickle, and sayd, Thrust in thy sharpe sickle, and gather the clusters of the vineyard of the earth: for her grapes are ripe.

which had the marke of the beast, and vpon them which worshipped his image.

3 And the second Angel powred out his vial vpon the sea, and it became as the k blood of a l dead man: and euery liuing thing died in the sea.

4 And the third Angel powred out his vial vpon the riuers and fountaines of waters, and they became m blood.

5 And I heard the Angel of the n waters say, Lorde, thou art iust, o which art, and wast, and holy, because thou hast iudged these things.

6 For they shed the blood of the Saints, and Prophets, and therefore hast thou giuen them blood to drinke: for they are worthie.

7 And I heard another out of the Sanctuary say, Euen so, Lorde God almighty, p true and righteous are thy iudgements.

8 And the fourth Angel powred out his vial on the Sunne, and it was giuen vnto him to torment men with q heate of fire,

9 And men boyled in great heate, and r blasphemed the Name of God, which hath power ouer these plagues, and they repented not, to giue him glory.

10 And the fifth Angel powred out his vial vpon the throne of the s beast, and his kingdome waxed darke, and they t gnewe their tongues for sorow, 11 And blasphemed the God of heauen for their paines, and for their sores, and repented not of their works.

12 And the sixt Angel powred out his vial vpon the great riuer u Euphrates, and the water thereof dried vp, that the way of the Kings of the East should be prepared.

b Antichrist is compared to an harlot, because he seduceth the world with vaine wordes, doctrine of lies, and outward appearance.

c Meaning diuers nations and countreys.

d The beast signifieth the ancient Rome: the woman that sitteth thereon, the new Rome which is the Papistrie, whose cruelty and bloodshedding is declared by scarlet.

e Full of idolatrie, superstition and contempt of the true God.

f This woman is the Antichrist, that is, the Pope with the whole body of his filthy creatures, as is expounded, Verse 18. whose beautie onely standeth in outward pompe and impudencie, and craft like a strumpet. g Of false doctrines and blasphemies. h Which none can know to auoyd, but the elect.

8 The [i] beast that thou hast seene, was, and is not, and shall ascend out of the bottomelesse pit, and they that dwell on the earth, shall wonder (whose names are not written in the Booke of life from the foundation of the world) when they behold the beast that was, and is not, and yet is.

9 Here [k] is the minde that hath wisedome. The seuen heads are [l] seuen mountaines, whereon the woman sitteth: they are also [l] seuen kings.

10 Fiue are fallen, and one is, and another is not yet come: and when he commeth, he must continue a short space.

11 And the beast that was, and is not, is euen the [m] eight, and is one of the seuen, and shall goe into destruction.

12 And the ten hornes which thou sawest, are ten kings, which yet haue not receiued a kingdome, but shall receiue power, as Kings at one houre with the beast.

13 [n] These haue one minde, and shall giue their power and authoritie vnto the beast.

14 These shall fight with the Lambe, and the Lambe shall [o] ouercome them: [*] for he is Lord of lordes, and King of kings: and they that are on his side, called, and chosen, and faithfull.

15 And he sayd vnto mee, The waters which thou sawest, where the whore sitteth, are people, and multitudes, and nations, and tongues.

16 And the [p] tenne hornes which thou sawest vpon the beast, are they that shall hate the whore, and shall make her desolate and naked, and shall eate her flesh, and burne her with fire.

17 For God hath [q] put in their hearts to fulfill his will, and to doe with one consent, for to giue their kingdome vnto the beast, vntill the words of God be fulfilled.

18 And the woman which thou sawest, is the great citie, which reigneth ouer the kings of the earth.

i This is the Romane Empire, which being fallen to decay, the whore of Rome vsurped authoritie, and proceeded from the deuill, and thither shall returne.

k Which are about Rome.

l For after that the Empire was decayed in Nero, Galba, Otho, Vitellius, Vespasian and Titus died in lesse then fourteene yeeres, and reigned as Kings: Domitian then reigned, and after him Coceius Nerua which was the seuenth.

m He meaneth Traiane the Emperour, who was a Spaniard and adopted by Nerua, but because hee persecuted the faithfull, he goeth also to perdition.

n He signifieth the horrible persecutions which haue bene vnder the empire of Rome, and in all other realmes subiect to the same. o And breake them to shiuers as a potter pot. 1.Tim 6.15. chap.19.16. p Diuers nations, as the Gothes, Vandales, Hunnes, and other nations, which were once subiect to Rome, shall rise against it, and destroy it. q That in stead of doing homage to Christ Iesus, they should be cast into a reprobate sence to serue Antichrist, and to dedicate themselues and theirs wholly vnto him.

CHAP. XVIII.

3. 9 The lowers of the world are sory for the fall of the whore of Babylon. 4 An admonition to the people of God to flee out of her dominion, 20 but they that bee of God, haue cause to reioyce for her destruction.

AND after these things, I sawe another Angel come downe from heauen, hauing great power, so that the earth was lightened with his glory.

2 And he cried out mightily with a loud voyce, saying, [*] It is fallen, it is fallen, Babylon the great citie, and is become the habitation of [b] deuills, and the holde of all foule spirits, and a cage of euery vncleane and hatefull bird.

Isa.21.9.ierr.51.8.chap.14.8.

a This description of the ouerthrowe of the great whore, is like to that whereby the prophets vse to declare the destruction of Babylon. b He describeth Rome to be the sinke of all abomination and deuilishnesse, and a kind of hell.

e The greatest part of the world hath bene abused and seduced by this spirituall whoredome.

5 For ᵃ all nations haue dronken of the wine of the wrath of her fornication, and the kings of the earth haue committed fornication with her, & the marchants of the earth are waxed rich of the abundance of her pleasures.

4 ¶ And I heard another voice from heauen say, ᵃ Goe out of her, my people that ye be not partakers in her sinnes, and that yee receiue not of her plagues.

5 For her sinnes are ᵃ come vp vnto heauen, & God hath remembred her iniquities.

6 ᶠ Reward her euen as she hath rewarded you, and giue her doubls according to her workes: and in the cup that she hath filled to you, fill her the double.

7 Inasmuch as she glorified her selfe, and liued in pleasure, so much giue you to her torment and sorow: for she saith in her heart, ᵃ I sit being a Queene, and am no ᵇ widow, and shall see no mourning.

8 Therefore shall her plagues come at one day, death, and sorow, and famine, and she shall be burnt with fire: for strong is the Lord God which will condemne her.

9 And the kings of the earth shall bewaile her, and lament for her, which haue committed fornication, and liued in pleasure with her, when they shal see the smoke of her burning,

10 And shall stand a farre off for feare of her torment, saying, Alas, alas, the great citie Babylon, the mightie citie: for in one houre is thy iudgement come.

11 And the ᵃ merchants of the earth shall weepe and waile ouer her: for no man buyeth her ware any more.

12 The ware of gold & siluer, and of precious stone, and of pearles, and of fine linen, and of purple, & of silke, and of skarlet, and of all manner of thine ᵃ wood, and of all vessels of yuory, and of all vessels of most precious wood, and of braſſe, and of iron, and of marble,

13 And of cynamon, and odours, and ointments, and frankincense, and wine, and oile, and fine flour, and wheate, and beasts, and sheepe, and horses, and ᵗ charets, & seruants, and ᵐ soules of men.

14 (And the apples that thy soule lusted after, are departed from thee, and all things which were fat and excellent, are departed from thee, and thou shalt find them no more)

15 The merchants of these things which were waxed rich, shall stand afarre off from her, for feare of her torment, weeping and wailing,

16 And saying, Alas, alas, the great citie, that was clothed in fine linnen, and purple, and skarlet, and gilded with golde, and precious stone, and pearles.

17 For in one houre so great riches are come to desolation. And euery shipmaster, and all the people that occupie ships, and shipmen, and whosoeuer traualle on the sea, shall stand afarre off, 18 And crie, when they see the smoke of her burning, saying, ¶ What citie was like vnto this great citie?

19 And they shal cast ᵃ dust on their heads, and crie weeping & wailing, and say, Alas, alas, the great citie, wherein were made rich all that had ships on the sea by her costlines: for in one houre she is made desolate.

20 ᴰ Reioyce ouer her, thou heauen, and yee holy Apostles and Prophets: for God hath ᵖ giuen your iudgement on her.

21 Then a mightie Angel taake vp a stone, like a great millestone, and ᵃ cast it into the sea, saying, Euen with such violence shall the great citie Babylon be cast, & shall be found no more.

22 And the voyce of harpers, and musicians, and of pipers, and trumpetters shall be heard no more in thee, and no craftes man, of whatsoeuer craft he be, shall be found any more in thee: and the sound of a millestone shall be heard no more in thee.

23 And the light of a candle shall shine no more in thee: & the voyce of the bridegroome and of the bride shall be heard no more in thee: for thy ᵃ merchants were the great men of the earth: and with thine inchantments were deceiued all nations.

24 And in her was found the blood of the Prophets, and of the Saints, and of all that were slaine vpon the earth.

CHAP. XIX.

1 Praises are giuen vnto God for iudging the whore, and for auenging the blood of his seruants. 10 The Angel will not be worshipped. 17 The foules and birds are called to the slaughter.

AND after these things I heard a great voyce of a great multitude in heauen, saying, ᵃ Halleluiah, saluation, and glory, and honour, and power be to the Lord our God.

2 For true and righteous are his iudgements: for her hath condemned the great whore which did corrupt the earth with her fornication, and hath auenged the blood of his seruants, shed by her hand.

3 And againe they said, Halleluiah: and her ᵃ smoke rose vp for euermore.

4 And the foure and twenty Elders, and the foure ᵃ beasts fell downe, and worshipped God that sate on the throne, saying, ᵃ Amen, Halleluiah.

5 Then a voyce came out of the throne, saying, Prayse our God, all ye his seruants, and ye that feare him, both small and great.

6 And I heard like a voyce of a great multitude, and as the voice of many waters, and as the voice of strong thundrings, saying, Halleluiah: for our Lord God almighty hath reigned.

7 Let vs be glad and reioyce, and giue glory to him: for the ᵗ mariage of the Lambe is come, and his wife hath made her selfe ready.

8 And to her was granted, that she should be arayed with pure fine linnen, and shining: for the fine linnen is the righteousnesse of Saints.

a Satan being bound for a certaine time, & shut vp in the bottomlesse pit, the Church groweth. 7. b And after the world is iudged, he shall be cast into the lake of fire.

A Nd I saw an a Angel come downe from heauen, hauing the b key of the bottomlesse pit, and a great chaine in his hand.

2 And he tooke the dragon that old serpent, which is the deuill and Satan, and he bound him a c thousand yeeres,

NEw I sawe a new heauen, and a newe earth: for the first heauen, and the first earth were passed away, and there was no more sea.

2 And I Iohn sawe the holy citie newe Ierusalem come downe from God out of heauen, prepared as a bride trimmed for her husband.

3 And I heard a great voice out of heauen, saying, Behold the Tabernacle of God is with men, and he will dwell with them: and they shall be his people, and God himselfe shalbe their God with them.

4 And God shal wipe away all teares from their eies: and there shall be no more death, neither sorow, neither crying, neither shall there bee any more paine: for the first things are passed.

5 And he that sate vpon the throne, sayd, Behold, I make all things new: and he sayd vnto mee, Write: for these wordes are faithfull and true.

6 And he sayd vnto me, It is done, I am Alpha and Omega, the beginning and the ende. I will giue vnto him that is athirst, of the fwell of the water of life freely.

7 Hee that ouercommeth, shall inherite all things, and I will be his God, and hee shall be my sonne.

8 But the fearefull, and vnbeleeuing, and the abominable, and murtherers, and whoremongers, and sorcerers, and idolaters, and all lyars shal haue their part in the lake, which burneth with fire & brimstone, which is the second death.

9 And there came vnto me one of the seuen Angels, which had the seuen vials full of the seuen last plagues, and talked with me, saying, Come: I will shewe thee the bride, the Lambes wife.

10 And he caried mee away in the spirit to a great and an hie mountaine, and shewed me the great citie, holy Ierusalem, descending out of heauen from God, 11 Hauing the glory of God: and her shining was like vnto a stone most precious, as a Iasper stone, cleere as Chrystall.

12 And had a great wall and hie, and had twelue gates, and at the gates twelue Angels, and the names written, which are the twelue tribes of the children of Israel.

13 On the East part there were three gates, and on the Northside three gates, on the Southside three gates, and on the Westside three gates.

14 And the wall of the citie had twelue foundations, and in them the names of the Lambes twelue Apostles.

15 And he that talked with me had a golden reed to measure the citie withal, and the gates thereof, and the wall thereof.

16 And the city lay foure square, and the length is as large as the breadth of it, and he measured the citie with the reede, twelue thousand furlongs: and the length, and the breadth, and the height of it are equall.

17 And he measured the wall thereof, an hundreth, fourtie and foure cubites, by the measure of man, that is, of the Angel.

18 And the building of the wall of it was of Iasper: and the city was pure golde like vnto cleare glasse.

19 And the foundations of the wall of the citie were garnished with all maner of precious stones, the first foundation was Iasper: the second of Saphir: the third of a Chalcedonie: the fourth of an Emeraude:

20 The fift of a Sardonix: the sixt of a Sardius: the seuenth of a Chrysolite: the eight of a Beryl: the ninth of a Topaze: the tenth of a Chrysoprasus: the eleuenth of a Iacinct: the twelfth an Amethyst.

21 And the twelue gates were twelue pearles, and euery gate is of one pearle, and the street of the citie is pure golde, as shining glasse.

22 And I sawe no Temple therein: for the Lorde God Almighty and the Lambe are the Temple of it.

23 And the citie had no need of the Sunne, neither of the moone to shine in it: for the glory of God did light it: and the Lambe is the light of it.

24 And the people which are saued, shal walke in the light of it: and the kings of the earth shall bring their glory and honour vnto it.

25 And the gates of it shall not be shut by day: for there shall be no night there.

26 And the glory and honour of the Gentiles shalbe brought vnto it.

27 And there shall enter into it none vncleane thing, neither whatsoeuer worketh abomination or lies: but they which are written in the Lambes Booke of life.

a He alludeth to the visible paradise, to set forth more lively the spirituall, and this agreeth with that which is written, Ezek. 47. 1.

b Meaning that Christ who is the life of his church is common to all his, & not peculiar for any one sort of people.

c For there are all things pleasant and full of all contentation continually.

d Which sometime were vnpure as Gentiles, but now are purged and made whole by Christ. Isa. 60. 19. 20.

e The light shall be vnchangeable, and shine for euer.

Chap. 19. 10.

f Now this is the second time that he suffered himselfe to be caried away with the excellencie of the person which is to admonish vs of our infirmitie and to diffide to fall, except God strengthen vs miraculously with his spirit.

g This is not vnlike as the other prophets which were admonished to behold all the visions appertaining to Daniel 12. 4. because that those things should be quickly accomplished, and did now beginne.

And he shewed me a pure riuer of water of life, cleare as christall, proceeding out of the throne of GOD, and of the Lambe.

2 In the middes of the street of it, and of either side of the riuer, was the tree of life, which bare twelue maner of fruites, and gaue fruite euery a moneth: and the leaues of the tree serued to heale the nations withall.

3 And there shalbe no more curse, but the throne of God and of the Lambe shall bee in it, and his seruants shall serue him,

4 And they shall see his face, and his name shall be in their foreheads.

5 b And there shalbe no night there, and they needs no candle, neither light of the sunne: for the Lord God giueth them light, and they shall reigne for euermore.

6 And he said vnto me, these wordes are faithfull and true: and the Lord God of the holy Prophets sent his Angel to shewe vnto his seruaunts the things which must shortly be fulfilled.

7 Behold, I come shortly. Blessed is he that keepeth the wordes of the prophesie of this booke.

8 And I am John, which saw and heard these things: and when I had heard and seene, c I fell downe to worship before the feete of the Angel, which shewed me these things.

9 But hee said vnto me, See thou doe it not: for I am thy fellow seruant, and of thy brethren the Prophets, and of them which keepe the wordes of this booke: worship God.

10 Also he saith vnto me, Seale not the wordes of the prophesie of this booke: for the time is at hand.

11 He that is vniust, let him be vniust still: and he which is filthie, let him be filthie still: and he which is righteous, let him be righteous still: and he that is holy, let him be holy still.

12 And behold, I come shortly, and my reward is with me, d to giue euery man according as his worke shall be.

13 I am Alpha and Omega, the beginning and the end, the first and the last.

14 Blessed are they that do his commandements, that their right may be in the tree of life, and may enter in through the gates into the citie.

15 For without shall bee dogges and enchanters, and whoremongers, and murtherers, and idolaters, and whosoeuer loueth & maketh lies.

16 I Iesus haue sent mine Angel, to testifie vnto you these things in the Churches: I am the roote and the e generation of Dauid, and the bright morning f starre.

17 And the Spirite and the Bride say, Come. And let him that heareth, say, Come: And let him that is a thirst, come: and g let whosoeuer will take of the water of life freely.

18 For I protest vnto euery man that heareth the wordes of the prophesie of this booke, If any man shall adde vnto these things, God shal adde vnto him the plagues that are written in this booke.

19 And if any man shall diminish of the wordes of the booke of this prophesie, God shall take away his part out of the booke of life, and out of the holy City, and from those things which are written in this booke.

20 He which testifieth these things, saith, h Surely, I come quickly. Amen. Euen so come, Lord Iesus.

21 The grace of our Lord Iesus Christ be with you all. Amen.

Rom. 2. 6. Isa. 40. 10. & 62. 11. chap. 1. 8 & 21. 6.

h They shall liue eternally with the Sonne of God.

i That maintaine false doctrine, & delight therein.

k Thir is a true and naturall man, and yet God equall with my Father.

l For Christ is the light that giueth light to euery one that commeth into this world.

m Let them be afraid of Gods horrible iudgements, and as soone as they heare the Lambe call, let them come: while that feeleth himselfe oppressed with afflictions and desireth the heauenly graces and comfort. Isa 55. 1.

¶THE PREFACE TO THE Christian Reader, touching the two Alphabets ensewing.

GOOD Christian Reader, because thou mayest enioy and reape the profite of these two Alphabets of directions vnto Common places hereafter following, which I haue in maner of a briefe Concordance, or large & ample Index, collected, digested, and caused to be imprinted for thy cõmoditie: I thought it not amisse to aduertise thee somewhat touching the principall contents, vse, and commoditie of them. Wherefore be it knowen vnto thee, that in the first of the said Alphabets, I haue together placed by themselues in a maner, all the strange names and wordes which are scatteringly to bee found here and there throughout the whole Bible, remayning written in the Hebrewe, Chaldean, Syrian, Greeke, or Latine languages: to the ende thou mayst by that meanes, learne to be conduced vnto so much of the interpretation, Historie, Common places, and knowledge of them, and euery of them, as I trust thou shalt thinke needefull. And for that in diuers translations these strange names & words are written diuersly, I haue, in respect thereof, only in this Alphabet, followed the Geneua translation, as most allowed in that behalfe, and yet haue placed in the Margent thereof how in writing, other Translations differ from the same: to the end not only such corruptions as are found for want of ỹ true Orthographie of them, may appeare vnto those that are skilful in those languages, to be amended, when time shall minister occasion (as some of them are already) but also the vnskilful Readers be not defrauded of such commodity, as might grow vnto them thereby, especially if they should haue occasion to looke for any word in the same Alphabet, after the same maner of writing, that they had seene or read it in other Copies, and not finde the same accordingly. Secondly, in the other of the said Alphabets, I haue likewise by themselues placed all, and as many proper and vsual English words, as are conteined in the same Bible, conducing to the finding out of the most fittest sentences, and best common places, tending to the prouing or verifying of any article and doctrine, concerning our Christian faith & religion, or belonging to any other godly or necessary instruction: so as if thou wouldest vnderstand what is to be learned in the Scriptures touching God or his power, his wisdome, or his loue, his mercie, or his trueth, his iustice, his promises, his plagues, or his punishments, &c. either else cõcerning Christ, or the holy Ghost, Angel, or Man, Nature, or Law, Sinne, or Grace, Faith, or Vnbeliefe, Predestination, or Reprobation, Iustification, Regeneration, Church or Sacraments, &c. or to be briefe, if thou wouldest vnderstand what is necessarily to bee learned in the same Scriptures, touching the estate, authoritie, office or duetie of Kings or Princes, Iudges or Magistrates, Bishops & Pastors, Elders or Ministers, Fathers and Mothers, Masters and Mistresses, Subiects, and Parishioners, Husbands & Wiues, Children and seruants, and how euery one, of what degree, estate, condition, or profession soeuer, he, she, or they be of, ought to behaue themselues towards God, and one towards another, and what is to be spoken and not spoken, and what is to be done and left vndone of them or any of them, by the rule of Gods word: thou art not voyd of competent knowledge or directions in this Alphabet to ayde thee. Thirdly, to further thee to finde out in these two Alphabets, any thing whereof I haue before made mention, thou art to resort Alphabetically vnto the first of them, with the name of any Man, Woman, Countrey, Citie, Place, Riuer, Idole, &c. in the same conteined: and also vnto the second of them, with the chiefe word of any sentence or cõmon place therein mentioned, which thou art most affected vnto, or desirest to be satisfied of: and by that meanes in euery of them ſhalt thou by Gods grace, without faile be conduced, and to thy great eaſe directed, and as it were, ledde by the hand, euen to the Booke, Chapter and Verſe, where the ſame, (or ſo much thereof, as for a godly, Chriſtian, and neceſſary knowledge ſhall bee thought requiſite) is to bee found out moſt readily: alwayes remembring, that whatſoeuer conuenient knowledge wanteth in theſe Alphabets, as touching the text whereunto it directeth thee, is there ſupplied by the Annotations, or quotations in the Margent. Moreouer, good Chriſtian Reader, thou haſt alſo to obſerue how that the firſt Figure, or Figures, which followe next after any Booke whereunto thou ſhalt bee guided, ſignifieth or ſignifie the Chapter, and the other the verſe or verſes of the ſame Chapter, where any of the foreſaid things is to be ſought for. Againe, whereas thou ſhalt after a Chapter, and otherwhiles after ſome verſe or verſes of a Chapter, finde this marke or Starre * quoted, thou art to vnderſtand, how that the whole Chapter, or from the verſe of that Chapter where the ſame Starre is placed forward vnto the ende thereof, entreateth, or in ſome good reſpects chiefly belongeth, and may be applyed to the ſame Hiſtorie, matter, or common place thou ſeekeſt for, except there be any verſes following the ſame *, for then the common place is to be vnderſtoode, not to exceede thoſe verſes. Finally, whereas I haue ſometimes in theſe Alphabets partly ſet downe the ſenſe, & that which may properly be gathered of the text, which thou art directed vnto, & not the very words themſelues, and otherwhiles repeated one thing in diuers places, but yet to diuers ends: I truſt that wil not offend thee, ſith I haue ſo done for the vnlearneds ſake, becauſe the ſame could not, ne can be made too plaine for them, and therefore haue vſed not ſo great a curioſitie and abbreuiation in that behalfe, as perhaps ſome others would haue had me: & yet conſidering to what a great quantity theſe two Alphabets are growen vnto, (ouer that I thought they would) I haue bene forced to leaue out ſomewhat, that otherwiſe I would haue added vnto them, which hereafter by Gods grace I will ſupply: thus much touching the principal contents, commodity, & vſe of the aforeſaid Alphabets, which with ſuch other doubts as may trouble thee, I miſtruſt not, but by well peruſing of the ſame, and practiſe (with the diuerſitie of letter, which is vſed in them) will ſoone appeare very eaſie, plaine, and apparant vnto thee, albeit I particularly touch not euery of them. Now therfore to conclude, if my ſimple trauaile and paines taken herein ſhalbe wel accepted of thee, I meane, of the more skilful and learned Readers to be poliſhed and amended of them (if they ſhall ſo deeme neceſſary and conuenient) to the better edification of the Church of God, whereof they are or ought to be ioynt members, helpers, and furtherers, ſo farre forth as their Talents wil ſtretch vnto, and that in the ſpirit of meekeneſſe, ſobrietie, and charitie: and of the leſſe learned or vnlearned Reader (vnto whom I confeſſe my ſelfe the greateſt debtour) as an aid and helpe to their godly ſtudies, and honeſt trade of life, and withal Chriſtianly to be conſtrued of al men, as a meanes and furtherance, and not an hinderance vnto any, I ſhall for my part thinke my ſelfe well requited, and more then ſufficiently rewarded, in that I ſhall enioy my deſire, and that which I longed for, And ſo beſeeching Almightie God to giue vs his grace to be ſtudious of vnitie, and bringing forth ſuch fruites, as may declare our vndoubted election in Chriſt Ieſus, I take my leaue of thee, this xxij of December.

Anno Domini.
